EXPANDED BIBLICAL COMMENTS

OLD TESTAMENT

Genesis

General

- Genesis signifies creation, beginning, the act, process or mode of producing or originating. The Bible points out Jehovah God as the great first cause of all things. R2834:2 Every step of creation has tended to display the divine character more and more and each successive step and development of creation has brought forth new creatures capable of comprehending the Eternal One. SM483 The study of creation is the key of knowledge. Using this key we begin to realize that the only worthy ambition is to cooperate with our Creator's beneficent designs respecting his creation. PD1/7
- Genesis does not tell of the creation of the material of the earth; not the creation of matter but the bringing of order out of the matter. Q41:5, Q633:1; PD2/8 It discusses merely the things pertaining to this world-their beginnings-leaving out of the account entirely the other worlds of the universe. R3920:3,6, R5139:2; F17,18 The history of creation given in Genesis does not conflict with geology: the conflict between the champions of Genesis and geology has been mainly in the length of time consumed. R299:2*, R5130:1, R1608:2-6, R1609:1,4*; F20, F23; OV9 The Abydos tablet fully agrees with Genesis. PD21/30
- Mark teachings attempting to harmonize the Bible with Evolution as contrary to the ransom. If Evolution is true the Bible is false, and vice versa. There can be no middle ground. R1610:4; F39-41 To us it means infidelity-a total denial of the divine Word and plan of God. R2835:4
- It is doubtless true that Moses wrote a large share of the Pentateuch-but we are nowhere told by any Bible writer that he wrote all of them. R691:2; R3935:6 That they were written by Moses, or under his supervision, is a reasonable inference. A43 Jesus said, "Moses wrote of me." Q633:3 The natural inference is that it consists of different revelations made at different times prior to Moses; and that he embodied them in a connected narrative. This in no degree detracts from the divine authority of the book. R1623:1 It is not strange that the story of creation and the flood are found in the land of the Chaldeans at a date prior to Moses' writings. The Scriptures make no claim that Moses was present at creation or a witness of other incidents in Genesis. Moses was merely the recorder who was used as God's amanuensis. R3935:6
- While the Bible claims no divine inspiration in respect to the history of affairs from creation to Moses, a divine supervision of that history is unquestionably implied. OV9; A44, A53 The claim of this book to be regarded as a part of divine revelation is established beyond question by the authority of Christ and his apostles. R1622:3 No part of subsequent revelation could be understood without a familiar acquaintance with this book. R1616:5*

Genesis 1:1 In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

In the beginning

- Not of the universe, but of our planet. F17
- In the beginning of the first day of the creative week. F18
- The Bible is the only book in the world which in a logical and rational manner sets forth the order of creation in respect to earth. OV8
- Refers to the work accomplished by divine power in bringing the waste and lifeless earth into condition for man's use. R5139:2
- The purpose which God had has never changed. R5057:6

God created

- A distinction is made between the creation of the heaven and the earth, and the subsequent regulation, or ordering, of these. F18

And the earth

- The most advanced of all the worlds yet created. R3920:6

Genesis 1:2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

And the earth was

- It already existed before the six days began. R5139:3, R4386:3; F18, F23
- We are not told when God began to make the earth. Q633:1; PD2/8
- The account of the days of creation given in Genesis relates not to the construction of our globe, but to the ordering of it for human habitation. PD2/8
- The Vailian theory harmonizes with the Bible. It assumes that Saturn's rings and Jupiter's belts illustrate earth's development as a planet. PD2/8; F23

Without form and void

- Shapeless, empty. PD2/8; R4386:3
- Waste and void (Revised Version). R5139:5
- There were neither mountains nor valleys, trees nor shrubs, rivers nor oceans. PD2/8

And darkness

- There was no light in the earth prior to the time when divine energy brooded on the surface of the waters; because of an impenetrable fog and an upper canopy of water and minerals. R5140:1

And the spirit

- The power or energy. E175

Moved upon

- Fecundated, rendered fruitful or prolific. E175
- This manifestation of God's spirit is easier to understand than its transforming power. E183
- The brooding of holy (divine) energy developed a light, probably resembling the Aurora Borealis. PD2/8; R5140:1

Genesis 1:3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

And there was light

- Possibly electrical, as Aurora Borealis. F30; R5140:1
- Thus are briefly summed up the results of 7000 years, styled the- first day. PD2/8
- The first day of 7000 years, under the divine energy, gradually increased the electrical light and prepared for the next epoch. R5140:1

Genesis 1:5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

Called the light day

- Days, marked by a dull, grayish light, became more distinct. Possibly enough sunlight penetrated to the earth to distinguish day from night. F34

And the evening

- The obscure beginning. F31

And the morning

- The perfect completion. F31
- As with the Hebrew solar days, so with these epoch days, the evening came first. F31

Were the first day

- The Azoic or lifeless age of 7000 years. F31
- The word "day" may be applied to any period or epoch. F19; R5139:3; PD3/8
- Not a sun day, for the sun itself was not visible until the fourth creative day. PD3/8; F19; Q758:2
- Each of these ages of creation was a period of 7000 years; the whole period of creation up to the time of man was six periods, or 42,000 years. Q633:1; R5768:2

Genesis 1:6 And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

Be a firmament

- An expanse of atmosphere. F31 Circumambient air. PD3/8
- Doubtless the light had to do in a natural way with bringing about this secondary feature of the earth's preparation. R5140:1

In the midst

- Between the. F31

Genesis 1:7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

Made the firmament

- The atmosphere, composed of gasses given off after the fall of the first canopy. F31

Divided the waters

- The strongly mineralized waters above the earth, held off by the firmament and centrifugal force, greatest at the equator, concentrated them at the two poles. PD3/8

And it was so

- God accomplishes great and wonderful operations by reasonable methods, called the "course of nature." PD4/9

Genesis 1:8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

Were the second day

- The Paleozoic age, Silurian period, 7000 years. F31; PD3/8

Genesis 1:9 And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

The dry land appear

- The weight of the seas caused the earth to buckle as it cooled, gradually forcing portions of its crust above water. F32; PD4/9

- Under divine direction earthquakes took place and mountain ranges were thrown up. R5140:1
- Similar paroxysms of nature will probably occur soon, for we are in another transition period-the opening of the Millennial age, for which changed conditions are requisite. F32
- Probably the American continent was thrown up much later than were Europe, Asia and Africa. PD4/9

11

Genesis 1:11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

Bring forth grass

- Vegetation began on the third day, though it did not reach its perfection until after the light of the sun penetrated. PD4/9

12

Genesis 1:12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

Grass and herb

- Carbonic and nitrogenous gasses caused extraordinary plant growth during the third creative day, storing carbon for coal deposits and purifying the atmosphere for later animal life. F33

Seed after his kind

- Reproducing its own kind only. F32

13

Genesis 1:13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

Were the third day

- The Carboniferous era of 7000 years. F33; PD4/9

Genesis 1:14 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

Let there be lights

- The appearance of the sun and moon implies that another ring broke at that time. PD5/10
- We are not to assume that the sun and moon shone on the earth as now; but they were discernible. PD5/10

Genesis 1:16 And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

And God made

- Literally, "caused to shine," not "created." F33; PD5/10

Two great lights

- The sun, moon and stars were created long before, but had never before cast their light upon the earth because of the impenetrable veil. PD5/10
- Symbolically, the moon represents the Law covenant rule, and the sun the New covenant rule. PD5/10

The greater light

- Said by Pope Gregory VII to represent the pope. B308

To rule the day

- To indicate the time of day. F34

- Said by Pope Gregory VII to represent spiritual things. B308

The lesser light

- Said by Pope Gregory VII to represent civil power. B308

To rule the night

- Said by Pope Gregory VII to represent temporal affairs. B308

19

Genesis 1:19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

Were the fourth day

- The Triassic period of 7000 years. F34
- Volume One editions up to 1911 state "Devonian."

20

Genesis 1:20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

Waters bring forth

- This is in harmony with scientific findings that the beginning of life came from the waters. PD6/11
- This implies a gradual process of nature. CR119
- The Bible does not assert that God created separately and individually the myriad kinds of fish and reptiles, but merely that divine influence, or spirit, brooded, and by divine purpose the sea brought forth. F35
- A measure of evolution is suggested. R5140:4

Abundantly

- The untellable trillions of shellfish which absorbed the excess of hydrocarbons. F35, F37

The moving creature

- The protoplasm of the Paleozoic slime may have come into existence through chemical action of the highly mineralized waters. F35
- The creeping creature. E324

That hath life

- Nephesh , soul, sentient being. R5325:6; E324
- Hebrew, "a living soul." The life principle is no different in mankind from what it is in all other creatures whose breath is taken in through the nostrils, as distinguishing them from the fish. HG331:2

21

Genesis 1:21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

Living creature

- Nephesh , soul, sentient being, as of man. E324, E334

After their kind

- Apparently the various orders of creation were brought to a state of development and fixity of species not to be thereafter altered. F36; PD6/11

23

Genesis 1:23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

Were the fifth day

- The Reptilian age of 7000 years. F36

24

Genesis 1:24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

Let the earth bring forth

- A remarkable form of expression leaving ample room for the theory of spontaneous generation which is yet one of the mooted questions in biology. F54*

Living creature

- Nephesh , soul, sentient being. E324, E334

Cattle

- Domestic animals as distinguished from others. F36

26

Genesis 1:26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

Let us

- The plural form calls our attention to the fact that "The Word was in the beginning with God." (John 1:2) R1609:3

In our image

- With similar mental powers of reason, memory, judgment and will; and moral qualities of justice, benevolence and love. A174; F722; PD7/13
- God's law was written in Adam's heart. R5286:3
- He was perfect morally and mentally. CR140, CR326; R4965:1, R5284:1
- God was manifested in the flesh of Adam. Q452:2; R5286:3
- Not in the sense that man is of the divine nature. Q503:2
- Not with a mere first glimmer of moral sense as claimed by Evolutionists. R2835:3
- The object of making man an earthly image of his Creator was that he might be a suitable ruler of earth. R2836:4
- So that man might enjoy the Creator and the fruits of his righteousness to all eternity. R5210:6
- Sin has made us to differ from the original image of God. R5290:6, R5124:5, R5284:1

After our likeness

- King of earth, as God is of the universe. A174; F39
- God being love, Adam was implanted with the quality of love. R5757:2
- Adam and Eve were created in the divine likeness. R5154:6 With no bias, no tendency toward sin, no imperfection of judgment. CR500
- Evolution denies that Adam was fit for a trial; ever had one; or failed and fell from grace; therefore he needed no redemption. R4792:2

And let them

- Not Adam alone, but all men together. A245

Have dominion

- Not over each other, but as stated. A246
- The Bible shows man as earth's Lord and ruler with divine authority over the beasts of the field, the fowls of the air and the fish of the sea. OV8; SM154
- None of the angels was ever set over anything. R5290:3

27

Genesis 1:27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

So God created man

- Not merely man's body; but man, an intelligent being. R5611:1
- It does not say, "the earth brought forth man," or, "the waters brought forth man." F39; R5140:5
- In no sense implying evolution of man. R5140:3

In his own image

- An earthly image of himself. A171; OV376; PD7/13; R5290:3
- Like God in that man, too, had a dominion. R5290:6
- A free moral agent. OV15; R5082:4
- The lowest form of man has twice the physical brain capacity of the highest ape. R3921:4
- In us the image is blurred, indistinct. R5082:4; SM428
- With reasoning faculties and the sense of justice, right and wrong. HG508:6; F39

In the image of God

- Man was created perfect, upright, in the divine image. OV8, OV145; R4611:3
- If Adam were imperfect, this language is vain. F40
- Would a man take pleasure in sending out a blurred and defaced painting and widely announce it as an image of himself, or would he delight in owning and blessing a simple or idiotic son? R1266:3

Created he them

- The glory and honor not being in its full sense represented by one of the sexes, but by them both unitedly. R2836:4

28

Genesis 1:28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

God blessed them

- With everlasting life at their command if they continued in harmony with God. R4963:3
- Earthly dominion was for both man and woman. R1552:2
- The divine blessing is given only to that which is perfect. R3922:4

Said unto them

- The necessity for written language, we believe, lies in the fact that Adam's race has fallen from the original, perfect state. R1717:3

Be fruitful

- For 6000 years the divine command has been in process of fulfillment. OV137
- The sex division was merely for the propagation of the race and not permanent. OV383
- Propagation of the race was not in any sense a transgression or the transgression of our first parents. R2836:5
- God gave this instruction before man transgressed; thus it would be no transgression to bring forth children. HG733:2
- These words were addressed to the natural man, not to the Church. R3922:5

Replenish the earth

- Fill the earth. OV137; D648; R2344:6, R2836:5
- When the earth has been filled, procreative powers will be eliminated and the race will be composed of perfect units, as Adam was before Eve was created. R2836:5
- God's ultimate purpose did not contemplate filling the earth with a dead race. R1516:1*

And subdue it

- Develop it. SM414
- The garden of Eden only had been subdued. CR425
- Had our first parents not sinned they would have been able to complete the subjugation of the earth without losing their Edenic home. CR429; R3922:5

- The subduing of the earth has been accomplished by convict labor-all mankind. CR66

And have dominion

- Like God. PD7/13; R5290:6
- Adam and the Logos were the only ones who were in any sense over anything. R5290:6
- Illustrated by Nebuchadnezzar's dream of a tree. (Dan. 4) B93
- See similar language of the passage in which Nebuchadnezzar was made representative head of human dominion. (Dan. 2:37,38) B96; HG49:1

Every living thing

- No intimation that the animals were wild, vicious, at enmity with man. R5574:3

29

Genesis 1:29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

Shall be for meat

- Presumably animal food, now eaten with the Lord's sanction and necessary because of human weakness, will not be eaten in the coming age. R2836:6
- It was not until after the flood that the Lord sanctioned the eating of animal food. (Gen. 9:1-4) R2836:6

Genesis 1:30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

There is life

- Nephesh, soul, sentient being, as of man. E325; HG331:2

31

Genesis 1:31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

That he had made

- Adam was "the son of God." R1609:6
- Not merely commenced to make, but completed. A174

It was very good

- Adam was physically, mentally and morally perfect, satisfactory to God. A174; E406; CR427; HG578:3, HG131:2
- Contrary to Evolutionists. R5154:3
- Crowning masterpiece of mundane creation. R5140:3
- No specimen of remote antiquity yet discovered is inferior to the lowest of existing men, showing conclusively that there has been a fall. R3921:4
- The garden of Eden was brought to full perfection; the rest of the earth was in the condition in which God intended it to be. Q232:1
- The physical earth is a good storehouse of blessings, a good place for the exercise of man's powers, for his discipline and development and for his everlasting home and dominion. R1609:3

Were the sixth day

- It was toward the close of the sixth day that God created man. PD7/13
- Each of these ages of creation was a period of 7000 years, the whole period up to the time of man was six periods, or 42,000 years. Q633:1; R5768:2

- During the last thousand years of the seventh day earth will be restored to paradise condition and man to God's image. R5139:3

He rested

- At the beginning of the great seventh day God rested from his work of creating; this has continued ever since. PD8/15; Q759:2; R1731:5, R5768:2
- To give the Son the honor of finishing the work. F47
- This great rest day of Jehovah has been man's work week, each day 1000 years long. R5768:3

Genesis 2:3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

And sanctified it

- Throughout God's plan six periods of equal length were to be followed by a seventh period of special blessing, as illustrated in the seventh day, or rest day; the seventh year, or rest year; and the seventh thousand-year day, or Day of Restitution. (See note on Ex. 16:23) R1609:6

He had rested

- God rested from creating. He did not actively employ his power to overthrow sin and uplift mankind, but left it in the hands of the Redeemer, Jesus. PD8/15
- Meanwhile he permitted sin and evil to flourish. R4058:5

Genesis 2:4 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

Dust of the ground

- Producing an earthly creature, as the same energy operating on spirit substances produced angels. E105
- What God formed out of the dust of the earth was not man, but merely a form, or body, that would be made into man. R5611:1

Exodus

General

- Excavations made in Egypt show that it was about this time when the government of Egypt was revolutionized. In Joseph's time, and for quite awhile before, it had been governed by what were known as the Hyksos, or shepherd kings-supposed to have been invaders and not of pure Egyptian stock. The revolution brought in a change of dynasty, supposed to have been commenced with Rameses I. It is quite generally claimed amongst scholars that Rameses II was the Pharaoh who specially harried the Israelites in the endeavor to prevent their increase in numbers and influence, and his son Menephtah I is supposed to have been the Pharaoh reigning at the time of the exodus of the Israelites. Rameses II is credited with having been the most wonderful builder of great edifices of his time. It is doubtless in connection with these that the Israelites were so rigorously treated. R3982:3
- The book of Exodus takes up and continues history from the point where it is left in Genesis, with an express reference to what had been related in that book. R1623:2 Israel's history began with the death of Jacob. SM401 From the time Jacob entered Egypt until the time of the exodus was 215 years. R3982:3 A memorial of the first rank with the Israelites is the Passover. It celebrates one of the most momentous chapters in their history; it is associated with their national birth. OV93
- As preceding lessons showed us how God prepared a place for his people in Egypt and transported them thither and planted them in the best of the land and gave them great temporal prosperity during the lifetime of the first generation, we now come to view them under another course of instruction-this time in the school of adversity. R1650:3 Our God is abundantly able to make all of life's experiences work to our advantage and his word is sure to fulfillment in its due time. Had Rameses adopted a different policy in dealing with Israel they might have forgotten the promise of God which indicated the exact time in which their deliverance from Egypt would come. R2901:4, R3983:4 Israel's experiences of tribulation and bondage in Egypt were probably necessary to prepare them for God's great proposition-that they should keep the Law and as a reward have life everlasting. SM209 When God called Israel as a nation out of Egypt it was under the provision that he would make a covenant with them through Moses. SM69

- This chapter in the history of God's ancient people is an illustration of the power and wisdom and love of God. And it is a warning to beware of undertaking to contend with the Almighty. No matter how weak or insignificant or poor or despised among men may be the subjects of his care, the hand that is lifted against them defies the power of Jehovah and shall surely come to grief. The deliverance of typical Israel from Egypt illustrates the deliverance from sin and its bondage of all who desire to be God's servants and to have the promised blessing as it shall be fulfilled in the utter destruction of all the systems born of sin and selfishness which would hinder human prosperity and advancement toward God. R1657:2
- The New Creation has a still deeper interest in those matters which occurred in Egypt, in view of the fact that the Lord has revealed to them the "mystery" that those things which happened unto natural Israel were intended to typify and foreshadow still grander things in the divine plan respecting spiritual Israel. F457
- The order of events in the exodus types is significant; they are fulfilled in the same order by the "Prophet like unto Moses" in the antitype. (Summary of events and fulfillments.) R1321-R1324*
- Skeptics' arguments re the exodus refuted. R2900:3, R2919:2, R3983:2, R3996:4

Exodus 1:7 And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

Were fruitful

- Noteworthy, since Isaac was the only child of his mother, since Jacob was born after repeated prayers, and since Rachel was long unfruitful. R2900:2

Increased abundantly

- Heb., "swarming." If the population doubled every 15 years, as it did at one time in North America, the increase of 70 men with their wives would amount to 2,293,760 in 200 years. R2900:5
- A miracle which did not continue, for 40 years later, when entering Canaan, their male forces numbered less than when they left Egypt. HG362:3

The land

Exodus 1:8 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph.

- In Joseph's time; and before Egypt had been governed by Hyksos, or shepherd kings, supposed to have been invaders and not of pure Egyptian stock. R3982:3
- The change of dynasty commenced with Rameses I, Rameses II being the Pharaoh who harried the Israelites, and his son, Menephtah 1, the Pharaoh of the exodus. R3982:3, R3994:2
- The mummy of Rameses II was found in 1881 and was exhibited in a museum near the pyramid in 1892. R2900:6

Exodus 1:9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we:

More and mightier

To afflict them

- Which, it was hoped, would weaken them. R5250:6
- Not to destroy nor drive them off, but merely to hold them in check, R2900:6
- As a wise father, God foresaw that too much prosperity would be greatly to their disadvantage. R1651:4

Built for Pharaoh

- Rameses II. His mummy was found in 1881. R2900:6

Pithom

- This city, twelve miles west of Ismalia, was discovered in 1883, enclosed by walls of unbaked brick, the lower courses of which are of well made brick with chopped straw in them. Higher up the straw is long and scanty and the last courses have no straw at all, but have sedges, rushes and water plants. R3983:2, R5264:1, R2910:6

12

Exodus 1:12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel.

And grew

- Not only zeal, but numbers also increase under persecutions and difficulties. R2901:5

Their lives bitter

- In Central Africa many natives impressed into public service after this manner have committed suicide rather than labor unrewarded. R3983:1

With hard bondage

- Not that all the Israelites were compelled to engage in brick making, but that there were drafts or conscriptions from time to time. R2901:1
- Typifying the bondage of sin. R1652:5
- Solomon similarly oppressed the Israelites, though not with the same degree of severity and rigor, in conjunction with his public building program. R3982:5, R2901:2

All manner of service

- Implying that the Israelites, a pastoral people, were compelled to learn all the trades and occupations of their masters. Being forced into an industrial school in the foremost civilization of that day was useful training. R5264:1

All their service

- Our present experiences and trials are designed to work in us the "peaceable fruits of righteousness." (Heb. 12:11) R5264:4

Was with rigour

- Tended to bind them in sympathy more closely together as one nation, impressing upon them their Abrahamic heritage. R3983:4

That he was

- As a natural result of favorable pre-natal influence. R1671:3

A goodly child

- Like the Apostle Paul, Moses seems to have been chosen even before he was born. R1651:1, R1671:6

At the river

- Probably Memphis, near the present site of Cairo, under the shadow of the pyramids. R3988:1

Exodus 2:8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.

Pharaoh's daughter said

- It is probable that the princess perceived the ruse and cooperated, believing that the little one might as well have its own mother as caretaker. R5251:4

10

Exodus 2:10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

She brought him

His name Moses

- Supposedly derived from the Coptic, Mo (water) and uses (saved out of it) Some translate "born from the water." R5251:5, R3988:2

Unto his brethren

- Refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. (Heb. 11:24) R2909:1

Exodus 2:12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

Slew the Egyptian

- How many would be inclined to console themselves with the thought that they were not directly responsible for the injustices whose profits they enjoy. R2909:1

14

Exodus 2:14 And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

And he said

- Typifying how Christ "came unto his own, and his own received him not." (John 1:11) R4058:2, R2909:3

Who made thee

- There was no such loyalty among his brethren as he had expected. R5252:4
- They had not wished his services and had rather resented his interference. R5419:1

Exodus 2:15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well.

Moses fled

- Fearing for his life. It looked as though all his years of education and development had gone to waste. Moses was now thoroughly crestfallen, meek, tractable, teachable. R5252:4
- But Moses, believing the promises, esteemed "the reproaches of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward." R2909:2

- Often spiritual Israelites find their efforts for good rejected and coveted opportunities for the Lord turned away; yet these very lessons fit us for future usefulness. R2909:5

The land of Midian

- Typifying the far country, even heaven itself, to which our Jesus went after his rejection by his people. R4058:2

17

Exodus 2:17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

Moses stood up

- Full of the instinct of justice R5252:4

Helped them

- His natural nobleness and training made him chivalrous in the defense of women. R2909:3

21

Exodus 2:21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter.

Content to dwell

- A humble shepherd for 40 years, learning a most important lesson of meekness, of full submission to the divine will. A very severe lesson for one not yet understanding God's providences in his affairs. R5252:5, R1651:4, R2909:4

Zipporah his daughter

- Typifying the Bride of Christ, chosen from among the Gentiles. R1651:6
- Being an African, a black, the sons would, of course, be mulattoes. R2909:4

Exodus 2:22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

Bare him a son

- Being mulatto, he would have less respect among the Israelites and there would be less tendency to establish a rulership in the family line. R2909:5

Exodus 3:1 Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

Now Moses

- Now 80 years of age. R5418:3
- Perhaps not accidental that Moses' career was divided into two equal periods-40 years of Egyptian training followed by 40 years absence; typical of Israel's double of 1845 years. R2909:6, R1651:6

Kept the flock

- His wandering as a shepherd in the wilderness for 40 years made him thoroughly familiar with the terrain; a great advantage to him later as leader of Israel through this wilderness. R5418:6

Exodus 3:2 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

The angel of the LORD

- This honored messenger was undoubtedly our Lord Jesus in his pre-human estate. E43

Appeared

- There is no reason to suppose that Moses saw the Lord. This is one of the evidences that a spirit being can be present, yet invisible. R155:2*

In a flame of fire

- Very little is known of the nature of a spirit body, but the appearing as fire, etc., seems to be their own peculiar glory as they actually are. HG28:4
- In an impressive manner to give Moses courage and confidence in his mission. PD32
- Our Lord might have so appeared to his disciples after his resurrection, but the evidence thus given would have been far from being as convincing as the method he did adopt. B124

Midst of a bush

- Supposedly a thorn-bush which sometimes grows to quite a height, known as shittim wood— the kind of wood used in the construction of the Tabernacle. R3989:5

Behold, the bush

- Illustrating the experience of Christ and all of his members. R3989:6
- A demonstration of divine power-to establish the faith of his servant. R2910:4, R1652:1

Burned with fire

- Representing the fiery trials to which the Lord's people are subject. R3989:6

Bush was not consumed

- Spiritual Israel must behold the Lord as the great light, that his justice is as a consuming fire; but that, through Christ, he grants us to see the light without being consumed thereby. R2910:5

Exodus 3:5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

Put off thy shoes

- Even Moses, the "meekest man in all the earth," needed from the Lord as his first instruction a lesson in humility. R3990:1

Is holy ground

- "God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him." (Psa 89:7) R2002:2

Exodus 3:6 Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God.

I am the God of

- This surely meant that Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were to be resurrected. PD32 R5611:4
- God reminded him of the special covenant which he had made with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob for an everlasting covenant, thus assuring Moses that God had not forgotten the good things which he had promised. R5261:5

Hid his face

- Moses covered his face in reverence. R5261:5

Exodus 3:7 And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows;

Seen the affliction

- Just as he has seen the affliction of his people in all ages under the reign of sin. R3990:2

Exodus 3:8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

I am come down

- Showing the relationship between the Lord's coming now and the gathering of the Church. R155:3*

To deliver them

- The Lord assures us, too, that he is both able and willing to grant deliverance at the appropriate time. R3990:2
- The deliverance did not take place immediately, nor did the deliverance of the Church take place immediately after the second advent of Christ. R155:3*

10

Exodus 3:10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

Pharaoh

- Type of Satan. R5273:2, R5419:5; F458

Out of Egypt

- Satan's dominion of sin and death. R5643:1, R5273:1; F458

11

Exodus 3:11 And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

Who am I

- All the people of God who would be useful and used in his service must learn this lesson: "Without me ye can do nothing." (John 15:5) R2910:2
- Moses was so distrustful of himself that even when called of the Lord he apologized, pleading his unfitness. He did not realize that he only then became fit. R5261:2
- His 40 years in Midian had taught Moses meekness and distrust of his ability. He felt the magnitude of the undertaking and of his own insufficiency. R5418:6, R1652:1, R2910:2

Exodus 3:12 And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

I will be with thee

- The Lord assured Moses that he himself would be responsible. R5419:1, R5262:1
- Encouragement for every true servant of the Lord who humbly relies upon his promises while striving to walk in the ways of his appointment. R1652:1
- If God be for us, and if God be with us, who can prevail against us? (Rom. 8:31) R2910:1
- Like Moses, we must learn that it is not our work but God's work; not our power or ability but the divine power working in and through us. R2909:6

Brought forth the

- Moses was a great leader, as well as the meekest of men. SM379

Upon this mountain

- That very mountain, "the mount of God," to worship him there. R5262:1

14

Exodus 3:14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

I AM THAT I AM

- These words signify the same as the name Jehovah-the self-existent one, the one who always exists. From the same root as "Jehovah." R3990:6, R5262:1, R1052:5*, R5217:3

15

Exodus 3:15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

Thus shalt thou say

- Moses represented the entire priestly class and the tribe of Levi in his various functions as Mediator between God and the nation. R4390:1

17

Exodus 3:17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

Bring you up out of

- Representing the call of God's children to come out from the world and to engage in his worship. T25

22

Exodus 3:22 But every woman shall borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ye shall spoil the Egyptians.

Shall borrow

- Shaal, asked, requested, begged. R1657:6, R2911:5, R3996:3

Exodus 4:1 And Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

Will not believe me

- Moses was distrustful of his ability and was fearful and reluctant. R5419:1

Exodus 4:2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod.

What Is that in thine hand?

- God can use our humblest talent to his praise. If, then, we would serve, we should look to see what we have in our hands. R5419:2

A rod

- Signifying divine authority. R4058:4
- A special manifestation of divine power and rule. R5419:5

Exodus 4:3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

Became a serpent

- Symbolizing that all the evil there is in the world is the result of God's having let go of his rod of authority temporarily. R4058:4

- Those things closest to us might become injurious except for God's power to overrule. R5419:2
- Antitype may be that the power of God may appear to be evil. Evil has seemed to triumph for these 6000 years. R5419:5

Exodus 4:4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:

Put forth his hand

- Typifying God's purpose to lay hold upon present evil conditions. R4058:4

It became a rod

- Typifying the re-establishment of divine authority. R4058:4
- Representing God's power to turn evil things into good things through the operation of faith. R2910:4, R5419:3
- From this we should realize that of ourselves we could accomplish nothing. R5419:2

Exodus 4:6 And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow.

He put his hand

- Leprosy is a symbol of sin. Divine power was first manifested without sin or imperfection or blemish (in Jesus Christ); secondly, that the same divine power, hidden for a time, was afterward manifest in sin and imperfection (in his Body members) and thirdly, that the same divine power, hidden again for a time, will subsequently be manifest without sin (in the glorified Christ) R4059:2

Exodus 4:7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.

Was turned again

- By and by the Church is to be received into his bosom and "changed" in the first resurrection. R4059:3

As his other flesh

- Be used again of the Lord as his agent in stretching forth his rod and bringing forth the plagues, and delivering the residue of God's people. R4059:3

Exodus 4:8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.

Voice of the first sign

- Literature on the subject of "Why evil was permitted" has been circulated to the extent of millions of copies throughout the world ever since the year 1879. R4058:6

Voice of the latter sign

- The sign of the leprous hand-the "Millennial Dawn" series of volumes (later called "Studies in the Scriptures") the first of which was published in 1886. In these books the relationship between justification, sanctification and deliverance is distinctly shown. R4059:4

Exodus 4:9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land : and the water which thou takest out of the river shall become blood upon the dry land .

Water of the river

- The truth, as contained in millions of pages of tracts, poured upon the symbolic earth, society, liberally on many lands and in many languages. R4059:6

Upon the dry land

- Typifying society. R4059:5

Shall become blood

- To society the truth seems repulsive, undesirable, bloody. They not only view the typical sacrifices as bloody but they resent the thought that the antitypical sacrifice for sins was the death (blood) of Christ. R4060:1

10

Exodus 4:10 And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

I am not eloquent

- Moses was so meek that he could not realize that with divine help he would be successful. R5262:2

11

Exodus 4:11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

Have not I

- He is the author of all life and indirectly our Creator. R2902:2

12

Exodus 4:12 Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

I will be with thy mouth

- So God declares to the humble ones now; that having no confidence in ourselves, we should have every confidence in God. R5262:4

16

Exodus 4:16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God.

And he

- Aaron represents the Royal Priesthood still in the flesh, still sacrificing. R4058:3

Be thy spokesman

- The Lord Jesus does not address himself to the true Israelites in person now, but through a mouthpiece. R4058:3

Unto the people

- All true Israelites. R4058:3

Be to him instead of God

- Moses was to be like God unto Aaron in that he would tell Aaron what he should say and do. Q498:5
- Moses, not Aaron, was the one competent for the great work because of his schooling. Aaron was his servant, or mouthpiece, speaking only as authorized by Moses in whom, because of his meekness, God was reposing the responsibility. R5262:4, R4537:1; PD32

Exodus 4:21 And the LORD said unto Moses, When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thine hand: but I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go.

Harden his heart

- It was God's goodness that hardened Pharaoh. When the Lord relieved the people and the land from one plague, Pharaoh concluded that it was past and that perhaps no more would come; and so, step by step, God's mercy led him further and further in his hostility. F176; PD33 R2911:2, R4703:1

22

Exodus 4:22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, Israel is my son, even my firstborn:

Israel is my son

- "Out of Egypt have I called my son." R1681:6

26

Exodus 4:26 So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband thou art , because of the circumcision.

The circumcision

- Symbolizing a cutting off, a separation from the flesh, its aims, hopes and desires. R3022:3

27

Exodus 4:27 And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him.

Said to Aaron

- Representing the sacrificial work of Christ as the Priest. The sons of Aaron represented the Church. R4011:3

Into the wilderness

- The meeting of Moses and Aaron seems to symbolize the beginning of the Gospel age. R4011:3

To meet Moses

- Moses represented the future work of Christ as the leader and commander of the people. The Church was also typically represented in the body of Moses. R4011:3

Met him

- Aaron meeting Moses represents a company meeting Christ in the Kingdom. R82:2*

The mount of God

- Mount Horeb, one of the peaks of Mt. Sinai. R4011:3

Exodus 5:2 And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go.

And Pharaoh

- Supposed to have been Menephtah. R3994:2 Type of Satan. R5273:2, R5419:5; F458

I know not the LORD

- Moses was met with derision. It was a time of testing to the faith, not only of Moses and Aaron, but of all Israelites. R5263:6
- He considered the sun god of the Egyptians the powerful one. R5271:5

Exodus 5:7 Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

Straw for themselves

- One of the cities built by the Hebrews that has been discovered is the Egyptian city of Pithom, discovered in 1883. It corroborates the Biblical narrative with increasingly inferior bricks being used on upper courses. R3983:3

Exodus 5:9 Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard vain words.

More work

- Thus their tasks were practically doubled. But by these very bitter experiences the people were all the more prepared to welcome liberty. Similarly, we should appreciate the privilege of being set free from the power of sin and death and of being inducted into God's family. R5263:6

12

Exodus 5:12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw.

The land of Egypt

- Satan's dominion of sin and death. R5643:1, R5273:1; F458

17

Exodus 5:17 But he said, Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD.

He said, Ye are idle

- As some of the hard-hearted will doubtless say to the poor in the coming time of trouble. A336

God Almighty

- Hebrew, El Shaddai. R1410:6 A mighty one-a general term, applied to Jehovah, to Jesus, to angels, and to men. R379:2, R421:3, R1410:3

My name JEHOVAH

- Jehovah is not a general name, like the word "god," but a proper name, the distinctive personal name of the Almighty Father. R1410:6
- In our common version its distinctiveness as a name is lost, being generally rendered, "the LORD." R338:3, R421:4
- The name Jehovah, like other proper names, should not be translated. R1410:6
- Jehovah means He who is, or He who will be. R1052:5*
- "Self-Existing One" or "The Immortal One." E40
- This name belongs only to the Father. E65; R379:5

- Type of the heavenly rest. T25

Exodus 6:5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant.

Keep in bondage

- Type of bondage of all men to sin and death. F458

13

Exodus 6:13 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Israel, and unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

Children of Israel

- Type of all who ultimately become God's people. F458; R5641:1, R5870:1

Land of Egypt

- Satan's dominion of sin and death. R5643:1, R5273:1; F458

16

And Merari

- "Bitterness"; type of the Great Company, saved so as by fire, through bitter experiences. F129

18

Exodus 6:18 And the sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel: and the years of the life of Kohath were an hundred thirty and three years.

Amram

- "High people" or "Exalted people"; type of the Little Flock. F128

Exodus 7:1 And the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

Made thee a god

- Elohim, mighty one, a name applied to Jehovah as well as to men. E68; R338:2, R421:3, R1410:3

Exodus 7:3 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

Harden Pharaoh's heart

- See comment on Exodus 4:21.

Exodus 7:4 But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments.

By great judgments

- The plagues were doubtless a full compensation of justice upon the Egyptians. R5271:3

Exodus 7:7 And Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

Fourscore

- The fourscore, or twice forty, would bring us to 1878 in the antitype when Christ spake to Pharaoh (the world) by an act, in restoring Israel to favor. R181:6*

Exodus 7:9 When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, Shew a miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent.

Shew a miracle

- These three signs signified certain truths which, in the present time, will be convincing to the Lord's true people. R2910:5

10

Exodus 7:10 And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

Then Pharaoh

- Type of Satan. R5273:2, R5419:5, R2910:2; F458

And the sorcerers

- Sorcery, witchcraft and enchantments are manifestations of Satan and of demons for the delusion of mankind. R2110:2, R2189:3

Magicians

- Satan's mediums. R341:1* The names of these magicians are given to us in 2 Tim. 3:8, where it is stated that, as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so certain ones today resist the message of God. R3994:5, R4060:2, R2189:3

Of Egypt

- Satan's dominion of sin and death. R5643:1, R5273:1; F458

12

Exodus 7:12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

They became serpents

- Symbolizing the various views of the permission of evil which have been put forth by theologians of the past. R4060:4
- Perhaps in some way the power of God will appear to be evil. Somehow God will permit the world, under the power of Satan, to have an hour of triumph during a great time of trouble. R5419:5
- There are but two sources of occult power-divine and satanic. R5271:5
- The Egyptian plagues were miraculous from one standpoint; not so from another. R5271:2
- Duplicated under Satan's knowledge of natural laws. R1685:3
- Some have surmised that they performed a trick common in India by hypnotizing a serpent. We are not sure, however, that the magicians did not do more than this. R5271:5
- Satan's first agent was the serpent. R265:3
- The powers of darkness have liberty and ability to perform wonders of certain kinds under certain circumstances. R2206:6

But Aaron's rod

- The correct view on the permission of evil is such that it quite swallows up all the suggestions and theories of the past. R4060:4

13

Exodus 7:13 And he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

And he hardened

- See comment on Exodus 4:21.

14

Exodus 7:14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.

16

Exodus 7:16 And thou shalt say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear.

20

All the waters

- The first three plagues were common to all in Egypt. The next six plagues affected only the Egyptians. R5640:3, R5272:2
- The truth, as contained in millions of pages of tracts, poured upon the symbolic earth, society, liberally in many lands and in many languages. R4059:6

Were turned to blood

- Perhaps it resulted from the inconceivably rapid growth of microscopic animals (infusoria) and minute cryptogamous plants of a red color. R3994:5, R5271:6
- To society the truth seems repulsive, undesirable, bloody. They resent even the thought that the sacrifice for sins was the blood of Christ. R4060:1 Almost as miraculous as the turning of water into wine by our Lord at Cana. R5271:6

Exodus 7:24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

Exodus 8:5 And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

Cause frogs to come

- Vast numbers come to Egypt at times, but never in so great numbers as on this occasion. R5272:1

Exodus 8:7 And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

And the magicians

- Sorcery, witchcraft and enchantments are manifestations of Satan and of demons for the delusion of mankind. R2110:2, R2189:3

With their enchantments

- Using Satan's knowledge of natural laws. R1685:3

Brought up frogs

- Satan and the fallen angels may be permitted some power in creating pests. Q265:4

8

Exodus 8:8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Intreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

Intreat the LORD

- While Pharaoh's magicians duplicated the first two plagues, they were unable to take away the frogs. R5272:1

Take away the frogs

- The Egyptians worshipped the froghead goddess, Heka. Thus this plague was a special reproach and particularly severe because it was not lawful for Egyptians to kill frogs. R3994:6

16

Exodus 8:16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

May become lice

- The Revised Version margin renders the word "lice" as sandflies, or fleas. R3994:6
- The word "lice" probably means "dust ticks." R5272:2

Exodus 8:17 And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

Throughout all the land

- The miracle was producing these ticks in unusual numbers and places. R5272:2

Exodus 8:18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

But they could not

- Doubtless, however, the fallen spirits have learned much since then and are probably now responsible for many of the plagues, pests and microbes afflicting plant and animal life. R2189:3

Exodus 8:19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the finger of God: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

The finger of God

- The first definition of a miracle. R3995:1

Exodus 8:21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies , and also the ground whereon they are .

Swarms of flies

- Or beetles, the Hebrew word signifies a mixture of various swarms of insects. R3995:1
- Gnats, mosquitoes, house flies and cattle flies. R5272:2
- These plagues upon Egypt were intended in some measure to foreshadow, to illustrate, the plagues with which this Gospel age will end-the first three and the "seven last plagues." (Rev. 15:1) F175

23

Exodus 8:23 And I will put a division between my people and thy people: to morrow shall this sign be.

Put a division

- Both here and in Revelation the first three affected both Israel and Egypt, but the Israelites were exempted from the last seven. R3994:4
- In Revelation the first three plagues are called the woe trumpets and following them come the "seven last trumpets." R3994:4

Exodus 8:27 We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us.

Three days' journey

- Nothing was said respecting their non-intention of returning, for they had the same right to depart as to come to Egypt. R2910:6

Exodus 9:3 Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous murrain.

Grievous murrain

- A kind of epizootic or contagious fever affecting all domestic animals. R3995:1
- Murrain (from the Latin, morior, to die) a disease resembling the Russian epizootic. R5272:4
- See final comment on Exodus 8:21.

Exodus 9:8 And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

Toward the heaven

- Possibly in allusion to the furnace of affliction through which the Hebrews had been passing, or possibly in sarcastic imitation of the methods of Egyptian priests, who yearly offered sacrifices of burnt human bodies to Typhon, the god of evil, scattering the ashes thus in the air. R3995:2

Exodus 9:9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

Shall be a boil

- See final comment on Exodus 8:21.

Exodus 9:14 For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

All my plagues

- Typified the great time of trouble. R3994:4 In three groups of three each. In the first three, Aaron's rod was used; in the second three, the rod was not used; in the last three, Moses' rod was used. In the first three, there was full warning; in the second, less warning; in the third, no warning. R3994:3

Exodus 9:16 And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

For this cause

- The ten plagues upon the Egyptians were manifestations of divine justice. OV93
- God did not approve of Pharaoh, but used him to show forth his own glory. Q501:5
- With a weaker man the Lord's power would have been less displayed. R3994:2

I raised thee up

- God has it in his own hand to set up or pull down rulers and he orders the matter with a view to the impressing of certain lessons. R3994:2
- Amongst the various heirs to the throne of Egypt, God so ordered that this particular Pharaoh should come to the throne because he possessed such obstinacy. F175; PD33 R5305:3
- God raised up to the throne a stubborn ruler so as to teach a great lesson respecting divine tenderness, gentleness and forgiveness, and that God's greatest blessing to mankind-a free will-may be perverted by Satan to work his greatest injury. R5263:3

Exodus 9:18 Behold, to morrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.

Very grievous hall

- See final comment on Exodus 8:21.

23

Exodus 9:23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

Thunder and hail

- Both unusual in Egypt. R3995:2

And the fire

- Lightning. R3995:2
- Symbolic, signifying that God's indignation would burn against every one who is wicked. R5317:2

26

Exodus 9:26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were , was there no hail.

The land of Goshen

- The murrain (and later plagues) were kept from them in the land of Goshen, thus proving God's care. R5272:4

Was there no hail

- Similarly, the symbolic hail of the seventh plague of Revelation will smite down and subdue those only who are in opposition to it, and that for their good. R511:6

Exodus 10:4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to morrow will I bring the locusts into thy coast:

Bring the locusts

- Although immense swarms of locusts often come to Egypt from Nubia, this would be recognized as a plague because of its announcement and the exemption of the Hebrews. R3995:2
- Sometimes to a depth of 15 inches. R5272:4
- See final comment on Exodus 8:21.

Exodus 10:21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt.

May be darkness

- Probably caused by dense sandstorms of fine sand, obscuring the light. R3995:3
- See final comment on Exodus 8:21.

Exodus 11:1 And the LORD said unto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go hence: when he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out hence altogether.

One more plague

- See final comment on Exodus 8:21. It has been surmised that these 10 plagues upon Egypt began about July 1st and lasted until the following April, in all about 9 months. R2911:3, R5271:3, 6
- The last, or tenth plague, represents the bitter experiences of the world at the end of the present age. R2920:1

Exodus 11:2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

Borrow

- Misleading translation of the Hebrew word shaal. The Israelites did not borrow, but asked for (as in R.V.) as just payment for past services. R1657:6, R2911:5, R3996:3

Exodus 11:4 And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt:

About midnight

- The passing over took place in the night, representing this Gospel age. R3996:3, R4875:3, R4966:6, R5273:1; SM559; Q693:8; CR471; PD33

Exodus 11:5 And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maidservant that is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of beasts.

Shall die

- The Egyptian first-born became a retribution for the Israelitish babes they had caused to be drowned in the Nile. R2911:4

Exodus 11:6 And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more.

Throughout all the land

- The last, the tenth plague, was common to the entire land of Egypt, including the Israelites, except as they would show faith and obedience. R5640:3

10

Exodus 11:10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

Would not let

- The plagues constitute a retribution against Egypt for their unjust oppression of Israel. R2911:2

Exodus 12:1 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

In the land of Egypt

- Satan's dominion of sin and death. R5643:1, R5273:1; F458

Exodus 12:2 This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.

The beginning of months

- The Passover was the first feature of the Law given Israel as a typical people. R839:1
- The new year always began with the appearance of the first new moon after the spring equinox. R1289:3
- The new moon which came closest to the spring equinox was reckoned as the beginning of the ecclesiastical year, the first day of the month Nisan. R5642:2, R3961:2
- The nearest new moon about or after the equinox, but not much before, was chosen as the commencement of the year. R4127:2, R5191:2, R2270:3
- Knowing when to expect the equinox, the Elders of Israel accepted the appearance of the new moon whose full would be about the harvest time, and after the equinox. R2429:5

Exodus 12:3 Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house:

In the tenth day

- The choosing of the lamb on the tenth day foreshadowed our Lord Jesus' presenting himself to Israel at the close of his ministry as their king. R2918:2, R5191:4, R1289:4, R839:2, R465:5
- Showing that if Israel would be recognized as the Church of the first-born in the antitypical passover, they must accept Jesus then, five days before that Passover feast and four days before his crucifixion. R5191:4

A lamb

- Each lamb represented the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world. (John 1:29) F460
- "Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us." (1 Cor. 5:7) F463

For an house

- Each house of Israel represented the household of faith, the Lord's new household. In celebrating the last Passover supper, which was to be kept by each family apart, the Lord met with his 12 apostles as a separate family—separate from all of their connections and his. F460, F589

Exodus 12:5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

Lamb

- Paul tells us that Christ is our Passover lamb, slain for us. (1 Cor. 5:7) R4966:6
- Jesus, the Lamb of God-spotless, pure, holy, harmless, undefiled. R5273:5
- The man Christ Jesus was the antitype of the Passover lamb slain by the Israelites. R5847:1

Without blemish

- Showing the perfection and purity of Christ, our lamb. R211:5*, R1186:6

Exodus 12:6 And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.

The fourteenth day

- The day in which the Paschal lamb was to be killed and eaten. R5191:4
- Foreshadowing the fact that, in God's plan, Jesus was to die at that time. R465:3
- The moon was at its full at the time of Christ's crucifixion. R2270:6, R5191:3
- The moon is the symbol of the Law covenant and of the people who were under it. Christ's crucifixion at the full of the moon, and the fact that the moon immediately began to wane, foreshadowed Israel's national decline. F481; R1289:3
- The 12, and sometimes 13, lunations symbolize the tribes of Israel. After the crucifixion it immediately began to wane, and waned for as long as it had previously increased. So Christ's death was the turning point between the two equal parts of Israel's history. R2270:6, R5191:3, R1289:3

Shall kill it

- The eating of the supper on the night preceding our Lord's death, and yet the same day, was made possible by the Jewish custom that began each day in the evening. F462

In the evening

- See marginal reading. On the fourteenth day, between the evenings, between six p.m., where the day began, and the next six p.m., where it ended. R2918:2, R5191:3, R1289:4, R839:2, R465:3, R2115:5
- The Jews had two evenings, one from noon to 3 o'clock, and the other from 3 o'clock until sunset. It was between these two evenings that the Paschal lamb was to be slain, and so was Jesus, the antitype. R2953:5*

Exodus 12:7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

Take of the blood

- A striking figure of giving "life for life"—the requirement of divine justice before the condemned could be justified. R1321:6*
- Not the eating of the unleavened wafers and roasted lamb, but because of the blood, they were passed over. R3454:2*

Strike it on the

- The striking was a symbol, commanded at the beginning. Q524:4
- The sprinkling of the lamb's blood symbolizes the imputation of the merit of the death of Jesus to the entire household of faith. R5640:5, R3959:5
- The sprinkling of the blood indicated that all of the household of faith must believe in the precious blood of Christ. SM561; PD33
- The sprinkling of the blood on the door-posts in the type implied public confession of the precious blood of the Lamb of God. SM561
- The sprinkling of the door-posts of the heart with his blood: "Having their hearts sprinkled from a consciousness of evil." (Heb. 10:22) F463

Of the houses

- Not merely upon the first-borns, but upon the house, indicating the household of faith. R5273:5

Exodus 12:8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

They shall eat the flesh

- Jesus' sacrifice, the merit of his earthly perfection, was to be eaten, or appropriated, in the mind. R4703:4
- We each have appropriated his flesh, his human nature, which is sacrificed on our behalf. We are hoping to be passed over on account of the blood without and the lamb within, as members of the Church of the first-born. R4966:6
- As in the antitype, the Passover lamb was for their deliverance from Egypt, so our Lord delivers his people from Satan's yoke of bondage to sin. R5847:1
- The shedding of the blood gives life, but we need more—strength for the journey of life, through heavenly food. R1321:6* The eating of the lamb typified our appropriating justification from sin. SM562

In that night

- This entire Gospel age is the antitype of that night. R3996:3, R4875:3, R4996:6, R5273:1, R17:4; SM559; Q693:8; CR471; PD33
- The 6000 years in which sin and death have held sway are a night time. R5273:1

Unleavened bread

- Truth, in its purity. R208:1
- It symbolized the precious promises which come to us from the Heavenly Father through Christ. R2918:3, R4703:4
- Leaven is a type of sin, and the symbol declares that our Lord Jesus was free from sin. R5192:4; T98
- Symbolically, without the corruption (leaven) of human theory, blight, ambitions, selfishness, etc. F464; T98

With bitter herbs

- Bitter experiences and trials which the Lord prepares for us, and which help wean our affections from earthly things and give us increased appetite to feed upon the Lamb and the unleavened bread of truth. R5870:4, R4703:4, R2116:1, R208:1, R17:4; F460

10

Exodus 12:10 And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

Nothing of it remain

- Signifying that the privilege of participation in the Lord's sacrifice is confined to the Gospel age. R2116:4, R212:5*

11

Exodus 12:11 And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it is the LORD'S passover.

With your loins girded

- Loins girt about with truth. (Eph. 6:14) R212:2*

Shoes on your feet

- Your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace. (Eph. 6:15) R212:2*

Staff in your hand

- As pilgrims and strangers. F461; R4703:2, R208:1
- Ready for the journey, with full expectancy that the Lord would make the Egyptians willing to let them go and that they would share in this calamity were it not for the blood upon the door-posts and lintels. R5640:3

Passover

- The term Passover signifies to pass by, or spare from an affliction. R1657:2

12

Exodus 12:12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

This night

- Symbolizing this Gospel age, a time of darkness on the earth. R4875:3, R4966:6, R5273:1, R3996:3; SM559; Q693:8; CR471; PD33

Firstborn

The gods of Egypt

- The princes of Egypt, elohim. R1410:3

13

Exodus 12:13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are : and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you , when I smite the land of Egypt.

See the blood

- The blood of Christ must be ever recognized in our hearts and confessed, manifested, and declared outwardly to others. R3996:6

I will pass over you

- Faith in the precious blood is the only ground of acceptance with God. R3996:1
- The Passover lamb and its blood preserved, "passed over," the first-born ones only, typical of the Church of the first-borns. R4384:3

To destroy you

- Only the first-born were in danger, typifying that in the present time only the Church of the first-born has sufficient knowledge to be in danger of the Second Death. R3995:5

14

Exodus 12:14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

For a memorial

- The followers of Jesus are to celebrate the antitype yearly, as the Israelites had done, but now in remembrance of the reality and not of the type. R1657:5

Keep it a feast

- What Jesus commemorated was the killing of the Passover lamb and not the "Feast of the Passover" which followed it for seven days. R208:2
- It was not the intention of our Lord to commemorate the Feast of the Passover, which began the 15th of Nisan, but merely his death on the 14th. R1942:6
- Typical of both the deliverance of spiritual Israel from the bondage of sin and the ultimate deliverance of all who love righteousness from Satan's bondage by his complete overthrow during the Millennium. R2379:6

An ordinance for ever

- An event so widely observed for so long a time (more than 3300 years) must have a foundation in fact. R3959:2
- To be observed yearly as a memorial of God's goodness and because it typed a still greater blessing to come. R4703:2
- The Lord's Supper takes the place of the Passover supper as a Memorial of the antitype, a remembrance of the fulfillment of the antitypical Passover. F463

Exodus 12:15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel.

Ye shall put away

- Anything containing leaven or putrefaction-bones, crusts, everything. So we must " put away the old leaven" of anger, malice, hatred, strife. R5193:3

Leaven

- Symbol of corruption, sin. R5192:4, R2399:6; F464; T98

16

Exodus 12:16 And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you.

First day ... seventh day

- On the 15th day the Passover Feast began, lasting seven days, the first and seventh days observed as specially holy, as Sabbath days or "high" days. R2270:5, R5191:3

Holy convocation

- Some claim that the Jews had an abrupt beginning of weeks with the beginning of the Passover which was always counted a sabbath and the new start of a cycle. R2115:5

17

Exodus 12:17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

Observe the feast

- By rejoicing in, and partaking of, the good things of God. R1800:3

18

Exodus 12:18 In the first month , on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

The fourteenth day

- A picture of the passing over of the Church of the first-born. Q525:1

19

Exodus 12:19 Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.

No leaven

- A reminder (1) of the haste with which they fled, not having time to wait for the bread to rise; and (2) of their sufferings in Egypt, hence called "the bread of affliction" (Deut. 16:3) but (3) primarily to signify the putting away of sin. R1800:2, R5390:2
- Although no command to fast 40 days of " lenten season," those who voluntarily fast and pray will be blest according to their faith. R2116:4

Exodus 12:23 For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you .

- The first feature of the Law. OV74, B47 Represented the death of Jesus and the passing over of his people during this age. Q525:3
- The passing over will be the resurrection. CR471

29

Exodus 12:29 And it came to pass, that at midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

The firstborn

- Only the first-borns, the Church of Christ, are now being passed over; only these are in danger of the destroying angel. R5870:2
- The special object in confining the plague to the first-born was to show that only the first-born of the Hebrews were spared or passed over. R3995:5

- Not that they sojourned in Egypt 430 years, but the sojourning of the people who dwelt in Egypt was that many years. HG1O4:3

Exodus 14:2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baalzephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

That they turn

- This turn was perhaps necessary because of the great wall of Egypt, somewhat similar to the great wall of China, and the route taken was more favorable for pasturage, etc. R2919:2

Go forward

- There is a time to pray and also a time to act. R2919:4

Then sang Moses

- This song, typifying the song of deliverance referred to in the book of Revelation as "the song of Moses and the Lamb," is noted by scholars as containing an intermingling of Egyptian words. R3998:6

This song unto the LORD

- Singing songs of praise, one of the most interesting and profitable methods of worship, is acceptable only when it represents true heart sentiments. R5278:2

I will sing

- "If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth." (Psa. 137:6) R2031:5

23

Exodus 15:23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah.

None of these diseases

- Not the case with the New Creation. Their real interests and their physical interests are often opposites. F631

That healeth thee

Exodus 16:3 And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

The flesh pots

- The world's theories. R5307:1

Bread to the full

- How apt are all to remember the pleasures of the sinful condition and to forget its burdens and disappointments. R3036:3

With hunger

- Having learned of their need they were able to appreciate the provision and its miraculous source. So with spiritual Israelites, they are permitted to feel their needs, and to ask, that they may receive. R3036:1

Exodus 16:7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the LORD; for that he heareth your murmurings against the LORD: and what are we, that ye murmur against us?

13

Exodus 16:13 And it came to pass, that at even the quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

Quails came up

- In the spring. They often come in great flocks and, wearied with their long flight across the water, fly low, and thus are easily caught. R4012:3, R3036:4
- Corresponding to the invasion of Darwinism among God's people. Evolution gives the people worldly doctrines for religious food. R5267:3*

14

Exodus 16:14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground.

A small round thing

- Evidently deposited in, or from, the dew by some power of God working in harmony with the natural laws of chemistry not yet thoroughly understood. R3036:4

15

Exodus 16:15 And when the children of Israel saw it , they said one to another, It is manna: for they wist not what it was . And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

It is manna

- Nothing of the kind was known to the Israelites, and they asked, "What is it?" and this became its name—"What is it?"—or, "that manna." R5279:4
- A symbol of our Lord's flesh, the bread from heaven. B130; T122; R2579:4
- The grains were small and white, required painstaking labor to gather, and had to be boiled or baked before using. R3036:4

16

Exodus 16:16 This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating, an omer for every man, according to the number of your persons; take ye every man for them which are in his tents.

Gather of it

- To obtain the bread from heaven requires some effort on the part of him who would partake. R3036:6, R5279:4

21

Exodus 16:21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

Every morning

- So it will be necessary for the world ever to seek supplies of life and grace if they would live everlastingly. T123
- Our own supply of grace in Christ needs to be gathered daily; it will not keep over for succeeding days. R4012:5

Exodus 16:23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to day , and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

To morrow is the rest

- That the Sabbath was something new to the Israelites is evident by its explanation to them. R971:6

The holy sabbath

- Type of the Millennial age. B40
- There was no mention of the keeping of a sabbath prior to Israel's arriving at the Wilderness of Sin, of which Mt. Sinai is the center. R3039:2
- Inaugurated as a memorial of their deliverance from Egyptian bondage, in which they had no rest from their taskmasters. R1731:2
- The Sabbath day was instituted about two weeks before the formal giving of the Law. R1731:2

31

Exodus 16:31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

Wafers made with honey

- Suggesting that the wafers on the Day of Atonement may have had a mixture of honey; but the prohibition of the burning of honey may imply otherwise. R4045:4

33

Exodus 16:33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

To be kept

- Symbolizing that our Lord's flesh did not see corruption and is possibly preserved as an everlasting testimony of infinite love and perfect obedience. B130
- Illustrating the immortal, incorruptible condition promised to all members of the Church. "To him that overcometh will I grant to eat of the hidden manna." (Rev. 2:17) T122

Exodus 16:34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept.

To be kept

- In the Ark of the covenant. T121

35

Exodus 16:35 And the children of Israel did eat manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan.

Forty years

- Just as at the first advent they rejected him who was the antitype of Moses and Aaron and therefore did not enter into rest; instead, another long and wearisome journey in the wilderness for nearly 1900 years. R3064:4

The land of Canaan

- Representing the Millennial Kingdom condition. R3064:3
- Representing the rest promised to God's children who hear his call: "Come unto me, and I will give you rest." (Matt. 11:28) Have we the faith to enter in? T25

Exodus 17:6 Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Smite the rock

- The rock was a picture of Christ-who was smitten that the water of life might flow from Jesus for all of Adam's race who would become Israelites indeed. R5957:3, R5285:1; PD34
- As the waters of that rock followed the Israelites, so God's favor, through Christ, refreshes his people throughout their wilderness journey. R5285:2
- Here by the Lord's direction. The second time (Num. 20:2-12) he was to "speak to the rock," but instead he smote the rock a second time. R3077:3
- Christ is smitten but once for our sins. If, for a reason, the waters stop, the Rock should be invoked, in the name of the Lord, to start gushing anew. R3077:4

Exodus 17:8 Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

Came Amalek and fought

- As one branch of Esau's family, they were related to the Israelites and to the Arabs of today. R4207:2
- The Amalekites, a warlike people, considered the coming of Israel as an invasion of their country and attacked them in battle. R5285:2
- Similarly, spiritual Israelites have conflicts with the world, the flesh and the devil. R5285:2

With Israel

- A people used to peaceful pursuits would naturally be at a disadvantage in conflict with such opposition. R5285:2

11

Exodus 17:11 And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

When Moses

- The antitypical Moses is the antitypical Mediator, Christ. R2681:6

Held up in his hand

- In prayer to God for the people. R5285:2

Israel prevailed

- God thus indicated that Moses was the advocate of Israel, and that without him they could do nothing. We, too, have an advocate. R5285:2
- In the antitype, spiritual Israelites have conflicts with enemies too mighty for them without the Lord's assistance-the world, the flesh, and the devil. R5285:2

Amalek prevailed

24

Exodus 18:24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

- The time not having come for the development of the great Mediator, God made a typical arrangement with the nation of Israel. R4902:3

- None actuated by love have any desire to violate the law of commandments. R543:2
- The Christian's responsibility is transferred from the Father to our Lord Jesus. Hence he is no longer under Jehovah's Law given at Sinai, but now "under law to Christ." (1 Cor. 9:21) R542:6

- Israel knew they were the favored seed of Abraham, the natural heirs of the promises. R5285:4

- They saw only the outward aspect and not the spirit of the Law. R4013:2
- It did not seem to occur to Israel that they might not be able to obey the Law perfectly. R1724:5
- God was bound to give Israel eternal life if they would keep that Law. R4902:3

Touch the border

- Our God is a consuming fire to all who attempt to approach him except through Christ. R2035:6

Surely put to death

- How can we escape if we disregard the voice of the great Mediator of the New covenant, and the remarkable circumstances which now accompany its establishment. R5990:4

Exodus 19:18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.

Smoke of a furnace

- Symbol of the time of trouble. D630; C146

Quaked greatly

- Typifying the fearful sights, terrifying sounds, in the end of this age. D630; R5990:1
- Not only the earth (society) and the mountains (kingdoms) but the heavens also (ecclesiastical powers) so that only the unshakable principles of truth and righteousness may endure. R1914:5

Exodus 19:25 So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

Spake unto them

- The Reformers recognized the difference between Moses as a prophet and as a law-giver; maintaining that as law-giver his authority extended only over Israel. R976:2

Exodus 20:1 And God spake all these words, saying,

God spake all these words

- The first tables of the Law were prepared and written by the Lord himself. This represents how man in his creation was a perfect image of his Creator. R5298:6
- God's original law to man was given in Eden, written in Adam's heart, in the sense that he was created in the divine image. R5286:3
- The Decalogue has a depth of meaning not seen until Jesus "magnified the law and made it honorable." (Isa. 42:21) R5286:2

- Jesus gave the Law to Moses as the representative of the Father. R5622:5
- The Law given at Sinai has been the basis of all laws since. SM380

Exodus 20:2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Which have brought thee

- Showing that the Ten Commandments were given only to Israel after the flesh. R1726:5, R971:4

Exodus 20:3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt

- The Decalogue is a brief synopsis of the whole Law. A45 Neither the angelic sons nor the New Creation are under the Sinaitic Law, or need it. F365

No other gods before me

- Mighty ones, my equals. E40
- God shall have first place in the human heart. Any division of the heart or strength or mind or soul violates this commandment. R5286:3
- We shall not permit wealth or anything else to take away our minds from the Lord. R5094:5
- Idolizing husbands, wives or wealth is idolatry. R5071:5, R4014:4

Exodus 20:4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

Any graven image

- God would not have any symbols before his people, but have them worship him in spirit and in truth. R5627:3, R3038:2, R5298:1
- With spiritual Israel even fathers, mothers, wives and children might take the place of the Lord in our affections, as well as idols of wealth, social and personal ambition, etc. R3038:2, R3753:3

Under the earth

- Not subterranean waters, but the seas which are below the level of the "dry land" called the earth. R1813:2

Exodus 20:5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

Bow down thyself to them

- Shaw-kaw, worship. Not a prohibition of reverence to the honorable, but against image worship or worship of any rival gods. E73
- The Jews did not err in doing reverence (shaw-kaw) to angels who came in Jehovah's name. B73

Am a jealous God

- Who wants all of our affections, confidence and trust. This is for our good and is not selfishness on his part. R3038:3, R4789:2
- God's jealousy is just and is sure to bring to the sinner a just punishment. R4789:2
- The impropriety of jealousy is when it leads to bitterness and other like qualities to which the fallen human mind is subject. R4789:2

Upon the children

- Does not represent anger, bitterness, resentment, selfishness, but the law of nature, under which, in wisdom, God has placed humanity. R3038:3-4
- The doctrine of the ransom is linked to the doctrine that condemnation passed to Adam's posterity through the channel of natural birth. R2668:2

Unto the third and fourth

- Contrary to Darwin, deviations from the species prototype are corrected in the course of three generations—N. Y Times. R4859:6*

Exodus 20:7 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Not take the name

- This command was given to Israel only, who had come into relationship with God through the Law covenant. Many of the Jews tried very hard outwardly to keep the Ten Commandments. R5404:2
- Although this commandment was not given to spiritual Israel, the spirit of it applies to us. Let us, therefore, walk circumspectly, that we bring no dishonor to that hallowed name, but honor it in our every thought and deed. R5404:6, R4014:5, R3038:5, R1527:6

In vain

- Lightly, frivolously, or in any other than a sacred or reverential manner. R3038:5, R1527:3
- "Thou desirest truth in the inward parts." (Psa. 51:6) "Let every one that nameth the name of Christ (Jehovah's representative) depart from iniquity." (2 Tim. 2:19) R1527:3

Exodus 20:8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

The sabbath day

- The fourth commandment was never given to the Church. R5072:1
- A higher thought than that of physical rest is given to the Church. The seventh day typifies the rest of faith for the people of God. R5071:6, R5360:1, R4015:1, R1499:4
- Typically, the thousand-year day, the Millennial age. Then humanity will be at rest from Satan and from sin. R5071:6, R5640:5, R1499:4, R91:6*; B40; Q607:4
- We should neither consider ourselves under Mosaic Law nor repudiate the Sabbath entirely. R3752:2
- Spiritual Israel keeps Sabbath every day-resting in the finished work of God, resting from our own endeavors to justify ourselves. R3753:4
- Let our homes be the most quiet, let no sound of labor or worldly pleasure be heard on the appointed day of rest. R3753:6

Keep it holy

- As a day of rest, and no more. R4995:3
- Whoever abides in Christ is a sabbath-keeper. R5071:6

10

Exodus 20:10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

The seventh day

- Not the first day. If this commandment is binding at all it is binding as stated and cannot be changed. R1727:2
- The prominence of the seventh day holds good in the week of creation, the ordinary week and the week of thousands. R91:5*
- No matter how the first day of the week, Sunday, was originally set apart as sacred, it contains a great blessing. R2534:5, R2535:1

- We advocate observance of Sunday because: (1) we would not wish to see it fall into disuse; (2) we would not lead others to violate less-enlightened consciences; and (3) to maintain proper religious influence with neighbors. R2535:4, R3753:5
- Typified a coming blessing to spiritual Israel. OV250
- The Christian's rest is not of one day, but of all; well-illustrated in the seventh day which typified it, for seven is the symbol of completeness. R543:6

Not do any work

- It does not say to cease from ordinary work and engage in religious work; but prohibits all kinds of work. R1727:1, R971:5
- As soon as we begin to believe we begin to enter into this rest which need never end. "We which have believed do enter into rest." (Heb. 4:3) R3753:4
- This rest was merely typical and prophetic of the coming restitution peace and blessing. OV118
- Our rest in the Lord is as complete as is our belief in him. He who believes fully, rests fully; he who only believes partially, rests but partially. R2534:4
- While never losing sight of his real sabbaths, the spiritual Israelite nevertheless should avail himself of any arrangements of nominal Christendom favorable to his spiritual resting. R2534:5
- While chiefly a type, experience proves that such a rest is necessary from the physical standpoint. R2534:6

11

Exodus 20:11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is , and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

The LORD made

- Not creation but preparation for use. R300:1*

Rested the seventh day

- Letting humanity measurably take its own course in sin, leaving all the work of restitution to be accomplished by Christ in his reign. R975:4
- Because in his plan everything was fully arranged for—"the works were finished from the foundation of the world." (Heb. 4:3) R975:4
- But it does not follow that God's rest day was a 24-hour day, nor that he rested in the same sense as the Israelites were commanded. R1731:3
- Jesus said, "The Father worketh hitherto, and (now) I work." (John 5:17) R975:4
- A higher thought than that of physical rest is given the Church. The seventh day typifies the rest of faith for the people of God. R5071:6, R5360:1, R4015:1

Blessed the sabbath day

- Type of the greater sabbath-the heavenly. Q759:3

12

Exodus 20:12 Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Honour thy father

- Although always deserving of consideration from their children, the degree of respect must depend upon the character of the parent to some extent. R5287:3
- The parents are, in the divine arrangement, the priests of God in respect to their children. R5287:5
- Sunday Schools may weaken the respect of the children for the parents and may release the parents from an appreciation of their responsibilities toward their children. R5287:5
- Extending beyond the childhood obligation to obey, the duty of honoring parents extends from the cradle to the grave. R2024:3

- Absalom is a distinguished example of dishonor to a father, and the resultant cuffing off in the prime of life. R3262:1
- If our forefathers were monkeys, as so many now teach, why should we have much honor or respect for them? R4019:3
- To the spiritual Israelite, this would mean our Father in heaven. R4019:3, R3044:6

And thy mother

- Showing that man and woman are joint-inheritors of the earthly dominion. R1553:6
- To the spiritual Israelite, this would mean God's original covenant with Abraham, typified by Sarah. R4019:5, R3044:6

Long upon the land

- Children obedient to parents are more inclined to obedience to country and Creator. Such obedience would be favorable to old age. R3044:6
- The fact that the Jews did not dwell long in the land given them is evidence that they did not keep this commandment properly. R3044.6

Exodus 20:13 Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not kill

- Any malice, hatred or anger is of the murder spirit. R4019:6, R5286:3
- We are not to have an angry spirit of murder, restrained merely by fear of consequences. R5287:6
- Life is to be prized, not jeopardized. R5287:6
- Nothing in this commandment forbids the killing of animals when necessary, nor the execution of criminals. R5287:6, R4019:5, R3045:1
- Murder is always wrong; killing is sometimes right, sometimes duty; but the destruction of birds, beasts and fishes wantonly, or for sport, is wrong. R3045:1
- To take another's life is wrong, except when God's own Law demands it. SM352

14

Exodus 20:14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Not commit adultery

- "Whosoever looketh upon a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. (Matt. 5:28) In other words,the spirit of God's Law is that to desire to do wrong and to be merely hindered by circumstances and conditions, is in God's sight as serious, as criminal, as to have really done that wrong. R4020:4, R5286:3
- Purity, no adulteration, is the divine requirement. R5288:1
- As the Lord's betrothed, the Church is to be uncontaminated, unadulterated, separate from the world. R3045:3

15

Exodus 20:15 Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not steal

- A proper recognition of the property and rights of others, covering every form of theft, both public and private. R4020:4
- Applies to defrauding another in any manner, depriving him of rights, liberties, or a good name, as well as of money or property. R3045:3
- Including untruthful advertisements, misleading information, or misrepresentation. R3045:4
- Includes making false tax returns, avoiding payment of customs duty and failure to give agreed upon services to employers. R5288:1
- The worst form of stealing concerns the Scriptural instruction, "speak evil of no man. (Titus 3:2)

R5288:1

- To do so is wrong, unjust. SM352

16

Exodus 20:16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Bear false witness

- Even by a nod of the head, the shrugging of the shoulder, or by silence. R3045:5
- The spirit of this injunction may be violated, and is violated every day not only by misrepresenting the goods we sell, or the goods we wish to buy, but in a thousand ways of slandering a neighbor. R5288:4
- To do so would be an injustice. SM352

17

Exodus 20:17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

Shalt not covet

- Covetousness is a heart disease which has to do with every other crime; for all sins have their basis in selfishness. R5288:4
- Covetousness is an enviousness of the possessions of others and a desire to appropriate them for ourselves. R4021:4
- Covetousness is like drinking the salt waters of the sea, which only increase the thirst. R2340:6
- Covetousness first led Satan to disloyalty and sin. R3046:1
- Not a desire to prosper as well as one's neighbor, but to possess the possession of our neighbor. R2340:1
- The climax of all commandments respecting our relationship to our fellow-man. R4021:4
- "Godliness with contentment (absence of covetousness) is great gain." (1 Tim. 6:6) R3046:1
- Covetousness is wholly foreign to the spirit of Christ. To the extent that the spirit of Christ dwells in his members they will be free from it. R971:3, R1726:4
- Only one covetousness is encouraged—"Covet earnestly the best gifts (1 Cor 12:31) — the gifts of divine grace which robs not others, does not make God poorer. R2340 6

Lest we die

- Because we cannot stand even a reflection of the spiritual glory of the Lord. B131

21

Exodus 20:21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was .

- Type of entire consecration to God during the next age. T98

26

Exodus 20:26 Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

Go up by steps

- We cannot come to Christ by steps. We must come as we are and come at once. R101:5*

Nakedness be not discovered

- When we try to break off old habits and be good by ourselves climbing up a few steps and coming to Christ-the shame of our nakedness appears. R101:5*

Exodus 21:4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

And her children

Of pure myrrh

- Symbol of wisdom-knowing what to do. R4093:2*

Of sweet cinnamon

- Symbol of the understanding which we have of all the knowledge which we receive from God.

R4093:2*

Of sweet calamus

- Symbol of the knowledge which we receive from God's Word. R4093:2*

24

Exodus 30:24 And of cassia five hundred shekels , after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive an hin:

And of cassia

- Symbol of deputyship, described in Scripture as "workmanship" and as "counsel and might." God gives no knowledge except for a purpose. He establishes our faith by giving the understanding thereof, then gives us the wisdom to know what is expected of us, and finally blesses us with the advice and ability (counsel and might) necessary for good workmanship in the accomplishment of his purposes. All that is expected of us is full consecration to the Lord and his service. All the rest he will supply in knowledge, understanding, wisdom, counsel and might. With more than this he cannot anoint us. R4093:3*

And of oil olive

- Symbol of light through the holy Spirit. D651

Any other like it

- The Israelites were not permitted to compound a similar oil, showing typically that the holy Spirit is different from everything else and that its anointing is superior to any other. SM598

After the composition

- According to the proportion thereof. Those who mix the proportions of the spirit differently are false brethren. R4093:4*

33

Ye shall not make

- None could be made like it. We think it represents the perfection of the "man Christ Jesus." R79:2

Holy for the LORD

- As nobody was allowed to make that incense except the priests, so the privilege of prayer is confined to the Royal Priesthood. R5692:5

13

Exodus 31:13 Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD that doth sanctify you.

Verily my sabbaths

- Type of the Millennial age. B40

Doth sanctify you

- As the Lord said to the typical Israelites, "sanctify ourselves" and "I will sanctify you," so also he directs the spiritual Israelite to consecrate himself, and only to those who so do does the Lord sanctify and apportion crowns. F123

15

Exodus 31:15 Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.

The sabbath of rest

- The Jews kept six kinds of sabbaths: the 7th day the 7th week the 7x7 and 50th day (Lev. 23:15); the beginning of the 7th month the 7th year and 7x7 and 50th year (Lev. 25:10) HG56:1

Exodus 31:18 And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

Two tables of testimony

- Perhaps representing the two parts of God's Law: one pertaining to us and the other to our fellow men-loving God and loving neighbor. Q704:1

Exodus 32:1 And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

When the people

- Having an "evil heart of unbelief." (Heb. 3:12). R3046:3
- As our Lord came to his own and thev received him not, so at his second coming professed spiritual Israel did not receive him. R3047:5
- They were unable to trust God whom they could not see after his representative, Moses, was out of sight. R5298:1

That Moses delayed

- Similarly our Lord's absence was longer than had been expected and many claim that he will not come again. R3048:1

As for this Moses

- At this very time, when the people were thus speaking lightly of him, Moses was importuning the Lord for them. R3046:5

Exodus 32:2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

And Aaron

- The weakness of Aaron is very markedly shown in this incident. R3046:6

The golden earrings

- Possibly a subterfuge, hoping that by making this demand they would draw back and decline to part with their ornaments. R4022:4, R3046:6

Exodus 32:3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

And brought them

- How many, in their worshiping of a sect or denomination, will strip themselves of their most valuable possessions. R4022:5

Exodus 32:4 And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

A molten calf

- Symbolizing Churchianity, as well as Mammon, the god of wealth, of money. R4022:6, R3047:3
- Shall we, like Israel of old, turn to gods we formerly worshipped-gods of wealth or of pleasure. R5548:3
- The Israelites probably recognized the golden calf as merely a symbol of Jehovah, just as the heathen use idols and some Christians use the crucifix as a representation of Christ. R5298:1, R4022:2, R3047:1
- It is improbable that the jewelry would have been enough. Perhaps the calf was made of clay or wood and covered over with gold. R5298:2

- Pictures the worship of self and the works of self, especially evidenced in Higher Criticism. R5267:3*
- The sin of covetousness, the worship of Mammon, the idolatry of money, is the great sin of Christendom, the antitype of fleshly Israel. R1836:1

Exodus 32:5 And when Aaron saw it , he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD.

An altar before it

- It is but natural that we should sacrifice to whatever we set up in our hearts as an idol. If we know the things to which one sacrifices his best thoughts, time and influence, we can tell his idol. R4023:2

To the LORD

- To Jehovah; showing that the idolatry here was not different from the kind practiced today in some Christian churches where images, pictures, crucifixes, etc. are worshipped. R3047:1, R5298:1, R4022:2

Exodus 32:6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

Rose up to play

- Dances and supposedly lewd conduct, after the manner of heathen. R3047:2
- Idolatry is not the blind adoration of superior dignity, but it is wilful and sinful devotion to degrading self-gratification. R1835:6

Exodus 32:9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

Unto Moses

- Moses was the Mediator of the Law covenant. Christ became the heir of its promises of life and the Mediator of the New covenant. R1725:4
- Who acted representatively in bringing the Law covenant upon the Israelites, as Christ acted representatively in removing it. R1725:4, R5046:6

A stiffnecked people

- Like an ox, difficult to turn about. R5387:3
- Their stubborness will eventually show the mercy of God through his dealing with them. OV120

Exodus 32:10 Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.

I will make of thee

- Showing how thoroughly Moses was the representative of the nation of Israel. R5046:5

11

Exodus 32:11 And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

Besought the LORD

- He thus showed himself a worthy type of the great Mediator. R3046:5

13

Exodus 32:13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

Remember Abraham

- The Jews were not selected because they were holier or better than others, but for their fathers' sakes God chose them. R5917:3

15

Exodus 32:15 And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

And went down

- His return to the people from Mt. Sinai corresponded to the second coming of Christ. R1836:4

16

And the tables

- Representing the perfection of our race as originally created. R2196:4

19

Exodus 32:19 And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount.

Anger waxed hot

- As the Mediator between God and Israel—the representative of both—he had a right to be angry, realizing what a serious crime had taken place. R5298:2, R5547:2

Cast the tables

- Type of the Law covenant. D631

And brake them

- Representing the failure of the Law covenant by reason of the "weakness of the flesh." D631
- Indicating that the covenant was broken. R5298:2
- The first tables, prepared by the Lord himself, represents how Adam was created perfect, needing no other law than that which was in himself. But this law was broken and the original tables are shattered and have grown illegible. R5298:6

Exodus 32:20 And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strawed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it .

in the fire

- Symbolizes the destruction of hoarded wealth in the great time of trouble. R1836:4

26

Exodus 32:26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD'S side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

Then Moses

- Our Lord is even now standing at the gate calling, as did Moses in the type, "Who is on the Lord's side?" R3048:2

All the sons of Levi

- Typical of the "Israelites indeed" at both the first and second advents. R3047:5
- Typical of the "household of faith" of the Gospel age. R3047:3

28

Exodus 32:28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

About 3000 men

- The leaders of the people. R3047:3

29

Exodus 32:29 For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves to day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

Consecrate yourselves

- Consecrate anew today, not invalidating the consecration made once for all, but re-affirming and emphasizing that covenant. R1281:3

30

Exodus 32:30 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin.

Sinned a great sin

- In their trial of faith and obedience they failed utterly. The covenant was broken. R5297:3
- God was greatly displeased with their symbolic representation of himself. R5298:1

I will go up

- As Moses went up to make reconciliation for their sins, so Christ, as the High Priest, ascended to make atonement for the sins of the people. R3047:5

31

Exodus 32:31 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold.

And Moses

- As God's representative on the one hand, and Israel's on the other, Moses could be the Mediator of the Law covenant between God and that nation. R1725:4, R5046:6
- Type of Christ. D630; A79, B255

Exodus 32:32 Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written.

Forgive their sin

- After punishing them, God renewed the covenant with them. R5297:3

Blot me, I pray thee, out

- As Moses here staked his own eternal existence for the benefit of the people, so the life of Christ was staked for the benefit of the race he died to redeem. R4023:5
- Moses was a patriot of the highest order: loyal, as Israel's representative, and at the same time loyal to God, whom he also represented. R5298:3, R3048:4
- There was not a particle of selfishness on his own part; a very noble character, worthy to be compared to our Lord Jesus Christ, who risked the blotting out of his own life on our behalf. Q537:3
- This finds two parallels in Scripture: David weeping for Absalom, "Would God I had died for thee"

and St. Paul's words, "I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren according to the flesh." (Rom. 9:3) R4278:2

Of thy book

- The book of God's remembrance, the book of life. Q537:3

34

Exodus 32:34 Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mine Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them.

Lead the people

- Typifying our Mediator, who has actually given his life for us in order to bring whosoever wills back into full accord with God. R3048:5

Unto the place

- The Edenic conditions, the land of promise. R3048:5

Their sin upon them

- So it will be during the Millennial age. Men will receive stripes or chastisements in proportion as they participated willingly or knowingly in a course of sin. R3048:5

11

Exodus 33:11 And the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

Face to face

- Signifying a closeness of fellowship with the Lord rather than really looking into the face of Jehovah. R4055:2
- We see the Lord's face with the eye of faith, for we see the Lord Jesus who represents the Father and declares that he who has seen him has seen the Father. R4055:2
- "Their angels do always have access to the face of my Father" all our interests and affairs are brought directly to the Father's attention. R4055:4

Exodus 33:14 And he said, My presence shall go with thee , and I will give thee rest.

My presence

- By his spirit and through his angelic messengers. R5547:5
- His power and sustaining grace. R5548:1
- Because he was speaking to Moses as the Mediator. R5387:6
- Not literally. God manifests his power and love to his people by his various powers and agents, not merely to know what is happening, but to control all events that they may outwork his designs. He guides and assists the efforts of his people. R5387:2
- The divine presence was manifested directly with the Israelites in the Shekinah glory in the Most Holy and also by the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night. R5387:5, R5548:1
- Similarly, God has promised that his presence is with us in all the affairs of life. R5548:2, R5862:5

Shall go with thee

- If we call him in the busy hours of the day or in the silent watches of the night, he is near to sustain, uphold and protect. R5549:1

I will give thee rest

- The rest in Canaan was a type of the rest of the people of God in the Gospel age. We rest in his promises. R5388:1

15

Exodus 33:15 And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me , carry us not up hence.

If thy presence go not

- Moses felt the task too great for any man to accomplish alone and so do we. R5548:2

20

Exodus 33:20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live.

No man see me, and live

- "Whom no man hath seen nor can see, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto." (1 Tim. 6:16) F722
- Humanity, being of earthly nature, could not see a spirit being. R3861:6 It is just as impossible for men to see the unveiled glory of the Lord Jesus as it is for them to behold Jehovah. B131
- A perfect human being would be the best illustration mankind could see, and this they saw in our Lord Jesus, the Father's image in the flesh. R3861:6
- Those who saw and understood Jesus to be the Son of God caught the best possible glimpse of the Heavenly Father. R5653:6

Exodus 33:22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a clift of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by:

My glory passeth by

- The Lord's special messenger, the angel of the Lord. Q360:2

Leviticus

General

- Year by year continuously, the Israelites kept up their attempt to gain divine favor by obedience to the terms of their Law covenant. And year by year they failed afresh, until Jesus came. The great lessons taught by Israel's experiences were: (1) That all are sinners; (2) That no sinner can justify himself; (3) That an atonement for sin is necessary before divine favor can be fully attained for all mankind; and (4) That since the penalty is death, only by a sacrificial death can sinners be released from the death penalty.
- If the Jewish Law gave a hint that a sacrificial death would be necessary for the cancellation of human sin it also gave a hint that the death of bulls and of goats was not sufficient. SM71, SM72
- Those sacrifices which do not belong to the class we denominate the "Day of Atonement sacrifices" illustrated offerings and sacrifices which belong to the Millennial age. As in the type, the Day of Atonement sacrifices preceded all others and were a basis for the general forgiveness and acceptance with God of all Israel, but were followed by other sacrifices by individuals after that day, termed "sin- offerings"... "trespass-offerings," "peace offerings," etc., so it will be in the antitype. After the sacrifices of this Gospel age have brought "the people," the world, into a justified condition there will still be sins and trespasses committed which will require confession and reconciliation, making these after-sacrifices necessary. T93, T94

Numbers 11:31 And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth.

Two cubits high

- Every spring they come in great flocks and, wearied with the long flight across the Red Sea, fly so low, about two cubits from the ground, that they are easily captured. R4012:3, R5306:5; PD34/45

33

Numbers 11:33 And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague.

Spake against Moses

- While both participated in the sin, Miriam was the leading spirit. R5308:1

An Ethiopian woman

- A Negress. R3042:6 The start of the matter was a question of family pride. R5308:1 The Lord could have hindered the marriage. He probably favored it so the Jews would not choose Moses' children as his successors; they were supposed to look to the Lord as their leader. R3061:4 Of an alien race, she replaced Miriam as first lady, arousing Miriam's jealousy on religious grounds. R5308:1 Zipporah, typifying the Bride of Christ. R1651:6 Perhaps Moses' first wife had died, and Zipporah was his second wife. R5308:1

- Thus a suitable type of the meek and lowly Nazarene and of the members of his Body. R1651:3 If Moses had been proud and arrogant he would have been unfit for the duties and responsibilities which devolved upon him as the leader of his people out of Egypt to the borders of Canaan. R5252:1 Meekness was a marked characteristic of all the prophets and Ancient Worthies. R1921:1 Yet it was this same Moses who was hindered from entering the promised land as a punishment for spiritual pride. R5957:3, R4047:4, R3866:4

Numbers 12:8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

Numbers 16:3 And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD?

Gathered themselves

- Typical of the opposition engendered against the Lord's harvest work: "Why so high a standard?" R5268:3*

Too much upon you

- "Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer." (1 Cor 10:10) R2300:4 Had they recognized the Lord as Governor they would have accepted Moses as his representative. R4047:1 So some ignore Jesus and talk of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. R4047:2 Thus Christ calls not all, but a special class. R4047:2 The Lord sets the members in the Body, we are not to set ourselves. R4047:3

LORD is among them

- Boastfulness is not a sign of piety, but of the reverse. R2300:5

30

Numbers 16:30 But if the LORD make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.

Earth open

- Possibly showing being swallowed up by worldliness, business, etc. R5268:4

Into the pit

32

Numbers 16:32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

33

Numbers 16:33 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

Of Aaron

- Representing the Royal Priesthood. T122

Was budded

- Showing the elect character of all the Body of Christ as members of the Royal Priesthood. T122

And yielded almonds

- A peculiarity of the almond tree is that the fruit buds appear before the leaves do; so with the Royal Priesthood: they bring forth fruit before the leaves of profession are seen. T122

10

Numbers 17:10 And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not.

Every oblation

- Every offering made by the world of mankind during the Millennial age. T92

Covenant of salt

- The covenant of faithfulness, a pledge of lasting friendship. R4907:1 A covenant made over a sacrificial meal with salt; its preservative qualities a symbol of an enduring compact. R2099:2*

Numbers 18:23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance.

No inheritance

- Typifying that the imperfect conditions of the present time are not the inheritance of those who are consecrated to the Lord and whose hopes are heavenly. F130 All the Gospel Church are called to heavenly conditions; therefore cut off from their earthly rights as men. R5023:2 The antitypical Levites will not have an earthly inheritance. Q436:1; R4655:2

Red heifer

- Type of the Ancient Worthies; red to teach that they were not sinless, a heifer instead of a bullock to show that it was not one of the sacrifices of the Day of Atonement. T106, T111; R4389:1 They were justified by faith—red represents the blood of Christ—they caught a glimpse of Christ's day. R1872:1

Never came yoke

- Showing that the Ancient Worthies were justified, made free from the Law covenant, thus to "obtain a good report through faith." (Heb. 11:39) T110

Numbers 19:3 And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face:

Eleazar the priest

- Probably typifying the Apostle Paul. The name Eleazar signifies "Helped by God." T110

And one

- Not a priest, showing that the sacrifice did not in any sense of the word represent the sacrifices of the Gospel age. T106

Before his face

- Representing that one of the underpriests would so recognize and approve the sacrifices of the Ancient Worthies; as the Apostle Paul has done in the eleventh chapter of Hebrews. T110

Numbers 19:4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times:

Before the tabernacle

- Showing that their lives were in full harmony with the Tabernacle conditions. T110

And hyssop

- Representing the purging or cleansing of truth. T109

And scarlet

- Representing that they were justified or accepted by the blood of the cross. T109

Numbers 19:9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin.

In water

- Symbol of truth. T112

Numbers 20:3 And the people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God that we had died when our brethren died before the LORD!

Chode with Moses

- All leaders of honor and influence carry weighty responsibilities. R5315:1

Numbers 20:6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.

Glory of the LORD

- Surmised to have been a ray of light emanating from the Mercy Seat in the Most Holy. R5315:1

Unto them

- Possibly also manifest to the people of Israel, who looked on. R5315:1

Numbers 20:8 Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.

Take the rod

- Presumably "Aaron's rod that budded." R5315:1 A reminder to the people of the Lord's special acceptance of Aaron as the High Priest and assistant of Moses. R5315:2

10

Numbers 20:10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock?

Must we fetch

- Moses took the honor to himself instead of giving God the glory. R41:1, R5957:4 One of the most illustrious servants of God there fell under divine disapprobation. R5315:2 Similarly, the feet class will need to be specially upheld by the Lord that they stumble not through pride or self-conceit. R4047:5 Those who do not have sufficient faith in the Lord as the real Head of the Church are generally those who feel too much self-assurance. R3018:2

Smote the rock

- Type of Christ. R3077:4, R5333:3 In this he spoiled a type while he made another type. Christ Jesus, the true Rock, was to be smitten but once for our sins. But the second smiting made a new type—some now crucify Christ afresh, committing the sin unto death—the Second Death. R3077:3, 4

Twice

- Twice, typically putting Christ "to an open shame." (Heb. 6:6) R3077:4 The second time; the first time in Ex. 17:1-7; this time he was to speak to the rock, not smite it. R3077:3 The smiting of the rock at the beginning of Israel's experience was authorized; it was necessary that upon Jesus should fall the rod of affliction. The second smiting may symbolize a smiting of the people of God in the end of this age. R5315:3

Water came out

- Symbolizing the blessings which flow from the smiting of Jesus' followers. Under the divine providence blessings will flow from the wrong course, yet no greater blessings than might have come by pursuing the right course. R5315:3

12

Numbers 20:12 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

Believed me not

- Self-assertion and lack of faith were Moses' sin. R4047:6, R5315:5 Any denial of the Redeemer on the part of the consecrated would signify a crucifying afresh, a smiting of the rock a second time. R5315:4 The most unjust thing we can do is judge Moses or any other man by his deeds and not by his fruits. R4055:5

14

Numbers 20:14 And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the travail that hath befallen us:

Utterly destroyed

- Not then, but a parenthesis showing that they later kept their vow. R3101:2

Hormah

- So called, meaning "utter destruction," because of their vow. R3101:2

Numbers 21:4 And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way.

General

- The book of Deuteronomy may in a general sense be said to be the dying message of Moses to Israel. It is supposed to have been uttered within a few days of his death. (Outline of the book follows.) R5334:4, R5528:1
- Deuteronomy is the title of one of the most important books of the Bible. From it evidently David and the other prophets of the Old Testament drew considerable of their inspiration and from it our Lord and the apostles freely quoted. It may be said to be a grand summary of the whole law of God. It presents to us a number of the orations of that great man of God and leader of Israel—the Mediator of the Law covenant. Its preparation may have been a gradual work on the part of Moses but its delivery was apparently reserved until shortly before his death, about the time the Israelites were ready to pass over Jordan under the leadership of Joshua to take possession of the land. The grandeur of its language is freely conceded by all. The evident object of the book was to impress upon the Israelites the glorious lessons of their past, to inspire them with reverence for Jehovah and thus to be to that people the voice of Moses and the voice of the Lord through Moses encouraging and admonishing them and, through them, future generations. R4050:3

- Not only did these orations of Deuteronomy have a valuable influence upon the Israelites at the important juncture of their passing from the guidance of an old leader to that of a younger one and into a new land, but Scriptural history tells us that six hundred years afterward the finding of the book of Deuteronomy and the reading of it first in the ears of King Josiah and afterward in the hearing of all the people awakened one of the greatest revivals in the history of that nation. R4051:1
- Israel's organization now was a combination of political and military under judges and officers over thousands, hundreds, fifties, tens. R4037:2

- The Law covenant was made with the people of Israel, not with Moses. Moses was the Mediator. R4999:3, R4370:5 God dealt only with one man, Moses, in the making of the Law covenant. He stood in the position of a father to the nation, the nation being regarded as children under age. R5046:4 The Jews eagerly accepted the arrangement but, being imperfect, they could not keep this perfect law. PD35/46

Deuteronomy 5:3 The LORD made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.

With our fathers

- Not with any one else previously. F356

But with us

- The blessings of that covenant and its promises were only to the one nation; so also its curses. R1725:1, R5046:1

Deuteronomy 5:4 The LORD talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire,

Talked with you

- Not through the intervention of priests. A54

Deuteronomy 5:5 (I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to shew you the word of the LORD: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying,

I stood between

- Proving that the Law was conditional. R4370:5 It was the Law of God because it came from him; and it is the Law of Moses in that it came through him. HG583:6* Moses was the Mediator of the Law covenant. As Mediator he stood between the two parties, God and Israel. On the one hand he represented God, and on the other, Israel. R4681:3, R2858:3, R5000:1; Q185:2 So the antitypical Moses, the Christ (Head and Body), as Mediator, will stand between God and the world and will for a thousand years shield the people from the requirements of absolute justice. R4646:1, R5000:1 The title of Mediator applied to Moses only while the covenant was being made. In future renewals, Aaron represents the Mediator in his sacrificing and subsequent blessing the people, while Moses represents the Law. R4570:3* Not only to satisfy the claims of justice but to instruct, correct and restore as many of the fallen race as so desire. E18

Into the mount

- Type of the Kingdom of God. R4037:5

Deuteronomy 5:7 Thou shalt have none other gods before me.

Thou shalt have

- The Decalogue is a synopsis of the whole Law. A45 Neither the angelic sons nor the New Creation are under the Law, nor do they need it. F365; R4014:2 The wonderful Law of God, represented by the Ten Commandments, has a depth of meaning not seen on the surface, and was apparently seen by none until Jesus "magnified the law and made it honorable." (Isa. 42:21) R5286:2

None other gods

- Mighty ones, my equals. E40 God properly puts himself first; the true God shall have first place in the human heart. R4014:3, R5286:3

Deuteronomy 5:8 Thou shalt not make thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth:

Any graven image

- With spiritual Israel this goes so far as to include father, mother, self, wealth, ambition; anything that would prevent the Lord from having the first place. R3038:2, R4014:4, R5071:5

Waters beneath

- The waters are below, beneath, the level of the "dry land," called the earth. R1813:1

Deuteronomy 5:9 Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me,

Bow down thyself

- Shaw-kaw, worship. E73

Unto them

- To images or to rival gods. E73

Am a jealous God

- Wanting all the affections, confidence and trust of my creatures, for their own good. R3038:3,

R4789:2 God's jealousy is just and is sure to bring to the sinner a just punishment. R4789:2 The impropriety of jealousy is when it leads to bitterness and other like qualities to which the fallen human mind is subject. R4789:2

Upon the children

- By the law of nature under which, in wisdom, God has placed humanity. R3038:3 The tendency of sin is to break down the moral character and to impair the physical system. R2668:2 Suffering for the fathers' sins. R527:6*

Unto the third

- Darwin considered that species had been and were being built up by the process of natural selection, but no species is being built up, and deviations from the prototype are corrected in the course of three generations. R4859:6*

11

Deuteronomy 5:11 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Taketh his name

- The only ones who may properly take Christ's name are those who really become his disciples. R5404:6 As a child adopted into a family takes the name of the family, so we have taken upon ourselves the name of the sons of God. R4014:5 To take the name of God without careful effort to represent him is a sin against God. R1527:6 So the Jews, going to the extreme, avoid the covenant name of God-Jehovah. R3038:6

In vain

- Lightly, frivolously, or in any other than a sacred and reverential manner. R3038:5, R1527:3 "Thou desirest truth in the inward parts." (Psa. 51:6) R1527:3 "Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity." (2 Tim. 2:19) R1527:3

12

Deuteronomy 5:12 Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee.

The sabbath day

- Type of the Millennial age. B40; R5071:6; Q607:4 Typifying the rest which spiritual Israelites now enter by faith in Christ. R4015:1, R5071:6, R5360:1

Sanctify it

- Observance as a day of rest, and no more. R4995:3

14

Deuteronomy 5:14 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; that thy manservant and thy maidservant may rest as well as thou.

But the seventh day

- Not the first day; if this commandment is binding at all, it is binding as stated and cannot be changed. R1727:2

Not do any work

- It prohibits all kinds of work, secular or religious. R1727:1 "We which believe do enter into rest." (Heb. 4:3) R3753:4

15

Deuteronomy 5:15 And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God brought thee out thence through a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD thy

God commanded thee to keep the sabbath day.

Keep the sabbath day

- This was something new to the Israelites, not previously known among them or their fathers. R1731:3 The Jewish Sabbath and its system of sabbaths are types of the greater Sabbath-the heavenly. Q759:3

16

Deuteronomy 5:16 Honour thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Honour thy father

- To the spiritual Israelite this would mean our Father in heaven. R4019:3 If our forefathers were monkeys, as so many now teach, why should we have much honor or respect for them? R4019:3 Quoted by Jesus in Mark 7:10 and attributed to Moses. HG583:6*

And thy mother

- To the spiritual Israelites this would mean God's original covenant with Abraham, typified by Sarah. R4019:5

In the land

- The fact that the Jews did not dwell long in the land given them is evidence that they did not keep this commandment properly. R3044:6

17

Deuteronomy 5:17 Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shaft not kill

- Hatred of a brother is the spirit of murder. R3045:1, R4019:6, R5286:3 We should not even kill animals wantonly. R3045:1, R4019:5, R5287:6

18

Deuteronomy 5:18 Neither shalt thou commit adultery.

Commit adultery

- Not even "in the heart." (Matt. 5:28) R4020:4, R5286:3 The Church is to be uncontaminated, unadulterated, separate from the world. R3045:3

19

Deuteronomy 5:19 Neither shalt thou steal.

Neither shalt thou steal

- By any method deprive another of that which is properly his. R4020:5 Making false returns to tax assessors, attempting to smuggle without payment of customs duty, failure to give agreed-upon services for wages, are stealing. R5288:1 The worst form of stealing is the filching of another's good name. "Speak evil of no man. (Titus 3:2) R5288:1,4 20

Deuteronomy 5:20 Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Bear false witness

- By a nod of the head, a shrug of the shoulders, or by silence. R3045:5

21

Deuteronomy 5:21 Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is thy neighbour's.

Desire ... covet

- Wish to appropriate for yourself. R4021:4 "Godliness with contentment (absence of covetousness) is great gain." (1 Tim. 6:6) R3046:1 Covetousness caused Satan's fall. R3046:1

Deuteronomy 6:1 Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go to possess it:

And the judgments

- Decisions as to right and wrong. R4051:1

To teach you

- "They are written for our admonition upon whom the ends of the world (the present evil world) are come." (1 Cor. 10:11)—the very object of their record. R1850:2

Deuteronomy 6:2 That thou mightest fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged.

Fear the LORD

- Perfect love casteth out slavish, but not reverential fear. R2986:6, R4051:2

Deuteronomy 6:3 Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it ; that it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in the land that floweth with milk and honey.

May be well

- The promises to fleshly Israel were earthly promises. R4051:3

Deuteronomy 6:4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD:

The LORD

- Jehovah, not a general name but a proper name, the distinctive personal name of the Almighty Father. Like other proper names, it should not be translated. R1410:6

Our God

- The word "god" signifies mighty one, but not always the All-Mighty One. R1410:2

Is one LORD

- There is but one God, and he has not three names, but one—Jehovah. R4051:5; E41; CR289 Our Roman Catholic friends make many gods—the Father, Son, holy Spirit, Mary, and all the apostles and saints; and the Protestants, contrary to Scripture, declare we have three Gods in one or one God in three persons. R4051:4 The Jew rejects the doctrine of the Trinity as an absurdity. OV113 Jehovah, self-centered and self-contained, changes not. SM483 Scientifically proved by the unity of material, force, government and moral law throughout the universe. R3861:2*

Deuteronomy 6:5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

Thou shalt love

- Not dread, fear or tremble. R5521:3 "Love is the fulfilling of the law." (Rom. 13:10) A246 Failure to love God and neighbor results in the time of trouble as a natural consequence. A309 The spiritual Israelite is obliged to live up to everything in the spirit that the Jew was commanded to do in the flesh. Q449:3 Love leads us to do all things in his Word. R5359:6 A law based upon justice. R5072:2 The law the whole world will be under during the Millennial age. Q172:T The spirit of the Decalogue is today recognized as the very best statement of human obligation. OV10; SM380

- Jehovah. E41

With all thine heart

- Not a mere passing sentiment of appreciation; it is all-absorbing love that God desires. R1850:4 Some might love and yet work ill, with best intentions; but perfect love worketh no ill. R4850:1 Such love does not wait for commands, but appeals for service. F124

Deuteronomy 6:7 And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

Teach them diligently

- Cultivate this love by meditating upon his just and holy law and upon his precepts and instructions, and by teaching them diligently. R1850:4

When thou risest up

- A heart thus filled with love for God would have no time for sin or frivolity and would indeed be that of a saint. R4052:3

Deuteronomy 6:8 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

Upon thine hand

- Let the divine law affect every affair of your life. R4053:2

Between thine eyes

- The memory, stored with words of revelation, is a ready weapon of defense against every attack of the Adversary. R2038:6 Misunderstanding the spirit of this exhortation, many Jews, even to this day, bind upon forehead and arm cubical leather boxes, phylacteries, containing Scriptural passages. R4053:1

Deuteronomy 6:9 And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

Posts of thy house

- Many Jews do this literally, but Moses' thought was that everything pertaining to the family of God is sacred to him and under his blessing. R4053:4

And on thy gates

- The Christian who abandons the daily reading of the Word and meditation upon it is not a growing Christian. R1850:5

12

Deuteronomy 6:12 Then beware lest thou forget the LORD, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

Lest thou forget

- The light, misused, may turn to darkness; and then, "how great is that darkness." (Matt. 6:23) R1850:5

15

Deuteronomy 6:15 (For the LORD thy God is a jealous God among you) lest the anger of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth.

And destroy thee

- The application to reprobates of spiritual Israel corresponds to the faithful warnings of the Apostle Paul in Heb. 6:4-8 and Heb. 10:26-31. R1850:6

16

Deuteronomy 6:16 Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God, as ye tempted him in Massah.

Ye shall not tempt

- With unreasonable and unnecessary requests for temporal favors or protection against legitimate results of presumptuous experiments. R1688:5

Deuteronomy 7:1 When the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou;

Cast out many nations

- No injustice was done to the Canaanites by the Lord's decree. R3085:3 In type the Canaanites or Amorites represented the weaknesses and imperfections of the fallen nature—sin. R3085:2

Greater and mightier

- This must mean that combinedly they were greater and mightier, or else it signified that these people were larger-bodied giants, in accord with the report of the spies. HG362:6 Certainly the entire seven nations of that time could not have numbered much over a million souls, else how could that little land have supported them? HG362:6

Deuteronomy 7:2 And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them:

Shalt smite them

- Representing the weaknesses of our human nature against which we are to battle and overcome. Q48:T

Make no covenant

- Hence the Jews were right in not acknowledging the Samaritans, having no religious dealings with them, nor intermarrying with them. R2574:2

Deuteronomy 7:6 For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

A special people

- For 2081 years-from the Abrahamic covenant to the call of Cornelius. R3459:6*

Deuteronomy 7:8 But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

Unto your fathers

- Because of Abraham's great faith in him, the Lord promised to make of his seed a peculiar people. R5490:2

11

Deuteronomy 7:11 Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

Thou shalt therefore keep

- Although all of the sons of Jacob were called or invited, it was a conditional call. R4781:3

18

Deuteronomy 7:18 Thou shalt not be afraid of them: but shalt well remember what the LORD thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt;

Well remember

- So must the Christian continually call to mind the Lord's leadings, care and deliverance in his individual experiences. R2031:6

Deuteronomy 8:2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

Thou shalt remember

- Moses exhorted the people to fear and love the Lord. R5296:1

God led thee

- While in the wilderness they had learned to depend on the Lord. R5296:1

These forty years

- Israel, because of lack of faith, had its wilderness journey of forty years. So, on account of lack of faith at our Lord's first advent, they were to wander during the past nineteen centuries. R3079:3

To prove thee

- To test you. R5395:5

Deuteronomy 8:3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.

Fed thee with manna

- Representing the living Bread supplied to the world by God through Christ. T122

But by every word

- Not just the ceremonies and justice of the Law, but mercy, peace, love, reconciliation and adoption into God's family. R3080:3 The type could sustain natural life for a brief season, but the real Bread sustains spiritual life forever. R38:3, 5*

Deuteronomy 8:5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

God chasteneth thee

- God's chastenings have kept spiritual Israel's feet from wandering. R5527:6

Deuteronomy 8:7 For the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

Into a good land

- What a wonderful application can spiritual Israel make of this scripture-we are even now in this antitypical land. R5527:6

Surely perish

- As the rich man died and was tormented in the flames of persecution. (Luke 16:24) R802:3*

Deuteronomy 9:1 Hear, O Israel: Thou art to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and fenced up to heaven,

Pass over Jordan

- The crossing of Jordan under the leadership of Joshua represents God's people passing from death unto life through faith in the blood of Jesus. PD37/48

Deuteronomy 9:4 Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee.

Hath cast them out

- They had been already sentenced by God to destruction before the conquest by Joshua. (Gen. 15:16) R2485:1

For the wickedness

- Like the Sodomites, they had gone as far in their wickedness as divine wisdom saw best to permit. R5296:2

Deuteronomy 9:9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

Tables of the covenant

- The Ten Commandments were the basis of the Law covenant. R1724:6

10

Deuteronomy 9:10 And the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

The finger of God

- Moses thus attributes the origin of the Mosaic Law to God, not to himself. A53

17

Deuteronomy 9:17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

And brake them

- Representing the failure of the Law covenant by reason of the "weakness of the flesh." D631; R2196:4 Indicating that the covenant was broken. R5298:2 The first tables, prepared by the Lord himself, represents how man in his creation was a perfect image of his Creator. R5298:6, R2196:4

Deuteronomy 10:1 At that time the LORD said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ark of wood.

I turned myself

- Here Moses typified the entire Church, of which our Lord is the Head. B134; D630; R5035:4

Put the tables

- Representing the New covenant, of which Christ is the Mediator. D631

In the ark

- It represented the eternal purpose of God, his foreordained arrangement of riches of grace for mankind in The Christ (Head and Body). T121

Deuteronomy 10:8 At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day.

The tribe of Levi

Deuteronomy 11:2 And know ye this day: for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm,

Know ye this day

- A similar use of language to that employed by Jesus in his answer to the dying thief. (Luke 23:43) HG130:3

Deuteronomy 11:3 And his miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

In the midst of Egypt

- The dominion of sin and death. R5643:1, R5273:1; F458

28

Deuteronomy 11:28 And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.

A curse

- But it could not come without God's permission. R1780:2, R1271:5

11

Deuteronomy 12:11 Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD:

There shall be a place

- Only one spot on earth where atoning blood could be shed. R3454:5*

13

Deuteronomy 12:13 Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every place that thou seest:

In every place

- This prohibition not applicable in Solomon's time. (1 Kings 3:3) R2045:5

19

Deuteronomy 12:19 Take heed to thyself that thou forsake not the Levite as long as thou livest upon the earth.

Daughters they have burnt

- Thus Jephthah vowed not to sacrifice his daughter, but to devote her to perpetual virginity. R2897:3, 5

Deuteronomy 13:3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

God proveth you

- The word prove has the sense of test. The words were addressed to Israel, who had entered into a covenant to obey all God's requirements, so it was proper that the Lord should prove them. This proving would be accomplished by permitting false prophets to be amongst them. God did not prove the heathen nations, for they had no covenant with him. R5799:3, R5527:3 Satan's opposition to the Church is permitted as a trial of faith and of patient endurance. It tests their loyalty to God, to the truth and to the brethren and becomes a test of brotherly love, thus doing a sifting or separating work. R5147:6, R5320:6, R4445:5, R4462:2, R4479:3, R4910:3 "Blessed is the man that endureth (faithfully under) temptation; for after his trials he will receive the crown of life which the Lord hath promised to them that love him." (Jas. 1:12) R2258:3 Class troubles amongst the brethren are means which the Lord permits to test and to demonstrate the character of his people. R5948:1 To see how we learn the lessons of binding up the broken hearts. SM267, SM268 When trying experiences came to him the Lord considered them as being under the supervision of the Father. So it is with us: if the Father permits trying experiences for our testing, it is for us to rejoice. R4802:3, R2258:3 The Lord is surely judging the nations, especially those that have been greatly blessed with his favor. OV432; CR494 The Lord gives opportunities of choice, for there is no virtue in choosing that which alone is possible. R3631:

Whether ye love the LORD

- Those who will endure most patiently will give evidence of the best character. R5395:6, R4910:2 Only by permitting false teachers could God demonstrate to what extent his professed people are loyal to him. R5800:2 The Lord will not accept us merely because we are consecrated. He requires that the consecration be proved. R4910:4 Our obedience to the principles of righteousness is in proportion to our love for the Lord. These principles, obediently followed, develop character to be crystallized. R3631:3

Deuteronomy 13:9 But thou shalt surely kill him; thine hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

Put him to death

- Extending good will towards God's enemies is obnoxious to God. The stoning of a condemned criminal showed acquiescence and approval of God's judgment. R764:5

10

Deuteronomy 13:10 And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die; because he hath sought to thrust thee away from the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

That he die

- Thus the Lord proved Israel's determination to obey him at the sacrifice of any earthly friendship if need be. In this Israel was a type of both the world in the age to come and the Church in the present time. R768:1

13

Deuteronomy 13:13 Certain men, the children of Belial, are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which ye have not known;

Serve other gods

- Those who fellowship with such have not the spirit of the Lord. R1588:3

Deuteronomy 14:2 For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth.

Chosen thee

- Not so much for their own sake as for God's "Holy Name's Sake" (Ezek. 36:22)—for the sake of love to all men. R518:1*

A peculiar people

- The Jews were a special people whom God had separated from the world; they were a chosen generation or race. R5460:3 The Bride of Christ will be his companion, his confidant, his peculiar treasure. R1820:3

Unto himself

- Peter shows these words belong not to the Jews, but to their antitype, the elect Church. (1 Pet. 2:9) R1820:3

21

Deuteronomy 14:21 Ye shall not eat of any thing that dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien: for thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

Ye shall not eat

- This was said to the Jews, not to us. Q431:3

27

Deuteronomy 14:27 And the Levite that is within thy gates; thou shalt not forsake him; for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee.

Shalt not forsake him

- Israel was voluntarily to contribute to his support because "he hath no part nor inheritance." (Num. 18:20) A52 The position of the Levites was not fortified by threats of present or future calamity. OV11

No part nor Inheritance

- The Levites had as much right to a share in the land as the other tribes. Instead of the land some equivalent should be provided for them, and the tithe was this reasonable and just provision. HG535:5

Deuteronomy 15:6 For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.

Thou shalt lend

- Earthly goods; in order that what you have to offer of spiritual things may be more acceptable. R2539:2

Shalt not borrow

- The New Creature has this as its rule now. F564

12

Deuteronomy 15:12 And if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.

Let him go free

- Picturing the release of mankind from sin and death. R5356:1

15

Deuteronomy 15:15 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day.

Remember

- So must the Christian call to mind his individual deliverances. R2031:6

This thing to day

- Here the word "today" is used in the same sense as in our Lord's words to the dying thief. F669

21

Deuteronomy 15:21 And if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God.

Shalt not sacrifice it

- It must be our justified selves and not our sins which we present. R1231:2 Such an injunction is necessary, as inborn selfishness suggests that it would be a pity to sacrifice the best things. R3148:1 So children should be trained to consider God's service the most honorable and most highly rewarding, and encouraged to use their talents therein rather than to seek higher education for secular pursuits. R3148:2

Deuteronomy 16:2 Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the passover unto the LORD thy God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose to place his name there.

The passover

- Each house of Israel represented the household of faith and each lamb represented the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world. F460

Deuteronomy 16:3 Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life.

No leavened bread

- Leaven is a symbol of corruption, error, sin. R5192:4; F464; T98 Symbolizing the putting away of sin. R5390:2

Bread of affliction

- So called because of their sufferings in Egypt. R1800:2

10

Deuteronomy 16:10 And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God with a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the LORD thy God , according as the LORD thy God hath blessed thee:

Freewill offering

- Thus at Pentecost the Lord's followers dispensed to all who were in readiness to receive the blessings granted them through Jesus. R4307:2

I will set a king

- Judges developed the Israelites individually; the kingdom tended to develop them along national lines. The individual judgment better prepared the people for the coming of Messiah. R4193:2

17

Deuteronomy 17:17 Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

Multiply wives

- David sinned by taking heathen wives—Absalom's mother being the daughter of Talmai, king of Gashur, in Syria. R2024:6, R2016:3 Solomon so did for political purposes. He was influenced by his wives to support idolatry. R2068:3

Deuteronomy 17:19 And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them:

All the days of his life

- As a daily companion we must ponder God's Word, permitting its principles to mold our thoughts and guide our actions. R2016:5

20

Deuteronomy 17:20 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

Or to the left

- The only ruler of the world who will fully meet the requirements of the divine law will be the Lord Jesus. R2046:4

Deuteronomy 18:1 The priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance.

No part nor inheritance

- This shows that the Great Company will have no inheritance in the earthly promises. Their inheritance will be on the spirit plane. R4655:2

10

Deuteronomy 18:10 There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch,

Pass through the fire

- The people of Canaan first established the valley of Hinnom (Greek, Gehenna) as a place of torture, offering their children in sacrifice to the god Moloch. R3069:1 We have today, in nominal Christendom, a Moloch on a much larger scale. They have come to think of the Almighty as a ferocious deity who would take pleasure in the everlasting torture of mankind. R3464:6, R2360:1

That useth divination

- The receiving of information from the fallen angels by means of omens, oracles, etc. R3068:3; PD42/52

An observer of times

- Augury, the fixing of lucky or unlucky days. R3068:3

Or an enchanter

- A hypnotist. R3068:3

Or a witch

- A medium or mouthpiece of the fallen angels. R2172:1; Q840:T One claiming to exercise power over the affairs of others. R3068:3 Spirit mediums, clairvoyants, clairaudients and the like are the modern wizards and witches. Q840:T

11

Deuteronomy 18:11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

Or a charmer

- Serpent-charmer, including those who claim to be able to put spells on people and animals. R3068:4

Consulter with familiar spirits

- Or were familiar with the spirits who were disobedient in the days of Noah. PD42/52 Some mediums claim to have their special familiar spirit, while others claim a general intercourse with the spirits. R3068:4 Not to be visited, even "just to see how it is done." R3240:5

Or a wizard

- One who claims to be wise in hidden or occult wisdom. R3068:4 Spirit mediums, clairaudients, clairvoyants and the like are the modern wizards and witches. Q840:T

Or a necromancer

- One who professes to hold communion with the dead. R3068:5 Those who claim to speak for the dead—spirit mediums. HG726:1

12

Deuteronomy 18:12 For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

An abomination

- God forewarned against the evil spirits and their mediums. He said that they should not be permitted to live in Israel. PD42/52; R5910:2

15

Deuteronomy 18:15 The LORD thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken;

Will raise up

- The entire Gospel age has been the period of The Christ's (Head and Body) raising up. D629; CR485 Now being prepared, educated, disciplined and instructed for a missionary work. R715:5* Raised above the condition of the world by being called with a high calling. R2859:5 Also raised up in the sense of being transformed, walking in newness of life. R2859:6

A Prophet

- A teacher. R4058:1, R2859:4 United with the offices of Priest and King. D637; OV89 The Christ—Jesus is the Head, and all now received into God's family by the begetting of the holy Spirit are members of the Body. R5839:4; D629, D637; F434; R5334:1, R2611:6; Q193:3 Moses was the type of this greater Prophet, Messiah; and the Law covenant was a type of the greater Law covenant of the Millennial age. Fi; OV118 The Man Christ Jesus, by full obedience to the Law covenant, attained the right to "Moses' seat," to supersede Moses as Mediator. R5046:6 Believed in 1887 by the Samaritans as "one who will teach the nations the good way ... so that the whole world will repent of its sins." R906:2, 5*

Of thy brethren

- Not enough "Israelites indeed" being found, divine wisdom has been selecting others from amongst the Gentiles. R5334:1

Like unto me

- A diminutive representation of that great Mediator, Teacher, Leader and King—the real Deliverer of Israel and the world from bondage. R5333:2; A58, A78; B177; R4595:5 Anti-typical. R2858:2 To whom every "Israelite indeed" must transfer his pledges made under the Law to Moses, accepting Christ in Moses' stead. F434 The likeness is not of a personal kind; but found rather in position and work. R1321:3 As "our Passover," as "the Resurrection," as "the Life," Christ is the Prophet like unto Moses. R1321:3 The humbler title of prophet, teacher, or representative of God, represented also in Moses' case the kingly and priestly functions. R3068:2

Ye shall hearken

- When the antitypical Moses, the Great Mediator, shall have been completed he will lead the people unto rest. R5388:2; CR485 Since Moses referred to Jesus as greater it was not disloyal to Moses for people thus to accept Jesus. R5858:3

16

Deuteronomy 18:16 According to all that thou desiredst of the LORD thy God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not.

In Horeb

- Showing that the point of the illustration was Moses' work at Sinai. R2858:5

18

Deuteronomy 18:18 I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.

Raise them up

- The entire Gospel age has been the period of Christ's raising up. D629

A Prophet

- See comments on Deut. 18:15.

Speak unto them all

- The hidden truths of ancient prophecy as well as new revelations of truth. F233; R1525:1

19

Deuteronomy 18:19 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him.

Shall come to pass

- In the Millennial age. F709; A243

That whosoever

- Every being, including the fallen angels. R1679:3, R2612:1

Will not

- Will not submit to the rewriting of the divine law in his character. F360 Would fight against the Kingdom and oppose its rule in any particular after a reasonable trial. F709 In the Millennial age there will be upon man a different test, not of faith, but of works, of obedience. F113

Hearken

- Perfect obedience will be required. T50; E219; F113; R2611:6, R892:5 Learn to love righteousness and hate iniquity. A303 Gradually, line upon line, precept upon precept. F709 All the willing shall reach perfection; all the unwilling shall be destroyed. D654; R5247:3 R2612:4, R892:5

20

Deuteronomy 18:20 But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

That prophet shall die

- The law (of blasphemy) under which Jesus was tried. R1809:5

Deuteronomy 19:2 Thou shalt separate three cities for thee in the midst of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

Three cities

- Foreshadowing the refuge sinners may find in Christ. R4079:6 An advanced step, tempering justice with mercy. R3092:3

Deuteronomy 19:3 Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and divide the coasts of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

Prepare thee a way

- Keep the roads to these cities well repaired and marked, to afford the guilty a full opportunity for a rapid flight to secure safety. R3092:3 Christ is easy of access to all who diligently seek him. R4080:4

Deuteronomy 19:4 And this is the case of the slayer, which shall flee thither, that he may live: Whoso killeth his neighbour ignorantly, whom he hated not in time past;

Ignorantly

- Cities of refuge were not for willful murder, but only for manslaughter. R3092:3 Christ is no shelter for obstinate, unrepentant sinners. R4079:6

Deuteronomy 19:6 Lest the avenger of the blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past.

Lest

- Under Jewish custom, two scribes accompanied the fleer to persuade the avenger, if he should overtake, to permit the culprit to reach the city of refuge. R3092:3,5

Avenger

- In the East it is considered the bounden duty of the next of kin of the slain one to avenge his death. R3092:2 Justice is the avenger, seeking our lives for being sinners. R4079:6

11

Deuteronomy 19:11 But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities:

Lie in wait

- The fact that so many details are enumerated here and in Numbers 35 and Joshua 20 shows that the trial was to be a careful one. R3092:5

12

Deuteronomy 19:12 Then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

Elders

- The culprit was not free, but must stand trial before the elders. R3092:5

15

Deuteronomy 19:15 One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.

Two witnesses

- In Jesus' trial there were many false witnesses, but none agreed together. R1809:3

21

Deuteronomy 19:21 And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Life shall go for life

- The Scriptural basis for viewing man's recovery from sin and death as a purchase—a redemption. R5872:3 Human life must be considered sacred and a slayer shown no pity. R3092:2 Divine justice required that a perfect human life must be given for a perfect human life. No fallen man could be a ransom, a corresponding price, for the perfect man Adam. R5429:6; SM660, R661:1 If a thousand perfect men had sinned it would have required a thousand perfect men to redeem them. R5429:6; SM661; R5141:4 The death of an angel or an arch-angel could not have redeemed man. R5429:6, R3174:5; SM660 A spirit being, veiled in flesh, "incarnate," could not have been the Redeemer. R5622:5 The righteousness of the Law (Matt. 3:15) was fulfilled by Jesus' offering of himself at Jordan as a "life for a life." R1917:1

Eye for eye

- If inclined to carry out the Law of Moses we must remember that it is not the time now for us to judge and discipline the world. R5644:5

Fight against it

- Typifying how spiritual Israelites take possession of their human bodies and, as New Creatures, must conquer and destroy these tendencies of the flesh. R5706:6

12

Deuteronomy 20:12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it:

Make war against thee

- If we do not overcome and destroy our fleshly tendencies, they will overcome and destroy us. R5706:6

16

Deuteronomy 20:16 But of the cities of these people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth:

These people

- A menace to the morals of Israel—not only idolatrous, but practicing licentious rites, divinations, etc. R5706:5

God doth give thee

- It was not the Israelites who were to decide to possess the land—but God was to give them possession. R5707:1

Save alive nothing

- God had declared that their iniquity had come to the full. It was a blessing to themselves and others that they died at the time they did. R5706:5, R5707:1

17

Deuteronomy 20:17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them; namely , the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee:

Utterly destroy

- No injustice to the Amalekites, Hittites and Canaanites since they were already under the death sentence. F174 They typified the willful sinners of the Millennial age. F174 In the Kingdom man will also learn how to exterminate the things of sin. R5707:1 Our warfare against spiritual foes must result in the utter destruction of the fleshly mind, and it will also mean the death of the human body.

Deuteronomy 21:5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried :

The priests

- A mediator between God and fallen creatures. R4553:3

Deuteronomy 21:6 And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man , shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

Wash their hands

- As Pilate did over Jesus' blood. R3896:5

15

Deuteronomy 21:15 If a man have two wives, one beloved, and another hated, and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be hers that was hated:

And another hated

- Loved less—as in "Esau have I hated." (Rom. 9:13) F172

17

Deuteronomy 21:17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath: for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his.

Double portion

- The birthright. R2124:5

22

Deuteronomy 21:22 And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree:

Hang him on a tree

- Christ was made a curse by dying on the cross—such a death being necessary for the Jews but not needed for the remainder of mankind. R4868:6 It was divinely intended that our Lord should be treated as a cursed one and hanged upon a tree instead of stoned. R5221:3

An ox and an ass

- Because so unequal in strength and tread it would be cruelty. The Mosaic Law was 32 centuries ahead of its time. A50, A51; OV11; HG535:4

Deuteronomy 23:1 He that is wounded in the stones, or hath his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

Privy member cut off

- Eunuchs were not fully accepted as proselytes or granted privileges of the congregation-thus the acceptance of the Ethiopian eunuch (Acts 8:29-39) must have been after the 70 weeks. R2964:6 A eunuch could be "a proselyte of the gate"—one who adopts Jewish worship. R4332:6

Deuteronomy 23:4 Because they met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against thee Balaam the son of Beor of Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse thee.

Balaam

- Illustrating the Second Death class, forsaking the way of righteousness for earthly gain. F166

Deuteronomy 23:7 Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite; for he is thy brother: thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian; because thou wast a stranger in his land.

Not abhor an Edomite

- Edom is symbolic of Christendom. D15

21

Deuteronomy 23:21 When thou shalt vow a vow unto the LORD thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay it: for the LORD thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be sin in thee.

Will surely require It

- "Better it is that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay." (Eccl. 5:5) R2154:4, R2081:1

14

Deuteronomy 24:14 Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates:

An hired servant

- But no special legislation for the priesthood. A53 The treatment of servants, strangers and the aged was the subject of special legislation in the Mosaic Law. HG536:1

Deuteronomy 25:4 Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn .

Not muzzle the ox

- For the good reason that any laborer is worthy of his food. The Mosaic Law was ahead of its time. A51; HG535:4

Deuteronomy 25:6 And it shall be, that the firstborn which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel.

His name be not put out

- The object of this was to prevent the obliteration of any family. R3854:1

19

Deuteronomy 25:19 Therefore it shall be, when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it .

Of Amalek

- Deferred until King Saul's day because (1) they had no cavalry to cope with the marauders; and (2) to permit the Amalekites to be a thorn in Israel's side for their chastening. R4207:2 Type of willful sinners of the Millennial age. F174

Deuteronomy 26:5 And thou shalt speak and say before the LORD thy God, A Syrian ready to perish was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous:

A Syrian

- Jacob. B217; R599:3

And became there

- At the death of Jacob, the last of the patriarchs. B213

A nation

- Jacob's descendants were first called the "twelve tribes of Israel" after his death. (Gen. 49:28) A78

Mount Gerizim

- These peaks are 800 feet high and a mile apart, separated by a valley 1500 feet wide. The acoustics are such that conversation can be carried on from peak to peak or peak to valley without difficulty. R479:5*

15

Deuteronomy 27:15 Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place . And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

Cursed

- They were all in debt according to their covenant, or bargain, made at Sinai. R976:6

22

Deuteronomy 27:22 Cursed be he that lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

Lieth with his sister

- The law whereby Absalom slew Amnon. R2025:1

25

Deuteronomy 27:25 Cursed be he that taketh reward to slay an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen.

An innocent person

- Nephesh—soul, sentient being. E334

26

Deuteronomy 27:26 Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them. And all the people shall say, Amen.

Cursed

- In addition to the Adamic curse. R1725:1

Be he

- Any Israelite. R1725:1

Of this law

- This Law covenant. R1725:1

Shall say, Amen

- Accept its terms, not realizing it was a covenant "unto death" (Rom. 7:10) and not unto life, because of their inability to obey perfectly its just requirements. R1724:5

Deuteronomy 28:1 And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

Which I command thee

- The blessings and curses of that covenant were only to the one nation, Israel. R1725:1

Set thee on high

- Yet the Ancient Worthies were persecuted; counting on God's character to adjust the record in the resurrection. R1409:2 Israel's temporal blessings typified the terms and conditions of the Millennial age. F631

Deuteronomy 28:2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

All these blessings

- The reverse is true with the Church—temporal prosperity may mean danger. R2520:2

Deuteronomy 28:3 Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

Blessed

- The blessings of the Law were earthly and not related to the everlasting future. R1725:1

Shalt thou be

- Both as a nation and as individuals. R1409:2 The covenant included every member of Israel, so that they shared in common the blessings or curses. R5046:2, R1725:2

Deuteronomy 28:5 Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store.

Thy basket and thy store

- As exemplified in the bountiful harvests after Josiah's reform. R2490:6

12

Deuteronomy 28:12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

Thou shalt lend

- They are, as predicted, lenders to many nations. R2125:1

15

Deuteronomy 28:15 But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee:

All these curses

R2611:5 In the 1000-year day all will be called upon to decide under that most favorable opportunity for righteousness and life or sin and death. A choice must be made. R2611:5 Not heaven or hell, but life is the promise of the Law. Q328; R822:3* It was only in the typical sense that the Jewish nation was on trial for life or death. And shall burn

- "They shall be burnt with hunger." (vs. 24) E357

The lowest hell

- Sheol, oblivion, the tomb, the state of death—a figurative representation of the utter ruin of Israel as a nation. R2599:3; E357; R5154:2 Sheol, admitted by Pastor L. S. White simply to denote the world of departed spirits and not of itself to teach anything about the punishment of the wicked. HG209:3*

26

Deuteronomy 32:26 I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men:

Scatter them

50

Deuteronomy 32:50 And die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be gathered unto thy people; as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people:

Die in the mount

- Mount Nebo. PD37/48 If the meekest man in all the earth was overcome by the circumstances of his position, it should not surprise us if we find that in spiritual Israel some who start out meek and humble become more or less arrogant. R3866:4

52

Deuteronomy 32:52 Yet thou shalt see the land before thee ; but thou shalt not go thither unto the land which I give the children of Israel.

Thou shalt not go

- Although usually a type of Christ-in the one instance of disobediently smiting the rock Moses became a type of Christ's followers who put him to open shame and who, in consequence, will die the Second Death. (Heb. 10:29) R4058:1, R3077:4, R5333:3

Deuteronomy 33:1 And this is the blessing, wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

- Not literal feet, but figurative as truly as in Zech. 14:4; Psa. 91:12; Isa. 52:7; Psa. 8:6, Psa. 110:1; Eph. 6:15. B157

Sun

- Not its body, but its light and influence. R3344:2*

17

Deuteronomy 33:17 His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh.

Push the people

- The Jews are prosperous as are no other people and, in a peculiar manner, are pushing or goring all peoples to the ends of the earth-so much so that every nation is seeking to get rid of them. R2125:1

Deuteronomy 34:1 And Moses went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And the LORD shewed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan,

And Moses

- The scribe, who wrote the book at Moses' dictation, finishes the account as an historian. R3078:4 Fully submitted himself to the Lord in meekness, in humility; a type of the still-greater prophet, the Christ of glory. R4054:6, R5333:3 Acclaimed as a statesman, general, lawgiver, poet and orator. R4055:1 Our Lord excepted, no character of history stands out as that of Moses: combining strength with humility, wisdom with love and gentleness. R3077:1

The top of Pisgah

- 3586 feet above sea-level. R3077:6

This is the land

- The antitypical Moses is now getting the antitypical vision of the glories of the age to come. R4054:1

Caused thee to see

- With the eye of faith we perceive the blessing of all the families of the earth. R4054:1

Thou shalt not go over

- One of the reasons was the second smiting of the rock. (Num. 20:2-12) R3077:3 As we (the Body of Christ) look into the beauties of the Millennial epoch, the Lord tells us that we shall not go over to possess it. R4054:3

Deuteronomy 34:5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.

So Moses

- Here Moses was the type of the Law covenant which must end before the people can enter into their rest. R3077:5

Died there

- Here a type of the Second Death Class; but by no means implying that Moses experienced Second Death. R5333:3, R4058:1, R3077:4 Not from weakness and infirmity of age (vs. 7); he died according to the word of the Lord. R3077:6 Moses will sleep with his fathers until the divinely appointed time when, under Messiah's Kingdom, he will be resurrected. He was seen on the Mount of Transfiguration only in a vision. R5333:5, R201:1

Deuteronomy 34:6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpeor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.

No man knoweth

- As with Elijah. R3378:1, R2153:2 He who hid the body of Moses so that none could find it was likewise able to hide the body of Jesus. R3376:6; B130

Of his sepulchre

- It was appropriate that the type should not show an earthly grave since the antitype has no hope of an earthly resurrection, of which hope the grave is a symbol. R4054:5

Unto this day

- Representing that the Law covenant was not to be revived. R3078:1 Probably to hinder the Israelites from carrying Moses' mummy which, in after times, might have become a temptation to idolatry. R4054:4, R5333:3, R3078:1

Deuteronomy 34:7 And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated.

120 years old

- 40 years spent as an Egyptian prince; 40 years as a shepherd; 40 years as Israel's leader, lawgiver, statesman-prophet, priest and king. R3077:2, R4054:5

Deuteronomy 34:9 And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.

And Joshua

- Type of the New covenant and of its Mediator, Jesus, the Deliverer. R3077:5 In his 83rd year, yet full of vigor—loudly confirming the Bible's teaching that Adam was created perfect and contradicting the Evolution theory. R5335:2, R4060:3 Now 80 years of age. R3078:4

Heakened unto him

- Joshua. R3078:5 Israel unquestionably accepted the Lord's choice of a leader, evidently learning something by their experience in the wilderness. R3079:2

As the LORD commanded

- The Christ, during the Millennial Kingdom, will attempt nothing on behalf of mankind in violation of the laws of God. R3078:5

10

Deuteronomy 34:10 And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

Knew face to face

- Meaning that Moses enjoyed a closeness of fellowship and favor with the Lord rather than that he really looked into the face of Jehovah. R4055:2

Joshua

General

- Joshua, whose name signifies deliverer, or savior, became Israel's leader and under him they won great victories and actually entered the land promised in the covenant. A79 He was of the tribe of Ephraim, of one of its leading families, his grandfather Elishama having been a captain of the army of the Ephraimites, 40,500 in number at the organization of the Israelites soon after the exodus. R3079:1 At the time of his taking Moses' place he was in his 83rd year, yet full of vigor, and evidently the best qualified man for the position. For twenty-seven years Joshua was the leader of Israel, faithful to God and to the people. He not only led them through Jordan and directed in the conquering of city after city but he also divided the land among the tribes and governed the people with great acceptance, dying at the age of 110. It would not do for us to contrast Joshua with Moses as a leader, for they were men of totally different types. Indeed, anyone contrasted with Moses would be disadvantaged, so high did that great statesman tower above the average of humanity then or since. But while Joshua could not be Moses, the leader, commander, law-giver, he was faithful as a follower of Moses, as one who obeyed the divine law, and whose faith and influence with the people were helpful to them. He was just what God wished him to be, and whoever is worthy of such a testimony is truly great. R5335:2

- Joshua's training as general assistant, private secretary, etc., to Moses, made him familiar with the divine plans and methods. To him was entrusted the command of the people in their first battle. It was Joshua who went with Moses into Mount Sinai; it was he who led one of the companies of spies . . . who brought back a good report and who courageously stood with Moses in advising that the people have faith in God and proceed to conquer and possess the promised land. He must have been either the oldest man in all the nation or next to the oldest, for only himself and Caleb of all the nation that were above twenty years of age at the exodus remained alive. R4060:6
- Moses did not lead the people into the land of promise; it was Joshua—their new leader—who led them over Jordan. Thus the type shows that mankind will enter into the promised land not by the Law, but by a Savior. R5388:4, R3079:3
- The expulsion and destruction of sinful nations by Israel was a type of how the people of God today are to take possession of their human bodies. We are as New Creatures to conquer, to destroy, these tendencies of the flesh that would enslave us. This warfare of Israel against their enemies may also be a picture of conditions in the Millennium, when the world, under the guidance of Christ and the Church, will be brought into a condition which will fit them to have possession of the whole earth. R5706:6

Joshua 1:1 Now after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD it came to pass, that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying,

The LORD spake

- Typifying his messages of encouragement to the Christ company in the present time. R3079:5

Unto Joshua

- Type of Christ. A79 Originally, "Hoshea"—salvation; to which was prefixed "Je"—Jehovah (Num. 13:16). Thus it became "Jehoshua"—Jehovah's salvation. This was shortened to Joshua and Jeshua (Neh. 8:17). Greek form is Jesus. R5335:3, R4060:3, R5296:5 The oldest or next-to-oldest man in Israel. R4061:1

Moses' minister

- Moses' Prime Minister. R3079:1 This training made him familiar with the divine plans and methods as understood and practiced by Moses. R4060:6 Yet void of that ambition which led to the overthrow of Korah, Dathan and Abiram. R3079:2

Joshua 1:2 Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel.

Now therefore arise

- Being meek, he waited for the Lord to authorize his taking command. R4061:1

Go over this Jordan

- In the case of the Church, from a state of sin and degradation into harmony with God. R5509:6

The land

- As Joshua was to deliver the Lord's people and give them possession of the land of promise; so Jesus is to deliver spiritual Israel and give them their inheritance. R5296:5

Give to them

- Not because of their worthiness, but because of his favor toward them, according to his own plan. R5335:6

Joshua 1:3 Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.

Foot shall tread upon

- Nothing was theirs except as the soles of their feet claimed possession. It was theirs by faith in that promise—a faith that would lead to works. Likewise spiritual Israelites must claim the promises to obtain them. R4061:2

Joshua 1:4 From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.

Of the Hittites

- The typical enemies of Israel picture the enemies we find entrenched in our own bodies. R5509:6 Recent excavations in Assyria show that at this time the Hittites were a mighty people. R3079:6

Shall be your coast

- The boundaries outlined are practically the same as those possessed during Solomon's reign. R4061:3

Joshua 1:5 There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

Will be with thee

- "Without me ye can do nothing" (John 15:5)—he is with us only when we do what is clearly indicated in God's Word. R4061:6 Typifying that during the Millennial age the victory of Christ shall be by and through the Father's power. R3079:5 God did not say to him, "Remember your age and long experience and previous successes as a general." R4061:4

Joshua 1:6 Be strong and of a good courage: for unto this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give them.

Be strong

- In your arms and shoulders—aggressive warfare. R4061:6 God had not promised to give them amicable possessions; they were to fight and conquer their foes. R5509:3

Of a good courage

- Have full confidence; not in yourself, but in God. R3079:2, R4064:5 Not the courage born of egotism and self-reliance, nor of recklessness; but, recognizing our own insufficiency, looking to the Lord for assistance. R5510:4 Associated with lower limbs, implying defensive power. R4061:6

Joshua 1:7 Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest.

Be thou strong

- The basis for their strength and courage was the promise of God to Abraham that he would bring his seed into the land of Canaan. R5509:2 Joshua, as successor of Moses, needed this encouragement on the occasion of the Israelites entering the promised land. R5296:1, R5509:2 Against Israel's enemies, entrenched in the land of Canaan. R5296:2

Very courageous

- Morally courageous. R4062:3 The New Creatures, under the leadership of the antitypical Joshua, are to overcome the weaknesses of the fallen nature. R5296:3 Strength of character and courage are needed now when the iniquity of the whole world has come to the full; and all present governments are about to be swept away. R5707:4 There is a difference between being strong and being courageous. The Great Company will finally overcome, with the Lord's help, yet they will not have been very courageous. R5296:5

Turn not from it

- Require neither more nor less than the divine standard, keeping in absolute alignment with the divine Word; a rebuke to those who think the eternal torment theory should be taught whether in the Bible or not. R3080:1

Joshua 1:8 This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

Meditate therein

- Those who carefully lay up the treasures of divine wisdom that they may live by them, are those that truly keep the commandments of God. R2093:6*

Day and night

- Not literally; but in the sense of making it your guide and director at all times and in all things. R4062:4

Good success

- For spiritual Israelites success in making their calling and election sure will be proportionate to their obedience to the divine message. R4062:5, R3080:5

Joshua 1:9 Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

I commanded thee

- It is not our battle, but the Lord's. R4061:6

Neither be thou dismayed

- Through fear of the giants of weaknesses and sin-habits; nor through the thought of the high walls and fortifications of entrenched sin. R4064:2

11

Joshua 1:11 Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

Upon an heap

- The Lord used natural means. R3085:6 Behind a temporary dam caused by a landslide. Such a dam was formed in AD 1267, leaving the bed of the Jordan below it dry for several hours. R4063:5, R5345:3, R3086:1; PD37/48 It was so well timed by the Lord that when the priests stepped up to the water, bearing the ark, the water began to subside. PD37/48; R4063:4, R5345:3

- As a good illustration of the technique of the so-called Higher Critics, see their comments on this verse contained in article R3397:5

Burned them

- Picturing the Second Death, which will be the ultimate punishment of all who willfully reject the Lord's ways; Achan himself will share in the redemption. R5351:1

Stoned them with stones

- Representing the Millennial age rule, when all who even secretly love evil will be manifest and destroyed. R3091:2

33

Joshua 8:33 And all Israel, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the stranger, as he that was born among them; half of them over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel.

Mount Gerizim

- These peaks are 800 feet high and a mile apart, separated by a valley of 1500 feet wide. The acoustics are such that conversation can be carried on from peak to peak, or from peak to valley, without difficulty. R479:5, R3091:2

34

Joshua 8:34 And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the law.

Read all the words

- In the Millennial age, under the antitypical Joshua, the law of God will be distinctly set before all as a standard of conduct. R3091:2

Joshua 10:3 Wherefore Adonizedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

Adoni-zedek . . . Japhia

- Mentioned by name in the Tel-el-Amarna tablets of Egypt. R1652:2, R1994:1

10

Joshua 10:10 And the LORD discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Bethhoron, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah.

And the LORD

- Not Joshua. R3344:3*

Discomfited them

- Used violence on them. R3344:3*

Slaughter at Gibeon

- Type of God's deliverance of regathered Israel. D555 In the last days, the Lord "shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon." (Isa. 28:21) R564:6

11

Joshua 10:11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Bethhoron, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

Hailstones

- The immense hailstones killing so many seems quite in line with the interpretation that the day was dark instead of light. PD38/48

12

Joshua 10:12 Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

Then spake Joshua

- Type of Christ. A79

Sun

- Shemesh, sunlight. R3344:2* Joshua addressing in prayer the Lord as the Sun. R1381:5

Stand thou still

- Continue thy mighty help for us in battle. R1381:5 Dum, be dim, let this darkness continue which accompanies the hail-storm and so greatly terrifies the Amorites. R3344:5* The obscurity of the sun and moon was really a great phenomenon, of which Joshua made use to discomfit the foe, commanding the sun and moon to stay hidden. PD38/48; Q828:1; R3344:5* That the sunlight continue without the orb itself being visible. R1381:5

Upon

- In. R3344:5*

And thou, Moon

- Yareach, moonlight. R3344:2*, R1381:5 God's peaceful blessing. R1381:5

The valley of Ajalon

- The rising moon casting its beams directly through the valley of Ajalon. R1381:5

13

Joshua 10:13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

And the sun

- Shemesh, sunlight. R3344:2*

Stood still

- Dum, remained dim; the great darkness accompanying the storm continued. R3344:6* Not by a stoppage of the earth on its axis, but possibly by clouds reflecting the sunlight. R1381:5, R1813:3, PD38/48 Totally different from the reference in Hab. 3:11. R1813:3

And the moon

- Yareach, moonlight. R3344:2*

Stayed

- Amad, continued dim as it was. R3344:6*

Upon their enemies

- The force of this continued obscuration of the sun and moon upon the Amorites can be better understood when we remember that they were worshippers of the sun and moon. R3344:6*

Book of Jasher

- Now lost—this is not an eyewitness account. R1381:4

Stood still

- Typical of the power to be displayed in the time of trouble at the hands of Christ. A61 The enemies of Joshua were sun-worshippers, and the darkness of the day foreboded that their Sun-god was eclipsed. PD38/48

And hasted not

- Did not press or force its way through. R3344:6*

To go down

- Bo, to go in. R3344:6*

About a whole day

- The sunlight, usually so bright in Syria, did not press through the clouds all that day. R3344:6*

35

Joshua 10:35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

He utterly destroyed

- Proving that God can destroy souls. R1882:1

42

Joshua 10:42 And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

23

Joshua 11:23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land rested from war.

Took the whole land

- At the end of the six-years' war after entering Canaan. B48

14

Joshua 13:14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto them.

None inheritance

- The Ancient Worthies, part of the antitypical tribe of Levi, the household of faith, may after the ending of their earthly service receive a spiritual inheritance. R4389:4

22

Joshua 13:22 Balaam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword among them that were slain by them.

Balaam also

- Type of the class that teaches error for profit. F166 Not only did God punish the Israelites according to the terms of their Law covenant, but he also punished the Midianites and Balaam. R5323:5

Joshua 14:6 Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadeshbarnea.

Caleb

- A descendant of Abraham through the rejected son Esau, and adopted into the tribe of Judah. His faithfulness and reward have special meaning to us who by nature are children of wrath, typified by Esau. R3091:1

Joshua 14:8 Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the LORD my God.

My brethren

- Note the absence of any evil speaking against those who sinned. R3091:6

Joshua 14:9 And Moses sware on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God.

10

Joshua 14:10 And now, behold, the LORD hath kept me alive, as he said, these forty and five years, even since the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old.

These 45 years

- Link No. 22 in the true Bible chronology. B48 From the sending of the spies to the division of the land, leaving one year from the leaving of Egypt to the sending of the spies. HG44:3 Forty-six years after the exodus. R1980:3; B48

12

Joshua 14:12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: if so be the LORD will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said.

Anakims

- Among these entrenched enemies are traditions of men, religious customs, nominalism, sectarian pride, ambition and love of show. R3091:5

I shall be able

- This well illustrates the progress of the spiritual Israelite. He looks back to the beginning of his experiences and rejoices that the Lord has kept him and has faith to see himself victor over the strongest and most entrenched enemies of the flesh. R3091:5

13

Joshua 14:13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance.

Joshua blessed him

- In order to inherit the promises we, like Caleb, must have faith in God and a corresponding obedience. R3092:4

14

Joshua 14:14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

Wholly followed

- These words have special weight in view of the fact that Caleb was only an Israelite by adoption. R3091:1

12

Joshua 17:12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

Could not drive out

- Compromising with their enemies, they suffered from them in future years; so with the Christian compromising with the sins of his flesh. R4064:4, R4061:3

Dwell in that land

- Hence, had the Jews waited for full possession before beginning the Jubilee arrangements they would never have begun them at all. B184

Joshua 18:1 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them.

Shiloh

- Twenty miles north of Jerusalem. R3252:2

Joshua 20:2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you by the hand of Moses:

Cities of refuge

- A step in advance (of other nations) along the lines of tempering justice with mercy. R3092:3 Christ is our refuge from the demands of justice. R4079:6

Joshua 20:3 That the slayer that killeth any person unawares and unwittingly may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

Killeth any person

- Nephesh, soul, sentient being. E334

Unawares

- The trial sought to determine whether the slayer had laid in wait for his victim, hunted him, or smote him in secret; maliciously or with guile; whether there was previous enmity between the two men or hatred of the slain on the part of the slayer. R3092:5

And unwittingly

- Christ is a refuge from unintentional sins only. R3093:2

From the avenger

- Anyone who, even through error or accident, took a life was worthy of death under the decree, "He that sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed." (Gen. 9:6) R3092:3

Joshua 20:6 And he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.

He shall dwell

- Antitypically, it is necessary that we continue to abide in Christ, that we do not put off the robe of Christ's righteousness, or we become liable again to the demands of justice, and that without mercy. R3093:4

Until the death

- Thus putting a heavy penalty upon carelessness, passion, etc. R3092:6

Of the high priest

- Until Christ, Head and Body, will have died. Then the new dispensation will be ushered in. R3093:4 As long as Christ continues in the priestly office, until he is able to present all the redeemed faultless before the throne of God, at the end of the Millennial reign. R4080:1

Joshua 20:9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.

- Nephesh, soul, sentient being. E334

Joshua 23:4 Behold, I have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea westward.

Joshua 23:6 Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left;

Book of the law of Moses

14

Joshua 23:14 And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof.

Not one thing

- It is appropriate to have a daily review of the blessings we enjoy. R2737:1 In the smallest and greatest affairs of our lives he has ever watched for our interests. R5387:5, R5538:3

15

Joshua 23:15 Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you; so shall the LORD bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

All evil things

- Calamities, as chastisements. A125

Joshua 24:1 And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

Joshua gathered

- Remembering Moses' command in Deut. 27. R1869:1

All the tribes

- Representatives of all the tribes. R3093:2

Joshua 24:2 And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other gods.

Served other gods

- Israel's forefathers prior to Abraham were idolaters. R1869:2

Joshua 24:6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and ye came unto the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red sea.

Brought the sea

- The Red Sea, type of the Second Death. F459

Joshua 24:9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you:

And called Balaam

- Type of those who teach error for profit. F166

14

Joshua 24:14 Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD.

Put away the gods

- Perhaps because idolatry still lurked among them; perhaps merely guarding against the tendency. R3094:1

15

Joshua 24:15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

Evil

- Undesirable. R3094:2

Choose you this day

- "How long halt ye between two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him." (1 Kings 18:21) We should come to a positive decision whether we will serve God or Mammon (selfishness); settling the matter at once and for all time that we will be the Lord's. OV198; R2950:4 Indecision is one of the greatest foes to character building while the liberty or privilege of choosing, exercising our wills, is one of the grandest blessings accorded to humanity, and is an important element of man's likeness to his Creator. SM755, R757:1, R758:1, R765:1 As Joshua asked them to decide whether or not they would be faithful to the Lord, so we should come to a full, positive decision as respects our course of life. OV198; R4780:1 To perceive the Lord's will on any subject would be to settle it without any temporizing. R4780:2 A will-less man is a good-for-naught. OV196 Illustrated by Elijah and the priests of Baal. R4740:1-6

Whom ye will serve

- Having chosen wisely we must bend our every energy to the working out of that resolution. OV196

Whether the gods

- The choice was theirs. We have no right to attempt compulsion. This is true during the Jewish and Gospel ages, but not during the Millennial age. R3094:2

As for me

- Others may reverence whom they will; we can do naught else than reverence our God. R2873:1

And my house

- Signifying the training of children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. A consecrated person should have a large and good influence over his entire household. R3094:6; SM764 Parents must realize that few can stand an education which recognizes neither God nor responsibility to him. OV258, OV293

Will serve the LORD

- Whoever has this determination will be blessed. R5149:4 Every day we should renew our covenant with the Lord. R4780:4

19

Joshua 24:19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD: for he is an holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

Cannot serve

- You must not imagine that the promises you are making can be kept without considerable effort. R3094:3 When the Jew agreed to that covenant he signed his own death-warrant; for none of Adam's children can keep it. R812:1*

20

Joshua 24:20 If ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

And do you hurt

- Typifying that God will send strong delusions to those who receive not the love of the truth. (2 Thess. 2:11, 12) R1869:5

Consume you

- To Israel, a hasty visitation of the Adamic Death penalty; to the consecrated, the Second Death. R1869:5

22

Joshua 24:22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

We are witnesses

- The Lord's spiritual people should not only make a covenant with the Lord in their hearts and minds, but should also witness it before fellow-members of the Body of Christ by confession and baptism. R3094:6

24

Joshua 24:24 And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

God will we serve

- Any rival occupying mind or heart is unfaithfulness to him and a despising of our covenant. R1869:4

An oak

- Or oak grove. R3094:5

Judges

General

- Israel's history from the time of the division of Canaan until the anointing of Saul to be their king, a period of 450 years, is called the period of the Judges—Joshua being the first judge and Samuel the last. These judges were evidently not elected to their position but raised to it providentially. But as these judges had no power or authority and collected no revenues it follows that any power or influence they possessed was a personal one and to give it weight or force implied a proper acknowledgment of them as divinely appointed or raised up. This arrangement led the people continually to look to God for their helpers and leaders.
- If the book of Judges were to be read as a fully complete history of Israel for those four and a half centuries it would be a discouraging picture. But the record passes by the happy period of Israel's prosperity and specially points out their deflections from obedience to God, their punishments for such transgressions and the deliverances from their troubles through the judges, or deliverers, whom God raised up for them. That this was in many respects a favorable time for the Israelites was implied in the Lord's promise, "I will restore thy judges as at the first."—Isaiah 1:26 R3102:2, R5645:2
- The statement by the Apostle of the length of this period of the Judges (Acts 13:20) we accept as a specially designed solution of the problem of the portion of the chronology most difficult to figure from the Old Testament record. B49
- A judge, in ancient times, was one who executed justice and relieved the oppressed. Note, for instance, how when under oppression by their enemies because of transgression against the Lord, Israel was time and again released and blessed by the raising up of judges. A142 It should be noted that the object of raising up judges was a gracious and beneficent one: it was to deliver and bless the people, not to condemn and punish them. In this view of the office of a judge, how precious is the promise that our blessed Lord Jesus cometh to judge the world in righteousness. R1869:3

Judges 1:5 And they found Adonibezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

16

Judges 1:16 And the children of the Kenite, Moses' father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.

The Kenite

- From Midian, east of Sinai. R3061:5

Dwelt among the people

- In fulfilment of Moses' promise in Num. 10:29-32. R3061:5 So friends of truth should be encouraged to serve the Lord and be assured of a share in the reward. R4038:5

Judges 2:1 And an angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I sware unto your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you.

Never break my covenant

- The centuries since have shown the persistency of God's mercy. R5598:6

Judges 2:2 And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice: why have ye done this?

No league

- The Lord's people should make no truce with their fleshly weaknesses. R5598:2 Truces with the flesh mean that love for the Lord has gradually cooled. R5646:1

The Inhabitants

- Corresponds to the perverted appetites of the flesh, earthly hopes and ambitions, oppositions to the Lord and righteousness. R5598:2

Altars

- Passion, avarice. R5598:2

Judges 2:4 And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

And wept

- The New Creature cries to the Lord for deliverance. R5598:2

Judges 2:7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that he did for Israel.

Served the LORD

- Things went well with the Israelites because their leaders realized the importance of being on the Lord's side. R5598:4

The days of

- Covering a break between the division of the land and the first recorded period of eight years. (Jud. 3:8) HG45:4

The elders

- The elders who had witnessed God's miraculous interposition were the judges of Israel. R5645:2, R3102:2, R4192:3 So spiritual Israelites of every congregation are to select fit men for services needed. R5645:5

8

Judges 2:8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

Other gods

- Represented by idols. R5598:4 Christians have made idols, not of stone, wood or bronze; but more hideous misrepresentations of the divine character—our printed creeds. R5598:5

Gods of the people

- Typifying forms of godliness taking the place of true heart-worship, reverence. R5598:5

Bowed themselves

- The idols would appear to be an excellent way of keeping religion before the mind, but it was not God's way. R5598:4 False religions appealed to the baser passions, combining a form of godliness with gratification of the flesh, dancings, etc. R5598:5

13

Judges 2:13 And they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

Baal

- Signifying overseer, caretaker. R5627:2

14

Judges 2:14 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.

Anger of the LORD

- Not that the period of the judges was basically idolatrous, the record passes by the happy periods of Israel's prosperity. So, reading today's newspapers would give only a bleak picture of our day. R5645:6 The Lord's displeasure does not delay until one goes fully into idolatry, but reproves early to correct. R5646:2

He delivered them

- Chastisements are evidences of special care, protection and relationship. R5646:2

15

Judges 2:15 Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed.

Hand of the LORD

- His divine power. SM623

Judges

- Deliverers. R5598:6 Israel's government was a republic under divine autocracy and law supervision. R4192:3 Not a republic in the present day understanding of that term. R3216:3 Covering a period of 450 years. (Acts 13:20) B49 Israel's spiritual interests were more advanced under judges than kings. Centralization does not always mean greater blessings, but less individuality and personal progress. R4201:4 God's representatives. R4192:6 Pre-figured resurrected Ancient Worthies. R4201:4 "I will restore thy judges as at the first." Eight years

- One of many captivities, showing that the "seven times" of Lev. 26 could not be literal. B89 The chronological periods mentioned in Judges cover a total of 450 years; but the judges did not cover all the space of time, they were merely scattered over most of it. HG45:3

- Representing the modern god of Evolution. R4089:3

Judges 16:25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars.

Their hearts were merry

- The worldly-wise feast and rejoice, giving honor to the god of Evolution through their Higher Critics. R4089:3

Make us sport

- Those who are faithful to the principles of the Lord's Word will yet be made sport of by the worldly-wise. R4089:4

26

Judges 16:26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.

Samson

- Still full of the spirit of his consecration. R4089:1

28

Judges 16:28 And Samson called unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

Strengthen me

- We have come to a time when the Lord's people are recovering a little of the strength of the early Church. R4089:3

That I may be at once avenged

- One lesson we may learn from Samson is the importance of having an object in life. R5613:5

29

Judges 16:29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.

Samson took hold

- Even now Labor, like the blind giant Samson, is groping for the pillars whose fall will overthrow present conditions. PD89/103

30

Judges 16:30 And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life.

Let me die

- His whole life was used in serving his people. R5613:2 Nephesh, soul, sentient being. E334

All his might

- The Lord's true people are ready to put forth all their strength to move the pillars of error which uphold Churchianity. R4089:4

And the house fell

- With the death of the last member of the Church, the Body of Christ, will surely come the downfall of Churchianity and the present system of world power. R4089:4

Were more than

- He did more damage to the Philistines and more for the deliverance of his people in that one act than in all the other experiences of his life. R5613:4, R4089:2

31

Judges 16:31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the buryingplace of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.

Buried him

- According to the Law, Samson was rated as a very faithful servant of God. R5613:2, R4088:1

Judged

- In the sense of avenging wrongs that Israel sustained upon the enemies who committed those wrongs. R4088:4 His chief work was to revive the spirit of the totally dejected people; encouraging their return to the Lord, with its resultant prosperity. R5613:1

Judges 19:10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against Jebus, which is Jerusalem; and there were with him two asses saddled, his concubine also was with him.

Jebus

- Because it belonged to the Jebusites; earlier called Salem. (Gen. 14:18) R1296:3*

16

Judges 20:16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men lefthanded; every one could sling stones at an hair breadth , and not miss.

At an hair breadth

- Therefore David's marksmanship against Goliath was not unusual. R4216:4, R3230:5

Ruth

General

- The story of the book of Ruth gives us a little glimpse into the affairs of the Israelites, showing us that there was a deep spirit of religion underlying the surface of wars and captivities. The opening was at Bethlehem, "the city of David," where, centuries later, Jesus was born. The religious sentiment of the family is shown by the significance of their names. R5614:1
- The book of Ruth is valuable to us in various ways: (1) It furnishes an important link in the chronological chain leading down to King David and, hence, a part of the chronological line leading down to the man Christ Jesus. (2) It gives a glimpse of the habits and customs of the Israelites in general as an agricultural people-in contrast to Judges, Kings and Chronicles, which deal more particularly with rulers, generals and wars. (3) It is a very beautiful lesson of fidelity, sympathy and love amongst the people at that time. R3110:2, R4089:3

Ruth 1:1 Now it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehemjudah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

When the judges ruled

- Somewhere about Gideon's time. R3110:3

Famine in the land

- As a judgment of the Lord upon his people for some measure of unfaithfulness to him. R3110:3 How many forget that God will supervise the affairs of all his covenant people and cause all things to work together for good to them. R3110:6

And a certain man

- Making the common mistake of choosing temporal prosperity rather than suffering affliction with the people of God. R4089:6

Of Bethlehem-Judah

- "The city of David." R5614:1

Went to sojourn

- Thus leaving the privileges of association with God's people, and failing also to contribute toward their comfort and encouragement in time of distress. R4089:6

Country of Moab

- The Moabites were descendants of Lot, but were not to be considered the children of Abraham. R3110:3 It would not have been proper to try to convert the Moabites, for God had only called Israel. R5614:2

And his wife

- Naomi, however, was not to blame; the responsibility rested with her husband. R3110:5

Ruth 1:2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehemjudah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.

Elimelech

- Meaning, "My God is King." R5614:1

Naomi

- Meaning, "Loveable, pleasant" or "The pleasure of Jehovah." R3111:4, 5614:1 The religious sentiment of the family is shown by the import of their names. R5614:1

His two sons

- Mahlon "Sickly one" and Chilion "Pining one." R5614:1

Continued there

- It was unwise to take two boys into a heathen land where they were likely to be contaminated. Many Christians have made the same mistake. R5614:2

Ruth 1:4 And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

Women of Moab

- The Bible does not disguise the fact that Ruth was, by nature, a foreigner, a Gentile, and at one time an idolatress. R5614:5

Ruth 1:6 Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had visited his people in giving them bread.

With her daughters In law

- Showing Naomi's character, to influence both daughters-in-law to prefer to leave their homeland and join her, though only Ruth finally made the journey. R5614:2

Might return

- She realized it had been a mistake to attempt to regulate their own affairs when they were specially under the Lord's protection and guidance. R3110:3

10

Ruth 1:10 And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.

Return with thee

- Though Naomi and her husband had erred in judgment they were still loyal to God and had let their light shine. Both daughters-in-law had been influenced by it. R4090:1

11

Ruth 1:11 And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

Why will ye go

- As our Lord advised those who would become his disciples, first of all to sit down and count the cost. R3111:1

13

Ruth 1:13 Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters; for it grieveth me much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD is gone out against me.

Against me

- The hand of the Lord against her had a proper influence upon her and brought her back to the land of promise. R5614:2

15

Ruth 1:15 And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods: return thou after thy sister in law.

Is gone back

- Orpah concluding that after all it would be too much of a sacrifice for her to part with her kindred, etc. R3111:2

16

Ruth 1:16 And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God:

Whither thou goest

- "Forget also thy father's house and thine own people." (Psa. 45:10) R4090:4

I will go

- The positiveness of her decision is worthy of note. A Christian does not become a Christian without just such a positive decision. R5614:4

Where thou lodgest

- All of the Lord's people can dwell together in love, in fellowship, seated together in heavenly places. R4090:5

Thy people

- Next to the Lord are his people. To love him is to love them and meet with them. R4090:4

Shall be my people

- Though a Gentile by birth, Ruth became a sincere Jewish proselyte. R4089:3 So surely as any of God's people are found, they are all brethren of one family. R5615:1

My God

- Ruth was converted to Judaism. This is a testimony to the faithful living of Naomi. R5614:3 We who by nature were Gentiles have by God's grace become spiritual Israelites; and should determine that henceforth former conditions, interests, pleasures and relationships are gone forever. R4090:2

20

Ruth 1:20 And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me.

Call me not Naomi

- "Loveable, pleasant" or "The pleasure of Jehovah." R3111:4, R5614:1

Call me Mara

- "Bitter." R3111:4, R351:2*

21

Ruth 1:21 I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?

Testified against me

- Later on she came to see that the Lord's afflictions upon her had been for her good, bringing her back to the land of promise and to fellowship with her people. R3111:4

22

Ruth 1:22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

With her

- Alone, unprotected, but without molestation; showing the general law and order prevalent among the Israelites. R3111:6

Ruth 2:1 And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz.

Boaz

- Whose mother was Rahab, also a Jewish proselyte (Josh. 6:25). R4089:3

Ruth 2:2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and glean ears of corn after him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

Glean

- The harvest work is going grandly on. R5950:1 Perhaps descriptive of harvest work after 1914. R5602:3 At first we were inclined to surmise that the Harvest proper closed in October 1914, and that the work going on was a gleaning work; but the facts seem not to bear this out. R5950:1

Ruth 2:3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

Gleaned

- Gathering stray handfuls of grain missed by the men who were reaping. This was permitted by Jewish Law. (Lev. 19:9) R3111:5

Ruth 2:4 And, behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee.

The LORD be with you

- How few employers in this day would be inclined to salute their laborers thus. R3111:6

The LORD bless thee

- How few farm laborers would in this day respond in such a manner. Evidently men were far from monkeys at that time! R3111:6

23

Ruth 2:23 So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and dwelt with her mother in law.

Barley harvest

- The barley harvest commences about half a month after the vernal equinox (March 21) R4127:1

Ruth 3:4 And it shall be, when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do.

Lay thee down

- Here again Naomi betrayed the weakness of her trust in God, but God in kindness overruled all for good. R4090:2

14

Ruth 3:14 And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor.

She lay at his feet

- The advice of Naomi to Ruth concerning Boaz was not of unalloyed wisdom. Such a course today would brand any woman as a loose, if not disreputable, character. R4090:2

Let it not be known

- Boaz feared such reproach upon Ruth's character. R4090:2

Ruth 4:4 And I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it , redeem it : but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it beside thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it .

I will redeem it

- Representing "The Son of The Man," the Redeemer of Adam's lost possessions. E153

10

Ruth 4:10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

Have I purchased

- "The redemption (deliverance) of the purchased possession." (Eph. 1:14) E153

To be my wife

- Boaz pursued the course of the Jewish Law; Ruth became his wife. Thus Ruth, the Gentile, became identified with the royal family as an ancestor, and with King David's greatest Son and Lord, Jesus. R5614:5, R3111:5

Jesse begat David

- The chief object of the book of Ruth is to preserve an authentic record of our Lord's human ancestry. R4089:3

1 Samuel

General

- Gives a little insight into the family conditions of the Israelites at a time not long after the days of Samson and Ruth. It shows the deep religious sentiment prevailing amongst many of the people. The Tabernacle, in this study styled the Temple, was located at Shiloh, a few miles north of Jerusalem. The people by divine direction went annually to worship the Lord, offer sacrifice, etc., at the Feast time, the Passover. God seldom sent messages at that time. Perhaps that of the angel of the Lord who appeared to the father and mother of Samson, probably fifty years before, was the last direct communication between the Lord and any of his people Israel. R5615:1,5
- Samuel is styled the first of the prophets of Israel. R5616:1 The Prophet Samuel established a new order of things. He did not do as others before him had done—have his place of residence to which all the people must go to ask his advice, counsel, judgment; but he introduced the circuit judge system and went from place to place holding a court—not so much to condemn anybody but rather to advise those who desired advice. R5628:5
- Samuel reviews his career, 1 Samuel 12:13-25 R3222

- I will give him —A prebirth consecration showing a prenatal influence insuring a mental and spiritual inheritance tending towards godliness. R1671:3, R1882:2

15

1 Samuel 1:15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD.

A sorrowful spirit

- Ruach, mind, disposition. E318

19

1 Samuel 1:19 And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD remembered her.

The LORD remembered her

- With the miraculous interposition of divine power quickening the dormant and inoperative natural forces. R560:6*

20

1 Samuel 1:20 Wherefore it came to pass, when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, saying , Because I have asked him of the LORD.

Samuel

- Meaning "In God's name." R5615:2

22

1 Samuel 1:22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever.

Weaned

- The time when he was able to do without his mother's care, probably ten to twelve years old. R5615:2, R4091:2

Abide for ever

- Many seemingly consecrated people hold back their most precious possessions, their children, from the Lord and incline to devote them to some worldly calling. R4091:2 It is the privilege of consecrated parents to present themselves and all they have to the Lord, including their children. R4091:2

27

1 Samuel 1:27 For this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him:

For this child

- Samuel was desired, prayed for, prepared for. R5615:3 The story of the parents of Samuel gives us a glimpse of the God-fearing piety prevalent amongst many in Israel. R3102:5, R4090:3, R5615:1

28

1 Samuel 1:28 Therefore also I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the LORD. And he worshipped the LORD there.

Lent to the LORD

- This Jewish custom is largely responsible for the consecration services observed by some today. Q758:T

1 Samuel 2:1 And Hannah prayed, and said, My heart rejoiceth in the LORD, mine horn is exalted in the LORD: my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; because I rejoice in thy salvation.

Mine horn

- Horns are symbols of power. T42

1 Samuel 2:6 The LORD killeth, and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

Down to the grave

- To sheol, oblivion, the state of death. E358

And bringeth up

- By a resurrection out of sheol, oblivion. E358 Showing that those who go to hell don't stay there forever. HG556:4, HG734:6*

8

1 Samuel 2:8 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the LORD'S, and he hath set the world upon them.

For the pillars

- The saints, the Little Flock. R1813:2

Of the earth

- The new social order. R1813:2

11

1 Samuel 2:11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest.

Did minister

- He was a servant of the Lord by virtue of his being a servant to Eli, God's priest. R5615:5 It is a mistake to suppose that the early years of life, 10 years onward, should be largely spent in play. R4091:3

Unto the LORD

- It is a mistake for parents to think that children cannot appreciate religious things at an early age. R4091:4

12

1 Samuel 2:12 Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial; they knew not the LORD.

Sons of Belial

- While Eli's own influence was exemplary his sons were wicked in various ways, for which he became responsible. R5296:3 If weakness and indecision be a natural failing with us, we are not excusable in failing to fight against it. R1882:5

17

1 Samuel 2:17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD: for men abhorred the offering of the LORD.

The sin

- They took more of the sacrifice than allowed in the divine arrangement. R5615:5

18

1 Samuel 2:18 But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, girded with a linen ephod.

But Samuel

- As a natural result of favorable prenatal influence. R1671:3

22

1 Samuel 2:22 Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with the women that assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

All that his sons did

- Practicing immorality, misleading the people into unrighteousness when, as priests, they should have been instructors of the people in righteousness, both by precept and example. R5615:6

30

1 Samuel 2:30 Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the LORD saith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

I will honour

- In my own due time and way. R2888:6, R2887:5,6 This principle holds good many ways. R5703:2

1 Samuel 3:1 And the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was precious in those days; there was no open vision.

Was precious

- Scarce. R4091:5

No open vision

- Visions and revelations were not then given; the Urim and Thummim answers had ceased. R5615:5

1 Samuel 3:2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see;

Eyes began to wax dim

- Eli was then about 70 to 80 years of age. R5615:5, R4091:5

1 Samuel 3:9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

Speak, LORD

- Indicating Samuel's readiness to do him service. R5297:1

10

1 Samuel 3:10 And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak; for thy servant heareth.

Samuel answered

- Blessed shall we be if, like Samuel, when we hear the Lord's message we respond promptly. R4092:5

Thy servant heareth

- We should be willing to receive the truth in whatever way the Lord is pleased to send it, whether from the mouth of a little child or from unlearned men. R5297:2 How often the servant wants to do all the talking and to have the Lord hear him and perform his will. R1882:5 Some mistakenly interpret the Lord's voice directing them in accordance with their own wills. R4092:5 Eli showed no resentment against Samuel, the channel the Lord had used. R5297:1

1 Samuel 3:13 For I have told him that I will judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he knoweth; because his sons made themselves vile, and he restrained them not.

I will judge

- This was not the first time that the Lord had reproved Eli regarding the wrong course of his sons. R5615:6

Restrained them not

- Hence he was a sharer in the penalty which came upon his sons. R5615:6

15

1 Samuel 3:15 And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision.

And Samuel

- Samuel exhibited the spirit of meekness; so we should speak sympathetically when telling of the trouble coming on Babylon. R4092:4

16

1 Samuel 3:16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here am I.

Eli

- Seems to represent the Great Company. R5297:5

Samuel

- Seems to represent the Little Flock. R5297:5

18

1 Samuel 3:18 And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good.

Told him every whit

- It was a trial to Samuel to tell his friend and benefactor of the Lord's criticism and pronouncement of judgment. Sympathy and tenderness of heart must not prevent the Lord's faithful servants from speaking his message boldly. R5615:6

It is the LORD

- Some in Nominal Christendom are not in sympathy with the trend of affairs. R5297:5 The Great Company are weak in standing forth, yet submissive in the time of trouble. R5297:5

Seemeth him good

- If Eli was weak in some respects he was strong in others, as is shown in his humility and this beautiful example of absolute submission. R5297:2 We should all strive to have that attitude of mind that would be fully submissive to the divine decree. Q499:T Eli should have trained his sons in righteousness, otherwise they should have ceased to be members of his household and should have come under certain restraints, which he as a lawgiver should have enforced. R5296:6

1 Samuel 4:1 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Ebenezer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek.

Now Israel went

- Some twenty years after God's prediction of the calamities that would befall Eli and his family. R5626:1

1 Samuel 4:2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

Israel was smitten

- The evil example of the priestly office had an injurious effect upon the people. God was bound to punish them. R5626:1

1 Samuel 4:3 And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

Fetch the ark

- An attempt to invoke the assistance of religious symbols, thinking that God would not permit the Ark of the Covenant to be injured or captured. R5626:2 Thus evidencing faith in the divine institutions although their lives were corrupt. R3252:2

1 Samuel 4:4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

Between the cherubims

- Between love and power, above a foundation of justice, represented by the Mercy Seat. T124 Looking at the Mercy Seat as representing God's chariot or throne. R529:6*

Two sons of Eli

- They were thieves and robbers, garbed as the priests of God; immoral, impure, posing as the representatives of the divine holiness. R5626:3 Apparently no reformation had taken place in all those twenty years. R5626:1

1 Samuel 4:5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

A great shout

- Their usual battle-hymn: Num.10:35. R5626:3

1 Samuel 4:7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore.

The Philistines

- The Philistines revered Jehovah, the God of Israel, when they returned the Ark of Jehovah to Israel. R2541:3

When he made mention

- Notwithstanding his weakness his heart was always loyal and true to God. R1882:3,4

He died

- Although he was faithful at heart, in his character was too much of the "peace at any price" and not enough of that courage which is prepared to die for righteousness' sake. R5626:5

1 Samuel 5:6 But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with emerods, even Ashdod and the coasts thereof.

Emerods

- Hemorrhoids. R5626:5

8

1 Samuel 6:8 And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which ye return him for a trespass offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go.

Lay it upon the cart

- Contrary to law. God tolerated the ignorance of the Philistines who were not his people. R2003:2

50,070 men

- We are not to think of these men as destroyed in Second Death. R2003:1

20

1 Samuel 6:20 And the men of Bethshemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? and to whom shall he go up from us?

To whom shall he

- This symbol of his presence. R2002:6

1 Samuel 7:2 And it came to pass, while the ark abode in Kirjathjearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

Kirjath-jearim

- Between Jaffa and Jerusalem in the Wady Ali. R1381:5

1 Samuel 7:3 And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

Ashtaroth

- Plural for Ashtoreth, a female diety, goddess of fertility and sexual relations. R5627:3

Prepare your hearts

- By making a consecration unto the Lord. R3713:1

He will deliver you

- Samuel was warranted in so telling the people because this was God's standing agreement with them. R5627:2

1 Samuel 7:4 Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only.

Baalim

- Plural for Baal, meaning "Overseer" or "Caretaker." R5627:2

1 Samuel 7:5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the LORD.

Mizpeh

1 Samuel 7:6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

Mizpeh

- Not the Mizpah east of Jordan where Jacob covenanted with Laban. R1381:5

Drew water

- As the water was drawn from the depth of the earth, so their confession came from the depths of their hearts. R5627:4

Poured it out

- Representing their vows of faithfulness to the Lord, which would be as irrevocable as the water poured out. R5627:4 Representing the truth which they could not gainsay, could not take back, even as water spilled upon the ground cannot be recovered. R5627:4

We have sinned

- Confession was appropriate when asking God to receive them back into covenant relationship. R5627:3 The humility necessary in making such confession was profitable in their character-building. R5627:4

Samuel judged

- As a judge, a counselor, he gave advice, gave decisions in respect to their affairs, disputes, etc. R5627:5

8

1 Samuel 7:8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

He will save us

- They were learning to look for help in the right direction. R5627:5 It is vain for the Lord's people to call upon the Lord for assistance and blessing while they are living in sin, in violation of their covenant and its obligations. R5627:5

Philistines

- Our Philistines are our passions and weaknesses, and the oppositions of the world and the Adversary. R5627:6

1 Samuel 7:9 And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a burnt offering wholly unto the LORD: and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel; and the LORD heard him.

A sucking lamb

- A type of "The Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." (John 1:29) R5627:6

10

1 Samuel 7:10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: but the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten before Israel.

They were smitten

- As a result Samuel was recognized as the divine representative and judge of Israel. R4192:6

Before Israel

- As God led, disciplined and delivered his ancient people, so now he bestows the same attentions upon his faithful Church. R1883:4

15

1 Samuel 7:15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

Days of his life

- From God's standpoint; even though the people meantime did have a king. R1882:3

1 Samuel 8:1 And it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over Israel.

Made his sons judges

- Their elevation to office proved detrimental to them, placing before them opportunities for dishonest gain. R1887:1

1 Samuel 8:3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment.

Perverted judgment

- They were unreliable. R5636:6 Samuel's integrity is shown by the fact that when it was proven to him that his sons were guilty of accepting bribes to pervert justice he promptly removed them from office. R3216:2

1 Samuel 8:4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah,

Gathered themselves

- They became fearful. They forgot that God was their real judge, their king, and that Samuel was only his mouthpiece. R3216:3

1 Samuel 8:5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.

Make us a king

- Judges developed the Israelites individually; the kingdom developed them along national lines. Individual development prepares better for the Messiah. R4193:2, R4201:4 Commendable human prudence, but not in Israel's case. R1887:2, R4193:1 It is thus easy to see how Moses could have firmly established himself at the head of a great empire without difficulty. HG534:4

Like all the nations

- They felt they were "out of style." R3216:4 Desiring a united kingdom. R4193:1 A desire to appear great themselves. R1887:4 As exemplified in the "broad-minded" policies of Solomon to be popular with neighboring kings. R2359:2, R2069:1 They did not want to be a peculiar people. R2359:2

1 Samuel 8:6 But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD.

Give us a king

- Corresponding to the desire of the church early in the Gospel age to have an earthly head, a pope. R3217:2, R4200:1

And Samuel

- Not attempting to decide the matter on his own responsibility; thereby setting us a fine example. R3216:5

1 Samuel 8:7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

In all that they say

- Changed to a monarchy by the Lord's permission but without his approval. OV10; A48

Rejected me

- They already had a powerful, invisible king, before whom none of their enemies could stand. R1887:2 The Lord's promise, "I will restore thy judges" (Isa. 1:26) intimates the superiority of the republican form of government. R4193:2, R4201:4

Reign over them

- Since God was Israel's king, Saul and his successors sat upon the throne of the Lord. R1979:1

1 Samuel 8:8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

I brought them up

- They were evidencing a lack of faith in past providences and weariness in welldoing. R1887:2

11

1 Samuel 8:11 And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

This will be the manner

- Not the Lord's idea of government, but his foretelling the actions of imperfect men exalted to power. R2046:1 Referring to Deut. 17:14-20. R1887:5 Instead of being sovereigns, the people would be the slaves of a sovereign. R5637:1 For three reasons: (1) his own imperfections; (2) his subjects' imperfections; and (3) the temptation to abuse power to maintain order. R4193:5 Immanuel's kingdom will be autocratic in the extreme. R4193:6

19

1 Samuel 8:19 Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us;

Will have a king

- Instead of the republican form of government established by the Lord. A48; R5636:3,6

22

1 Samuel 8:22 And the LORD said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.

Make them a king

- An example of an unfavorable answer to prayer. (See Hosea 13:9-11) R3217:4

1 Samuel 9:2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.

Choice young man

- Tall, manly, well-balanced mentally, but not specially religious. R4197:1 His noble stature and physique may have been the result of divine foreordination. R4197:2

He was higher

- Hence easily recognized later on by the witch of Endor. R2172:2, HG726:2 Such a type of man appealed strongly to the sentiments of the people. R4197:2 Though tall and athletic, he was also humble (I Sam. 15:17). R4197:4

1 Samuel 9:6 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man; all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

Cometh surely to pass

- Pointing out that all things are known to God and that the prophet was God's special representative. R4197:1

12

1 Samuel 9:12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; for there is a sacrifice of the people to day in the high place:

In the high place

- Prohibited by Mosaic Law (Deut. 12:13, 14) but accepted by God until the Temple was built. R2045:6

19

1 Samuel 9:19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to day, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.

Will tell thee all

- Samuel's occult powers were manifested under divine direction at a time when God used such powers amongst Israel. R5637:5

21

1 Samuel 9:21 And Saul answered and said, Am not I a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? and my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

Smallest of the tribes

- Whose territory lay between the two principal tribes; thus he would be more likely to have the sympathy and cooperation of the people. R4197:2

The least of all

- In selecting both Saul and David the Lord sought a meek and quiet spirit. R1888:2

1 Samuel 10:1 Then Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD hath anointed thee to be captain over his inheritance?

A vial of oil

- Typifying the anointing of the holy Spirit. R4197:6, R5636:2

To be captain

- Representing Jesus as the head of the Church. R3218:5

1 Samuel 10:6 And the Spirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man.

Spirit of the LORD

- Controlling his words and actions rather than enlightening his mind in respect to the deep things of God. R4197:5

Another man

- Similarly, those who believe God's message and accept the anointing of the holy Spirit also find new aims, new impulses, new hopes, new desires. R4197:6

1 Samuel 10:9 And it was so , that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day.

Another heart

- Fixed his mind upon the more sober things of life and God's relationship to these. R4197:5 In the sense that he no longer had the "disposition" to be a farmer, but a divine "disposition" to be a statesman. It did not signify that he had become a New Creature in Christ. R5637:4

10

1 Samuel 10:10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

Spirit of God

- An invisible power from God. R5637:3 The Bible makes a clean-cut distinction between the holy Spirit's operations upon men before Pentecost and since. R5637:3 God's holy Spirit qualifying Saul for king was a mechanical one and not the spirit of sonship. R5637:4

16

1 Samuel 10:16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

He told him not

- It was in harmony with the prophet's advice that Saul kept the matter of his anointing secret. R4197:1, R3218:2 So now, the people know not the Lord's Anointed, the matter is kept secret for a time. R3218:5

18

1 Samuel 10:18 And said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

Delivered you

- Samuel impressed upon the people the fact that no king could have done them better service than their great King, Jehovah. R3218:2

19

1 Samuel 10:19 And ye have this day rejected your God, who himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations; and ye have said unto him, Nay , but set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands.

Your adversities

- Calamities or evils sent as chastisements. A125

Before the LORD

- Israel's solicitude to have the Lord make the choice is in contrast with present-day wire-pulling for office. R3218:1

20

1 Samuel 10:20 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

Benjamin was taken

- Similarly today, the Lord is passing by the prominent people and choosing the little and the humble. R3218:5 Samuel cast lots so the people might know it was the Lord's choice. R3218:2, R5637:6

21

1 Samuel 10:21 When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

And Saul

- Meaning "Desired"; typifying, in this case, Christ. "The desire of all nations shall come." (Hag. 2:7) R3218:5

They sought him

- In due time search will be made to find the Lord's Anointed and he will be found at his second advent. R3218:5

22

1 Samuel 10:22 Therefore they inquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff.

Inquired of the LORD

- The Christ of God will be the desired one of all nations. R3218:5

Hath hid himself

- In marked contrast with some of the chief ones of the world and the nominal church. R3218:4, R5636:2

The stuff

- Baggage piled up surrounding the camp. R3218:4, R5637:6

23

1 Samuel 10:23 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward.

Fetched him thence

- The Lord's Anointed shall be found at his second advent. R3218:5

He was higher

- Representing the largeness and grandeur of character in those whom the Lord is choosing. R3218:6

24

1 Samuel 10:24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him whom the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, God save the king.

None like him

- "Chiefest among ten thousand; the one altogether lovely." (Song of Sol. 5:10, 16) R3218:6

The people shouted

- So the world of mankind will shout for joy when they shall realize the presence of the Christ of God. R3218:6

25

1 Samuel 10:25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

Write it in a book

- By divine direction. R1145:3

26

1 Samuel 10:26 And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched.

Went home

- Displaying patience, wisdom, humility. R5636:1

Went with him

- It is because we see Jesus to be the Father's choice that we unite ourselves to him. R3218:6

A band of men

- Typifying the Little Flock. R3218:6

27

1 Samuel 10:27 But the children of Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he held his peace.

Children of Belial

- Children of the devil; representing those out of harmony with God, speaking evil of the members of the Body of Christ. R3219:1

They despised him

- So mankind is not yet ready for the reign of the Royal Priesthood. R5636:2

He held his peace

- Made no attempt to exercise authority, seeing that he had only half-hearted support from the people. R5635:2

1 Samuel 11:6 And the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly.

The Spirit of God

- The spirit of wisdom or judgment pertaining to the government of Israel. E176

Came upon Saul

- Energizing his mind mechanically without affecting him in any moral sense. E175 For as long as he was loyal to God. E176

12

1 Samuel 11:12 And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death.

Bring the men

- When the power of Messiah shall be manifested, the general sentiment of the world toward him will be loyalty. R3219:4

Put them to death

- The great Armageddon is at hand. Thereafter the kingdom of Messiah will be popular and they will say, "Let those who oppose be put to death." R5636:2

13

1 Samuel 11:13 And Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day: for to day the LORD hath wrought salvation in Israel.

Not a man

- But the Messiah will show mercy toward those who, during the darkness of the present time, have spoken evil of him. R3219:4 The king was wise and generous. R5635:5

14

1 Samuel 11:14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.

Gilgal

- One of several prominent places for public gatherings at which Samuel was in the habit of holding court as judge. R3222:3

15

1 Samuel 11:15 And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

They made Saul king

- The interim had given time for the appreciation of their new king. So, the influence of the Church, after anointing and before coronation, will have a helpful influence upon the world. R4199:1

1 Samuel 12:5 And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found ought in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

Have not found ought

- Every family member, similarly, should be able to call fellow-members to witness their faithfulness. R4199:3

He is witness

- Of his spotlessness, his integrity as a judge. R4193:3 A wonderful tribute. In our day, however, even the noblest officials have their traducers and backbiters. R3222:3

1 Samuel 12:9 And when they forgat the LORD their God, he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

King of Moab

- "Moab is my washpot" (Psa. 108:9) to cleanse Israel from their defilements. R4199:5

12

1 Samuel 12:12 And when ye saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Nay; but a king shall reign over us: when the LORD your God was your king.

Nay

- Concluding that their disasters were not punishments, but the result of poor political organization. R4199:5

14

1 Samuel 12:14 If ye will fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you continue following the LORD your God:

Ye and also the king

- A sin by the king would mean a national sin, for which the people as well as the king would be punished; unlike sins of the judges. R4200:3

17

1 Samuel 12:17 Is it not wheat harvest to day? I will call unto the LORD, and he shall send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

That ye may perceive

- Corroborating his declaration that their calling for a king was a sin by the people. R4200:3

18

1 Samuel 12:18 So Samuel called unto the LORD; and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

And rain that day

- Ordinarily it does not rain in Palestine from the end of April to the beginning of October. R3223:3

22

1 Samuel 12:22 For the LORD will not forsake his people for his great name's sake: because it hath pleased the LORD to make you his people.

Will not forsake

- Israelites indeed in spiritual Babylon. R4200:2

23

1 Samuel 12:23 Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way:

To pray for you

- This illustrates the grandeur of Samuel's character. He seems to have none of the animosities which some smaller creature might have. R3223:6

24

1 Samuel 12:24 Only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you.

With all your heart

- A loyal heart will control all the products of life. R4201:3

Great things

- With even greater force for spiritual Israel. R4201:5

1 Samuel 13:5 And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, eastward from Bethaven.

Thirty thousand

- A copyist's error, should be three thousand. R4206:2

1 Samuel 13:9 And Saul said, Bring hither a burnt offering to me, and peace offerings. And he offered the burnt offering.

He offered

- Without authority to do so. R5638:2, R3240:2 Zeal, disregarding divine instruction, is not approved. R4207:1 Similarly, Christians sometimes undertake to do the work of others, "busy-bodies." (1 Peter 4:15) R4206:5

The burnt offering

- Perhaps this failure of Saul to recognize his typical mediator typifies fleshly Israel's rejection of Christ's mediatorial work 3 1/2 years after the kingdom in embryo was set up at the first advent. R4018:2*

12

1 Samuel 13:12 Therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the LORD: I forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt offering.

I forced myself

- He sinned presumptuously when he should have waited for the deliverance which God alone could give. R1887:3

13

1 Samuel 13:13 And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

Hast done foolishly

- Apparently King Saul was not evilly intentioned, but lacked proper respect and reverence for the Lord, as with some in spiritual Israel today. R5647:1

Hast not kept

- This may be said to be the beginning of Saul's rejection by the Lord. R3224:2 See comments on verse 9 from R4018:2*.

14

1 Samuel 13:14 But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee.

Shall not continue

- Yet God did not take the kingdom from Saul at once. There was time for repentance and reformation. R1887:6 Jonathan would otherwise have been the next king. R1907:3

Sought him a man

- David. This was said about the time of David's birth. Similarly, God chose Jacob and Paul before they were born, and has doubtless so chosen others. R3225:3

His own heart

- In the sense of being full of faith in God and aiming aright. R3238:3; Q200:T Not a testimony to the perfection of either the youth or the man, but rather to his fitness for the office. R1996:2

19

1 Samuel 13:19 Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears:

No smith

- The Israelites were poorly armed for this reason. R5638:1

1 Samuel 14:1 Now it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side. But he told not his father.

Not his father

- Indicating his great love for his father. R1907:3

1 Samuel 14:6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few.

Will work for us

- Jonathan had a strong faith in the power of God on their behalf. R1907:6

15

1 Samuel 14:15 And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling.

A very great

- Elohim, strong, power, great, in connection with inanimate things. E69

39

1 Samuel 14:39 For, as the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

Jonathan my son

- Indicating Saul's great love for Jonathan. R1907:6

1 Samuel 15:2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.

Amalek

- A branch of Esau's family related to the Israelites and the Arabs of today. R4207.2

1 Samuel 15:3 Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

Go and smite Amalek

- Typical of wilful sinners of the next age. F174 The people of the land of Canaan had allowed their cup of iniquity to come to the full. R5663:5 These Amalekites, Sodomites and others were set forth as examples of God's just indignation and his ultimate destruction of evil-doers. OV227; A112 The Lord used Israel as his sword to enforce his judgment. R4207:3 No injustice, as the Amalekites were already under the death sentence. F174

And utterly destroy

- Did not mean they went to eternal torture. R3224:6 Under divine arrangement, when iniquities have reached their full, punishment is to be expected. R5647:6, R3225:1 As examples of God's just indignation and determination to destroy evil-doers; examples which will be of service not only to others, but also to themselves when their day of judgment or trial comes. HG345:6

And spare them not

- The death by the sword was with much less pain than if it had been by pestilence. R3224:6

1 Samuel 15:4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

200,000 footmen

- Little more than one-third of the number that left Egypt. (Num. 1:45, 46) HG362:3

1 Samuel 15:9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

People spared Agag

- Many are disposed to destroy the foolish things connected with sin, but to save alive the king sin. R3225:3

Not utterly destroy

- Showing too slack an appreciation of the Lord's word. R4208:1

11

1 Samuel 15:11 It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night.

Is turned back

- Saul had not misunderstood, but had with considerable deliberation violated instructions. R3225:1, R5431:2, R5647:6

13

1 Samuel 15:13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD.

I have performed

- To a considerable extent hypocritical. R3225:1, R5431:2, R5648:1

14

1 Samuel 15:14 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

Bleating of the sheep

- Israel was not to destroy their enemies for their own advantage and enrichment but to act as the agent of the Lord in executing his decree. R3225:2, R5648:1

15

1 Samuel 15:15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

To sacrifice

- Fallen human nature ever seeks to justify itself in its disobedience to God. R5431:3

16

1 Samuel 15:16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

This night

- The night preceding, because in Jewish reckoning their day began in the evening. R5648:1

17

1 Samuel 15:17 And Samuel said, When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel?

When thou wast little

- It is only the humble that God can exalt and use. R1888:4, R4197:4 Christians must likewise be taller than their fellows in respect to character, but still humble. R4197:4

Anointed thee king

- The exaltation of Saul proved too great a temptation. R1888:4

19

1 Samuel 15:19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the LORD?

Fly upon the spoil

- A selfish desire for things which the Lord has condemned. R4208:1 Imitating the robber nations about them. R3225:2

20

1 Samuel 15:20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

I have obeyed

- Saul had grown more self confident and less reliant upon the Lord, less attentive to the Lord's commands. R5648:2

21

1 Samuel 15:21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.

But the people

- A man-fearing spirit, fearing the reproaches of the people. R4208:1

To sacrifice

- See comments on 1 Sam. 15:15 from R5431:3.

22

1 Samuel 15:22 And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

To obey

- Obedience to God demands that we strive to be just in deed and word and thought. R5430:6 A man must be just before he is generous. R5430:6 To obey God is a duty of the very highest type. R5431:3

Better than sacrifice

- No sacrifice will be acceptable unless we first obey his word. R5431:2, R5647:3 Israel often mistakenly felt that their injustices could be righted by sacrifice. R5430:2 Before we can make much development in the cultivation of sacrificial love we must learn to have a love of justice. R5430:5 How careful it should make us to inquire what the will of the Lord is. SM438 How many of those who have heard the call to "Come out of" Babylon need to heed the instructions of this lesson. R3224:3, R5431:1, R5647:3

23

1 Samuel 15:23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

Sin of witchcraft

- Human wilfulness trusts to erring human judgment in preference to the infallible divine judgment. R1888:1

Idolatry

- Human wilfulness adores and seeks to please self rather than God. R1888:1

26

1 Samuel 15:26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

I will not return

- Hence absurd to suppose that Samuel would hold any conference with Saul arranged by the witch of Endor. HG726:5

35

1 Samuel 15:35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

No more to see Saul

- Had no further dealings with him in any way, showing that the manifestations to the witch of Endor were the work of the fallen angels. R2172:3 It was no longer Samuel's province to go to Saul respecting the interests of the kingdom. R4209:1

Samuel mourned

- As a father over a wayward son. R1888:2 Having a feeling of compassion for those who were out of the way. R5648:5 So we feel a deep interest in matters and persons of our intimate association. R4209:1

1 Samuel 16:1 And the LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Bethlehemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons.

How long wilt thou mourn

- A slight reproof. R4209:2

1 Samuel 16:4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

Comest thou peaceably

1 Samuel 16:5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

To sacrifice

- The Ark being in the hands of the Philistines, the Tabernacle services had been discontinued. R3226:3

Sanctify yourselves

- By washing, and with clean clothes, drawing nigh to the Lord with their hearts, typifying the justification and sanctification which the Gospel age Church enjoys. R3226:3

The sacrifice

- An acknowledgment of sin and thankfulness to the Lord for his mercy; a consecration of obedience. R4209:6

1 Samuel 16:6 And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the LORD'S anointed is before him.

Looked on Eliab

- Judging from the human standpoint, Eliab was the most suitable person, but not so in the Lord's sight. R3226:3

1 Samuel 16:7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

Looketh on the heart

- The mind, the intention, the endeavor. R5947:4 It behooves us, then, to see that our hearts are loyal, faithful and obedient. R1902:4 He knows to what extent you are striving against sin. CR335 If he sees earnest endeavor to do his will he will cover the deficiencies and imperfections with the merit of our Savior. R5757:5 And not on the social, intellectual, moral or educational position of those he would honor. "Ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh are called." (1 Cor. 1:26) R3226:5

1 Samuel 16:8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

11

1 Samuel 16:11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he come hither.

Keepeth the sheep

- David was counted by his brethren too insignificant to be considered in this connection, so also are those whom the Lord is now choosing for his heavenly kingdom. R3226:4

Will not sit down

- To the feast of which they were about to partake, celebrating a communion with the Lord. R3227:1

Till he come

13

1 Samuel 16:13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

Anointed him

- Samuel probably privately informed David of the meaning of the anointing but his father and brethren probably did not understand. R3226:2 As David was anointed years before he became king, so Christ and the Church receive their anointing years before the Kingdom's establishment. PD39/50; SM601; CR367; Q501:4 We, as members of Christ's Body, have in our anointing of the holy Spirit a recognition of our coming kingship and joint-heirship with him if we remain faithful. SM601

Came upon David

- The spirit of wisdom and judgment pertaining to government. Note his subsequent discreetness. E176 David means "beloved"; we are "accepted in the Beloved." (Eph. 1:6) Each Body member must be beloved, else he cannot be acceptable. R3226:4, R4210:4; PD39/50 The reigns of David and Solomon picture the great work of the Lord's Anointed: David's, the work of the Church in the flesh; and Solomon's, the work of the Church glorified. R1901:3, R2010:4

Goliath by name

- Representing Satan and all who are on his side seeking to bring the Lord's people into bondage to errors or sins. R3230:5 The hosts of doubt and skepticism are led about by the great giant of unbelief. R3230:6 Goliath may properly represent pride, backed by worldliness. Another giant is fear, distrust; another sectarian influence. R3231:1 The downward tendencies of our flesh must be killed, must be beheaded, as was Goliath. R4217:2

And bowed himself

- Shaw-kaw, worshipped. Worship of Christ is not displeasing to God. E73

1 Samuel 24:9 And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

And David

- Type of Christ. B255

1 Samuel 25

8

1 Samuel 25:8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

Give

- Jewish Law provided that any hungry person might enter any farm and eat to his satisfaction. R3239:2

23

1 Samuel 25:23 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground,

Bowed herself

- Shaw-kaw, worshipped. E73

1 Samuel 26:7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him.

Within the trench

- Within the space, or corral, formed by the camp wagons. R3239:2

At his bolster

- To distinguish him as chief. This custom is still followed by the Bedouins of Arabia. R3239:2

1 Samuel 26:9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD'S anointed, and be guiltless?

And David

- Type of Christ. B255

11

1 Samuel 26:11 The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORD'S anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.

The LORD'S anointed

- Saul had been anointed with special anointing oil, typifying the holy Spirit. To have made an assault upon him would have been to attack the Almighty's arrangements. R5673:2, R3239:3

And David answered

- He neither affirmed nor denied Saul's guilt. R3239:6

23

1 Samuel 26:23 The LORD render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORD'S anointed.

To every man

- According to his righteousness. R4225:6

24

1 Samuel 26:24 And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.

Eyes of the LORD

- Not of King Saul. R3239:6

25

1 Samuel 26:25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things , and also shalt still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

Went on his way

- Unwilling to trust himself to Saul's power. Illustrating that love for enemies need not lead us to be too readily convinced of reformation on their part until a reasonable time has shown that the profession of reformation is not merely a passing emotion. R3239:6

1 Samuel 28:6 And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.

Answered him not

- He was out of fellowship with God. PD42/52 It is not for a moment supposable that God and Samuel, having refused to communicate with the king, would change and permit a witch, condemned by divine Law, to overrule the matter. PD42/52; R2172:3,4

Urim

- The Urim and Thummim answers of the Lord to the inquiries of the people had ceased. R5615:5

1 Samuel 28:7 Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at Endor.

A familiar spirit

- Familiar with the spirits who were disobedient in the days of Noah. PD42/52 These fallen angels seek to make void the Word of God despite being restrained in "chains of darkness." (Jude 6) R4976:2

8

1 Samuel 28:8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee.

Disguised himself

- Endeavored in vain to do so as "from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people." (1 Sam. 9:2) R2172:2

Divine unto me

- Make known. R755:4*

11

1 Samuel 28:11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

Bring me up Samuel

- Awaken Samuel. PD42/52

12

1 Samuel 28:12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

Woman saw Samuel

- The evil spirits caused to pass before the medium's mental vision the familiar likeness of Samuel. R2172:2

14

1 Samuel 28:14 And he said unto her, What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

And she said

- Describing a mental or "astral" picture. HG726:2

Covered with a mantle

- Saul did not enquire why Samuel wore the same old mantle as a spirit that he had worn as an earthly being. HG726:3

Saul perceived

- When she described the mental (or astral) picture, Saul recognized it as Samuel. R2172:2, R4234:2 Saul saw nothing; the witch said she saw Samuel. PD42/52

And he stooped

- He did not question how it could be that Samuel looked as old and stooped as before and wore a mantle if he was now a spirit being and far better off. R2172:2

15

1 Samuel 28:15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

And Samuel said

- The manner, style and sentiments of the dead prophet were assumed, the better to deceive. R2172:3 These "lying spirits" always seek to counterfeit the face, manner and disposition of the dead. R2172:3

Disquieted me

- Corresponding to the Jewish belief that when a person had died he became unconscious in sheol, the grave waiting for a resurrection. R2172:3; HG726:4

To bring me up

- Up from the grave, not down from heaven. R2172:3; HG726:4

Answereth me no more

- Saul was easily deceived into thinking that while Samuel had refused to commune with him while alive, he had now been forced to commune with him by the powers of the witch. R2172:3

Neither by prophets

- Hence Samuel would have had no right to give him any information which the Lord was unwilling to give him. HG726:5

I have called thee

- His boldness in still attempting to ascertain the future is remarkable. He should have feared God's further displeasure in doing that which was forbidden. R4234:3

16

1 Samuel 28:16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?

LORD is departed

- See comments on 1Sam. 28:6.

Become thine enemy

- The familiar spirit, impersonating Samuel, foretold nothing which Saul himself did not anticipate. R2172:4

17

1 Samuel 28:17 And the LORD hath done to him, as he spake by me: for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David:

LORD hath rent

- Saul anticipated what he heard. He knew that the kingdom should be taken from him and his family. HG726:6

19

1 Samuel 28:19 Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

And to morrow

- Scholars say that the battle and the death of Saul occurred several days later.

Thou and thy sons

- The familiar spirit erred—two of Saul's sons escaped and lived for years. R2172:5; HG727:1

Be with me

- Would wicked Saul be with righteous Samuel? R754:6* From the standpoint of the general faith then, that all who die go to sheol, the grave. R2172:6

Host of Israel

- The demons could see that one day's battle would probably settle the question; and since Saul was already panicstricken the death of the king and his household would be the only logical result. R2172:5, R4234:2

Into the hand

- Not that Satan is a prophet, but he is a student and believer of God's Word. R265:5

Shall I pursue

- We should never engage in battle without the assurance that the battle is the Lord's, nor forget that our weapons are not carnal. R2015:3

1 Samuel 31:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa.

Mount Gilboa

- In the vicinity of the Hill of Megiddo, or Armageddon. Di; OV268

1 Samuel 31:4 Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not;

for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

Fell upon it

- "He ate of the fruit of his own way and was filled with his own devices." (Prov. 1:31) R3240:5 Saul committed suicide, lest falling alive into the hands of his enemies they would have tortured him. R3240:6

12

1 Samuel 31:12 All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Bethshan, and came to Jabesh, and burnt them there.

Took the body

- Thus they attested their recognition of the king's kindness to them. R4234:5

Burnt them there

- Probably to prevent their further desecration. R3241:1

2 Samuel

General

- We have no certain knowledge of the regularity of Tabernacle worship during the period from Joshua to this time. Quite probably the services were maintained with more or less regularity. Shortly after Israel entered Palestine Joshua located the Ark at Shiloh. That it was still there at the close of the period of the Judges and while Samuel lived with Eli is shown by 1 Sam. 1:3. The sons of Eli took the Ark with them into battle against the Philistines ... the Lord permitted it to be captured. However, while they possessed it a curse seemed to accompany it. The Philistines loaded it upon a cart and started the oxen in the direction of the Israelites. From the time of its return the Ark was in the custody of Abinadab. R3252:2,3
- David was in his thirtieth year at the time of Saul's death. During the ten preceding years he had led a varied life ... banished from Saul's court, hunted by the king as a wild beast, chased as a brigand and looked upon with distrust by the majority of the people. R4234:3 David waited upon the Lord those many years, fully confident that in the end he should be the king of Israel, not hastening the event in any way but simply standing ready for the responsibilities and the power of the office where the Lord should put him. It was more than seven years after this before he became the king of all Israel. R5674:2,3

2 Samuel 1:1 Now it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag;

When David

- Type of Christ. B255 Now in his 30th year. R4234:3

Of the Amalekites

- Typical of wilful sinners in the Millennial age. F174

2 Samuel 1:2 It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

Came to David

- David and his men had been living in the country of the Philistines and had been treated by them as allies. R3245:6

2 Samuel 1:9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

Slay me

- Probably manufacturing this part of the story to bring honor to himself. R5674:2

15

2 Samuel 1:15 And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.

Fall upon him

- Demonstrating David's patience in waiting for God's time and way to give him the kingdom, and his unwillingness to sanction the death of the king at the hands of another. R3245:3,6

17

2 Samuel 1:17 And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son:

This lamentation

- The Dead March from Saul, based on this poem, is identified with the funeral services of the great today. R5674:1

18

2 Samuel 1:18 (Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: behold, it is written in the book of Jasher.)

The use of the bow

- Called the Song of the Bow. R5674:1, R4224:2

23

2 Samuel 1:23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

Lovely and pleasant

- No suggestion of how Saul had persecuted him or sought his life. R5674:1

26

2 Samuel 1:26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

Passing the love

- Illustrating the still more wonderful "love of Jesus." R4224:2

2 Samuel 2:1 And it came to pass after this, that David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? And he said, Unto Hebron.

David

- Not wishing to choose his own course. R3246:1 He had a great appreciation of justice and also a breadth of sympathy for his enemies. R5674:4

Of the LORD

- Probably through the High Priest, Abiathar. R3246:1 What a wonderful example we have in David's course! How much Christians can learn of patient waiting for the Lord's time in all their affairs. R5674:2

Hebron

- A central city of the tribe of Judah, where he and his family were well known and safe. R3246:1

2 Samuel 2:4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, That the men of Jabeshgilead were they that buried Saul.

Men of Judah came

- Thus falling in line not only with the divine anointing, but also with their own preferences. R1996:5

Anointed David king

- As in the case of David, Jesus did not begin his reign immediately after being anointed. He first needed various experiences. So with the Church. R4210:5

2 Samuel 2:5 And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabeshgilead, and said unto them, Blessed be ye of the LORD, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him.

David sent messengers

- Illustrating greatness through gentleness. R1709:1*

Blessed be ye

- Wishing them to know that he did not regard their act as an act of enmity, but rather one of decency and loyalty. R4235:3 How different was this from the evil spirit that would triumph over the death of a powerful rival and relentless enemy. R1996:6

2 Samuel 2:7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

Anointed me king

- Hinting that the men of Jabesh might like him as king also. R4235:4

2 Samuel 2:9 And made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

King over Gilead

- David made no attempt to coerce the other tribes. R5674:3

11

2 Samuel 2:11 And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

King In Hebron

- Patiently waiting for the Lord's time and way to make him king over all Israel. R3245:3 So the Lord's people, having been anointed kings and priests unto God, it is their part to wait patiently for the Lord's time for their exaltation. R1996:5

2 Samuel 3:1 Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

Long war

- Brothers fought against brothers—one party of God's favored people against another. This continued for two years. R4235:5 Pictures spiritual Israel, when brother shall be against brother, which the Lord will permit just prior to the establishment of the Kingdom. R4235:5

2 Samuel 3:3 And his second, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

Maacah

- The daughter of a heathen king. Absalom was brought up under the influence of a heathen mother with little respect or reverence for the true God. R2024:6, R3261:6, R5700:2

38

2 Samuel 3:38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

Prince and a great man

- A courageous statement in the presence of his own ablest soldier. R5674:4

39

2 Samuel 3:39 And I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: the LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

The LORD shall

- In the future (the Millennial age). R2613:6, R723:4

A righteous person

- David was broad-minded and generous toward his enemies. R5674:4

2 Samuel 5:3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.

A league with them

- Probably a kind of charter outlining the rights and limitations of the people and the king. R2001:3, R4236:1

Anointed David

- The third time that anointing oil was put upon his head. R5674:5

King over Israel

- David was 37 years old when made king over all Israel. This was 7 1/2 years after the death of Saul and about 17 years after David had been first anointed by Samuel. R5674:4

2 Samuel 5:5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

And six months

- Thus David actually reigned more than 40 years. HG68:4

Jerusalem

- Chosen by David for the capital of the now united kingdom; within Judah, but central to all Israel. R2001:3

6

2 Samuel 5:6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither.

Jebusites

- Jerusalem was still inhabited by the Jebusites, a remnant of the Canaanites, whom Israel was commissioned to destroy. R2001:6

Blind and the lame

- Boasting defiantly that even the blind and lame among them would be able to defend the city. R2001:6

2 Samuel 5:7 Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: the same is the city of David.

Strong hold of Zion

- Tower of David, near the Jaffa gate. R1390:2

2 Samuel 5:8 And David said on that day, Whosoever getteth up to the gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul, he shall be chief and captain . Wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.

Up to the gutter

- The water courses. R2001:6

12

2 Samuel 5:12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake.

Established him

- The secret of David's success was not merely fixity of purpose, but additionally that his purpose was kept fully in accord with the divine will. R4255:3

19

2 Samuel 5:19 And David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

Shall I go up

- We should never engage in battle without the assurance that the battle is the Lord's, nor forget that our weapons are not carnal. R2015:3

20

2 Samuel 5:20 And David came to Baalperazim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baalperazim.

Baal-perazim

- Type of God's deliverance of regathered Israel. D555

Smote them

- Illustrating God's "strange act." (Isa.28:21) R564:6

21

2 Samuel 5:21 And there they left their images, and David and his men burned them.

David

- Type of Christ. B255

1

2 Samuel 6:1 Again, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

Gathered together

- To revive the religious sentiments of the people. R3252:4

30,000

- It is wiser, better every way, that all the Lord's people participate in any prominent matter connected with the Lord's service, according to ability. R3252:4

2 Samuel 6:2 And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, whose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts that dwelleth between the cherubims.

Baale of Judah

- Or Kirjath-jearim (margin). The Ark was at Kirjath-jearim a total of 70 years. R3252:3, R5679:3, R2003:1

To bring up

- David's spiritual nature began to assert itself in respect to the government of Israel. R5679:3

Between the cherubims

- Between love and power and above a foundation of justice, represented by the Mercy Seat. R3252:3; T123-125; R5680:1

2 Samuel 6:3 And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

Upon a new cart

- After the example of the Philistines. R2003:1 Instead of upon the shoulders of the Levites as instructed by the Lord. R3252:6, R2003:1

2 Samuel 6:7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God.

Against Uzzah

- For his loss of respect of the Ark as representative of God and for the bad example in the sight of all Israel. R3252:6

God smote him

- God had tolerated the ignorance of the Philistines, but he slew Uzzah as a reminder of his displeasure with Israel for their carelessness in complying with the requirements of the Law. R2003:2 Illustrating the importance of types being kept in every minutiae. T12

For his error

- In handling the holy things of the divine Word and service of the truth. Spiritual Israelites are not at liberty to do as they please, merely assuring themselves that their motives are good. R4260:1

There he died

- No injury was done to Uzzah's eternal future. R3253:2

8

2 Samuel 6:8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perezuzzah to this day.

Was displeased

- With his former determination to bring the Ark to Jerusalem; and that through lack of care matters had gone astray. R3252:5 Divine providence gave him a great lesson of reverence for the Almighty and carefulness in respect to his laws. R5679:3,5

A breach upon Uzzah

- This was no injustice, because he was already under the death sentence anyway. F174 It was necessary because everything connected with the Tabernacle (Ark) typified something greater and more important to come afterward. T12

2 Samuel 6:9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?

David was afraid

- The king and the people understood the smiting of Uzzah as a rebuke for their disobedience, their lack of proper reverence for the symbol of God's presence. R2003:2

11

2 Samuel 6:11 And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obededom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obededom, and all his household.

Blessed Obed-edom

- The Ark was in the house of Abinadab 70 years, but without bringing him any special blessing. Similarly, the Bible in some families brings no blessings from year to year; but in others it brings great blessings in a few short months because of greater reverence for the Lord and his Word. R3253:4 Obed-edom was a Levite who doubtless reverently received the Ark. R2003:2

12

2 Samuel 6:12 And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obededom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obededom into the city of David with gladness.

Brought up the ark

- This time it was reverently borne according to divine directions. (See 1 Chron. 15:1, 2, 13-15, 28) R2003:4

13

2 Samuel 6:13 And it was so , that when they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

Bare the ark

- By the divinely directed method. It is not for us to be inventive in respect to divine services, but rather to be students of the divine will. R5680:3

14

2 Samuel 6:14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod.

David danced

- An expressive symbol of joy. R2003:5 The 24th Psalm is supposed to have been sung as marching accompaniment on this occasion. R4260:4

15

2 Samuel 6:15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

Brought up

- King David composed Psalm 24 for this very occasion. R5680:4

The ark

- The Ark represented Christ. The bringing of it into the city corresponds in a measure to our receiving of Christ. R5680:5

2 Samuel 7:2 That the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in an house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains.

The ark of God

- A symbol of the divine presence. R2010:5

5

2 Samuel 7:5 Go and tell my servant David, Thus saith the LORD, Shalt thou build me an house for me to dwell in?

Shalt thou build

- No justification for elegant church buildings and furnishments. R2010:5

For me to dwell in

- We are not to conclude that, because our plans are reverential and designed for the glory of God, therefore they must have the divine approval. R3258:6

2 Samuel 7:6 Whereas I have not dwelt in any house since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle.

In a tabernacle

- The Lord prefers that his representation in the world in the present time shall be extremely simple and unostentatious. R3259:2

8

2 Samuel 7:8 Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel:

Unto my servant

- To David and will evidently have a partially literal fulfilment, although the substance is in Christ. R1364:2

From the sheepcote

- The low estate we occupied on the animal plane. R3259:4

Ruler over my people

- The Lord has advanced the Church step by step until now we are joint-heirs with Jesus Christ. R3259:4

2 Samuel 7:9 And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

All thine enemies

- David, as the man of war, represents the saints of God in their present militant condition, warring with the world, the flesh and the devil. R3259:2

10

2 Samuel 7:10 Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime,

And move no more

- A prophecy of the Millennial age. R3259:4

12

2 Samuel 7:12 And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.

Thy days

- The reign of David prefigured the preparatory work of this Gospel age. R2010:4

Thy seed after thee

- Partially to Solomon, ultimately to Christ. R2010:4, R2372:6 A prophecy of the Lord's first advent. R1673:6

Establish his kingdom

- The reign of Solomon represented the glorious reign of Christ. R3259:3,6, R2010:4

13

2 Samuel 7:13 He shall build an house for my name, and I will stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

An house

- The construction of Solomon's Temple typified the resurrection of the Church. R3259:3 A symbol of future spiritual Israel. R2010:5

I will stablish

- The final confirmation of the Abrahamic covenant. R2372:6, R3114:6

His kingdom for ever

- The Period from Zedekiah's reign to that of Christ being merely an interregnum, a suspension of David's kingdom. R3259:5; PD47/59

14

2 Samuel 7:14 I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men:

I will chasten him

- May be properly applied to the spirit-begotten sons of God. "What son is he whom the father chasteneth not." (Heb. 12:7) R3259:6

16

2 Samuel 7:16 And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

Established for ever

- See comment on 2 Sam. 7:13.

7

2 Samuel 8:7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

Shields of gold

- The spoils, dedicated to the Lord, were reserved for the Temple which Solomon was to build. R2015:5

11

2 Samuel 8:11 Which also king David did dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued;

Did dedicate

- The mission of the Church in this present time is to prepare the gold, silver and precious things (the saints) for the future Temple. R3259:3

2 Samuel 9:1 And David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him kindness for Jonathan's sake?

Is there yet any

- David's search for opportunities to do good reminds us that such should be our attitude. R4269:1

For Jonathan's sake

- David had promised to show kindness to Jonathan's posterity. (1 Sam. 20:14-17) R2010:5 There is no more worthy trait to adorn a righteous character than that of gratitude, that returns filial affection to God and encourages loyal devotion between friends. R2010:6 So the glorified Church will remember its covenant to bless the Ancient Worthies first. R1908:5

2 Samuel 9:6 Now when Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant!

Fell on his face

- His fear that the king's words might be treacherous caused him fear and trepidation. R4268:6

And did reverence

- Shaw-kaw, worshipped. Worship of Christ is not displeasing to Jehovah. E73

2 Samuel 9:7 And David said unto him, Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

Restore thee

- This shows David's confidence that the kingdom should not be taken from his posterity. R4268:6

Eat bread at my table

- With people of Oriental lands this implies a pledge of friendship and fidelity; and to eat continually implies membership in the family. R4268:6

12

2 Samuel 10:12 Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the LORD do that which seemeth him good.

Seemeth him good

- If the battle is the Lord's it is sure to be victorious. R2015:5

19

2 Samuel 10:19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

And served them

- Under David Abraham's seed first possessed the land from the river of Egypt to the Euphrates. (Gen. 15:18) R2015:5

2 Samuel 11:2 And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

And it came to pass

- This narrative is given as a part of the genealogy of King Solomon, son of Bath-Sheba. R1420:2

Roof of the king's house

- It is easier to live a consecrated life in poverty than when surrounded by the wealth and liberties of court. R5681:1

Very beautiful

- It would be a great mistake to suppose that the blindness of intoxication with the spirit of the world constitutes a proper excuse for sins committed in that state. R2017:1

2 Samuel 11:3 And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?

Sent and enquired

- First, David coveted his neighbor's wife. R5681:2

2 Samuel 11:4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her; for she was purified from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house.

And David

- Possibly to some extent influenced by the prevailing notions that whatever the king was pleased to do was proper because of his exalted station. R3253:6

Took her

- He was awake to sin, asleep to righteousness. R5681:2

Lay with her

- Considering the higher interpretation of adultery and murder in Matt. 5:22, 28 some Christians may find themselves near the plane of David as respects sin. R3254:1

Set ye Uriah

- Compared with other contemporary kings David's course was moderate; not directly taking Uriah's life but merely conniving at his death. R3254:5

2 Samuel 12:1 And the LORD sent Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

Sent Nathan

- It required courage, but whoever has a message from the Lord must needs have the courage to deliver it wisely and faithfully. R5681:3, R2017:1 The prophet was sent directly to the king. PD43/53; R4271:5

There were two men

- The prophet made a parable showing the injustice and asked what would be a just decision. PD43/53; R5681:3, R4271:5

2 Samuel 12:5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die:

Anger was greatly kindled

- King David asked the name of the unjust man that he might be punished. PD43/53; R5681:3, R4271:5

Shall surely die

- David unconsciously condemned himself to death. R2017:3

7

2 Samuel 12:7 And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul;

Thou art the man

- It was a critical moment for David. Would he proudly resist the power of the truth, claiming that the customs of the world, instead of the Law of God, were to him the standard of privilege? R2017:2,3 Blessed is he who is not condemned by his own declarations in respect to the affairs of others. R3255:6

11

2 Samuel 12:11 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun.

Of thine own house

- Absalom's rebellion was the means employed for this punishment. R1397:2

13

2 Samuel 12:13 And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die.

I have sinned

- The king saw the horrible mistake and humbly confessed the sin to the Lord. PD43/53; R5681:3, R4271:5 David saw his own conduct, not from the standpoint of other kings and what they did, but from the standpoint of the divine law of righteousness. R5681:3, R1396:6 The 51st Psalm is generally recognized as his expression of contrition for the sin. R3254:2

Put away thy sin

- Justice would have been required in respect to the sins; but to the repentant soul the Lord's favor would, nevertheless, still be granted. R5681:4 God showed mercy on David (as to all Jews under the Law's typical sacrifices) in that he made allowance for his fallen condition. R1397:2 Realizing the Lord's forgiveness for the penitent moves one toward repentance. R3254:2 For the Christian, involuntary sins are cancelled; but wilfulness has a penalty attached. R1397:4 Sinful Christians find great consolation in the Lord's compassion if they are exercised as was David by their sins. R3254:2

Thou shalt not die

- Because he had confessed and repented. R5681:3, R2017:5 The penalty of David's sin was death, under two indictments: Lev. 20:10 and Lev. 24:17. In view of his repentance the Lord remitted the death penalty, inflicting only such punishment as was necessary for the correction. R2017:4, R5681:3 If sin is fallen into, God does everything to encourage the acceptance of forgiveness and reformation, though the sinner is obliged to bear some severe penalty. R5681:4; Q281:3

14

2 Samuel 12:14 Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die.

To blaspheme

- While David's sin has given occasion to blasphemers, his repentance and forgiveness have given hope and encouragment to many who have been overtaken in a fault. R3260:6

18

2 Samuel 12:18 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?

The child died

- Though the Lord indicated his forgiveness, yet there must be a punishment. R5106:4, R3255:5

24

2 Samuel 12:24 And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon: and the LORD loved him.

Solomon

- His name signifies "the peaceful," thus commemorating God's promise concerning him. R2045:3

The LORD loved him

- God accepted David's penitence and restored him to his favor. PD43/53

25

2 Samuel 12:25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

His name Jedidiah

- Meaning "Beloved of Jehovah"; indicating David's forgiveness and restoration to divine favor. R2045:3

31

2 Samuel 12:31 And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brickkiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

Put them under saws

- While we mark with pleasure the noble traits in David's character, we must deplore the steps of his decline leading to unnecessary cruelty, not only conquering, but triumphing ignobly over his foes. R2016:3

2 Samuel 13:1 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.

And it came to pass

- This narrative is given to account for Absalom's estrangement from his father David. R1420:2

23

2 Samuel 13:23 And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baalhazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

After two full years

- For two years no punishment was inflicted because David did not know what to do even though the matter (vs. 10-21) sorely vexed him. R4275:5

28

2 Samuel 13:28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

Kill him

- A modern method of assassination is slanderous words, by insinuations, etc., often committed in the presence of the heavenly brotherhood. R4275:6

37

2 Samuel 13:37 But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

Absalom fled

- Fearing David's indignation. R2025:1

Went to Talmai

- Absalom's maternal grandfather. R2025:1

38

2 Samuel 13:38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

To Geshur

- Surrounded with the influences of a heathen land. R2025:4

2 Samuel 14:4 And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king.

And did obeisance

- See comments on 2 Sam. 9:6.

28

2 Samuel 14:28 So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face.

Not the king's face

- As a continued showing of disfavor. R4276:1
- This experience fastened upon the mind of Absalom the conviction that his father no longer loved him. This prepared him to set at defiance his kingly authority. R2025:1, R4278:1

32

2 Samuel 14:32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

See the king's face

- Absalom realized that as an exiled prince his chances of acceptance as king of Israel would be comparatively small in the event of his father's death. R4276:1

2 Samuel 15:1 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

Prepared him chariots

- A custom from his grandfather's court. R3262:1

2 Samuel 15:2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so , that when any man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.

King for judgment

- The king acted as a superior court, so that cases not satisfactorily adjudicated before the regular judges were appealed to him. R3262:2, R5700:2

2 Samuel 15:4 Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

I were made judge

- Would that I were king! It would be different! R5700:3

Do him justice

- Implying that his hearer had justice on his side and would be pleased with the results. R3262:2

2 Samuel 15:6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

Stole the hearts

- By feigning humility and zeal for justice, by careful attention to his personal appearance and by attention to those in influential positions. R4276.1 Many in our day are willing to steal the affections of another and to misrepresent another to their own advantage. R3262:3

2 Samuel 15:7 And it came to pass after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron.

After 40 years

- After four years; the error of a transcriber. R2025:5, R4276:2 Four years from his full acceptance back to fellowship with his father. R3262:3

Let me go

- In order not to excite the suspicion of the king or others he asked permission to go. R3262:4, R4276:2

10

2 Samuel 15:10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

Absalom reigneth

- The people would gain the impression that the revolution of the kingdom was complete and that David was thoroughly vanquished. R3262:4 Although the Lord restored David to divine favor and communion, he punished him severely for his sin—Absalom's rebellion being the means employed. R1397:2, R3262:5

11

2 Samuel 15:11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

Knew not anything

- Were totally ignorant of the use that was being made of them. R3262:4

12

2 Samuel 15:12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counseller, from his city, even from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.

Sent for Ahithophel

- This would mean a tower of strength to Absalom's position and ambition. R4276:4

The conspiracy

- Begun when Absalom returned from exile, or two years later. R3262:3 So today: the Lord will permit conspiracies against the truth, but to go only so far as they will work for his glory. R3262:6

Increased continually

- Political intrigue stole the hearts of the people and made the cause of Absalom temporarily very prosperous. R2024:3

14

2 Samuel 15:14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

Let us flee

- David wished to avoid the horrors of civil war. He was overwhelmed with grief that his enemy was his son and that his former friends had become his enemies. R4277:1

17

2 Samuel 15:17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

All the people

- His bodyguard consisted mostly of foreigners. (vs. 18) R4277:2

19

2 Samuel 15:19 Then said the king to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also an exile.

An exile

- It is supposed that the 4th Psalm and portions of the 3rd were written from the standpoint of David's experiences as an exile from his capital. R4277:3

20

2 Samuel 16:20 Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give counsel among you what we shall do.

Then said Absalom

- This narrative is given to prove that the Lord's penalty against David for his injustice toward Uriah was fulfilled. R1420:2

22

2 Samuel 17:22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

Then David

- Meaning "beloved," type of Christ. R3226:4

Passed over Jordan

- Meaning "Judged down," "Condemned." R3086:4

2 Samuel 18:1 And David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

David

- Now about 62 years of age. R4277:5

2 Samuel 18:5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

Deal gently

- Mark the father's love, even under extreme, trying circumstances. He charged the soldiers to do Absalom no harm. R2025:2, R3268:2, R4277:5

7

2 Samuel 18:7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men .

20,000 men

- Absalom's forces. R3268:1

15

2 Samuel 18:15 And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

Slew him

- Absalom is a distinguished example of dishonor to a father. R3262:1 How suddenly God brought to naught the evil designs of this wicked young man. R2025:2

16

2 Samuel 18:16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

Joab

- Chief of King David's generals. R3268:1, R4277:5

Blew the trumpet

- Of victory. The conspiracy had come to naught, the usurper was dead. R2025:3

21

2 Samuel 18:21 Then said Joab to Cushi, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran.

To Cushi

- Literally, "To the Cushite," the negro. R3268:4

27

2 Samuel 18:27 And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.

With good tidings

- A good man should always seek to carry a good message. R3268:1, R4277:6

29

2 Samuel 18:29 And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was .

Is ... Absalom safe?

- In harmony with David's parting words (vs. 5). R3268:2 It was far more pleasing to the Lord that he should love his enemy too much rather than too little. R4277:6 God so loved us while we were "yet sinners." (Rom. 5:8) R4277:6

But I knew not

- The Lord's people should be particular to discriminate between knowledge and belief and hearsay. R3268:4, R4278:1

33

2 Samuel 18:33 And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!

O my son Absalom

- David's former attitude of neglect toward his son was a great mistake, the realization of which doubtless deepened the grief. R2025:1 Parents should heed well this lesson. If David had exercised more kindness, loving counsel and sympathy with his son, he might have been spared this bitter lament. R2025:4, R3268:5, R5700:5

I had died for thee

- David was more anxious for Absalom than for his throne or for his own life. R3268:2 We have two parallels in Scripture: Moses (Ex. 32:32) and Paul (Rom. 9:3). R4278:2,4 For five years David had allowed the hard side of his nature to conceal his tender emotions. How often is the mistake of David repeated by parents. R2025:2,4 There is not in all of the Old Testament a passage of greater pathos than this. R4278:2

2 Samuel 19:9 And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

At strife

- Israel had been thrown into a state of confusion, threatening anarchy, being left for a time without any official head or king. R1690:1

11

2 Samuel 19:11 And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house.

Bring the king back

- This is an illustration of a very similar condition of things in the world today. Earth's rightful king is not upon his throne, nor has the world recognized his right to it nor desired his return. Men have tried every experiment of self-government and all have ended in failure. R1690:2

14

2 Samuel 19:14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants.

Return thou

9

2 Samuel 21:9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days , in the beginning of barley harvest.

And my fortress

And the horn

- Horns are symbols of power. T42

6

2 Samuel 22:6 The sorrows of hell compassed me about; the snares of death prevented me;

18

2 Samuel 22:18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

My strong enemy

- Death. R153:6, R265:1

31

2 Samuel 22:31 As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all them that trust in him.

His way is perfect

- He could not be holy in all his works if he were the author of sin and crime. R1351:4, R849:1 Therefore we cannot conclude that God made us sinners. HG650:2

The necks of mine enemies

- Enemies of the Lord which David was commissioned to conquer—prophetic of Christ's victories over the enemies of truth and righteousness. R2032:1

44

2 Samuel 22:44 Thou also hast delivered me from the strivings of my people, thou hast kept me to be head of the heathen: a people which I knew not shall serve me.

Head of the heathen

- Verses 44 to 46 are fully applicable only to the wider dominion of Christ as earth's future king. R2032:4

50

2 Samuel 22:50 Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto thy name.

Therefore I will give thanks

- "We love him because he first loved us." (1 John 4:19) R2031:5 No one can be a true Christian and be unthankful. R2460:2 This principal of gratitude and praise is that which makes human fellowship possible. R2031:6

2 Samuel 23:3 The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God.

Must be just

- This is the meaning of the Lord's careful selection, instruction, discipline, judging and proving his people whom he is now calling to a ruling position in the Millennial Kingdom. R4198:6 But enforcement of justice is not the Lord's rule for his people in the present time when they themselves are weak and imperfect. "Judge no man before the time." (1 Cor. 4:5) R4198:6

2 Samuel 23:5 Although my house be not so with God; yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things , and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

Everlasting covenant

- The original grace, or Sarah, covenant. R4321:2

15

2 Samuel 23:15 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!

Well of Bethlehem

- Now (1892) on the principal street of Bethlehem. R1401:5

17

2 Samuel 23:17 And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

Would not drink it

- He considered it too costly to drink, so he made it an offering to God. R2015:6 Few indeed among the kings of the earth would consider any sacrifice of their fellow-men too costly to be bestowed on them. R2015:6

2 Samuel 24:1 And again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them to say, Go, number Israel and Judah.

He moved David

- Satan provoked David to number Israel, contrary to the command of the Lord. R5106:4; Q281:4

2 Samuel 24:2 For the king said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, Go now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.

The king said

- As the Lord's representative, he was acting without instructions and due authority. Q832:2

I am in a great strait

- Realizing his own weakness; David, in humility, declined to make a choice. R5106:4; Q281:4

16

2 Samuel 24:16 And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshingplace of Araunah the Jebusite.

The angel stretched

- The word "angel" here does not necessarily refer to a member of the angelic order, but signifies "messenger" or agency which God used; in this case, a pestilence. R2382:2

The LORD repented

- Before the Lord's punishment reached David he had received the Lord's forgiveness. R5106:4; Q281:4

18

2 Samuel 24:18 And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite.

Rear an altar

- A remarkable spot. It was here that Abraham offered Isaac and Solomon built the Temple. (2 Chron 3:1) R2510:6, R1395:6

25

2 Samuel 24:25 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was intreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

The LORD was intreated

- Only proper for Israel, because of God's special covenant with that nation. R2029:2

Offered burnt offerings

- Recognizing God's chastisement, he prayed for divine mercy. R2029:2

1 Kings

General

- David had now accomplished nearly all of his earthly mission. He found the dominion small; now it was much extended. He found it in disorder and left it thoroughly organized. He found religion at a low ebb and he succeeded in greatly reviving and energizing religious devotion and zeal. He found powerful enemies on every side but he subdued all of them and led the nation to a condition of peace and introduced them to a season of unparalleled prosperity. His life had been an eventful and troubled one, not without its grave mistakes, but it had accomplished great things. The glory of Solomon's reign was but the harvest of David's labors and sufferings. R2030:2
- Israel's kings were anointed by divine commission and authority as were no other kings and they were said to "sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord" (1 Chron. 28:5) as no other kings before or since have held such dominion. It was, therefore, quite in line with the arrangements of that time that the kings of Israel and Judah should fortify and strengthen themselves and defend the land which the Almighty had specially given to their nation. R4786:2
- The chronology differences between the books of Kings and Chronicles are not to be considered errors of inspiration but merely such slight discrepancies as we might expect to find in any history and which God permitted for a purpose, while he supplied the deficiency in the Old Testament chronology by a fuller record on these obscure points in the New Testament. R1419:6

1 Kings 1:1 Now king David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat.

David was old

- Having brought order out of confusion, and having established peace and prosperity on a permanent footing. R2030:3

Stricken in years

- 70 years of age. Absalom, his eldest son, had died in rebellion. R5701:1

1 Kings 1:5 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

Adonijah

- Made heir-apparent to the throne by the death of Absalom. R5701:1 As with Absalom, the notes of discord came from within his own household. R2030:2, R4286:2

Exalted himself

- Adonijah succeeded in gaining the friendship of Joab, the long-time military leader. R5701:1

I will be king

- This attempted usurpation led to the immediate anointing and proclamation of Solomon. R2030:2

1 Kings 1:6 And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he also was a very goodly man ; and his mother bare him after Absalom.

Not displeased him

- He was a spoiled child never under the tutelage of the prophet Nathan. R4286:6 It is a mistake for parents to allow a child's early years to be wasted through inattention of training. R4286:6

1 Kings 1:7 And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they following Adonijah helped him .

Joab

- A long-time head of David's army, probably retired because of age and for disregarding King David's instructions that Absalom's life be not taken. R5701:1

10

1 Kings 1:10 But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

He called not

- Members of The Christ must not wonder if they are excluded from the companionships and feastings of the Absalom and Adonijah types. R4287:1

11

1 Kings 1:11 Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?

Nathan

- Solomon was the ward and pupil of Nathan. R5701:5, R4286:5

Spake unto

- Adonijah's disloyalty was thus brought to the notice of King David, resulting in Solomon's being publicly crowned. R2045:3, R5701:2

Bath-sheba

- Solomon's mother was not a heathen, but an Israelite, and therefore more in sympathy with divine arrangements and laws. R5701:5

Solomon

- Meaning, " The peaceful. " Partook of his father David's religious disposition. We are handicapped or blessed by the disposition and traits we inherit. R2045:3, R5701:4

13

1 Kings 1:13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign?

Assuredly Solomon

- Having been selected by Jehovah. R2045:3, R2030:2, R5701:4

30

1 Kings 1:30 Even as I sware unto thee by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day.

- In view of the fact that Solomon was the Lord's choice. R2045:3

33

1 Kings 1:33 The king also said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon:

Ride upon mine own mule

- An act which would of itself proclaim Solomon as David's successor. R4286:5, R5701:2

Gihon

- Near where Jesus later rode on the ass. R4286:5 In the Valley of Kidron. R1401:1

34

1 Kings 1:34 And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel: and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon.

Nathan the prophet

- And Benaiah, another general. R4286:4

38

1 Kings 1:38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon.

Cherethites and the Pelethites

- Two companies of the king's special body-guard. R4286:5

39

1 Kings 1:39 And Zadok the priest took an horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, God save king Solomon.

Anointed Solomon

- The first time. The second time is recorded in 1 Chron. 29:22, 23. R2031:4

King Solomon

- For his father David's sake. Of his posterity was to come the long-promised Messiah, King of the antitypical Kingdom of God. R2045:3 Solomon came to the throne at about 19 or 20 years of age and reigned jointly with his father David for some 6 months. R2045:3, R4286:5 It required the two reigns of David and Solomon to represent the great work of the Lord's Anointed: David's represented the work of the Church in the flesh, while Solomon's represented the work of the Church glorified. R1901:3

46

1 Kings 1:46 And also Solomon sitteth on the throne of the kingdom.

Sitteth on the throne

- Reigning jointly with David for some 6 months. R4286:5

50

1 Kings 1:50 And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

Adonijah feared

- Because of the custom amongst other kingdoms that when a king was installed in office, others who might become rivals were put to death. R4287:4 Probably judging Solomon by himself, and concluding that his life would be in danger. R4287:4

On the horns

- As a place of safety. R4287:4

53

1 Kings 1:53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

Go to thine house

- Indicating that no punishment would be inflicted. R4287:4

1 Kings 2:4 That the LORD may continue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel.

If thy children

- Conditional; his royal line failed and was abandoned from being the Messianic line. E131 Whatever is clearly promised on condition of obedience is forfeited if that obedience is not rendered. R467:5*

Shall not fail thee

- Be cut off from thee, from the throne. E131 Thus the Maccabees were unsuccessful in establishing a kingdom, because not of the promised line of David. Q79:2

1 Kings 2:6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace.

Down to the grave

- Sheol, oblivion, the state of death. E358; R828:5, R2600:1, R2599:6

1 Kings 2:9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

To the grave

- To sheol, oblivion. E358

10

1 Kings 2:10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

David slept

- Death is a condition of rest, of quiet, of peaceful unconsciousness. R5059:6, R4794:2, R5166:4 The body did not sleep, it was absolutely dead. That which slept was that which God recognizes as the personality, the soul. R5611:5

With his fathers

- The Bible declares that the Ancients, good and bad, were gathered to their fathers and slept. R5179:4, R2617:5

Was buried

- Purportedly in a cave with Solomon and other kings, today (1892) on Zion Street in Jerusalem. R1390:2

28

1 Kings 2:28 Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

Horns of the altar

- Pointing to Christ as our refuge, and to his abundant power and grace to all who should come to him. R101:1*

3

1 Kings 3:3 And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

Sacrificed

- Unto the Lord. R2045:6

In high places

- This was prohibited by Mosaic Law (Deut. 12:13, 14), but was accepted of God until the Temple was built. R2045:6

4

1 Kings 3:4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

Sacrifice

- Each has a sacrifice to bring: his justified self, his will, his time, his influence, his talents. R4292:1

1000 burnt offerings

- Burnt offerings only in the sense that they were offered in connection with a religious ceremony. Certain portions, particularly the fat, were burned and the food portions became the basis of the feast. R3277:3, R5714:2

1 Kings 3:5 In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

Appeared

- While Solomon's mind was active in religious matters. R3277:6

In a dream

- All dreams are not of the Lord, but he is able to use dreams when he so chooses to convey lessons and instructions. The only safe way is to interpret dreams in full accord with the Scriptures. R3277:6, R3278:1, R5714:5

Ask what I shall give thee

- So God is asking all who would become his children. He desires to do them good, but wishes them to realize their needs and make requests accordingly. R5714:6

1 Kings 3:6 And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

Thou hast shewed

- Indicating that he realized that God's favor was merely the continuation of the divine mercies which had blessed David. R4290:6

1 Kings 3:7 And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in.

Thou hast made thy servant

- This should give strength to all the Lord's consecrated people who have come into present grace and truth, not by their own wisdom but through the wisdom and grace of God. R3278:2

A little child

- Teachable, not boastful or self confident. R5714:6

Go out or come in

- How to conduct myself in public or in private before the people. R4291:1

8

1 Kings 3:8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

Thy servant

- Solomon recognized that the people were God's, not his. R4291:1, R3278:2

Midst of thy people

- A lesson to those who speak of God's people as "My people," "My flock," "My church." R3278:2

A great people

- Estimated 6,000,000. R3278:3

1 Kings 3:9 Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

An understanding heart

- The most necessary thing for the welfare of the nation was righteous judgment. R3278:4 Its full realization will be in Solomon's antitype. R2053:5, R1517:2

To judge

- To administer justice. Messiah is to accomplish this in the world in the Millennial age. R5715:1, R3278:5

12

1 Kings 3:12 Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

According to thy words

- Insofar as the dream was fulfilled in Solomon and his reign, it prefigured the glorious and peaceful reign of David's greater son, Jesus. R2046:5

Neither after thee

- Since typical of Christ, it is harmonious with Matt. 12:42, "A greater than Solomon is here." R1517.2

13

1 Kings 3:13 And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches, and honour: so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

Hast not asked

- This was just like our Heavenly Father. R3278:5

Riches and honor

- Typifying the spiritual riches and honors given to the true Church. R3278:5

14

1 Kings 3:14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days.

As thy father David

- Showing that the Lord was not expecting absolute perfection, but heart intentions. R2059:6

I will lengthen thy days

- Conditional. Solomon lived to 60 years; he would have lived to 80 years had he been more obedient. R3278:6

6

1 Kings 4:6 And Ahishar was over the household: and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the tribute.

Adoniram

- Secretary of the treasury, the one having charge over the assessments, etc., and who presided over the forced labor. R3385:4

24

1 Kings 4:24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tiphsah even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace on all sides round about him.

Peace on all sides

- Whereas King David's reign was full of wars, King Solomon's had none. PD44/53

29

1 Kings 4:29 And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore.

Gave Solomon wisdom

- Not the heavenly wisdom, not spiritual understanding. R2053:2

30

1 Kings 4:30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east country, and all the wisdom of Egypt.

Solomon's wisdom excelled

- Prefigured the all-comprehensive wisdom of Christ. R2053:1 Only an imperfect realization of the wise and understanding heart suggested in his dream-prayer. R2053:2

Children of the east

- Implying that his wisdom was along the lines of the sciences and philosophies popular with them. R2053:5

31

1 Kings 4:31 For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about.

Wiser than all men

- In the time of Solomon, the zenith of their glory, the Jews were a people distinguished and honored among nations. C244

32

1 Kings 4:32 And he spake three thousand proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five.

Three thousand proverbs

- Not all deemed of the Lord worthy of preservation in sacred Scripture. R2053:5

34

1 Kings 4:34 And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

Of all people

- "Many people will say, Come and let us go up to the house of the Lord." (Isa. 2:3) R2053:1

1 Kings 5:3 Thou knowest how that David my father could not build an house unto the name of the LORD his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

My father could not build

- The lesson is that the complete divine arrangement is not to be established by Christ in the flesh, represented by David, but by The Christ of glory, represented by Solomon. PD45/55 Christendom, not heeding this counsel, has built up earthly institutions contrary to the divine intention for this present age. R4261:3

For the wars

- David typified the battling of Christ and the Church while in the flesh. R4261:1

1 Kings 5:4 But now the LORD my God hath given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent.

Hath given me rest

- To illustrate the Millennial Kingdom of The Christ in glory. R4261:1

1 Kings 5:5 And, behold, I purpose to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house unto my name.

I purpose to build

- The "greater than Solomon" (Matt. 12:42) is to build the antitypical Temple. R172:2

11

1 Kings 5:11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.

Twenty measures

- 200,000 gallons. R3431:2

13

1 Kings 5:13 And king Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.

Raised a levy

- Drafted. R3282:3

17

1 Kings 5:17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

Costly

- The Temple of God, built by Solomon, was probably richer in its ornamentation and more costly than any other temple. It represented so glorious a class and such rich blessings of God to men that it was very appropriate that the type be costly. R2054:1, R4296:5

Lay the foundation

- The resurrection of the prophets. The apostles and the prophets are the foundation. (Eph. 2:20, 21) R180:6*

18

1 Kings 5:18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them , and the stonesquarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

So they prepared

- The getting out of the stones and timbers seems to be the work done during the Gospel age. R169:6*

1 Kings 6:1 And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

In the 480th year

- The Diaglott footnote on Acts 13:20 shows that this text has been corrupted by substituting the Hebrew character daleth (4) for hay (5), which is very similar in form. This would make 580 (instead of 480). R1980:3; B53 Leaving 350 years for the period of the judges whereas the time as given in the Judges in 19 periods makes a total of 450 years. Admitting the single mistake of 480 years for 580 in the Kings will set it right. HG104:6

He began to build

- Solomon was not only a prince of peace but a wise, rich king, who builded the Temple of Jehovah. PD44/53

1 Kings 6:7 And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.

And the house

- Typical of the greater spiritual Temple, the Church. F73

Was built of stone

- Type of the "living stones," each one fitted and prepared for his place. F196, F73

Made ready

- typified preparation of the Church in the present life and their construction as God's spiritual Temple by resurrection power. PD45/55; R1237:4, R172:2

Before it was brought

- The trials and difficulties of the present are the chiseling, and the quarry is the world. CR360 The construction of the antitypical Temple is not to take place until all the stones have been prepared. R4261:6 All the fitting and preparation is done in the present life. F196

Neither hammer nor axe

- No need of trimming or altering any of the perfected ones who will constitute the glorious Temple of God. R2987:2

Nor any tool of iron heard

- Quietly and orderly, no confusion. CR359 Showing the noiseless resurrection of the dead in Christ and the change of the living. R4296:6 Babylon's false temple, in contrast, builds and rebuilds with great noise-confusion. R1237:5

17

1 Kings 6:17 And the house, that is , the temple before it, was forty cubits long .

That is, the temple

- The Hebrew term for the Jewish Temple is heykal, a royal residence; qualified by the term kodesh, a sanctuary, to indicate its sacredness as the dwelling place of Jehovah. R1981:1

18

1 Kings 6:18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.

Knops and open flowers

- Representing the Church as both beautiful and fruitful. T116

All was cedar

- Representing everlasting life. T109

There was no stone

- Represents the true Church, "living stones." (1 Pet. 2:5) F196

19

1 Kings 6:19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

The ark

- Represents the eternal purpose of God in The Christ, Head and Body. T121

20

1 Kings 6:20 And the oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

The oracle

- Its size indicates the size of the Most Holy of the Tabernacle and the placement of the second veil. R100:2*

21

1 Kings 6:21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

So Solomon

- Type of Christ. (Matt. 12:42) R1517:2; B255

Overlaid

- Wood merely used as a filler. Wood, hay and stubble have no place in the true Temple. (1 Cor. 3:12). R2054:5

Pure gold

- The faith and character of the true Church is represented in the gold, silver and precious stones. R2054:5

23

1 Kings 6:23 And within the oracle he made two cherubims of olive tree, each ten cubits high.

Cherubims

- Not literal angels, but symbols of God's attributes. R529:6*

Ten cubits high

- Probably nearly 21 feet high. R530:2*

25

1 Kings 6:25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure and one size.

Of one measure

- Illustrating the time equality of the Jewish and Gospel dispensations. R39:2* The two covenants were represented by the two cherubim over the Mercy Seat. HG53:6

27

Glory of the LORD

- The fact that the glory of the Lord filled the typical Temple before it was completed seems to imply that at this present time there will be some manifestation of God's favor toward his Church before the work of construction is quite finished. R5714:4; CR360; R4297:5 Causing the shekinah glory to shine upon the Mercy Seat, thus indicating a transfer of divine presence from the Tabernacle to the Temple. Unto their tents

- Splits in the nominal mass, and the resulting benefits, do not justify splits among those faithful to the Lord. R2325:4

Judah

- In which God, through the prophet, had declared that his blessings should come. R3385:4

Reigned over them

- Thus loyal to the Lord whose worship centered in Jerusalem, and to the tribes of Judah, from which the promised king was to come; typifying the siftings of spiritual Israel. R3385:2 Spiritual Israelites should notice that the Lord overruled in all the affairs of the typical people for the welfare of the true-hearted and should expect the same. R3385:4

18

1 Kings 12:18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

Made him king

- The ten tribes chose Jeroboam for their king and supported a separate government. R3385:5

21

1 Kings 12:21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

To fight

- King Rehoboam, loath to lose so large a part of his empire, at first thought to compel the union by putting down the rebellion. R3385:5

- It was part of the divine plan that the nations should be divided. R3385:5

25

1 Kings 12:25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel.

Jeroboam

- Of the tribe of Ephraim, a man of large natural ability but inclined to be worldly-wise and to neglect his God and his religion. R4723:2 Possessed more of confidence in himself than of trust in God, more of impatience to be king than of loyalty. R4723:3, R3385:3

26

1 Kings 12:26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

Said in his heart

- Decided to take the selfish course. R4723:5

27

1 Kings 12:27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

If this people go

- To worship yearly, they would again draw back to the kings of the line of David. R5732:2

At Jerusalem

- By divine order, the center of religious service. R3385:6

28

1 Kings 12:28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

Two calves

- Probably because the people, while in Egypt, were accustomed to the worship of the sacred bull, Apis, of Egyptian mythology. R2325:5 One of the first arrangements was to break the religious tie. R3386:1, R2325:3 For policy's sake, he led the nation directly into idolatry. R4723:6

Of gold

- Probably made of wood, overlaid with gold. R3386:2

29

- In the northern part of the territory. R5732:3

30

1 Kings 12:30 And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan.

31

1 Kings 12:31 And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi.

The sons of Levi

- Probably, though not so stated, the Levites refused in the establishment of these unauthorized religious services. Consequently many of them removed to the kingdom of Judah. R3386:3

33

1 Kings 12:33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Bethel the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense.

And burnt incense

- Similarly the emperors of Rome took to themselves the priestly office that they might the more effectually bind the people to them. R3386:4

1 Kings 13

1

1 Kings 13:1 And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense.

Stood by the altar

- Jeroboam seems to have appointed himself the chief priest of the new religious institution, for he offered the incense. R2325:6

1 Kings 13:2 And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee.

28

1 Kings 16:28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

Omri slept

- We are not to draw the inference that, as a wicked man, he went to eternal torment and that the nature of the torment is sleep. R4729:3, R3399:2

With his fathers

- The Grecian theory, that when people die they become more alive than ever, had not yet been introduced. R3399:2

29

To wife Jezebel

- Typical of the apostate Church of Rome. R5629:1; B256 The improper marriage of Ahab and Jezebel, contrary to the Jewish Law, typified the marriage, or union, of church and state. R4730:4, R234:3 Typified a religious system. She was a desperate character, used to symbolize the great mystery of iniquity in the book of Revelation. (Rev. 2:20) R3399:4 In marrying her Ahab secured an able accomplice in evil. R3399:4 Her name signifies "chaste"; yet she used her great influence for the furtherance of unchastity in connection with the worship of Baal and Ashtoreth. R4729:5 The effect of the prosperity of Ahab and Jezebel was two-fold: degrading one class, while separating from itself another class—the true worshippers of God. So it is today. R4730:1

Ethbaal

- A priest of Baal who murdered his father, the king of Tyre, and then succeeded him. R3399:4

Served Baal

32

1 Kings 16:32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

- A declaration of a divine judgment. R2326:1 Intended to be corrective. R5741:2 A drouth which was a retribution of punishment upon Israel. R4730:6 The 3 « year drouth and resulting famine of 1260 days were prophetic of the 1260 years from 539 AD to 1799 AD, when there was a famine in the world for the hearing of the word of the Lord (Amos 8:11, 12) under Papal domination. R5742:1, R5741:6, R5751:5, R234:6 The word for rain is that which refers to the principal rain, which comes in the fall of the year. R3400:2

1 Kings 17:4 And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

Ravens to feed thee

- Our Heavenly Father was quite able to use the ravens in supplying the needs of his servant, and we are told, "He careth for you" (1 Pet. 5:7); "My God shall supply all your need." (Phil. 4:19) R3400:3, 4

An handful of meal

- Even so, small amounts of consecrated funds can greatly spread the gospel. R2549:5

Fear not

- This was a severe test to the woman's faith and generosity. R4731:4

A little cake first

Fire of the LORD fell

- The fire descended and consumed the sacrifice, licking up even the water in the trench. PD46/56

39

1 Kings 18:39 And when all the people saw it , they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God.

All the people

- Representing the world. R5629:1

Fell on their faces

- A lesson for us is that the masses of Christendom are deceived today, as were the masses of Israel. By and by, when God shall open their eyes, every knee shall bow. R4740:5

The LORD

- Jehovah, He is God. PD46/56

40

1 Kings 18:40 And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

Prophets of Baal

- Public teachers of idolatry. A55

And slew them there

- Representing the punishments visited upon the Papacy at the end of the three and one-half symbolic "times" (1260 literal years). B256 It is not a divine command to us today to put all false teachers to death. R4740:5 It is for us to slay and utterly expose the errors and follies which are deceiving the people. R3407:5, R4211:3* Foreshadowing the Second Death of all who work iniquity after full opportunity. R4740:6

41

1 Kings 18:41 And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain.

There is a sound

- Might be understood better, "I hear from the Lord the message of an abundance of rain coming." R3407:1

Abundance of rain

- Typifying the millions of Bibles published and issued shortly after the end of 1799. B256 Showing a return of divine favor. R4740:6 Nearly all of our great Bible Societies were organized within fifteen years after 1799. R5752:5, R4211:3* A spiritual drouth ended in 1798. R5751:3 From 325 AD, when the Nicene creed was promulgated, there was practically no Bible study for 12 centuries until 1526, when the art of printing had become common and Tyndale had published his manuscript. It was 1799 before the Bible came into great prominence. R5752:1-5

42

1 Kings 18:42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees,

Down upon the earth

- Elijah did not pray for rain until he understood that it was the Lord's due time for it to come. We are to pray for and confidently expect those things and only those things which the Lord has promised to give us. R3407:2-4

45

1 Kings 18:45 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.

Great rain

- Representing the wide circulation of the Bible since 1799. R5857:4

- An act of courtesy, showing that he recognized Ahab as the king of the nation. R3407:4

1

1 Kings 19:1 And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.

- Type of the Roman empire. B256; R5629:1, R4741:1, R3408:2

Told Jezebel

- Type of the apostate church of Rome and of the so-called Protestant sects. B256; R5629:1, R3408:3 Herodias was an advanced type of her. R3408:2

All that Elijah

- Representing the true Church in the flesh. B256; R5629:1, R5857:4, R4741:1 John the Baptist was a type, corresponding to Elijah. R3408:2

Had done

- Jezebel viewed the matter, not as a combat between the Almighty and Baal, but as between her prophets and Elijah. R4741:1

1 Kings 19:2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me , and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to morrow about this time.

Jezebel

- Representing the principles of Papacy in Protestantism. B256 Represents a form of godliness, great and boastful, and supported by earthly power. R5752:6

Sent a messenger

- So the gospel Church has been persecuted and compelled to flee by a woman who sat as "a queen" (Rev. 18:7) and is called "Jezebel." (Rev. 2:20) HG69:4 The great social and religious upheaval of a century did not alter the attitude of the church nominal and the world toward the true Church. The Reformation was partial only. R5752:6

Of one of them

- Declaring that he would be as dead as the priests of Baal within 24 hours. R3408:1 The queen did not persecute him, but threatened him. R5629:1

1 Kings 19:3 And when he saw that , he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.

Went for his life

- The message was a boast and threat designed to intimidate him and to cause him to flee, which it did. R3408:1 Antitypically, this implies a measure of fear and cowardice on the part of God's saintly people, and their becoming obscure for a time. R4741:4 The reformers of the 16th century fled the threats of the antitypical Jezebel, being caused to desert many prominent principles of righteousness for fear of the consequences. R2341:1 The complete separation of a class from the power of Jezebel in the interests of the new life, 1829 to 1846. R4211:3*

1 Kings 19:4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.

Into the wilderness

- Not for a specified time, however. R5629:1 In fulfillment, Protestant sects compel the saints again to flee into the wilderness condition. B256

O LORD

- Signifying his discouragement. R5629:4

Take away my life

- Why thus flee from death, and yet pray the Lord for death? An illustration of how some of strong faith amongst the Lord's people at times become discouraged, panic-stricken, fearful. R3408:5

1 Kings 19:5 And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat.

Arise and eat

- God realized, better than did Elijah, the physical exhaustion experienced in the great work he had done. R2333:3 The "Miller Movement," with special food: the ransom, the return of the Lord, and an understanding of prophecy. R4211:3,6*

1 Kings 19:6 And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again.

There was a cake

- A loaf of bread, somewhat like a pancake; symbol of the Church's spiritual food, the unleavened bread of life, Christ. R2333:5 The special message that is now feeding the people of God. R5629:4

A cruse of water

- Symbol of truth, the water of life. R2333:5

7

1 Kings 19:7 And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for thee.

Angel of the LORD

- The Lord thus gave him a special message of comfort and food which lasted forty days, until he came to the mount of God—Horeb. R5752:3 The messenger whom the Lord has been using since 1874. R4211:6*

That meat

- Present truth. R4212:1*

Forty days

- 1874 to 1914. R4212:1*

Unto Horeb

- Mt. Sinai, a type of the Kingdom of God. R3408:2, 6 Represents the Messianic Kingdom. R5629:4, R5752:6, R4212:1* Elijah's reaching Mt. Horeb typifies the Church at the incipient establishment of the Kingdom in 1878. R3408:6 Coming of Elijah to it shows that the Church will be in and under the Kingdom administration while still in the flesh, although the last members will not fully participate in the Kingdom honors and blessings. R5752:6

1 Kings 19:9 And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah?

He came thither

- Chronologically Messiah's Kingdom began its operation in the world in 1878 while the last members of the Church are still in the flesh. R5753:1

Unto a cave

- The cave of Moses. R3414:1

Lodged there

- No special aim or purpose before his mind. R2333:5

- It may be asked, What are we doing for the Lord and for his cause? R2334:1

Here

- Not in a place to do anything. R2334:1

10

1 Kings 19:10 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

I only, am left

- As Elijah was discouraged, so it has been with the Church. There was much discouragement felt until the Lord began to make clear the divine plan. R5753:5, R3414:2

They seek my life

- The experiences of God's prophets, for the most part, were far from enviable. A54

11

1 Kings 19:11 And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

Stand upon the mount

- The final overthrow of present institutions will not take place until the Elijah class has reached the mount of God—actually changed. R4212:4*

Before the LORD

- The Lord gave him illustrations of different ways of accomplishing results. We need, and are getting, such a lesson. R3414:2,3 To us he makes clear the divine plan by which Messiah's Kingdom will be inaugurated. R5753:5, R2333:5

And strong wind

- Not the Lord's manifestation of himself, but merely an illustration of power. R4741:4, R3414:2 Winds of strife, symbol of wars. R5753:1, R2334:4 Windy strife of words, not the voice of God, but the voice of humanity. R4741:4, R2333:6 Quite probably they are already (1904) being let loose. R3414:3 Represents the present (1915) war. R5629:4, R5753:1

Rent the mountains

- Mountains represent kingdoms; a great weakening of the nations, governments of the earth, by wars; and increased knowledge and discontent among the people. A318; SM795; R5601:2, R5629:4

Not In the wind

- God's Kingdom will not follow the epoch of war. R2334:4

An earthquake

- Symbolically represents a social revolution. R5629:4; SM795; R5753:2, R2334:4, R3414:3, R5649:5, R5601:2; A336, D528 The earthquake of Rev. 16:18. R3414:3, R2334:5 When the kings and captains of industry, finance and politics will, in self-defense, exalt the power of religious leaders. R5601:3 Another power by which, ultimately, the present order of things will give way before the Kingdom of God's dear Son. R4741:4 This will not come as soon as the war begins, but the war might continue while the earthquake is on. R5629:4, R5753:2

Not in the earthquake

- Revolutionary experiences will not be sufficient to prepare men to hear the voice of God. R2334:4 In none of these great experiences coming to the world will God be manifest. They will all be merely to fit and prepare man for the voice of Eden. R5753:2, R2334:4

12

1 Kings 19:12 And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.

A fire

- Anarchy, symbolically represented by St. Peter as consuming the ecclesiastical heavens and the social, financial and political earth. (2 Pet. 3:10-13) R5753:2, R3414:3 The great time of trouble (Dan. 12:1) is prefigured also by a tidal wave, a whirlwind and the loosing of the four winds. R5863:6 Celestial fire, lightning, symbol of anarchy, consuming and destroying the present order of things. R2334:4, R5753:2, R5567:4, R5601:2, R5629:4, R5649:5, R2333:6 The third great phase of the calamity. SM795 Anarchy—Armageddon experiences. I think the Church will be gone before the Armageddon experience, but cannot be sure. Q617:4

Not In the fire

- The fire, representing consumption, destruction, anarchy, is not the Lord, but merely human passions which he will permit. R4741:5

After the fire

- These calamities having completely exhausted and humbled mankind. R2334:5, R5649:5

A still small voice

- The voice of truth, love, wisdom. R3414:3 The voice of God, the divine power, which will bring the blessings to the world. R5629:4, R5601:2 The "pure language" (Zeph. 3:9) or pure message of God's Word. R3414:5 Corresponding to the "Be still" of Psa. 46:10. R3414:6, R2334:5 Not by earthly might nor by earthly power will the Lord establish his rule. R3414:6 The King will take his great power with the result that the fires of anarchy will be extinguished. SM795 Which Luther's translation renders, "The voice of Eden." God was in the voice—it really and truly represented him. R5752:3 "It shall come to pass that every soul that will not hear that prophet shall be destroyed from amongst the people." (Acts 3:23) R2334:5 Elijah had expected his reformation to go forward like a windstorm, or an earthquake or lightning; and when it did not, he fled. Now he was to understand that it would be more secret and quiet in the hearts of men, before giving outward manifestation. R2340:3,6 The voice of God's Word speaking to his people today. R4741:5

13

1 Kings 19:13 And it was so , when Elijah heard it , that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?

16

1 Kings 19:16 And Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.

And Elisha

- Probably a type of the Great Company until he re-crossed Jordan. Q260:3; R3416:4, R4758:2, R5771:6 A class that will come into deep sympathy with the Elijah class, and follow the Lord's leading with it, yet a class that will not expect to be glorified. B265 We have no positive proof in the Scriptures that he was a type at all. Q259:2; R3429:2

Prophet in thy room

- To prepare and instruct Elisha, representing those who shall succeed the overcomers as the Lord's mouthpiece on the earth. R557:6

18

1 Kings 19:18 Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

7,000 in Israel

- Similarly there are thousands in the nominal system who are not in sympathy with the errors they are taught, but are confused and blinded. R3415:1 Similarly today there are two classes in spiritual Israel: one class is in the wilderness condition; another, a larger class, is still more or less associated with, and bound up in, Babylon. R4741:5 The "Little Flock" may be rather difficult to discern. We are to look for them everywhere—in all denominations, and outside all. SM702

Unto Baal

1

2 Kings 2:1 And it came to pass, when the LORD would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.

When the LORD

- Elijah had a specially protected life; he was wholly under divine control; true also of the antitypical Elijah class. R3415:3

Would take up

- A parallel to the taking away of the last members of Christ. R5845:2

Elijah

- Type of the true Church in the flesh. B256; R557:3, R4757:2, R5771:3; Q305:2 John the Baptist, as the forerunner of Jesus in the flesh, typified the greater Elijah. R4757:3; B250; R557:1

Into heaven

- Into the air; "No man hath ascended up to heaven." (John 3:13) R3378:4, R558:5, R3417:4, R5772:3, R4757:1; Q259:4

By a whirlwind

- Uniformly used in the Scriptures to represent great confusion and strife. R4757:6 A symbol of trouble; fiery trials. B260; R5773:1, 4, R2341:6 Severe persecutions, ecclesiastical commotions. R3417:2,3 Anarchy. R5845:6, R5867:4

Elijah went

- His closing experiences parallel the closing experiences of the last members of the Christ Body in the flesh. R5845:1; B255, B256; R557:2, 3

With Elisha

- Possibly a picture of the Great Company. R5771:6, R4757:5, R3429:2, R3417:1, R1132:1, R558:2 He may typify two classes: those who now are associated with the Elijah class, and those in whose charge will be the dispensing of restitution blessings. R5780:1, R3429:2,3, R3417:2; Q260:3, Q305:2 We may not be quite so sure that Elisha represented a secondary class of God's people, a great company. R5771:6, R4757:5, R4758:2; Q260:3, Q259:2

Gilgal

- Gilgal means "rolling away the reproach." (Josh. 5:9) HG70:1 Elijah's movements from leaving Gilgal to crossing Jordan have their exact parallels under the midnight cry movement. HG69:6 Site of a "school of the prophets." R3416:1 Would seem to represent the beginning of the harvest time—October, 1874. R5772:4, R5845:2

2 Kings 2:2 And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said unto him, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Bethel.

Tarry here

- The stopping places foreshadowed various points in the time proofs where it was thought that the translation of the saints might be due. R558:1 Implying that Elisha was discouraged and had lost faith in the journey; but they went on. R5772:4 Representing the trials and difficulties in the pathway of the Church, a sifting or separating work. R4757:5, R558:1; Q305:2; R1132:3 October 1874 (Gilgal) was looked forward to as the possible time when the Church would be completed. Some measure of disappointment was felt when expectations were not realized. R5772:5

Beth-el

- Where Jacob's ladder stood, receiving its name in consequence of that vision. HG70:2 The Spring of 1878 corresponded to Bethel, a parallel to the Lord's assuming his kingly office in the end of the Jewish age. R5772:5, R5845:2

I will not leave thee

- He understood that the degree of his blessing would depend upon the closeness of his company with Elijah. R2341:4 A blessing came to all those who received their disappointment in the proper spirit and went on. R5772:5 If Elisha typifies the Great Company this would prove no outward separation between the Church and the Great Company. Q305:2 Those who are sifted out by the way will be neither of the Elijah nor of the Elisha classes. R2431:4 Elisha represents a persevering and faithful company. R558:1

2 Kings 2:3 And the sons of the prophets that were at Bethel came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to day? And he said, Yea, I know it ; hold ye your peace.

Sons of the prophets

- Schools of the prophets, gatherings of young men desirous of studying the Law and appreciating the divine will. R3415:1, R3416:1, R2341:1 Apparently these schools were started in the time of Samuel as "summer schools," not a monastic order. R3430:3 If types, they would seem to represent a third class, acquainted with Elijah and Elisha, yet not particularly associated with them. R5772:1; Q666:2,4 The theologians of that day. B266 Now, as then, some come together as schools for the study of prophecy; and now, as then, these schools are on the increase. R2341:2

That were at Beth-el

- Exercising a wholesome influence for righteousness and the worship of God, the operation of the "still small voice." (1 Kings 19:12) R2341:1

Said unto him

- In confidential whispers. R3416:2

2 Kings 2:4 And Elijah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.

Tarry here

- See comments on 2 Kings 2:2. Although not promises, it was not unreasonable to think of the Scripturally-marked date of Spring, 1878 as the time for the Church's glorification. R5772:5

Came to Jericho

- Which means "his month," or "moon." HG70:2 Corresponded to 1881, parallel to the door being opened to the Gentiles. R5772:5, R5845:2

6

2 Kings 2:6 And Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here; for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on.

Tarry, I pray thee

- See comments on 2 Kings 2:2. We assumed that 1881 might mean a change of dispensation and the glorification of the Church; but we were mistaken and went on. R5772:5

Sent me to Jordan

- Which is judgment . HG70:4 The word Jordan has the significance of "judged down"; thus would seem to represent the peoples of earth, judged by the truth. R5846:2 To the Royal Priesthood, Jordan represents consecration unto death. R3087:1 Corresponding to October 1914, the close of the Times of the Gentiles. R5772:5, R5845:2

2 Kings 2:7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.

Fifty ... sons of the prophets

- While refraining from following, they were deeply interested, and witnessed what transpired. R3416:3

They two stood by Jordan

- At very nearly the same point the Lord wrought through Joshua the miraculous crossing of the Israelites. The steep hillside beyond Jordan was quite possibly Mt. Nebo, where Moses died. (Deut. 32:49, 50) R3416:3, R3429:2 So the Lord's people have been standing for some time since 1914. R5845:3; Q387:2

2 Kings 2:8 And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground.

Elijah took his mantle

- An outward indication, or sign, of God's power with Elijah; representing God's power and blessing with the Church. R5846:4, R5950:2; Q387:2

Wrapped it together

- Concentration of forces for the smiting. R5950:2 Evidently referring to some special power given to the Elijah class. Q387:2 It may mean a great deal of money. Q387:2

And smote the waters

- In Bible symbolic language, water represents both truth and peoples. R5846:2 Pictures a mighty work yet to be accomplished, and apparently in the very near future. R5950:2 As Elijah did the smiting, so all those who belong to the Elijah class will have a share in it. R5988:4 The Church will use what is in their hand, the power and authority of the truth, the power of God, in smiting the waters, peoples, who will be judged by the truth. R5846:2,4 The smiting will probably affect the whole civilized world. Q387:2 Apparently the consuming of the tares will correspond very closely with the division of Jordan. The smiting will reveal the truth in respect to what is the real Church of Christ and what are imitations. R5951:4

They were divided

- People are to be separated from people, the truth being received by some and rejected by others. R5846:2, R5950:2 The division of the waters may require either years or months. R5888:4

2 Kings 2:9 And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

Elisha

- See comments on 2 Kings 2:1.

I pray thee

- Elisha's special desire, above all things, was to have a large measure of the spirit of the Lord. R2431:5

A double portion

- Not twice as much as Elijah possessed, but twice as much as given to any other. R3416:4, R3428:6 The portion of the first-born. R4771:1

Of thy spirit

- Energy, force, power to teach. R558:2 An extra share of his spirit of consecration and power. R1132:4

10

2 Kings 2:10 And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless , if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so .

A hard thing

- It will be a very difficult matter, even for those expecting the event, to recognize the change of the Elijah class. R558:2

If thou see me

- If you continue steadfast and follow on, and are not separated by the trials by the way. Q305:2; R5772:6, R3417:2, R2341:5 Only in proportion as they discern the completion of the Elijah class will they become recipients of a large measure of Elijah's spirit and zeal. R3416:5 Only such as recognize the change of the Elijah class can fill the teaching position. R558:3

When I am taken

- To some the thought of being taken away from the present life suddenly, violently, in fiery troubles, would be a terrible prospect; not so for the Elijah class. R5773:4

It shall be so

- After the Elijah class has been glorified, the Elisha class will be energized by the change of dispensation and evidences of the fulfilling of the divine plan, to be practically as devoted and zealous as the Elijah class. R3416:6

11

2 Kings 2:11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

They still went on

- Not that they are necessarily personally acquainted in the antitype, but they walk the same road. R1132:2 Not disconcerted, Bible Students, since 1914, are going on, not headed for any particular date, even as Elijah was not directed to go to any other place. R5772:6

And talked

- In sympathy and interest, friendship profitable and encouraging to both. R1132:3

A chariot

- The Elijah class caught up in power and great glory; the spiritual exaltation of the Church. B254; R968:5, R2341:5, R5845:5, R2341:5; B260 A figure of victory and glorious escape from the whirlwind of trouble. B260 Ours is the real deliverance by chariots of victory and divine power from death. R3429:1

Of fire

- May signify that the last members of the Church will be separated under very trying circumstances, fiery trials, persecutions, violence. R2341:5, R3417:2, R5569:5, R5772:6, R5845:5, R5950:2; Q259:4

Horses of fire

- Spiritual doctrines. R1132:6

And parted them both

- Separating the Elijah and the Elisha classes, the Little Flock and the Great Company. R5845:3, R5950:2, R4757:6, R5773:1 Already (1889) the fiery chariot begins to separate the classes. R1132:2

Elijah went up

- The close of the Church's career in the flesh will come suddenly, abruptly. R4757:6 We expect that the Church, the antitypical Elijah, will all have passed beyond the veil before the anarchy predicted in the Bible. R5794:5 The transfiguration of Elijah was a picture, or vision, of the change of the Church at the end of this age. Q259:4

By a whirlwind

- See comments on 2 Kings 2:1. Many of the Lord's people will be taken from the present life in some anarchistic movement. R5845:6, R5773:1, R5950:3, R5867:4, R2341:6; Q259:4 Fierce trouble, agitating the heavens or ecclesiastical powers. R3417:3 And not by the chariots. R3417:2, R1132:4 Further trouble to the chariot experience. R5773:1

Into heaven

- No doubt buried somewhere by the Lord, as Moses was buried secretly. R2342:4 Possibly to some other world, to return in due time to impress certain lessons on mankind. R3417:4 If still alive, still under the death sentence, not escaped from the bondage of corruption. R3417:5 See comments on 2 Kings 2:1.

12

2 Kings 2:12 And Elisha saw it , and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

Elisha

- See comments on 2 Kings 2:1.

Saw it

- Holding back from the persecution, but not drawing back to sin, or to a repudiation of the Lord. R5950:3

Rent them in two pieces

- An act, in that day, symbolic of grief, sorrow and mourning. R3429:2

13

2 Kings 2:13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan;

He took up also

- Representing that Elisha had become Elijah's successor, to receive a special blessing of the Elijah spirit. R5771:6; B265 Continuing for a while the work that Elijah had been doing. R3416:6, R5771:6

The mantle

- The power and spirit of fuller consecration. R1132:5 Elijah's mantle of power and authority as the Lord's representative (See 2 Kings 2:8). R5780:1; Q260:3, Q305:2 The receiving by Elisha of power seems to correspond to the "foolish virgins" getting their oil. (Matt. 25) R3416:6

Elijah

- See comments on 2 Kings 2:1.

14

2 Kings 2:14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.

Smote the waters

- The Elisha class passes through death in much the same way as the Elijah class does. Q260:3, Q305:2; R3417:1

Where is the LORD God of Elijah?

- That is to say, Is not the Lord God of Elijah with me? Showing faith that the same power of God exercised through Elijah would be exercised through him. R2341:6

Elisha

- Our thought is that he typified two classes: first that he typified those associated with the Elijah class

(the Great Company); and that after the taking of Elijah and re-crossing the Jordan (picturing the death of the Great Company) he became a type of those associated with the dispensing of restitution blessings (the Ancient Worthies). R5780:1, R4758:2; Q305:2; R3429:3, R3417:1; Q260:3

15

2 Kings 2:15 And when the sons of the prophets which were to view at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

Sons of the prophets

- See comments on 2 Kings 2:3.

Doth rest on Elisha

- See comments on 2 Kings 2:1. The meaning of the name Elisha is "mighty deliverer," and the career of Elisha was one of restitution work. B266

16

2 Kings 2:16 And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send.

Seek thy master

- Illustrating how the world will be as ignorant of the glorification of the true Church as they were of the glorification of its head at the commencement of the age. R558:3

17

2 Kings 2:17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

And they sought

- Certain classes of Christian people may doubt that the Church has really gone to glory, but afterwards they are thoroughly convinced. R5772:1, R3429:4

Three days

- May be symbolic, representing three years. R5772:1, R3429:4

18

2 Kings 2:18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

Tarried at Jericho

- The word "Jericho" signifies "His moon" or "month." There is a hint in this that Jericho typifies fleshly Israel, which will be the first to recognize the Elisha class, the Ancient Worthies. R3429:5

19

2 Kings 2:19 And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground barren.

The water is naught

- Brackish, representing impure doctrines. R5780:2; B266; R4758:4

20

2 Kings 2:20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

A new cruse

- Representing the new institutions, new conditions, new views of the Jews respecting Christ and the glorified spiritual Israel. R3429:6

Put salt therein

- "Ye are the salt of the earth." (Matt. 5:13) R3429:6

21

2 Kings 2:21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land .

Unto the spring

- Representing the Word of God. B266 Representing the Law. R3429:5

Of the waters

- Representing the waters of truth, now brackish with error. B266, R4758:4, R5780:2, R2345:3

And cast the salt

- The purifying property of salt is here referred to. R2099:2 "Ye are the salt of the earth." (Matt. 5:13) It will be in and through the glorified salt of the earth that the blessing will come, the streams of truth for human refreshment. R5780:2, R4758:4 The Law was in itself just, perfect, good, yet it lacked something necessary to make it a blessing to Israel—the work of Christ fulfilling the Law and removing its condemnation. R3429:5

Healed these waters

- Cleansing from untruth and error, by the glorified Church, through the Ancient Worthies, to the world, through the Jews. This is also what St. Paul calls to our attention in Rom. 11:25-33. R4758:4, R5780:2

23

2 Kings 2:23 And he went up from thence unto Bethel: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou bald head.

Little children

- Not babies, but young hoodlums, from 10 to 20 years of age. R4758:2, R5780:2, R3429:6

Out of the city

- Indicating that amongst natural Israel will be some who will not appreciate the healing work done by the Elisha class. R3429:6 These will disregard the instructions of the earthly representatives of the Kingdom. R3429:6

Go up

- Your master, Elijah, went up to heaven in a whirlwind. Why do not you go also? R4758:1

Thou bald head

- You are a bald head, or one who has lost his master. R4758:1 A particularly opprobrious epithet in those days. R3429:6 Failing to render a proper appreciation of the dignity of the office of the Ancient Worthies as chosen agents of the heavenly Kingdom. R3430:1

24

2 Kings 2:24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.

Cursed

- Declared them "evil in the name of Jehovah" (Young's translation). R3429:6 He did not swear at them, but denounced their conduct as wrong and declared that it would have a punishment. R5780:2, R4758:1

And tare

- Tore them, wounded them; there is no suggestion that the bears ate them or killed them. R5780:2, R4758:2 "When thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness."

(Isa. 26:9) R5780:3, R3430:1 So there will be judgments in the world during the Millennium; punishments for every wrong course, rewards for every right deed. R5780:3, R3429:6, R4758:5

2 Kings 4:1 Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

A certain woman

- Josephus claims that this woman was the widow of Obadiah. R3430:6

Of the wives

- Indicating that the school of the prophets was not a monastic order. R3430:3

Sons of the prophets

- See comments on 2 Kings 2:3.

Unto Elisha

- Her cry to the prophet of the Lord was a cry to the Lord himself. R3431:3

Fear the LORD

- That is, he reverenced, worshipped and sought to serve the Lord. R3430:6

To be bondmen

- According to the terms of the law her sons must serve the creditor until the debt was paid or until the Jubilee year. R2345:3 Represents how the whole world of Adam's family was sold under sin and obligated to pay the wages of sin, death. R3430:3

2 Kings 4:2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil.

Elisha

- Elisha may also typify the Ancient Worthies (See 2 Kings 2:14). R5780:1, R4758:2; B265; R3417:2

What shall I do

- Showing the Lord's willingness to help us to pay our honest debts; and our responsibility to pay them. R2345:5

What hast thou

- During the Millennium the Lord will bless what people may have according to their faith. R5780:4 We should look to see what we have in our possession. R5419:3, R5780:4 God can use our humblest talent to his praise. R5419:2

Hath not any thing

- The woman did not appeal for divine aid until she was in extremities, and neither should we. R3431:3

A pot of oil

- God is pleased to bless the use of things which we have rather than to send us other things. R2345:5 Olive oil was used for light, cooking, and as butter in those days; a household necessity and an article of ready sale. R3431:2 The Lord used what she had on hand. R5419:4 Olive oil is used in the Scriptures as a symbol of the holy Spirit. R3431:4

2 Kings 4:3 Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.

Even empty vessels

- It is for us to see that we are emptied vessels; empty that he may fill us with his Spirit. R3431:5

Borrow not a few

- Her faith was tested and developed by the prophet's requirement that she and her sons should cooperate in the borrowing of vessels. R3431:4, R2345:5 The fact that she was able to borrow from her neighbors implies a good reputation. R3431:2

2 Kings 4:5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.

She poured out

- Reminding us that during the Millennial age his Spirit shall be poured upon all flesh. (Joel 2:28) R3431:4, R558:4 A beautiful picture of restitution blessings. R4758:5, R2345:5 Thus, as we acknowledge divine mercies and render thanks, the blessing is only increased. F687

2 Kings 4:6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.

The vessels were full

- Illustrating the blessed rewards of faith that the Lord will grant during the Millennium. R5780:4 Representing how the antitypical Elisha will help the poor to secure the oil of joy for the spirit of heaviness in the Millennium. B266 Every vessel fitted for its reception shall be filled with the Spirit to its full. R3431:4, R558:4

2 Kings 4:7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

Pay thy debt

- Justice was not to be violated. R5780:4, R2345:5

2 Kings 4:8 And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.

A great woman

- Evidently widely known as a good and wise woman, and probably possessed of a large estate. R3431:3, R2345:6 The kind of greatness, too, which recognizes goodness and reverences the Lord and those who are his. R2345:6

2 Kings 4:9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which passeth by us continually.

Unto her husband

- Manifesting a commendable wifely deference to his wishes. R2346:1

10

2 Kings 4:10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

A little chamber

- Every home, if possible, should have such a guest chamber for the Lord's servants. R2346:1, R3432:1 Present day arrangements for public hotels are calculated to hinder the development of the spirit of hospitality. R3432:1

13

2 Kings 4:13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.

What is to be done

- Those who accept the favors of others and lack the desire to do as much in return are lacking the Lord's spirit. R2346:2

17

2 Kings 4:17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

The woman conceived

- The miraculous interposition of divine power quickening the dormant and inoperative forces. R560:6*

22

2 Kings 4:22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

To the man of God

- Her faith in the prophet corresponds very well to our faith in the Lord Jesus. R3432:4

26

2 Kings 4:26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.

It is well

- Avoiding the questions of Elisha's servant. R3432:3 An answer of faith having full confidence in the power of God, through the prophet, to awaken her son from the dead. R2346:2

27

2 Kings 4:27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me.

Hid it from me

- It was not by any power that the prophet himself possessed that he had any special knowledge, but by revelations from the Lord. R2349:6

29

2 Kings 4:29 Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

Take my staff

- Much after the same style that the Apostle Paul sent napkins and handkerchiefs to the sick. R3432:3

30

2 Kings 4:30 And the mother of the child said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

I will not leave thee

- Possibly realizing that the servant was not such a man as his master. R3432:3

35

2 Kings 4:35 Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

Then he returned

- The Lord is pleased to exercise his power, either slowly or quickly, according to circumstances and conditions. R2346:5

Walked ... to and fro

- Apparently the prophet was perplexed by this case. R2346:4

Child opened his eyes

- This restoration of life was a foreshadowing of the great Times of Restitution. HG336:1 Picturing coming restitution work of the Millennium, when all the sleeping dead will be awakened. R5781:2; B266; R4758:5 Was merely awakened, not "resurrected," not "raised to life again." F703, F704; R2346:5

38

2 Kings 4:38 And Elisha came again to Gilgal: and there was a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets.

There was a dearth

- Representing a lack of spiritual food. B266

Sons of the prophets

- Representing theologians. B266; R558:4. See comments on 2 Kings 2:3.

40

2 Kings 4:40 So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof .

Death in the pot

- Deadly doctrines, error and superstition, combined with Satan's great falsehood. R4758:4, R558:4 This will be effectually offset by the blessings of the Lord through his glorified Kingdom. R4758:4

41

2 Kings 4:41 But he said, Then bring meal. And he cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no harm in the pot.

That they may eat

- May represent a healing of the food of theologians by the putting of an antidote into their poisonous mess. R558:4

44

2 Kings 4:44 So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof , according to the word of the LORD.

And they did eat

- Representing that spiritual food shall be made wholesome and plentiful. B266; R558:4

2 Kings 5

2 Kings 5:1 Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper.

The LORD had given

- Naaman's victory is credited to Jehovah, who did interfere with the affairs of outside nations to some extent. R3438:2

Deliverance unto Syria

- To Syria and Israel, in combination against Shalmaneser II. R3438:2

He was a leper

- Leprosy corresponds to sin: it is incurable, loathsome, contagious, destructive, painless. R4769:1, R3439:3, R2347:2 A figure of sin, incurable, except by divine miracle. R5780:4

2 Kings 5:3 And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he would recover him of his leprosy.

She said unto her mistress

- So all those who know of a divine power and arrangement for the healing of sinners may tell the good tidings, even to their enemies. R4769:1

Leprosy

- See comments on 2 Kings 5:1.

2 Kings 5:7 And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me.

Rent his clothes

- In indication of his great distress. R5780:5, R3438:6, R2347:1

Am I God

- The king of Israel was an idolater. He probably had no dealings with, and scarcely any knowledge of, Elisha. R3438:6

Leprosy

- See comments on 2 Kings 5:1.

10

2 Kings 5:10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.

And Elisha

- See comments on 2 Kings 2:14.

Sent a messenger

- We feel sure that it would not be the Lord's will that we as his followers should duplicate or copy Elisha's manner, but should render honor to those to whom honor is due. R3439:1 Elisha's course declared, "I am greater than you, because while you are the servant of the king of Syria, I am a servant of the King of kings." R3439:2

Wash in Jordan

- See comments on 2 Kings 2:6. The antitypical Jordan, "the fountain filled with blood, drawn from Immanuel's veins." R2347:6, R4769:1

Seven times

- A complete cleansing, washing. R4769:1, R3439:4, R2347:6 Our belief, obedience and baptism unto death must be perfect or complete, otherwise there is no remission of sins. R3439:4 Signifying that half-hearted consecration and obedience are not what the Lord is pleased to honor and bless. R3439:5

11

2 Kings 5:11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper.

But Naaman was wroth

- He expected great consideration for his rank. R4768:6, R2347:1, R3439:1, R5780:5

12

2 Kings 5:12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.

Are not Abana

- No doubt the modern river Barrada; it has the clearest waters possible. R3439:2

May I not wash in them

- There are various theories, philosophies and many suggestions as to how sin can be gotten rid of. R3439:4

13

2 Kings 5:13 And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it ? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?

His servants came near

- In a moderate and wise manner, and offered him some good advice. R2347:2, R4768:6 When someone comes to the place of being ready to obey the Lord's voice, to be rid of his load of sin, it not infrequently is the result of good counsel on the part of his Christian friends. R2347:6

14

2 Kings 5:14 Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

Then went he down

- Although fearful that no good would come from the washing and that he would be the laughing stock of all. R4768:6 Others may help to impress the lesson; yet no recovery from sin can be made except as the individual himself follows the divine prescription. R4769:1

Seven times

- See comments on 2 Kings 5:10.

And he was clean

- As only divine power could heal the leper, only the same can heal the sinner. R4769:1 Foreshadows the restitution work. B266

15

2 Kings 5:15 And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing of thy servant.

And he returned

- Retraced his journey nearly forty miles to thank the prophet and to bestow gifts. R4769:2 Gratitude is one of the most worthy sentiments of the human mind. R4769:2 Demonstrating that the Lord's blessing of healing was conferred upon a man of naturally noble traits. R3439:5, R2348:2

Take a blessing

- A present. R2348:2 The truly great take pleasure in being just and generous. R3439:6 His gifts were consecrated beforehand and so, after receiving the blessing, to have withheld any part would have proven him unworthy; so with our consecration. R3440:1

16

2 Kings 5:16 But he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it ; but he refused.

I will receive none

- Thus showing that Naaman's healing was a favor, and not in exchange for the expensive presents he brought. R3439:2, R2348:4 The gifts of God's grace are not to be bartered for earthly good things. R4769:4, R5780:6 While it is not wrong for servants of the Lord to receive compensation, yet the Lord is more glorified if they do not. R3440:2 How much to the Lord's glory if all of God's people would emulate Elisha in this respect. R4769:4, R3440:2, R2348:4

17

2 Kings 5:17 And Naaman said, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD.

Burden of earth

- Enough of the consecrated soil of Palestine for the building of an altar to the Lord. R3440:2, R2348:5

18

2 Kings 5:18 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing.

Pardon thy servant

- Since Naaman was not an Israelite but a stranger to the covenant and promises of Israel, less would be required of him. R3440:3, R2348:6

My master

- The king of Syria. R3440:2

19

2 Kings 5:19 And he said unto him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.

Go In peace

- Elisha's answer was, in substance, that if the General made full profession of faith in the true God it would not be improper for him to accompany his master to the house of the false god, for his adherence to Jehovah God would be recognized. R5781:1

20

2 Kings 5:20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him.

But Gehazi

- Elisha's servant had a different spirit and determined to get something by a process of graft." R4769:4, R5781:3, R3440:5, R2349:2 Covetousness leads to various other sins. Nearly every crime is more or less traceable to it. R2349:2,4 There are some today in daily contact with the truth who do not partake of its spirit and in whom selfishness is the ruling passion. R3440:5

27

2 Kings 5:27 The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

Leprosy . . . of Naaman

- With knowledge came responsibility; hence, the severe punishment inflicted upon him for hypocrisy and deception. R5781:2

But Elisha, the prophet

- Apparently the knowledge of Jehovah and Elisha had spread from General Naaman to some of the household of the king. R5781:4

Telleth the king

- Probably angels were the divine instrumentality in informing Elisha of the things proper to be told the king of Israel for his protection. R2349:3

13

2 Kings 6:13 And he said, Go and spy where he is , that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

Go and spy where he is

- The king was not wise in his determination, not realizing that the prophet would be informed by the wisdom of God. R3440:6

15

2 Kings 6:15 And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?

The servant

- Not Gehazi, but another more worthy. R2349:6

Was risen early

- Elisha doubtless understood in advance, but did not flee. R3441:1

17

2 Kings 6:17 And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

Open his eyes

- The spiritual body, though shining "above the brightness of the firmament," cannot be seen by mortals without a special revelation. HG28:6

That he may see

- Angels can be, and frequently are, present, yet invisible. A182
- Giving to his eyes of understanding a proper conception of the divine power present with the prophet. R3441:2, R5781:5 A prayer doubtless intended of the Lord as a lesson for his people down through the ages. R3441:1

And he saw

- A vision, an active parable, a picture similar to the symbolic pictures of Revelation. R3441:2, R5781:5

Horses and chariots

- Illustrative of the divine power and protection. R3441:2

Of fire

- Like fire, as all spirit beings are described in Scripture. R2350:1

Round about Elisha

- The Father has numberless messengers to care for the interests of his cause on earth, ministering especially unto the very elect. (Psa. 34:7; Matt. 18:10) R3441:3, R5781:5, R4769:3, R2350:1 God's omnipotent power, like a mighty army, completely surrounds those who are his. R5781:5, R4769:3 The Christian is enabled, through faith, to see the armies of the Lord encamped about him without a miracle being performed on his natural sight. R2350:1

18

2 Kings 6:18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

With blindness

- Not total blindness, but bewilderment or hallucination similar to that produced by hypnotism; the eyes of their understanding being closed. R5781:6, R4769:6, R3441:5, R2350:4

19

2 Kings 6:19 And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

Neither Is this the city

- True, for Dothan was not Elisha's city; his house was in Samaria, where he took them and brought them to the man they sought—himself. R2350:5

21

2 Kings 6:21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them ? shall I smite them ?

Shall I smite them?

- Israel's kings were learning gradually that the will of the Lord was to be considered. R2350:5

22

2 Kings 6:22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them : wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.

Set bread and water

- "If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink; for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head." (Rom. 12:20) R3441:6 How many enemies could be won by kind treatment, who would be made bitter by even just treatment. R4770:1

23

2 Kings 6:23 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

Came no more

- The best victories are the bloodless ones; where the spirit of righteousness, mercy and benevolence are victorious over the spirit of rivalry, ambition and selfishness. R2350:6

2 Kings 8:6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

King appointed unto her

- A secondary reward for her hospitality and faith. R3432:5

He reigned eight years

- Usher's chronology incorrectly makes this period only four years. B52 A confirmation rather than a source of doubt. R4601:4*

18

2 Kings 8:18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

Way of the kings of Israel

- Baalism extended from the court of Israel to the court of Judah. R3446:3

26

2 Kings 8:26 Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Israel.

Two and twenty years old

- 42 years, according to 2 Chron. 22:2. HG105:2

The house of Ahab

- Representing civil power, the Roman empire. B256; R4741:1; Dii; OV268

10

2 Kings 9:10 And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her . And he opened the door, and fled.

Jezebel

- Symbolizing corrupt church system, the great harlot, Babylon. (Rev. 2:20) R4741:1, R2341:2; B256; Dii; OV268

16

2 Kings 9:16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.

Went to Jezreel

- In the plain of Esdraelon, near the hill of Megiddo (Armageddon). Di

22

2 Kings 9:22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many?

Whoredoms of thy mother

- Jezebel is the type of the Papal church, the mother of abominations. R389:2*

30

2 Kings 9:30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it ; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

Jehu

- He served as the sword of the Lord to execute retribution upon Ahab and Jezebel. R3446:6; B266

Jezebel

- See comments on 2 Kings 9:10.

33

2 Kings 9:33 And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot.

Throw her down

- Foreshadowing the final overthrow of the system represented by her. B266

18

2 Kings 10:18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu shall serve him much.

Ahab

- See comments on 2 Kings 9:9.

Jehu destroyed Baal

- When the systems typified by Ahab and Jezebel, and all who unite with them against God, shall be fully and finally overthrown. B266

1

2 Kings 11:1 And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal.

Athaliah

- Daughter of Jezebel. R3446:6, R4776:3

Seed royal

- She caused all her grandsons to be put to death. R3446:6, R4777:1

2 Kings 11:2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain.

Jehosheba

- Daughter of Athaliah, but wife of the High Priest and under his influence. R3446:6

In the bed chamber

- A room used for the storage of sleeping mats. R4777:1 Because of Baal worship the rooms of the priests, in connection with the temple of Jehovah, were generally neglected and were a safe place to rear the young king. R2366:3

2 Kings 11:3 And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah did reign over the land.

Athaliah did reign

- As Queen Dowager, she was the highest authority in the kingdom. R4776:3

2 Kings 11:4 And the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son.

Jehoida sent

- With great wisdom he called together the chiefs of the nation at a festival time, when their coming would not be thought strange. R4777:4

12

2 Kings 11:12 And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, God save the king.

The testimony

- On top of the crown was laid the testimony, the parchment scroll of the Ten Commandments, indicating that the divine law was superior to the crown. R4777:5

14

2 Kings 11:14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a pillar, as the manner was , and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason.

Treason, Treason

- Injustice sometimes becomes entrenched and fortified in human minds, so that an attempt to establish righteousness is considered treason. R4777:5

1

2 Kings 12:1 In the seventh year of Jehu Jehoash began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

And forty years

- Which Usher incorrectly reckons as thirty-nine. B52

2 Kings 12:3 But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

High places were not taken

- The influence of the idolatry of surrounding nations was still upon them. R4777:3

2 Kings 12:4 And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the dedicated things that is brought into the house of the LORD, even the money of every one that passeth the account , the money that every man is set at, and all the money that cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD,

Passeth the account

- A poll tax. R3447:6

Is set at

- Possibly the tithes, one-tenth of all the profits of the year. R3447:6

Heart to bring

- Voluntary donations above those required under the Law. R3447:6

2 Kings 12:5 Let the priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance: and let them repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found.

Repair the breaches

- The Temple had long been in disuse, and stones from it may have been used for the temple of Baal. R3448:1 The spiritual Temple has become seriously deranged during the long period of the Dark Ages. R3448:2, R4778:2, R2367:4 As Christians we are individually the temples of God (1 Cor. 3:16, 17), and must not only keep as undefiled as possible in thought, word and act, but also take reasonable care of our physical bodies. R2367:2

2 Kings 12:6 But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.

Priests had not

- The Reformation promised great things in the way of repairs needed in the spiritual Temple, but the Protestant clergy have used the means and opportunities for personal advantage. R3448:2, R2367:4

2 Kings 12:7 Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.

The other priests

- Representing the Protestant clergy (See 2 Kings 12:6). R3448:2

Said unto them

- The king passed over the matter of the lack of repairs as lightly as possible, without charging the priests with embezzlement or neglect. R4777:3

Breaches of the house

- See comments on 2 Kings 12:5

Receive no more money

- Voluntary offerings are approved rather than those that are importuned, coaxed begged, wheedled from saints and sinners. R4777:6

8

2 Kings 12:8 And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.

Repair the breaches

- See comments on 2 Kings 12:5.

9

2 Kings 12:9 But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

But Jehoida

- Representing our High Priest, the Lord Jesus. R3448:2

A hole In the lid

- A money chest with slotted top for voluntary contributions, convenient to worshippers passing in and out. R4777:3,6, R3448:1

Now Elisha

- Elisha's remarkable history as a prophet and representative of God in Israel continued for nearly 65 years. R2354:2

And Joash

- Otherwise called Jehoash. R2354:2 Was evidently very humble and had come to realize that Israel's trouble lay in neglecting Jehovah. R2354:3

Wept over his face

- Sorrowful that he now would no longer have heavenly counsel; perhaps remorseful that he had not sooner appreciated the privileges which he did enjoy. R2354:3

Chariot ... horsemen

- May signify that he regarded Elisha as a host in himself, as the chief defense of the nation. R2354:3 The same words Elisha used of Elijah's taking (2 Kings 2:12). Seems to intimate that the Elisha c1ass belongs to the spiritually-begotten family. R558:5

17

2 Kings 13:17 And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it . Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD'S deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou have consumed them .

Shalt smite the Syrians

- Jehoash having come to a right attitude of mind, the Lord was pleased to release him and the kings of Israel from Syrian subjection. R2354:3

18

2 Kings 13:18 And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them . And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground. And he smote thrice, and stayed.

And he smote thrice

- Whether through little faith or lack of patriotism, he struck the arrows in a feeble way, and three times only; not even asking how many times he should strike. R2354:3

And stayed

- A lesson that whatever we do should be done with our might. We should keep on smiting until our enemy is vanquished. R2354:5

19

2 Kings 13:19 And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times; then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it : whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.

Was wroth with him

- Reasoning that if Jehoash had been full of zeal and faith for delivering Israel he would have been more energetic to strike the floor, representing Syria. R2354:5

Till thou hadst consumed

- We have a spiritual conflict against a wily foe, and we must smite energetically until victory. R2354:5

20

2 Kings 13:20 And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.

The Moabites invaded

- As a further chastisement, possibly because the faintheartedness of Jehoash became all the more manifest after Elisha's death, and because he and Israel did not serve the Lord with a whole heart. R2354:6

21

2 Kings 13:21 And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that, behold, they spied a band of men ;

and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: and when the man was let down, and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

He revived

- God would remind Israel of his power and his word, by reminding them of Elisha and his words. R2354:6

25

2 Kings 14:25 He restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath unto the sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, which was of Gathhepher.

Jonah ... of Gath-hepher

- In Galilee, thus contradicting the Pharisees who said, "Out of Galilee ariseth no prophet." (John 7:52) R3568:2*

2

2 Kings 16:2 Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father.

Reigned sixteen years

- Which Usher incorrectly gives as fifteen. B52

18

2 Kings 16:18 And the covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry without, turned he from the house of the LORD for the king of Assyria.

The king's entry

- A remarkable passageway leading from the palace to the Temple. R2067:5

2 Kings 17:2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

That were before him

- A rather doubtful compliment, of being less evil than some of his predecessors. R4819:3

2 Kings 17:6 In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

And carried Israel

- The ten tribes. R4819:3 The fall of the ten tribes of Israel pictures the fall of Papacy. R2360:5

8

2 Kings 17:8 And walked in the statutes of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

Statutes of the heathen

- Israel was quite willing to be God's special people, but seemingly they did not wish to be his peculiar people. R2359:1 Spiritual Israel must be "peculiar people" and not attempt to please and copy the world. R2360:4

2 Kings 17:9 And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

Did secretly

- Hypocritically, under the pretense that they were doing this in the service of the true God. R2359:3 Corresponds with the tendency of many in Christendom today of publicly showing an outward display in forms and ceremonies, thinking they are increasing in godliness. R2359:4

10

2 Kings 17:10 And they set them up images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree:

Images and groves

- As natural Israel had its groves and totem-posts, so many spiritual Israelites have their various creeds. R3464:6

12

2 Kings 17:12 For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing.

They served idols

- Idols today are popularity, wealth, fame, self, denomination. R2359:5, R3464:6

13

2 Kings 17:13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.

Keep my commandments

- Israel's prosperity or defeat indicated the Lord's favor or disfavor, in a manner not applicable to other nations. R4820:1

14

2 Kings 17:14 Notwithstanding they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God.

Hardened their necks

- A figure of speech drawn from the stiffness of neck of a yoke of unruly bullocks. R3464:1 Symbolizing a self-willed and rebellious attitude of heart. R4820:2, R3464:1

15

2 Kings 17:15 And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them.

Rejected his statutes

- Israel rejected God's Law, God's word; lost faith in God's promises; lost sight of the result of forsaking his counsel; followed foolishness, desiring to be not peculiar but popular. R2360:2 This applies to antitypical nominal Israel of today. R2360:4

Went after the heathen

- The disposition to do like the world is the seductive point at which the great Adversary would switch us off from being the Lord's peculiar people. Let us remember John 15:19. R2360:4

17

2 Kings 17:17 And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

To pass through the fire

- The fire of Moloch, as sacrifices. The modern Moloch is a god of everlasting torture. R2360:1 We have today a Moloch on a much larger scale, the God-dishonoring imaginations of a god red hot with the flames of hell or purgatory. R3464:6

Divination and enchantments

- God's Word warns us against having anything to do with occult powers. R5800:2 They held intercourse with the fallen angels. R2359:6 This same spirit of wilfulness and dissatisfaction with divine arrangements is not lacking today. R2359:6

Sold themselves to do evil

- They became the slaves of their passions and self-deceptions, misled of the evil spirits. R3464:1, R2359:6

18

2 Kings 17:18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.

With Israel

- These other nations were not specially chastised for idolatry as was Israel. R3463:6

Removed them

- Israel's overthrow was a judgment from the Lord. R4820:1 It was God's abandonment of the ten-tribe kingdom, his permission for them to have their way and henceforth to be treated of him as the heathen. R3463:6 An entire alienation from God. R3464:1 The greater religious faith and zeal was always to be found in Judah, and gradually many of the more religious in Ephraim (the ten-tribe kingdom) removed to Judah. R3464:2, R4819:3

Tribe of Judah only

- There are analogies in spiritual Israel: the great "falling away" from the faith; the captivity to Papacy and the world (Babylon); the "Reformation," and the separation of "Israelites indeed." R3464:5 The fall of the ten tribes of Israel reminds us of the fall of Papacy for similar reasons. R2360:5

20

2 Kings 17:20 And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

All the seed of Israel

- The Israelites were destroyed as a nation; but God's favor will return to the twelve tribes, and their regathering will be the first blessing to humanity under Messiah's reign. R4820:4

23

2 Kings 17:23 Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

Removed Israel

- See comments on 2 Kings 17:18.

So was Israel carried away

- Whoever of them maintained faith in God and observed circumcision maintained his membership as an Israelite. Others ceased entirely to be Israelites. R4819:6, R3464:4

To Assyria

- They gradually assimilated with the population surrounding them and lost identity as Israelites. R3463:6

24

2 Kings 17:24 And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

Place them in ... Samaria

- Thus the Samaritans of Jesus' day were Gentiles who had been transported to Samaria. R2574:1

27

2 Kings 17:27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

Let him teach them

- Thus the Samaritan Gentiles obtained a smattering of knowledge of Jewish hopes, combining them with false ideas of their own. R2574:1

41

2 Kings 17:41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

Feared the LORD

- Comprehended through the light of nature; but not justified thereby. R1030:2*

2 Kings 18:3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did.

Did that which was right

- The fact that so good a son could come from so evil a father is an evidence that under divine providence it is not necessary that we should inherit all the evil traits of our ancestors. R2379:2 The secret of the difference between the father and the son was a godly mother. R3462:3 His faithfulness formed the basis for his later prayer for an extension of life. R3588:4

2 Kings 18:4 He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan.

Removed the high places

- He began in the first month of his reign to inaugurate reforms; the restoration of the worship of Jehovah as divinely appointed. (2 Chron 29:3) R2379:3,5 The antitypical cleansing of the Lord's Temple, his Church, is still in progress. R3463:4

2 Kings 18:5 He trusted in the LORD God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him.

None like him

- Hezekiah was reckoned in the Lord's sight as one of the three most acceptable kings—David and Josiah being the other two. R3462:3

2 Kings 18:7 And the LORD was with him; and he prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

He rebelled against

- By joining the confederacy of Egyptians, Philistines and Sidonians, contrary to the Lord's admonition through (Isa 8:12), this error was allowed to work out a serious penalty. R4832:3

12

2 Kings 18:12 Because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them , nor do them .

Not hear . . . nor do them

- If reproofs do not have a corrective influence they will have the opposite effect—the sinner will be the more obstinate and opposed to God. R4820:2

14

2 Kings 18:14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

To Lachish

- The siege and capture of Lachish is amply illustrated on the walls of the palaces in Nineveh, with full particulars given. R2382:5, R520:3*

That which thou puttest

- Hezekiah's first move was to placate his adversary by becoming his vassal and paying annual tribute, wherein he greatly erred. R2381:3

15

2 Kings 18:15 And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house.

All the silver

- Spiritual Israelites may be disposed to do as Hezekiah, purchase peace with things consecrated to the Lord—to compromise the truth, to subtract from the time, influence, means, etc., consecrated to the Lord. R2381:6 If the Lord's consecrated people do this, he will permit to come upon them the very difficulties they dread and seek to avert by unholy compromise. R2381:6

17

2 Kings 18:17 And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great host against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.

Against Jerusalem

- Sennacherib rued his agreement and violated it. R4832:6 This attack was permitted as a consequence of Hezekiah's failure to recognize Jehovah at once as the almighty ruler and preserver of his people. R2381:3

2 Kings 19:2 And he sent Eliakim, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

To Isaiah

- Hezekiah's friend, advisor and supposed tutor in earlier years. R2381:3

2 Kings 19:7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

I will send a blast

- Smiting of the angel of the Lord. (See 2 Kings 19:35) R2382:2 Some have supposed a simoon, or sandstorm, not uncommon in the Arabian desert. R2382:1

Fall by the sword

- Sennacherib was assassinated by his own sons. R2382:4

15

2 Kings 19:15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

Between the cherubims

- Representing love and power, above a foundation of justice represented by the Mercy Seat. T125

28

2 Kings 19:28 Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

Hook in thy nose ... bridle

- Representing the manner in which bullocks and horses are controlled. R2381:5

29

2 Kings 19:29 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

This shall be a sign

- That the deliverance was not temporary but permanent. R2382:4

32

2 Kings 19:32 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it.

Shall not come into

- Confirmed by the inscriptions on the monuments unearthed in Sennacherib's palace in Nineveh. R520:5*

35

2 Kings 19:35 And it came to pass that night, that the angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

Angel of the LORD

- Does not necessarily refer to an angelic being, but signifies "messenger." God is able to use winds or waves, lightnings or sandstorms, or pestilence, or any other agency. R2382:2, R3582:5; PD41/52

Smote In the camp

- Would have been most horrible if those smitten had gone to eternal torment instead of awaiting a resurrection, secured by Christ's death. PD41/52 Jewish tradition ascribes the destruction to a pestilence. R2382:2 Egyptian history ascribes Sennacherib's retreat to an invasion of field mice which gnawed the quivers, bowstrings and thongs of their shields. But mice, to the Egyptians, are a figurative way of speaking of the plagues. R2382:2 Other incidents of divine providence similarly intervening to protect those whom divine will did not want further injured include the destruction of the Spanish Armada and the retreat of Napoleon's army from Moscow. R2382:2

2 Kings 20:1 In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.

In those days

- Somewhere in the period of Hezekiah's prosperity and consequent pride. R2382:6 731 BC, 125 years before the removal of the crown from Zedekiah (606 BC); corresponding to the date of the French Revolution, 1789 AD, from which Christendom recovered, though it must have seemed to be a "sickness unto death"; which was 125 years before 1914, when Gentile crowns are removed. R3574:1,2*

Was Hezeklah sick

- Penalty for his failure to render unto the Lord according to his blessings. R2382:6

2

2 Kings 20:2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying,

And prayed

- Isa. 38:9-22 records in poetic form Hezekiah's resolves and is evidently the embodiment of his previous prayer. R2382:6

7

2 Kings 20:7 And Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

And Isaiah said

- Isaiah did not pray with Hezekiah, nor suggest prayer, but was surprised when sent back to inform Hezekiah that he would recover. R2028:6

A lump of figs

- A poultice. Many who believe in faith healing today would object to a fig poultice or any other human instrumentality being used. R2029:1

2 Kings 20:8 And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day?

Shall be the sign

- The Lord's people of the New Creation should avoid putting the Lord to tests and signs. He desires his people to walk by faith and not by sight. R3589:1

11

2 Kings 20:11 And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz.

Brought the shadow

- Probably by means of conditions in the upper atmosphere causing two parhelia or mock suns. R2383:1,* R3589:2; Q770:4

Ten degrees backward

- Professor Garbet declares that he knew of an afternoon when, on sundials in Southern England, there occurred exactly the same wonder. R2383:1, R3589:4; Q770:4 Perhaps symbolically representing the ten years from the French Revolution to the beginning of the Time of the End. R3574:3*

20

2 Kings 20:20 And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool, and a conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

Brought water

- This seems to shadow forth the founding of the various Bible Societies at the beginning of the last century. R3574:3*

1

2 Kings 21:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzibah.

Manasseh

- Isaiah, his supposed grandfather, having died previously. R2386:3

Was twelve years old

- If properly reared, he should have been considerably established in the ways of righteousness. R3598:3

2 Kings 21:2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

That which was evil

- Good men and loyal to the Lord may be poor fathers as was Hezekiah in this case. R3598:2 The Lord's people have a serious responsibility to impress the plastic minds of their children with the principles of righteousness: "Train up a child in the way he should go." (Prov. 22:6) R3598:2

2 Kings 21:6 And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

With familiar spirits

- The fallen angels. R5800:1, R1643:1, R2171:3, R2172:1; Q804:3

Shed innocent blood

- Probably in ignorance, under the frenzied zeal of false religion. R2387:2

Josiah

- Meaning "Jehovah will support." R2390:2

Jedidah

- Meaning "the beloved of Jehovah." R2390:2

Adaiah

- Meaning "the honored of Jehovah." R2390:2

2 Kings 22:5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house,

Repair the house

- After cleansing the land of idols, he determined next to repair the Temple. R2390:5 So with the consecrated; after destroying the fleshly idols of the heart comes usefulness and service to the Lord, in building up the true temple. R2390:5

11

2 Kings 22:11 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his clothes.

The book of the law

- Presumably the original copy of the book of Deuteronomy, written by Moses' own hand. R2390:6 Corresponding to the Reformation movement of the 16th century, leading to the finding and understanding of God's law, the Bible. R2391:5 The reading of it awakened one of the greatest revivals in the history of that nation. R4051:1

Rent his clothes

- An expression of dismay. The book's delineations of the Law were so different from what had been taught by the priests that the king was astonished. R2390:6 Realizing how far short Israel had come and noting the punishments prescribed, he was greatly troubled. R2391:1 In olden times, this was a symbol of distress, perplexity or fear. R3608:3

14

2 Kings 22:14 So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college;) and they communed with her.

Unto Huldah

- For several reasons: (1) perhaps a woman, especially one connected with the court, would give a softer message; (2) Jeremiah and Zephaniah may have been away from Jerusalem; (3) the king may have considered the above two prophets too extreme; or (4) to obtain an outside testimony since Jeremiah was the son of the High Priest and Zephaniah his own cousin. R2391:2

The prophetess

- God, who is no respecter of persons, requires faithfulness on the part of female as well as male stewards in the use of all their talents. R1549:4

16

2 Kings 22:16 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read:

Evil upon this place

- It was too late for any national reformation. So far as Christendom is concerned there is no balm in Gilead that will help and recover her. R2391:4

19

2 Kings 22:19 Because thine heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee , saith the LORD.

Thine heart was tender

- An honest, believing heart, realizing that the nation of Israel had committed the very sins recorded in Deut. 28. R3608:3

20

2 Kings 22:20 Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

Behold therefore

- Because of the splendid work of reformation which the king had inaugurated. Q765:2

Thy grave in peace

- Conditioned on Josiah's faith and obedience to the Lord. Q765:2

2 Kings 23:4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Bethel.

Made for Baal

- Or Bel, type of the god of Babylon, the Pope. D40

10

2 Kings 23:10 And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech.

Molech

- The valley of Hinnom (Greek, Gehenna) had erected in it a brass figure of the god Moloch which, being hollow, was heated intensely and then into its outstretched arms were placed children offered in sacrifice. R3069:1 Today in Christendom we have a Moloch on a much larger scale, a much worse representation of God—a god red hot with the flames of hell or purgatory, with millions in his embrace. R3464:6, R2360:1; PD41/52

16

2 Kings 23:16 And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.

And burned them

- Prophesied in 1 Kings 13:1-3. R3607:3

20

2 Kings 23:20 And he slew all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burned men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

Slew all the priests

- Violent opposition to idolatry was a responsibility of every king in Israel; but spiritual Israelites are not to war with carnal weapons. R3607:3

21

2 Kings 23:21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant.

Keep the passover

- 641 BC. The 2520-year parallel in the Gospel age of the great passover, the resurrection of "the dead in Christ" in 1878 AD, and the passing over of the feet members since that date at the moment of death. R3574:4*

24

2 Kings 23:24 Moreover the workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

Familiar spirits

- The fallen angels. R5800:1, R1643:1, R2171:3, R2172:1

25

2 Kings 23:25 And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him.

With all his heart

- It is not sufficient that we be well-disposed and moral; it is necessary that we devote ourselves wholly to do his will, and then seek after him to know his will, and do it. R2390:3

29

2 Kings 23:29 In his days Pharaohnechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and he slew him at Megiddo, when he had seen him.

And he slew him

- The reason why Josiah suffered a violent death is outlined in 2 Chron. 35:20-22. What a lesson for all, not to meddle in the affairs of others. Q765:2

At the commandment

- The Lord gave Judah every opportunity to learn the needed lessons: (1) in the object lessons of the works of idolatry in the ten-tribe kingdom; and (2) when they witnessed the captivity and dispersion of the ten-tribe kingdom for disloyalty to Jehovah. R2401:2

2 Kings 24

8

2 Kings 24:8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

Eighteen years old

- Not eight, as in 2 Chron. 36:9 by a copyist's error. B53

14

2 Kings 24:14 And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.

Carried away all Jerusalem

- This partial captivity occurred eleven, not eighteen, years before the dethronement of King Zedekiah, as Usher incorrectly puts it. B52 Daniel and his companions were included in this captivity. R2401:6

Save the poorest

- Shortly even these, "all people, both small and great," fled to Egypt for fear of the Chaldees (2 Kings 25:26) and the seventy years of desolation of the land "without an inhabitant" began to be fulfilled. B52; R3437:3, R1372:5

17

2 Kings 24:17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

Made Mattaniah . . . king

- Compelling him to take an oath of allegiance to the kingdom of Babylon. R2401:6

2 Kings 25:6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment upon him.

They took the king

- As nearly as we can tell, it was the year 606 BC. R5564:2

2 Kings 25:7 And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

Carried him to Babylon

- Fulfilling two very remarkable prophecies: That Zedekiah would be taken captive to Babylon and die there, yet never see the city (Ezek. 12:13); and, contrary to this, that he would speak with Nebuchadnezzar mouth to mouth and see his eyes. (Jer. 32:4, Jer. 34:3) R2402:1; PD47/59

8

2 Kings 25:8 And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:

- The 10th day, according to Jer. 52:12. HG105:2

2 Kings 25:9 And he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire.

Burnt the house

- Nebuchadnezzar utterly destroyed Jerusalem and its Temple with fire. PD48/59

13

2 Kings 25:13 And the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

To Babylon

- Symbol of Babylon the Great. C120

15

2 Kings 25:15 And the firepans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

As were of gold

- Symbolic of precious truths. C120

And all the people

- Thus beginning the seventy years desolation. B52; R2402:1, R1372:5

Came to Egypt

- Therefore, in reckoning the time to the desolation of the land, all periods up to the close of Zedekiah's reign should be counted in. B52; R3437:3, R1372:5

28

2 Kings 25:28 And he spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon;

Spake kindly to him

- In spiritual Israel the unfaithful, like Jehoiachim, might be chastened and afterwards treated with leniency. R3623:3

55

The Kenites

- Sharing in the promised land because of the help given by Hobab in guiding Israel through the wilderness (Num. 10:29; Jud. 4:11). R3061:5

1 Chronicles 3

5

1 Chronicles 3:5 And these were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four, of Bathshua the daughter of Ammiel:

Of Bath-shua

- It was in Solomon's favor that his mother was not of an heathen family, but an Israelite, and therefore more in sympathy with the divine arrangements. R5701:5

Rest of the Amalekites

- Representing sins. The Lord's command comes to us to put away sin entirely. R3225:3

1 Chronicles 5

1 Chronicles 5:1 Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright.

Unto the sons of Joseph

- Indicated by Jacob's giving Joseph the coat of many colors: a royal garment. R1635:4

1 Chronicles 5:2 For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's:)

Above his brethren

1 Chronicles 9

1 Chronicles 9:1 So all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and, behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, who were carried away to Babylon for their transgression.

Reckoned by genealogies

- Clearly kept to show the outworking of every item of God's plan "in due time." R1420:1

1 Chronicles 10

12

1 Chronicles 10:12 They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

All the valiant men

- Whom Saul had rescued 40 years earlier. R4234:5

Buried their bones

- So no further indignities could be expressed. R4234:5

Fasted seven days

- Illustrating the fact that the human race, though sadly fallen, retains elements of the original image of God in the flesh. R4234:5

13

1 Chronicles 10:13 So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, even against the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to inquire of it ;

Saul died

- The threatened punishment. R755:1*

Which he kept not

- Of these commands Saul was well aware. R755:1*

Asking counsel

- Advice. PD42/52 Contrary to God's command, of one that had intimacy with a spirit. R755:1*

A familiar spirit

- A witch at Endor. PD42/52 Communication with fallen angels. R2172:1 We are warned against having anything to do with occult powers. R5800:1

To enquire of it

- We should not suppose that God would recognize or use any means of communication which he had prohibited on pain of death and condemned as wicked. R265:6

1 Chronicles 11

1 Chronicles 11:2 And moreover in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel.

That leddest out

- Performing all the duties of a government in protecting from the incursions of the bordering tribes. R4225:1

3

1 Chronicles 11:3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

Made a covenant

- Agreeing to serve as a king under a limited monarchy, under a constitution spelling out the rights of the people and the rights of the king. R4236:1

18

1 Chronicles 11:18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it , and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD,

Not drink of it

- Few indeed among the kings of earth would consider any sacrifice of their fellowmen too costly to be bestowed on them. R2015:6

Poured it out

- Such water he considered too costly to drink. R2015:6

To the LORD

- Tendered the water as a thank offering to the Lord and as an expression of highest appreciation to his followers. R4225:2

1 Chronicles 12

1 Chronicles 12:1 Now these are they that came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war.

They that came to David

- A large band of discontented people, mostly victims of Saul's persecution. R4225:1

1 Chronicles 13

1 Chronicles 13:1 And David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

With every leader

- It is wiser, better every way, that all the Lord's people be invited to join in any prominent matter connected with the Lord's service. Even in a small congregation it will be found disadvantageous to have one person do all the speaking, all the leading, all the serving. R3252:4

1 Chronicles 13:2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

Let us send abroad

- Gathering 30,000 representatives and making the Ark's restoration a national act. R2003:1

1 Chronicles 13:3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we inquired not at it in the days of Saul.

The ark of our God

- Symbol of the divine presence, the most sacred thing about the typical Tabernacle. R2002:3 Possibly its movements may have included the movement of the other articles of furniture of the Tabernacle. R3252:1

To us

- To the capital city, making it the city of the great King, directing the minds of Israel, through the earthly king, to the heavenly King whom he represented. R3252:4 As David desired to be near the Tabernacle, close to the Lord, so should we long for a closer walk with God, a nearness to the Mercy Seat-Christ Jesus. R4260:5

1 Chronicles 13:6 And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is , to Kirjathjearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it .

Between the cherubims

- Representing love and power; upon a foundation of justice, represented by the Mercy Seat. T125

1 Chronicles 13:7 And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drave the cart.

In a new cart

- Instead of upon the shoulders of the Levites as instructed by the Lord (Num. 4:15; Num. 7:9). R3252:6, R2003:2, R5679:6, R4259:5 It is not our part to change one iota of the ordinances of God. R2003:5

Uzza and Ahio

- Sons of Abinadab the priest. R3252:3

Drave the cart

- Probably by oxen. R2003:1

1 Chronicles 13:9 And when they came unto the threshingfloor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.

Put forth his hand

- God is guiding his own affairs and he is fully capable of their management. R4260:1 Quite possibly long association with the Ark had bred in Uzzah a familiarity and loss of respect for it as representative of God. R3252:6 The poet has noticed this tendency of some to "rush in where angels fear to tread." R3253:1

10

1 Chronicles 13:10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God.

The anger of the LORD

- Not violent passion, but sufficient displeasure to warrant punishment. R3252:6

Against Uzza

- For his lack of reverence and for his open violation of the divine regulation in the sight of the representatives of all Israel. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." (Prov. 9:10) R3252:6 God tolerated the ignorance of the Philistines who were not his people; but gave Israel a severe reminder of his displeasure at their carelessness. R2003:2

To the ark

- Let us not feel for a moment that everything will go to pieces in the Church unless we steady the ark. R3613:2

And there he died

- But no injury was done to Uzzah's eternal future. R3253:2

11

1 Chronicles 13:11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perezuzza to this day.

Was displeased

- With his former determination to bring the Ark to Jerusalem, and that through lack of care matters had gone astray. R3252:5

A breach upon Uzza

- This was no injustice, because he was already under the death sentence anyway. F174 It was necessary because everything connected with the Ark typified something greater. T12

12

1 Chronicles 13:12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

How shall I bring

- The lesson was one of avoiding irreverence-in manner, language, jokes on religious things. R5680:1, R3253:1

13

1 Chronicles 13:13 So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obededom the Gittite.

Obed-edom

- A Levite, possibly a priest. R5679:6

14

1 Chronicles 13:14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obededom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obededom, and all that he had.

Blessed the house

- Because Obed-edom reverently received the Ark. R2003:2 Abinadab received no special blessing during the years the Ark was in his house. Similarly the Bible in some families brings no blessing from year to year, but in others it brings great blessings in a few short months. R3253:4 So that King David noticed, and resolved again to restore the Ark to Jerusalem. R5680:1, R3253:5

David smote them there

- Illustrating God's deliverance of regathered Israel. D555

1 Chronicles 15

1 Chronicles 15:2 Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

But the Levites

- David read the lesson clearly—this time the symbol of divine presence should be reverently borne according to divine directions. R2003:4

15

1 Chronicles 15:15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD.

Upon their shoulders

- The lesson was learned that obedience to the letter is better than sacrifice. R4260:3

29

1 Chronicles 15:29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

Came to the city

- The justified can enter the city of God, the Church, only by consecration; not sorrowful at the cost of sacrifice, but joyful. R4260:5

1 Chronicles 16

12

1 Chronicles 16:12 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

Remember

- The spirit of praise was cultivated by calling to mind and recounting what the Lord had done for Israel. R2031:6

His marvelous works

- So must the Christian continually call to mind the works of the Lord, especially in his own individual experiences. R2031:6

17

1 Chronicles 16:17 And hath confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

And to Israel

- The twelve tribes of Israel after Jacob's death. A78

22

1 Chronicles 16:22 Saying , Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

Mine anointed

- King Saul was God's anointed. In sparing his life David acted in harmony with the Lord's will. PD40/50

He cometh

- When he appears day appears, life appears, fruitfulness appears. The curse departs. The "bondage of corruption" (Rom. 8:21) is no more. Clouds, storms, troubles, sorrows vanish. The face Of nature reassumes the smile of Eden times. It is earth's festival, the world's Jubilee. R302:3

To judge the earth

- The judgment day will be a glorious and desirable day. A147 "He hath appointed a day in the which he will judge the world in righteousness." (Acts 17:31) R3028:6

1 Chronicles 17

1 Chronicles 17:1 Now it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

David said to Nathan

- Some in the present time anxious to establish the kingdom of the Lord, have not taken counsel of the prophets of God to know his will. R4261:3

Under curtains

- David thought of the incongruity of his living in a grander house than that of his God. R4260:3

4

1 Chronicles 17:4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

Thou shalt not build

- "Because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood." (1 Chron. 28:3) It was not part of the divine program for David to build, but for his son Solomon. These were types of glorious things to come. R4260:6 We are not to conclude that because our plans are reverential and designed for the glory of God they must have the divine approval. R3258:6

1 Chronicles 17:5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another .

From tent to tent

- The Lord prefers that his representation in the world in the present time shall be extremely simple and unostentatious. R3259:2

7

1 Chronicles 17:7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel:

From the sheepcote

- Representing the plane of the fallen natural man. R3259:4

1 Chronicles 17:9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning,

Moved no more

- Temporari1y fulfilled under David and Solomon but really to be fulfilled in the Millennial age. R3259:4, R4261:1

10

1 Chronicles 17:10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee that the LORD will build thee an house.

Will build thee an house

- The Lord would not cut his family off from the throne. This will be fulfilled by Messiah and his Kingdom. R4261:2

11

1 Chronicles 17:11 And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

His kingdom

- Solomon's kingdom, typical of Christ's Millennial reign. R3259:6

12

1 Chronicles 17:12 He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne for ever.

He shall build

- Primarily Solomon, who built the typical Temple; but the antitype, Christ, will build the real Temple. R4261:2

An house

- Typifying the Church of the living God, through which all prayers to God and all blessings from God will pass. R4261:3; PD45/55

His throne for ever

- The period from Zedekiah's reign to that of Christ being merely an interregnum, a suspension of David's kingdom, which might not go to another. R3259:5; PD47/59 Our Lord sprung not from Solomon's line. Christ was the heir prophesied who should establish David's throne forever. R4261:4

1 Chronicles 19

1 Chronicles 19:8 And when David heard of it , he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

When David heard of it

- It should be noted that David's wars were not aggressive wars, nor wars of conquest, but that they were always defensive. R2015:2

1 Chronicles 19:9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

Children of Ammon came

- The disposition of these nations was to exterminate Israel. David's only righteous course was to fight. R2015:2

1 Chronicles 20

1 Chronicles 20:3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

So dealt David

- While outwardly prosperous, David declined an inward piety, resorting to unnecessary cruelty. R2016:3

1 Chronicles 21

1 Chronicles 21:1 And Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

To number Israel

- Contrary to the Law of God and the counsel of his wisest men, putting his trust in numbers and equipment rather than in God. R2016:3

8

1 Chronicles 21:8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

I have sinned

- David was presumptuous in not first ascertaining the will of God, the true King of Israel. God's people should not lean to their own understanding. Q832:2

12

1 Chronicles 21:12 Either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee ; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

Three years

- Mentioned as seven years in 2 Sam. 24:13. The numbers 7 and 3 resemble each other closely, so that one of these is probably incorrect. R4018:4*

13

1 Chronicles 21:13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.

A great strait

- Realizing his own weakness David, in humility, declined to make a choice. R5106:4; Q281:4

14

1 Chronicles 21:14 So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

Upon Israel

- The sin of David was esteemed a national sin and carried a national penalty. R4200:3

15

1 Chronicles 21:15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

He repented him

- Before the punishment reached David he had received the Lord's forgiveness for his sin. R5106:4; Q281:4

1 Chronicles 22

1 Chronicles 22:5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnifical, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

Exceeding magnifical

- To represent the labor and care and sacrifices of the loving hearts and active hands of a people devoted to God. R2030:6 The humble Tabernacle, whose beauties were hidden, typified the presence of God with his people in the present time, while the glorious Temple typified the Church in glory during Christ's Millennial reign. R1237:4

1 Chronicles 22:7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God:

And David

- Typifying the Church in the flesh. R1901:3,6

Said to Solomon

- Typifying the Church in glory. R1901:3,6

To build an house

- Like David, the Church in the flesh is not privileged to build the Temple of God. R1901:6

8

1 Chronicles 22:8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

Hast made great wars

- Typifying the continual warfare of the Church in the flesh. R1901:6, R4261:6 This was no reproach against David, for he had done so in the name of the Lord and for his people. R2030:3

1 Chronicles 22:9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

Name shall be Solomon

- The Lord's choice among David's sons to succeed him. R2045:3

Peace and quietness

- An apt symbol of the reign of the glorified Church. R1901:6

11

1 Chronicles 22:11 Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

Build the house

- Over every other ambition, David's zeal for God predominated. R2030:6

13

1 Chronicles 22:13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.

And of good courage

- Both strength and courage are necessary to every Christian and are developed by patient endurance and faith in God under trials. R2031:1

1 Chronicles 23

1 Chronicles 23:3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

From the age of 30

- Not until Jesus attained the age of 30 was he the full-grown man, ready for sacrifice. R1682:5

6

1 Chronicles 23:6 And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, namely , Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Gershon

- Meaning "Refugees" or "Rescued , type of the saved world of mankind. F129

Kohath

- Meaning "Ally" or "Comrade," type of the Ancient Worthies. F129

And Merari

- Meaning "Bitterness," type of the Great Company. F129

12

1 Chronicles 23:12 The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

Amram

- Meaning "High People" or "Exalted People," type of the Little Flock whose head is Christ Jesus. F128

1 Chronicles 24

1 Chronicles 24:2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.

Nadab and Abihu

- Type of the class that sin the sin unto death during the Gospel age, and of the Great Company class. T40

1 Chronicles 27

32

1 Chronicles 27:32 Also Jonathan David's uncle was a counseller, a wise man, and a scribe: and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons:

A scribe

- In the days of the kings, scribes appear to have been appointed to keep records of important events, which were preserved and incorporated with the Law. R1145:3

1 Chronicles 28

1 Chronicles 28:1 And David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

David assembled

- To ratify Solomon's appointment and anointing. R3276:2 David's course of seeking the cooperation of the entire congregation points a good lesson to those who would serve the Lord's flock. R3276:2

1 Chronicles 28:2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me , I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:

Stood up

- Notwithstanding his age and decrepitude and the fact that it was usual to sit in such assemblages. R3276:3

Upon his feet

- Implying the importance of the matters to be dealt with. R3276:3

Hear me, my brethren

A man of war

- Typifying the battling of Christ and the Church while in the flesh. R4261:1; PD44/53

And hast shed blood

- Our God is a God of peace, but the gods of the heathen are gods of war and their mighty ones are their bloody ones. Most of the names made prominent in Westminster Abbey are those of generals and admirals and men of the world. R3276:4

1 Chronicles 28:4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel:

Hath chosen Solomon

- At this time about 20 years of age; of milder disposition than his elder brothers; born after David's sin and humiliation; educated by the prophet Nathan. R3276:1

Upon the throne

- It is appropriate that the Lord's anointed king should be charged with this important business since it was a national project and he was their representative and head. R2030:6 Antitypically The Christ shall sit upon the throne of his glory. SM600 Corresponding to the clothing of purple, symbolically representing royalty, in the Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus (Luke 16:19). HG428:2, HG161:5

1 Chronicles 28:7 Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

If he be constant

- The promise is specifically conditional; the implication is that unfaithfulness would bar Solomon's posterity from the throne of Israel. E131 If Solomon had obeyed God the throne of David would have been established in his line forever; consequently, the deathless heir to that throne would have come of his seed. R467:3*

As at this day

R507:2, R1358:4, R2364:1, R4722:3, R5700:3; OV82 As the Lord's representative he must act with instructions and due authority. Q832:2 God was not only their ruler and king, but also the chief executive officer to administer punishment for the violation of his own laws. - There has been discovered at Karnak, Egypt, a splendid structure erected by the very Shishak who conquered Rehoboam, commemorating his victories. R3467:6

2 Chronicles 12:5 Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

Therefore have I also left

- Teaching them the important lesson that if the Lord let go of them they would be swallowed up of their enemies. R2363:1

9

2 Chronicles 12:9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

Shishak

- See comment on 2 Chron. 12:2.

Took away the treasures

- This was intended of the Lord to teach Israel that if the Lord let go of them they would be swallowed up of their enemies, and that he always made obedience profitable to them in their temporal welfare. R2363:1

13

2 Chronicles 12:13 So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

Seventeen years

- Link No.27 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4

16

2 Chronicles 12:16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

And Rehoboam slept

- Death is a condition of rest, of quiet, of peaceful unconsciousness. R5059:6, R4794:2; HG121:6

2 Chronicles 13

2

2 Chronicles 13:2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

Three years

- Link No.28 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4

5

2 Chronicles 13:5 Ought ye not to know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?

Covenant of salt

- Covenant of faithfulness. R4907:1

8

2 Chronicles 13:8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods.

Kingdom of the LORD

- In some respects typical of the Kingdom promised, when Messiah should reign. A248 Though the earth is now given up to the kingdom of the Gentiles, the time was when God had a kingdom on earth. HG47:3

Golden calves

- Probably because the people, while in Egypt, were accustomed to the worship of the sacred bull, Apis, of Egyptian mythology. R2325:5

2 Chronicles 14

2

2 Chronicles 14:2 And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God:

Good and right

- In the midst of an unfavorable setting, Asa quickly developed a loyalty to God and soundness of judgment beneficial to his kingdom. R4724:2 We have seen children of evil parentage become nauseated by evil and take right paths. R4724:2

2 Chronicles 14:3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods , and the high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves:

Took away the altars

- Erected on various hilltops, at which the orgies of heathendom were practiced. R3392:3 It would be improper now for the people of the United States to decide what is false worship and abolish it or interfere with absolute religious liberty because the people of the United States are not God's Kingdom as was Israel. R2364:2

Brake down the images

- Asa did much to abolish idolatry in his kingdom and to sway the minds of the people to the reverence and obedience of Almighty God. R4724:3

Cut down the groves

- Accessories to the worship of Baal and Ashtaroth by those who affected to be largely worshippers of nature. R3392:3

4

2 Chronicles 14:4 And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

Judah

- The two-tribe kingdom. R3392:1

2 Chronicles 14:5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

He took away

- Such action has been misunderstood to imply that rulers in other countries should take similar action for the destruction of all false religions. R3392:3 It would be entirely improper for any king, governor, president or emperor of earth today to exercise such power, claiming divine approval. R3392:5, R2363:5, R2364:2

2 Chronicles 14:6 And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest.

Built fenced cities

- Fortress cities as a protection against attack from Egypt on the south and west, from Syria on the north and east, and from the ten-tribe kingdom on the immediate north. R3392:6

No war in those years

- Asa had peace for ten years, during which time he encouraged his people and trained an army. R4724:3

7

2 Chronicles 14:7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him , and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

Build these cities

- Fortified cities on the extremity of his kingdom for protection against attacks of enemies. R4724:3 We should erect fortresses of character which will be a defense against attacks of the world, the flesh and the devil. R4725:4, R3392:6

8

2 Chronicles 14:8 And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

An army of men

- These preparations for war had the divine approval, but in no sense indicated that we should take a similar course, for we contend not with flesh and blood. R3392:6

2 Chronicles 14:9 And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto Mareshah.

Came out against them

- To punish Asa for erecting fortifications, etc., to bring away more spoil and to reduce the nation again to the condition of a vassal. R3393:1

Zerah the Ethiopian

- Supposed to have been Osorkon II of Egypt. R3392:6

11

2 Chronicles 14:11 And Asa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee.

Cried unto the LORD

- A perfectly proper thing for him to do as the representative of God's chosen people; but prayers for victory in war are improper when made by any nation since Israel's rejection of the Lord at the time of his crucifixion. R3393:4 Asa's faith looked up to God, realizing that with him was the power to give or to withhold victory. R4724:3 We are to look to the Lord for victory: "For when I am weak (in myself), then am I strong (in the Lord)." (2 Cor. 12:10) R4725:4

We rest on thee

- Pray, trusting God's power. R5380:5*

12

2 Chronicles 14:12 So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

So the LORD smote

- In the battle which followed Asa and his army were successful. R4724:3

2 Chronicles 15

2 Chronicles 15:2 And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

Asa

- Whose environments in youth had been unfavorable but who quickly developed a loyalty to God and soundness of judgment beneficial to his kingdom. R4724:2

The LORD Is with you

- They had all done well and faithfully and therefore God's blessing was with them. R4724:5

While ye be with him

- The continuance of divine blessing would depend upon their faithfulness to God and to the requirements of his Law. R4724:5

If ye forsake him

- The hour of victory is more dangerous than the hour of distress; the heart is more apt to be proud and feel its own importance. The divine warning helped Asa and his people take a firmer stand for righteousness. R4724:5 Nor should a great victory elate us and make us careless and self-sufficient. R4725:4

2 Chronicles 15:3 Now for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law.

Israel

- The ten tribes. R5733:3

2 Chronicles 15:4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

He was found of them

- The Lord helped Israel proportionately as they at any time had turned to him. R5733:3 Reveals God's care over his people when they seek him. R5733:5

2 Chronicles 15:7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded.

Be ye strong therefore

- Asa had manifested a disposition in harmony with God and now had this encouraging message. R5733:3

Work shall be rewarded

- God's promise to Israel was his divine blessing of peace and earthly prosperity in proportion to their loyalty to him. R4725:1 Contrariwise, spiritual Israel is assured of tribulation, hatred, opposition and suffering in the world, but with the peace of God and a spiritual reward. R4725:1

8

2 Chronicles 15:8 And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD.

Abominable idols

- No idolatry was thenceforth permitted in the kingdom under penalty of death. R4724:6 We should put away all idolatry of money, fame, honor of men, and do the will of the Lord from the heart. R4725:4

Renewed the altar

- Today, proportionately as creed idols and their worship would cease, the repair of the true altar of God would progress and many would rejoice to present their bodies living sacrifices. (Rom. 12:1, 2) R5734:1 As the Bible comes to be rightly understood, the unscriptural follies of the creeds will be appreciated. R5734:1

2 Chronicles 15:9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

Out of Israel

- Many of the ten-tribe kingdom who were piously inclined and still respected God and his promises were glad to leave their king and ally themselves with the tribe of Judah, where the great God was worshipped and they were known as "Jews." R5733:3, R2380:2, R2084:6 God grants blessings to those who humble themselves and are obedient. R2380:2

10

2 Chronicles 15:10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

They gathered themselves

- A great convention was held—a holiness convention. R2363:5

12

2 Chronicles 15:12 And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

Entered into a covenant

- A great national awakening along religious lines. R5733:5 Such a company of consecrated covenanters, enlightened as we are today, would be a mighty force, a mighty power. R5734:4

15

2 Chronicles 15:15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

Lord gave them rest

- The Lord's blessing continued with the kingdom of Judah. R4724:6

17

2 Chronicles 15:17 But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

Were not taken away

- It is not sufficient that we outwardly acknowledge the Lord to be our God; we must also be zealous in serving his cause. R2363:3

The heart of Asa was perfect

- Asa was not serving the Lord because it would be the most profitable course for himself and for the nation but from a heart that was in harmony with God. R2363:3 Perfection of heart in the Lord's consecrated people of the Gospel age means a great deal more—a full consecration in thought, word and deed. R2364:4

Eyes of the LORD

- The Lord's influence, his power of knowing, whatever the means. R5634:2 His divine wisdom. SM623 Let your child feel that your eye and God's is ever upon him, just as we feel that God's eye is upon us. R1097:5*

The whole earth

- This does not mean that God personally beholds every individual act of every person on earth, but that he takes cognizance of matters throughout the world by means of his power, his agencies. R5634:2

2 Chronicles 16

10

2 Chronicles 16:10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing . And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time.

Put him in a prison

- The statement that his heart was right before God does not signify that he was always right. R2364:3

12

2 Chronicles 16:12 And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great : yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.

Diseased in his feet

- His sickness was a punishment for his sin according to the Israelitish covenant with God. R2029:2 God has not promised to keep spiritual Israel free from sickness, pain and trouble. R2364:5

Not to the LORD

- Who had entered into covenant relationship with the Jews to bless them physically if faithful to him. R2364:4 His heart should have repented and turned toward God, but instead he turned to the physicians. R2029:2

To the physicians

- Enchanters, magicians, black-art doctors using Satanic powers. R2364:5 There is no intimation here that it would be wrong to make use of bona-fide medical skill and aid today. R2364:5

13

2 Chronicles 16:13 And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

One and fortieth year

- Link No.29 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4

2 Chronicles 17

2 Chronicles 17:1 And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

Jehoshaphat his son

- Who had the great advantage that his parents were Godly people. R4730:1

Reigned

- While Ahab was king of Israel Jehoshaphat succeeded to the throne of Judah. R4730:1

Against Israel

- The iniquity and idolatry of Israel reacted favorably by driving the most saintly characters of all the tribes to Judah, including the priests and Levites who were still loyal to God. R4730:1

2 Chronicles 17:2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

Set garrisons

- He fortified its various boundaries, especially toward the land of Israel, Judah's nearest neighbor. R4730:2

3

2 Chronicles 17:3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father

David, and sought not unto Baalim;

Was with Jehoshaphat

- Jehoshaphat's fidelity to the Lord was rewarded with prosperity for his kingdom. R4730:2 Does not mean that all prosperous persons and nations are in divine fellowship. R4730:2

Of his father David

- Copying after David's earliest course of devotion to the Lord. R2365:1

2 Chronicles 17:5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

He had riches

- Prosperity is not always a sign of divine favor, but to Jehoshaphat and his kingdom it was because Judah still represented God's chosen nation in a special manner. R4730:3

2 Chronicles 17:6 And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

Heart was lifted up

- Not in pride and self-adulation, but with encouragement, as recognizing the fulfillment of the divine promises in the blessings enjoyed. R2365:1

Ways of the LORD

- As Ahab exceeded his father Omri as an evil-doer, so Jehoshaphat exceeded his father Asa as an upholder of the divine Law. R4730:2

The high places

- The young king began a general crusade against every idolatrous place and custom in the kingdom. R4730:2

7

2 Chronicles 17:7 Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, even to Benhail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

Teach in the cities

- Perceiving the necessity of knowledge as a basis for faith, the king instituted a general system of instruction in the Word of the Lord throughout his kingdom. R2365:2 In proportion as the Lord's people are intimately acquainted with his Word, they are made free from earthly affairs and realize their obligations to the King of kings. R2365:3

10

2 Chronicles 17:10 And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat.

Fear of the LORD

- The world recognizes in a general way that there is some truth in Christianity. R2365:5

2 Chronicles 18

2 Chronicles 18:1 Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joined affinity with Ahab.

Joined affinity

- Ambitious to unite the two nations, Jehoshaphat made a marriage alliance for his son with the daughter of Ahab and Jezebel of the ten-tribe kingdom. R3393:3 The Lord's people should be especially on guard against associations with the ungodly. R3394:2 "Be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers" (2 Cor. 6:14) neither by marriage nor by business partnerships and close friendships. R4730:5

With Ahab

- Jehoshaphat's most important mistake was in affiliating with Ahab. R4730:5 The lesson to us is that we need to "keep ourselves unspotted from the world." (Jas. 1:27) R3394:1

2 Chronicles 18:3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramothgilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art , and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

We will be with thee

- Out of courtesy and to cultivate the friendship of Ahab Jehoshaphat yielded and accompanied him, with disastrous results. R3394:2

22

2 Chronicles 18:22 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

A lying spirit

- One of the fallen angels. R2173:4

2 Chronicles 19

1

2 Chronicles 19:1 And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.

Jehoshaphat

2 Chronicles 19:2 And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

Help the ungodly

- Indicating the Lord's disapproval of Jehoshaphat's fellowship with Ahab. R4730:6 We should be especially on guard against associations, fellowships, matrimonial alliances, etc., with the ungodly. R3394:2 "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly." (Psa. 1:1). R2366:1

Wrath upon thee

- Indicated by his ignominious return without any evidence of divine favor. R3394:2

3

2 Chronicles 19:3 Nevertheless there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seek God.

Good things found in thee

- While reproving Jehoshaphat, the Lord graciously mentioned approval of his destroying idolatrous worship and of his heart seeking the Lord. R3394:3

Taken away the groves

- He had utterly destroyed all the groves where idolatry had been practiced. R3393:3

4

2 Chronicles 19:4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the people from Beersheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers.

Went out again

Brought them back

- To a higher appreciation of the Lord and observance of his statutes. R3394:3

R2366:1 What may the world hope for when the great King Immanuel shall rule with superhuman knowledge and wisdom. R3394:4

Judge not for man

- The Lord's people should render to no man less than is due him; and not only be just but generous. R3394:4

10

2 Chronicles 19:10 And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass.

Blood and blood

- The degree of murder, whether first, second or third. R3395:1

11 shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and the LORD shall be with the good.

The Levites

- The tribe especially consecrated to the Lord's service. R3394:5

Deal courageously

- Justly. R5413:3 In the Kingdom we shall be required to render righteous and courageous judgment. R5414:4 In doing unpleasant tasks which are necessary, but in a kindly manner. R5414:5, R3395:4 Whoever has a duty to perform let him not fear. R5414:5, R3395:4

LORD shall be with

- Applicable to the Jews because they were a typical people of God. R5414:4 There is no partiality with the Creator, no class distinction, neither high nor low, rich nor poor, noble nor peasant. R5413:3

The good

- His whole dealing at this time is with the Church. R5414:2 The Lord will be with the good work that his faithful people will do. R5414:1

- Representing our High Priest, Christ. R3448:2

Repair the house

- To this end we are exhorted by the Apostle to build one another up in the most holy faith. R2367:4 It is our duty to keep our bodies, which are temples of the holy Spirit, pure in thought, word and act, and to take reasonable care of our physical systems. R2367:2

2 Chronicles 25

2 Chronicles 25:1 Amaziah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

Twenty and nine years

- Link No.35 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4

18

2 Chronicles 25:18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

Sent to Amaziah

- Even before the captivity a fellowship had sprung up between the people of the two divisions of Judah and Israel. R2084:5

2 Chronicles 26

2 Chronicles 26:3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

Fifty and two years

- Link No.36 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4

9

2 Chronicles 26:9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall , and fortified them.

Fortified them

- It was quite proper for the kings of Israel and Judah to defend the land which the Almighty had specially given to their nation. R4786:2

16

2 Chronicles 26:16 But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

To his destruction

- "Pride goeth before destruction." (Prov. 16:18). R4786:2

Went into the temple

- Uzziah evidently felt that God was proud of him and would be pleased to have him enter the Temple after the manner of the priests. R4786:2 Many successful people fall into the same error in their approach to God. R4786:2

17

2 Chronicles 26:17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

Valiant men

- Courageous men. King Uzziah was likely to resent any interference. R4786:6

18

2 Chronicles 26:18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God.

Not unto thee

- The great King Eternal has rules and regulations governing all attempts to approach him. R4786:3

But to the priests

- Recognizing Jesus as the great antitypical Priest none should intrude into the divine presence in prayer other than through him. R4786:5

Thou hast trespassed

- If the king had good intentions they should have guided him to a study of the divine arrangements. Ignorance of the Law is no excuse. R4786:6

Honour from the LORD

- True honor cannot be found in opposition to the divine arrangements. R4786:6

19

2 Chronicles 26:19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.

Leprosy

- Typifying sin. R4786:5

20

2 Chronicles 26:20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

LORD had smitten him

- Signifying typically that whoever with knowledge would approach God aside from his ordained priest would come under divine sentence as a wilful sinner. R4786:5

2 Chronicles 27

2 Chronicles 27:1 Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

Sixteen years

- Link No.37 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4

2 Chronicles 28

2 Chronicles 28:1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father:

- Sixteen years - Link No.38 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4 Usher incorrectly reckons this as 15 years. B52

Hezekiah his son

- King Hezekiah has a wonderful record as a man of God; yet he was the son of a bad father who was the son of a good father who was the son of a bad father. This alternation illustrates that heredity has counterbalances in nature. R4812:1 It is not necessary that we should inherit all the evil traits of our ancestors. R2379:2

2 Chronicles 29

2 Chronicles 29:1 Hezekiah began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.

Hezeklah

- Signifying "strength of Jehovah." R3462:3 Reckoned in the Lord's sight as one of the three most acceptable kings of Judah. R3462:3

Nine and twenty years

- Link No. 39 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4

2

2 Chronicles 29:2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

That which was right

- His entire reign was one of reformation. R3462:3 He was not double-minded but with his whole heart he sought to do right, to do the Lord's will. R4812:2, R3462:3 It is supposed that Isaiah, who was related to the royal family, was Hezekiah's tutor and helped guide him into right ways. R2379:2 Teaches the necessity for having a positive or strong will, rightly directed. R4812:2

2 Chronicles 29:3 He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.

In the first month

- He was already well instructed and thoroughly consecrated to the Lord at the time of his entrance to kingship. R2379:3

4

2 Chronicles 29:4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street,

Priests

- Typical of God's saintly or sanctified people. R4812:4

Levites

- Typical of the household of faith. R4812:4

5

2 Chronicles 29:5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place .

Sanctify now yourselves

- Before the cleansing of the Temple began the king directed the priests and Levites first to sanctify themselves. R4812:3 No one is properly ready to serve God in any form or work until he has come to a sanctified condition of heart. R4812:4 "Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord's house." (Isa. 52:11) R4812:4

House of the LORD

- The great King commands his consecrated people to purify the Temple of God, which is the Church. R4812:4

2 Chronicles 29:7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.

The God of Israel

- Jehovah, to whom the price was to be paid. E449

16

2 Chronicles 29:16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it , and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it , to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

Uncleanness

- Typical of the idols and traditions of men in the form of venerable creeds of the past defiling the Temple of God. R4813:4, R3463:4

18

2 Chronicles 29:18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof.

We have cleansed

- If any have fallen into worldliness, sin, worship of Mammon, etc., there should be first a cleansing, a reformation. R3463:2 A great reformation came in the days of Luther, Melancthon and others.

R3463:4 "Let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit." (2 Cor. 7:1) F409

All the vessels

- The vessels of the Lord's house must be cleansed of all defilements—their human traditions, heathen philosophies and superstitions. R4813:4

19

2 Chronicles 29:19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

All the vessels

- Probably including certain brass plates and borders which King Asa had removed from the altar and tables for use in other places. R3462:6

21

2 Chronicles 29:21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

Seven

- A symbol of perfection or completeness, thus intensifying the matter. R3463:1

A sin offering

- Shadows and types of the true sacrifices for sins by which the Lamb of God taketh away the sin of the world. R685:4

Altar of the LORD

- Jehovah, to whom the price was paid. E449; R685:4

24

2 Chronicles 29:24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

An atonement

- Not the regular atonement day sacrifice, because the proper day had passed; the sacrifices offered were effective merely for the remainder of the year. R3463:1 The Lord's people, after a reformation, should appeal to God for at-one-ment with him, for forgiveness of sins. R3463:2

For all Israel

- Exhibiting Hezekiah's generous spirit. R3463:2 The whole nation seems to have come to a realization of its low condition and need of an uplift. R3463:1 Hezekiah recognized that the divine promises were made to all the seed of Abraham. R2379:5

30

2 Chronicles 29:30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

Sang praises with gladness

- The work of reestablishing the true religion was not to be accomplished in a doleful manner. R3463:5

31

2 Chronicles 29:31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings.

Thank offerings

- The Lord's truly consecrated today rejoice to be free from the sins of the past and worship the Lord with thank-offerings and praise. R3463:5

2 Chronicles 30

2 Chronicles 30:1 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

Sent to all Israel

- Isaiah's prophecy respecting the carrying away of Israel into captivity was already in progress and this invitation served to incite "Israelites indeed" to return to the Lord's worship. R2380:1

2 Chronicles 30:5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

Throughout all Israel

- Not only to his own kingdom of Judah, but also to the ten tribes. R4812:5 Such a message of true fellowship to the true Israel is made alike to all, ignoring all creeds and parties. R2380:6

10

2 Chronicles 30:10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

They laughed

- In the northern kingdom, where idolatry had a stronger hold, the invitation was derided by many. R4812:5

Them to scorn

- Now, as then, the proud will stand up for sectarianism and for its honors and dignities, and will fail to get the divine blessing. R2381:1

11

2 Chronicles 30:11 Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

Divers of Asher and

- The true, faithful Israelites were gathered out of the ten-tribe kingdom into the two-tribe kingdom at that early day. R2380:3 All are to be esteemed and treated as Israelites indeed who trust in the precious blood of Christ and are consecrated to the service of the Lord. R2380:6

Humbled themselves

- A few humble ones from almost all sects, parties and creeds will be attracted. R2381:1

18

2 Chronicles 30:18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one

Not cleansed themselves

- Similarly, in the Church of Christ, we find some who but imperfectly comprehend the sanctification of life necessary to a proper participation in the Lord's "feast of fat things." R4813:1

Prayed for them

- Let us not denounce as hypocrites those who imperfectly comprehend sanctification of life, but pray for them and assist them in the more excellent way. R4813:1

23

2 Chronicles 30:23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.

With gladness

- There is no other peace or joy so soul-satisfying as that which comes from fellowship with the Creator through Christ in the antitypical passover. R4812:6

25

2 Chronicles 30:25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

Came out of Israel

- The true faithful Israelites were gathered out of the ten-tribe kingdom into the two-tribe kingdom. R2380:3 It was the remnant of Israel and not merely of Judah that was gathered into the Gospel age, while the remainder were "blinded." R2380:3 All "Israelites indeed," trusting in the precious blood of Christ, are one in Christ Jesus and are to be esteemed as brethren. R2380:6

26

2 Chronicles 30:26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

Great joy

- Many seek pleasure and joy but few find it. Real pleasure is in finding the Lord and coming into heart-harmony with him. R4812:6

2 Chronicles 31

2 Chronicles 31:1 Now when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

Brake the images

- One of these idols is sectarianism; another is money; another is lust; another, selfish ambition. They are legion with one family name, selfishness. R2381:4

2 Chronicles 31:6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps.

Israel and Judah

- The more religious in Ephraim removed to Judah and identified themselves therewith. Thus Judah eventually represented the cream of the nation. R3464:2 God's dealings with nominal spiritual Israel are gradually separating to the Lord an overcoming class. R3464:5

21

2 Chronicles 31:21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

With all his heart

- Hezekiah claimed, as all should be able to, that he walked before the Lord with a perfect heart, with a perfect will, with thoroughly good intentions. R3588:4

2 Chronicles 32

2 Chronicles 32:2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

Against Jerusalem

- The march of Sennacherib's army meant destruction and captivity to many small cities and towns on his route toward Jerusalem. R3581:6

2 Chronicles 32:9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

Send his servants

- Although tribute was sent, he sent three chief generals to Jerusalem to accomplish its captivity while he remained with his army besieging Lachish. R3582:2 We cannot purchase peace with things consecrated to the Lord—compromise the truth. So surely as the Lord's consecrated people do this, the Lord will permit to come upon them the very difficulties which they seek to avert. R2381:6

18

2 Chronicles 32:18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city.

In the Jews' speech

- The Hebrew language was used, in order that the people might understand their hopeless situation; yet they remained calm. R3582:3

That were on the wall

- Some of them soldiers with bows and arrows, spears, etc., to defend the walls. R3582:2

20

2 Chronicles 32:20 And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

Prayed

- Hezekiah had undoubtedly come to deprecate his course in ignoring the advice of Isaiah in respect to the tribute. He was thoroughly humbled now. R3582:4 When our proudest, strongest foes seem triumphing the most, we should lay hold on the Lord's promises with the greatest confidence. R3582:6

Cried to heaven

- Their faith grew stronger the more the false gods were brought into contrast with the true. R3582:4 Those most rooted and grounded are those who have been attested trying experiences and have had occasion to call mightily on the Lord for help. R3582:6

21

2 Chronicles 32:21 And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

Sent an angel

- Probably a simoon (sandstorm) or pestilence. R2382:1 Not necessarily a member of the angelic order of beings, but simply a "messenger." R2382:2 The Lord could use as his angel or messenger a flame of fire, a stroke of lightning or a breath of pestilence. R3582:5 The extremity of Hezekiah and his people became God's opportunity. R3582:4

Which cut off

- In answer to faith and prayer, yet in full accord with his foreknown plans. R3582:4

23

2 Chronicles 32:23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

Presents

- In consequence of this marked deliverance of Judah from the superior power of Assyria. R2382:5

He was magnified

- Honored, because the Lord's victory doubtless became known as that of Hezekiah. R3582:6

24

2 Chronicles 32:24 In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he gave him a sign.

In those days

- 731 BC, 125 years before the overthrow of Zedekiah, corresponding to the date of the French Revolution, 1789 AD, when Christendom seemed sick unto death, 125 years before 1914. R3574:2*

Hezeklah was sick

- Evidently the sickness had somewhat to do with his prosperity and consequent pride and with his failure to render unto the Lord. R2382:6

He gave him a sign

- The Lord's people of the New Creation are advised not to request signs of the Lord or to make tests. "We walk by faith, not by sight." (2 Cor. 5:7) R3589:1

25

2 Chronicles 32:25 But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

His heart was lifted up

- Prosperity is often a severer test of character than adversity. R2382:6

30

2 Chronicles 32:30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

To the west side

- Typifying the founding of the various Bible societies at the beginning of the nineteenth century. R3574:3*

2 Chronicles 33

2 Chronicles 33:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

Was twelve years old

- If properly trained he should have had by this time a fairly well-developed character for righteousness. R3598:3

When he began

- Isaiah, his supposed grandfather, having died previously. R2386:3

To reign

- The brightest children the most precocious, are in greatest danger if placed in positions of responsibility and influence early in life, without experienced advisors. R2386:6

Fifty and five years

- Link No.40 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4

2 Chronicles 33:2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

That which was evil

- Hezekiah, though a good man, was evidently a poor father. R3598:2, R4839:2

2 Chronicles 33:3 For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

He built again

- Probably within 10 years of his accession to power. R2386:6

2 Chronicles 33:6 And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

Children to pass

- Children were sometimes offered in sacrifice to the false deities on the outstretched arms of a great, hollow brass image, heated by fires built underneath. R4840:1

Son of Hinnom

- In Greek, Ge-Hinnom or Gehenna, illustrating the Second Death. R4840:4

Used witchcraft

- It is sufficient that God warns us not to have anything to do with occult powers. R5800:1, R265:4

A familiar spirit

- A wicked spirit, who pretended to be able to give him superhuman wisdom and advice. R2387:2

2 Chronicles 33:9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

To do worse

- More evil. Sin is constitutional derangement. Through the fall the whole human family is prone to sin so that it requires continual effort under the guidance of the Lord not to go backward into sin.

R3598:6

Than the heathen

- The nations. The Amalekites, the Perizzites, the Hittites, and all those nations whom the Lord drove out of Canaan to make room for Israel. R3598:6 A lesson for spiritual Israel: there is a continual warfare between the flesh and the spirit and we must be continually on guard. R3599:1

10

2 Chronicles 33:10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

The LORD spake

- Probably through the prophets Micah and Nahum. R2387:3

11

2 Chronicles 33:11 Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

To Babylon

- The very story of the Chronicles has been found written on clay tables. R2101:5*

12

2 Chronicles 33:12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers,

Was in affliction

- The judgment of the Lord as a punishment for sin which came upon Manasseh eventuated in a blessing for the evil-doer, illustrating the principle that will go into effect in the Millennial age. R3599:1

13

2 Chronicles 33:13 And prayed unto him: and he was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he was God.

Was intreated of him

- Illustrating the mercy of God to the truly repentant. R3599:4

Then Manasseh knew

- The clear intimation is that previously he did not know; that his sins were largely of ignorance. R2388:1

15

2 Chronicles 33:15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

And he took away

- 674 BC, corresponding to the antitypical cleansing of the sanctuary in 1846. R3574:4*

17

2 Chronicles 33:17 Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

In the high places

- The evil effects of Manasseh's reign were never thoroughly effaced before his death. R3599:4 Many of the Lord's jewels are today suffering for sins that are past and forgiven. R3599:5 The degradations coming to the world through sin will survive the forgiveness of their sins. R3599:5

19

2 Chronicles 33:19 His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sin, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.

They are written

- Showing that the prophets did not confine themselves to oral teachings. R1145:3

21

2 Chronicles 33:21 Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

Two years

- Link No.41 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4

2 Chronicles 34

2 Chronicles 34:1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

One and thirty years

- Link No. 42 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4

3

2 Chronicles 34:3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

In the eighth year

- 651 BC, parallel to 1869 AD, when the editor of Zion's Watch Tower first began to search the Scriptures for the true plan of God. R3574:4*

While he was yet young

- An example of the proper course for every young person in that the heart should be given to the Lord in the days of youth before evil experiences have come. R4838:5

He began to seek

- It is one thing to be well disposed and another thing entirely to consecrate the heart to the Lord. R2390:3

In the twelfth year

- By the time he was twenty, Josiah's religious convictions were so deep and fixed that he dared to begin the work of reformation. R4837:3, R3607:2 It is a great mistake to assume that children must first "sow wild oats" before they can appreciate righteousness. R4837:6

He began to purge

- Under the Law every king of Israel had a responsibility to oppose idolatry with violence because the kingdom typically represented God and his reign of righteousness. But when fleshly Israel was cast off, all such laws were made null and void. R3607:3 With spiritual Israel each heart has its own dominion to conquer, to clear of idols. R3607:5

2 Chronicles 34:4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them , and strowed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

Brake down the altars

- As it was with Josiah's work, so it should be with all who present themselves to the Lord. They should begin by breaking off their sins, destroying the fleshly idols of the heart. R2390:5

2 Chronicles 34:5 And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

Burnt the bones

- This work of reform had been prophesied for him years before (1 Kings 13:1-3; 2 Kings 23:15-17). R3607:3

8

2 Chronicles 34:8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

In the eighteenth year

- 641 BC, parallel to 1879 AD, the date of the founding of Zion's Watch Tower. R3574:4*

14

2 Chronicles 34:14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found a book of the law of the LORD given by Moses.

Found

- In the process of the cleaning up and restoring of the Temple services commanded by King Josiah. R3608:2

A book

- Possibly including the five books of Moses and the book of Judges, including the original copy of Deuteronomy written by Moses' own hand. R4850:3, R3608:3, R2390:6 Now, in due time, the Word of God is being found, shining with wonderful brilliancy upon the path of the just. R4851:5

Law of the LORD

- The Word of the Lord was lost during the Dark Ages, resulting in confusion and deterioration of spiritual vitality. His Word is found now in the sense of being easily accessible. R3609:3

15

2 Chronicles 34:15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

Shaphan the scribe

- His position corresponded somewhat to the Secretary of State at the present time. R3608:2

In the house of the LORD

- King Ahaz had caused the manuscripts to be burned, but in God's providence one copy of the Law was buried under a pile of stone and rubbish in one of the rooms surrounding the Court of the Temple. R3608:2 In one sense, the Word of the Lord is still hidden, covered with a thick coating of false teaching and human tradition. R3609:4

19

2 Chronicles 34:19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes.

The king had heard

- Due to the long period of idolatry preceding Josiah's work of reformation, the king may have never heard of the divine Law up to this time. R4850:3 To the masses of the people today, God's Book is lost. R4851:1

Words of the law

- He realized that the nation of Israel had committed the very sins recorded in Deuteronomy 28, and that therefore they were subject to the very penalties therein specified. R3608:3

Rent his clothes

- The tearing of the loose outer garment in olden times was a symbol of distress, perplexity or fear. R3608:3 So it is with the Christian who at last discovers the true meaning of the great law of love, and feels his shortcomings. R2391:3

21

2 Chronicles 34:21 Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

Wrath of the LORD

- Deuteronomy 28 is a statement of the penalty due Josiah's kingdom because of idolatry preceding his day. R4851:1

22

2 Chronicles 34:22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed , went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college:) and they spake to her to that effect .

Went to Huldah

- Instead of Jeremiah or Zephaniah, perhaps to ascertain whether she would confirm their public prophecies of coming judgment upon the nation. R2391:1

The prophetess

- God requires faithfulness on the part of female as well as male stewards in the use of all their talents. R1549:4

24

2 Chronicles 34:24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

Evil upon this place

- It was too late for any national reformation, as it is now too late for the reformation of Christendom. R2391:4

Curses

- Evils. R3608:5

27

2 Chronicles 34:27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

Thine heart was tender

- Words of comfort and consolation for the king himself. R2391:4 The Lord's promise is comforting to all those who mourn in Zion, who are out of sympathy with evil and unrighteousness. R2391:6

28

2 Chronicles 34:28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

To thy grave

- Qeber, tomb, place of interment. E348

In peace

- The king, and presumably others who manifested a similar spirit, would be preserved from the trouble. It would not come at a time and manner as to involve them. R4851:1, R3608:5

33

2 Chronicles 34:33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

All the abominations

- The purging from idolatry was still more thoroughly carried out and the work of reformation made more deep. R4851:1

They departed not

- The majority of the Israelites were swayed by the example of the king, without any clear moral and religious sentiments of their own. R3608:6

2 Chronicles 35

2 Chronicles 35:1 Moreover Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

The fourteenth day

- The full of the moon, symbol of the Law covenant and the people under that covenant. Christ's crucifixion at the full of the moon, and the fact that it immediately began to wane, foreshadowed Israel's national decline. F481

19

2 Chronicles 35:19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

In the eighteenth year

- 641 BC, parallel to 1879 AD, the date of the founding of Zion's Watch Tower. R3574:4*

This passover kept

- Typifying the great passover, the resurrection of the dead in Christ in the year 1878 AD and the passing over of the feet members of the Body since that date at the moment of death. R3574:4*

20

2 Chronicles 35:20 After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

Josiah went out

- Acting contrary to the Lord's will. Q765:2 What a lesson to all—to mind their own business and not to meddle in the affairs of others. Q765:2

22

2 Chronicles 35:22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

Valley of Megiddo

- These battles were, in a sense, typical. Di; OV268

24

2 Chronicles 35:24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

And he died

- Despite the promise of 2 Kings 22:20 that he would die in peace; indicating that the promise was conditioned on Josiah's continued faith and obedience to the Lord. Q765:2

2 Chronicles 36

5

2 Chronicles 36:5 Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

Eleven years

- Link No.43 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4

9

2 Chronicles 36:9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

Was eight years old

- An error of a copyist, should be 18 years. B53 2 Kings 24:8 says 18 years old. HG1O5:2

11

2 Chronicles 36:11 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

Reigned

- Until the overthrow of the dynasty. R3623:2

Eleven years

- Link No.44 in the chain of Bible chronology. B50; R1980:4 This reign was actually ten years, four months and nine days, but is stated in round numbers. B48

13

2 Chronicles 36:13 And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel.

Made him swear by God

- The taking of that oath was the immediate cause of his downfall. R3623:2

Stiffened his neck

- A figure drawn from the stiffness of neck of a yoke of unruly bullocks, unmanageable, self-willed, resenting every effort to turn them in the right way. R3464:1 Representing those who break the oath of their covenant with the Lord, thus suffering loss in every respect. R3623:3 Let us be faithful to our vow and, for the present, be submissive to the powers that be. R3624:5

16

2 Chronicles 36:16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

Mocked the messengers

- Referred to by Jesus in the parable of the Wicked Husbandmen (Mark 12:3-5). R1796:1

17

2 Chronicles 36:17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand.

The king

- Nebuchadnezzar. B191

Of the Chaldees

- Of Babylon. B191

He gave them all

- God foresaw the calamities which then came upon his chosen people; he foretold them and permitted them. R3623:5 The final overthrow of the typical kingdom is parallel to the final overthrow of nominal Christendom. R3575:2*

20

2 Chronicles 36:20 And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia:

Away to Babylon

- Corresponding to the captivity of the true Church in mystic Babylon. B246; R1483:6

21

2 Chronicles 36:21 To fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

By the mouth of Jeremiah

- Who specifically told, not only of the destruction of the city, but also that it would be 70 years before the return of its inhabitants. (Jer. 25:12; Jer. 29:10) R4893:1

Land had enjoyed

- The land did not enjoy her sabbaths while they dwelt upon it. (Lev. 26:34,43) HG59:2 During this time the 70 years of rest were accomplished for the land, but the return feature of the Jubilee was neglected until the antitype in 1874. R4779:5* The Jews were not forced to keep their sabbaths while in Babylon, but the land was forced to keep these sabbaths while the Jews were in Babylon. R4933:1; Q381:5

Her sabbaths

- The sabbath system (the seventh day and fiftieth day, the seventh year and fiftieth year) was a connected whole. R2534:3

Lay desolate

- "Without an inhabitant." (Jer. 44:2) HG47:2 Not 70 years captivity, but 70 years desolation. R3624:1, R1372:5, R1976:4 The time of the 70 years desolation of the land began in 606 BC with the carrying away of Zedekiah, not with his father's captivity 11 years previous. R5721:2, R3624:1 The date 606 BC marks the date of the beginning of the "Times of the Gentiles," the final conclusive punishment of "seven times" visited upon the Jewish people. A literal "time," or year, is 12 months of 30 days each; seven "times" would be 2520 days, representing 2520 actual years, ending in 1914. B89; R5721:2; Q356:2 We cannot make 70 years of desolation of the land into 51 years desolation for the sake of harmony with Ptolemy. We reject all of Ptolemy's Canon back of the first year of Cyrus, 536 BC. R3437:3

She kept sabbath

- There is no record of Israel's keeping the Jubilees and the Lord here declares that they were neglected. R3624:1 God declared that their observance of the year sabbaths and jubilees was unsatisfactory to him, and he gave them all their jubilees at once. OVI00

To fulfil

- The 70 years desolation of the land of Israel, accomplished by Nebuchadnezzar, fulfilled the entire number of typical jubilee years divinely foreordained. R4779:1*, R3624:2; OV100; PD48/59 Marking: (1) The beginning of the Great Jubilee cycle; (2) the close of God's typical kingdom; and (3) the beginning of the Times of the Gentiles. R1372:6

Threescore and ten

- A period long enough to allow nearly all of them to die in exile, a period in which those who loved idolatry might go their way. R3623:5 The number 70 was put here to show us when the time should come for the Lord to bless Israel and the whole world. Q382:T These 70 years represent 19 Jubilees imperfectly observed in the period of 950 years from the time the Jews entered Canaan until 19 years previous to the desolation of the land, and 51 additional Jubilees of 49 years each, 2499 years from the observance of the last Jubilee to earth's Great Jubilee, the Times of Restitution of all things, October 1874. B192, B195; R1493:2, R3624:4; OV88

22

2 Chronicles 36:22 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

First year of Cyrus

- The year 536 BC, a date well established in secular history. The 70 years of desolation of which this is the end is therefore link No.45 in the chain of Bible chronology. The Bible chronology does not go beyond this point at which secular history becomes reliable. B51; R1980:5; B80; HG46:5 The year 536 BC corresponds to 1309 AD, the year when the Papal residence was transferred from Rome to Avignon, marking the first favorable condition for the liberation of the truth from bondage to Papacy (typified by Babylon). R3577:2* Like every other feature of God's plan, the deliverance of Israel from Babylon was promptly on time. R1483:3

He made a proclamation

- The prophet had said that Cyrus would let Israel go, and God had to bend his will until he was in harmony with that prophecy. HG62:2

23

2 Chronicles 36:23 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.

Thus saith Cyrus

- Signifying "sun" or "brightness" and representing the deliverance of spiritual Israel out of Babylon the Great by the bright shining of the Sun of Righteousness. R1483:6 God had marked him out by the prophet Isaiah for this very purpose, calling him by name and specifying the work he was to do (Isa. 44:24, 28; Isa. 45:1-6). R1483:3

Who is there

- Only a few, about 50,000, learned the lessons which their fathers refused to learn and accepted the offer to return. R3623:6 The remainder of the nation had become so comfortably settled in Babylon, socially and financially, that their interests in these things outweighed their faith in the Abrahamic promise. R3648:3

Let him go up

- Not as masters of the land, but as servants of Cyrus and his successors. R1483:5

Ezra

General

- The books of Ezra and Nehemiah are historical; they take up the history of Israel where it was laid down by the scribes who wrote the books of Chronicles. Ezra, the writer of the book bearing his name, was a scribe, or educated man, whose genealogy is traced back through the priesthood to Aaron. Ezra was not amongst those who went up first to Jerusalem under the proclamation of Cyrus; indeed he was probably not born for a considerable time after that notable event. The record of the first six chapters of Ezra covers a period of 20 years; and then an interval of about 50 years transpired before the events recorded in the seventh chapter. The history of the return from captivity and the experiences of the people in connection with the rebuilding of the Temple Ezra probably got from the records of the scribes at Jerusalem. R2501:9:1
- The events of this lesson are located at the close of the 70 years desolation of the land of Israel and of the captivity of the people of Israel in Babylon. The cause of this long exile and this utter desolation of their land is stated to be their failure to let their land enjoy its Sabbaths. Although the people were negligent and only partially observed this requirement God did not permit their indifference to mar his typical prophecy, but turned even this circumstance to make the prediction more emphatic. And not only had Israel neglected the typical Jubilees, but they also had lapsed into idolatry and had polluted the house of the Lord. It is pleasing to note that in the land of their captivity Israel (with some exceptions) were reclaimed from idolatry so thoroughly as never to return to it again; and then, without the Temple and its services, they learned to appreciate what was left to them still—the Word of God and the teaching and counsel of some of the faithful ones among them. R1483:2
- Ezra and Nehemiah and the people regarded themselves as Israel, including all 12 tribes, proving that the two sticks (representing the divided people—Ezek. 37:16, 20) had become reunited in Babylon before their return from the Babylonian captivity. R2084:4,6; C294; B206
- We suggest a careful reading of Jer. 25:12; Jer. 29:10 and 2 Chron. 36:22, 23 to establish the fact that the 70 years related to the desolation of the city of Jerusalem and of their land, and not merely to the captivity of the people. Many in applying this have started the 70 years from the beginning of the first captivity, and thus are 20 years out of the way. R4893:1
- Psalm 126 seems to picture the returning of the Jewish exiles from the Babylonish captivity. We are interested in this narrative sympathetically, but we have greater interest because spiritual Israel in captivity has been waiting for the glorious deliverance to be brought about by Immanuel, the Deliverer greater than Cyrus. R3643:1 The narratives of the building of the Temple as mere narratives of history, would be of little interest or importance to us were it not for the fact of its typical character. In the light of the teachings of the apostles we see that the antitype of that Temple was the one true Church of the living God (explanation follows). R1484:1
- We have a parallel between Ezra's commission in 467 BC and Wycliffe's acts in 1378 AD. Ezra did for the literal Temple what Wycliffe did by his doctrinal reforms for the spiritual Temple. R3575:5*, charts, R3576*, R3578* This work of opening up the truth and examining and appreciating its beauty is being accomplished. We thank God for the privilege of being engaged with others in this blessed work of bringing the golden vessels of the Lord's house (precious truths) back from the captivity of (symbolic) Babylon the Great and replacing them in the Sanctuary. C120

Ezra 1:1 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

First year of Cyrus

- Not his first year as king of Persia, but his first year as king of both Persia and Babylon, the year 536 BC. R3642:2 It was the custom to date events according to the period of the reigning king. R5141:2 Cyrus succeeded Darius the Mede. R2509:3, R4893:2 Corresponding (1845 years later) to 1309 AD, the beginning of the "Babylonian Captivity" of the Papacy at Avignon, generally recognized as the foundation of the Reformation. R3578 2* Avignon marked the first favorable condition for the liberation of the truth, long in bondage to Papacy. R3577:2* Deliverance of fleshly Israel by Cyrus, whose name signifies "sun" or "brightness," represents the deliverance of spiritual Israel out of "Babylon the Great" by the bright shining of the Sun of Righteousness, the great Deliverer. R1483:6 The great Deliverer is the antitypical Cyrus. Soon he will go forth to victory and establish his Kingdom under the whole heavens. OV177 The 70 years of desolation of the land represent the 70 Jubilee cycles appointed to them. We are now living in the time of their fulfillment. R3643:1

Word of the LORD

- The Lord's word, at the mouth of Jeremiah, told of the return of the Israelites from captivity after 70 years (Jer. 25:12; Jer 29:10). R4892:6

Stirred up the spirit

- Probably Daniel was the one the Lord used to call his attention to the Scriptural predictions marking Cyrus as the divine agent, even referring to him by name (Isa. 44:26, 28; Isa. 45:1-5). R2509:3, R3642:3 Possibly he reflected that by such a course he would firmly establish himself in the good will of the Israelites, few of whom would avail themselves of his generous offer to return. R2509:5 Possibly by the Lord putting it into his mind that it would be a great convenience to have Jerusalem as a friendly way-station between his capital and Egypt. R2509:5 Similarly, spiritual Israel in captivity in Babylon has been long waiting for the glorious deliverance by Immanuel, the greater than Cyrus. R3643:2, R1483:6

Made a proclamation

- Not the "commandment" of Dan. 9:25, which was in the 20th year of Artaxerxes to Nehemiah. B67 It was not an expulsion of the Israelites, but merely the liberty to return with the king's approval. R2509:5 Not only for the Jews. He did the same for the people of other nations exiled in Babylon. R4893:2 In antitype, the proclamation of liberty for the Lord's people to go forth from Babylon has not been generally responded to. R3643:2

Ezra 1:2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

Cyrus

- Plutarch declares that "in wisdom, virtue and magnanimity he seems to have surpassed all kings." R4893:1

God of heaven

- Might seem to imply that Cyrus was a believer in and a servant of the true God, but heathen kings at that time recognized the gods of the various countries which they governed, for political reasons. R3642:3

Charged me

- Cyrus was named by the prophet Isaiah in advance, and called "God's Shepherd." (Isa. 44:28) R4893:1

To build him an house

- Though without the Temple, they had learned to appreciate the word of God; the forms of worship giving place to the more real heart-worship of the one true God. R1483:3

At Jerusalem

- A journey nearly 800 miles, taking about four months. R3648:6

3

Ezra 1:3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem.

Of all his people

- Of the whole twelve tribes. C294 Does not limit to the members of Judah and Benjamin the liberty to return. R1341:3

Let him go

- In reverence to God Cyrus gave liberty to the captives of Israel to return from Babylonian captivity. R2541:3
- Not as masters of the land, but as servants of Cyrus and his successors. They were not to possess the land as an independent kingdom until their Messiah should come (Ezek. 21:25-27). R1483:5 A secondary application is to Israel's liberty to return from their captivity in Christendom to divine favor, and to Palestine. R4892:2

And build the house

- Cyrus' order was to build the house of the Lord, the Temple and its court wall. But there was another decree, granted to Nehemiah in the 20th year of Artaxerxes, to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem, which at that time were still unrepaired (Neh. 2:3-8; Neh. 6:15; Neh. 7:1). B67

Ezra 1:4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

And whosoever

- All Israelites of all the tribes then captives. B206; C294

In any place

- World-wide, as was Cyrus' dominion. R1341:3

Where he sojourneth

- Unprepared for the journey. R4893:2

Help him

- He encouraged all the people of Babylon to help. R3642:5

5

Ezra 1:5 Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

And the Levites

- It was not only the chiefs of Judah and Benjamin who responded. C294

With all them

- The very choicest of all Israel, out of all tribes, numbering in all not quite fifty thousand. R2510:1, R5732:6; C294

Whose spirit God had raised

- Israelites indeed, in whose hearts burned faith in God and in the great Abrahamic promise, who, like Simeon, were "waiting for the consolation of Israel." (Luke 2:25) R3642:6, R1341:3 Similarly, of the Lord's people in Babylon some have heard, some have stepped out. No one should be urged to come out of Babylon if he loves the advantages of Babylon or if he does not come out willingly and joyfully. R3643:4

Ezra 1:6 And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered.

Strengthened their hands

- With presents; implying that many of those returning were of the poorer class, to whom this would be an encouraging indication of divine providence. R2510:2 As the Apostle explains in respect to the elect Church, not many of them are great, wise, learned or noble according to this world (1 Cor. 1:26). R3648:3

Ezra 1:7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

King brought forth

- He provided liberally, sending a troop of 1000 for the protection of the emigrants. R3642:5 The generosity of Cyrus was manifested in his sending back the precious vessels of the Temple. R2510:2, R3642:5

The vessels

- Typifying the precious truths carried captive to mystic Babylon. C120, R2510:5, R483:6 Our antitypical Cyrus, our present Lord, has permitted us to bring back the golden vessels, the golden truths, so long misapplied and misused in Babylon. R3643:4; C120

11

Ezra 1:11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

Sheshbazzar

- Or Zerubbabel, which means "born in Babylon." He was of the royal family of David and Solomon, appointed governor of the colony. R2510:2

From Babylon

- Type of mystic Babylon. R2372:3; C120

Unto Jerusalem

- Journey of nearly 800 miles. They must have been traveling about four months. R3648:6

Ezra 2:1 Now these are the children of the province that went up out of the captivity, of those which had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon, and came again unto Jerusalem and Judah, every one unto his city;

The children

- Only about 50,000; but they had learned well the lesson which their fathers refused to learn, to shun idolatry. R3623:6

Came again

- From the day of the return, we have no record of further idolatry in Jerusalem and Judah. R3623:6, R4893:4, R1483:3

Jerusalem and Judah

- God represented this union through (Ezekiel 37:15-28) by two sticks, joined together to show that the exiles of Israel were to unite with the captives of Judah. R4893:5

Ezra 2:2 Which came with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

The people of Israel

- From all twelve tribes. R2084:6

64

Ezra 2:64 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore,

The whole congregation

- Since scarcely any of the Jews living in Babylon at this time had ever seen Palestine, those returning were a choice 50,000; Israelites indeed. R3642:6 Supposedly about 35,000 from Judah, Benjamin and Levi; and about 11,000 from the other nine tribes. R3649:3

42,360

- The great mass, settled in business and family arrangements, were loath to leave. So, Jews returning today are primarily poor and from lands of persecution; comparatively few from America, where they are prospering. R3642:6, R2509:6

65

Ezra 2:65 Beside their servants and their maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women.

200 singing men

- Going forth to the sound of joyous music, in harmony with Isa. 48:20,21. R4893:4, R3643:1 No one should be urged to come out of Babylon; if he does not come out willingly and joyfully let him stay in Babylon. R3643:4

And singing women

- Israelites left Babylon with great joy and rejoicing; so we, free from mystic Babylon, rejoice exceedingly and would not go back. R3643:4

69

Ezra 2:69 They gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.

Gave after their ability

- Voluntarily, about $400,000: one-third by those who remained in Babylon, one-third by the few wealthy of the returned; and one-third by the mass of the people. There is a great blessing in voluntary giving. R2511:2 The mass of the people contributing an average of about $3 each. R2511:2

70

Ezra 2:70 So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

And all Israel

- Remnants of the whole twelve tribes, no more a divided nation. B206

In their cities

- Occupied only a small district in Palestine. R3649:3

Ezra 3:1 And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.

Children of Israel

- Not just Jews (of the two tribes). R2124:4 God had sifted the nation; from all the tribes he had the jewel class, the very best and most loyal of all the seed of Abraham. Similarly, the Lord now proves his people, selecting his jewels. R3648:3

Gathered

- Religious sentiment stirred them to prepare for offering formal worship. R4894:1

2

Ezra 3:2 Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.

Builded the altar

- Now constituting themselves a church. The chief concern of the leaders was to develop their religious life. This policy of exclusiveness saved Judaism. R4893:5* Believed to have been the same spot upon which Abraham offered his son Isaac (Gen. 22:3-13); subsequently the threshing floor of Araunah, where David offered acceptable sacrifice to the Lord which stayed the plague. (2 Sam. 24:21-25) R2510:6, R4894:1 Their first work was the building of the altar. R2510:3 The first step of approach to God is a recognition of the great sacrifice which the altar typically represented. R2510:3 Vain are all the approaches to God which recognize not as their basis the sin-offering which God himself provided—"the ransom for all." R2510:3

To offer

- By making a groove or trench in the rock to conduct the blood of the slain animals by a natural drain into the valley of Jehoshaphat. R2510:6

Offerings thereon

- The beasts slain there were types of the great ransom sacrifice; and their blood, which drained into Jehoshaphat, the valley of graves, symbolizes the blood of the Lamb of God, providing a fountain of life for the dead world of mankind. R2510:6

Ezra 3:3 And they set the altar upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening.

Set the altar

- Upon the "rock of the dome," the top of Mt. Zion, picturing Jesus, the rock of our salvation. R3649:6

Fear was upon them

- Their journey ended, they found still greater discouragements: ruins, desolation, disorder, a wilderness—which tried their faith and zeal. R3648:6 The spiritual Israelites have similar trying experiences, which will work out to advantage by perseverance in faith, love and zeal. R3648:6

Ezra 3:4 They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required;

Feast of tabernacles

- A time of special rejoicing; and evidences of returning divine favor added to its joys. R2511:1

Ezra 3:5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto

the LORD.

A freewill offering

- There is a great blessing in giving, and those who do not learn to give deprive themselves of a great spiritual grace. "The Lord loveth a cheerful (willing) giver." (2 Cor. 9:7) R2511:2

Ezra 3:6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

First day . . . seventh month

- They began their public worship of Jehovah very speedily after their arrival (in July or August), probably about the beginning of their "new year," October. R2510:3

8

Ezra 3:8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

The second year

- After establishing reasonable living conditions, they promptly turned to the rebuilding of the Temple, which speaks well of their spiritual condition. R3649:1

10

Ezra 3:10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

Foundation of the temple

- Antitype is the one true Church, a spiritual Temple, built up with living stones, of which Jesus Christ is the chief cornerstone. R1484:1 Jesus Christ became the foundation of this spiritual house when he gave his life a ransom. R1484:1 The Church is, in one sense, regarded as the Temple of God now. R1484:4 Foundations of our Temple were laid at Pentecost, also under unfavorable conditions. R3649:5 The rebuilding of the Temple after captivity in Babylon prefigured the rebuilding of the Church after captivity in Babylon the Great, in the great Reformation. R1484:4 The "Babylonian Captivity" in Avignon in 1309 was the foundation of the Reformation. R3578:5

Priests ... with trumpets

- Making a joyful noise before the Lord, representing the faith and confidence of the people in the precious promises associated with the Temple. R3649:1

Levites ... to praise

- Not a command for the selection of trained choirs; but, contrariwise, typifying that none can offer acceptable praise who are not of the priestly tribe, "the household of faith." R2511:6

11

Ezra 3:11 And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

They sang together

- Typified the songs and melodies of our hearts, expressing thankfulness and gratitude to the Lord. R2511:5 All spiritual Israelites who are in the right attitude of heart toward the Lord are full of songs of gratitude and praise, although not always audibly. R3649:2 All who realize the importance of the redemptive work of Christ rejoice and praise the Lord. R1484:1 Only man, of all earthly creatures, has been given the power of song; how appropriate that he use this power to praise the King of kings. R2511:3

The people shouted

- All the tribes, praising God as they laid the foundation of the Temple. Suggests to us how much more the spiritual Israelites, who have returned from mystic Babylon, should shout and sing the praises of our King. R3649:2

With a great shout

- The enthusiasm of the people for the worship of the true God is noted. R4894:1

12

Ezra 3:12 But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

Wept

- So today, among spiritual Israelites who have returned from Babylon, there are some who weep for the past when they should be rejoicing for the future. R3649:3 Perhaps in appreciation of the fact that the Temple they were founding would be much less glorious than Solomon's. R4894:2

With a loud voice

- Lessons we learn from past experiences, even from adverse experiences, while they should be kept in memory, need not be mourned over by spiritual Israelites. R3649:3, R2511:6

Shouted aloud for joy

- Full of faith and hope, they were also filled with joy in prospect of still further favors from the Lord, in harmony with his glorious promises. R3649:2 All who possess the same spiritual vision rejoice in the greater work the Lord is accomplishing, in the preparation of "living stones" for the glorious Temple of God. R3649:6

13

Ezra 3:13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

Not discern the noise

- Shouts were discordant. Those who looked forward in hope shouted for joy and those who looked backward wept. So among spiritual Israelites, some weep for the past when they should be rejoicing for the future. R3649:3

Ezra 4:1 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel;

The temple

- Type of the true Temple of God, "Which temple ye are." (1 Cor. 3:17) R3649:5, R1484:1

Ezra 4:2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do ; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

Let us

- In our Lord's day, 566 years later, they were known as the Samaritans. R3649:4 They had been unneighborly up to this time. R3649:4 There are numerous "Samaritans" today in churches of all denominations, who have neither part nor lot in this great Temple and its construction, even though some are "good Samaritans," ready to relieve the sick and indigent. R3649:6

Build with you

- You Israelites, representing the spirit-begotten ones, the Israelites indeed. R3649:6 One of the great difficulties with Christianity today is that it has admitted the "people of the land" and recognized them as Christians. R2512:2

We seek your God

- Various nationalities that had settled in Palestine had acquired some of the traditions of the land and its religious customs. R3649:4

Ezra 4:3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

Nothing to do with us

- The Jews were not at liberty to change or amend the divine proposition, and to bring others into the "elect" nation. R4894:4, R2512:2 Jesus, by his conduct and words, fully substantiated this thought (Matt. 10:5). R3649:4 Realizing that, if they had a share in the work, they could with propriety claim a share in the nature of the worship, opening the door to laxity in religious matters and idolatry. R2512:1 No outside, unconsecrated stones are wanted in the spiritual Temple, and there is no place for worldly workers in this building. R4894:5, R2512:2 As oil and water will not mix, so there cannot be any real union between the consecrated and the unconsecrated in respect to their religious views and the divine service. R3650:1 The Jews still keep aloof from other religions and from intermarriage, so that God can preserve them separate for a future work in his plan. R4894:5

Ezra 4:4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

People of the land

- Of mixed nationality, colonized by the Assyrian and Chaldean empires to destroy patriotic feelings and unite them with the one central government at Babylon. R2512:1

Weakened the hands

- Many are inclined to upbraid us now, as they upbraided the natural Israelites for refusing the fellowship and cooperation of the Samaritans of their day. R3649:6

Troubled them

- Did all in their power, politically and otherwise, to hinder the Temple building. R3650:1 The work of reformation has gone steadily forward and, like that of the typical Temple, in the midst of great opposition, but the living stones are being prepared. R1484:4, R3650:4 Similarly, spiritual Israel is opposed by those who hate the light because it condemns their darkness, doctrinal and otherwise. R2512:4

24

Ezra 4:24 Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Unto the second year

- 521 BC, 1845 years (the length of the Jewish "double") prior to 1324 AD, the time of the publication of Marsiglio's Defensor Pacis (Defender of the Peace), the greatest work of its time against Papacy. R3577:5*

Reign of Darius

- Israel's enemies hired attorneys to frustrate the Temple-building at the court of Cyrus, all through the days of his son, Cambyses, until Darius came to the throne. R4894:2 Darius Hystaspes, king of Persia. R3577:4*

2

Ezra 5:2 Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

Build the house

- After 70 years of desolation, on the return of the Israelites from captivity (536 BC), it was rebuilt the second time. R1297:1

13

Ezra 5:13 But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

This house of God

- The Temple and its court wall; not the wall of the city. B67

14

Ezra 5:14 And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one , whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;

And the vessels

- Precious truths of God's Word. C120

Temple of Babylon

- Type of Babylon the Great. C120

3

Ezra 6:3 In the first year of Cyrus the king the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

The king made a decree

- The decree of Cyrus, though issued 536 BC, did not "go forth" (Dan. 9:25) until the days of Ezra and Nehemiah, but lay concealed in the treasure house of the kings of Persia. HG105:5

Let the house

- The Temple and its court wall; not the wall of the city. B67

Threescore cubits

- Larger dimensions than that of Solomon, but inferior to it in ornamentation. R1495:3

5

Ezra 6:5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

And silver vessels

- Silver is a general symbol of truth. T114

Brought unto Babylon

- Symbolic of Babylon the Great. C120

Be restored

- This restoration is now taking place. C120

Unto the temple

- Type of the cleansed sanctuary class. C120

14

Ezra 6:14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it , according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

Through the prophesying

- Their mission was to encourage Zerubbabel and all who labored, who were beset by innumerable oppositions, difficulties, etc. R2521:2

And finished it

- Not only the rebuilding of the Temple, but also the city wall. R1495:2

And Artaxerxes

- His command went forth long after the Temple was finished. R1495:3

15

Ezra 6:15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

In the sixth year

- 517 BC, 1845 years (length of the Jewish "double") prior to 1328 AD, the time of the death of the reformer, Marsiglio. R3577:5* Solomon's Temple had been destroyed about 90 years previous. R1495:3

16

Ezra 6:16 And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy,

Rest of the children

- The offering of themselves by the "living stones" is pleasing and acceptable to God, as much by those with few talents as by those with many. R1495:5

Kept the dedication

- A very notable event with the people, not one of whom, probably, had seen Solomon's Temple. R1495:3

17

Ezra 6:17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

Offered at the dedication

- An elaborate ceremony, but as nothing compared with that of Solomon's Temple. Suggests consecration of the living Temple, with "living stones" offering themselves, acceptable to God through Christ. R1495:3

Twelve he goats

- What better evidence could we have that all the twelve tribes were represented. R1495:6

Ezra 7

1

Ezra 7:1 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

After these things

- Nearly 75 years after the return of the first company from Babylon. R3659:1, R4911:2

Reign of Artaxerxes

- Xerxes had been murdered by a palace conspiracy, and his son Artaxerxes was reigning monarch at the time Ezra undertook the expedition. R3659:1

Ezra

- A scribe of the genealogy of Aaron. His name means "help" or "helper" (Strong's). He was not among those who went up first under the proclamation of Cyrus. R2509:2 Ezra, Nehemiah and the people who returned from captivity regarded themselves as Israel. R2084:6

Ezra 7:6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

In the law of Moses

- Judah, probably under Ezra, prospered more in Babylon than did many Jews in Jerusalem. R4911:2

7

Ezra 7:7 And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

Some of the children

- The Lord stirred up the love and zeal of others in Babylon, chiefly the children of some who had declined in the first return or were too young to go. R3658:6

In the seventh year

- 467 BC, 1845 years prior to 1378 AD, the dawn of the Reformation, when the schism occurred in the Papacy, two popes being on the throne at one time, each denouncing the other as Antichrist. This was the turning point with Wycliffe, and from this moment his activities were devoted to the translation of the Bible and to attacks on the fundamental error of the Papacy, the doctrine of transubstantiation. R3578:2*

13

Ezra 7:13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

I make a decree

- Not the "commandment" of Dan. 9:25, which was in the 20th year of Artaxerxes to Nehemiah. B67

19

Ezra 7:19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem.

The vessels

- Bringing with him the vessels (symbol of truths). Ezra did for the literal Temple what Wycliffe, by his doctrinal reforms, did for the spiritual Temple. R3575:6*

20

Ezra 7:20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house.

For the house

- The Temple and its court wall. B67

22

Ezra 7:22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much .

Hundred talents of silver

- The donations of gold and silver totaled a little more than $2,000,000. R4911:3

Ezra 8

Ezra 8:1 These are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.

Them that went up

- About 1700, probably including the families of some of them; all volunteers. R3659:2 We see spiritual Israelites coming forward from Babylon with great zeal for the Lord and his cause. R3659:3

21

Ezra 8:21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

Proclaimed a fast

- Fasting is not the weakening of the body by absolute abstention from food, but rather a disciplining of the body by abstaining from delicacies, relishes, etc. R3659:6 The first condition enjoined on the assembly was a day of fasting and prayer. R3659:2 Awakening in them the thought that the whole expedition was based upon faith in the Lord and in his promises. R3659:4 We commend fasting (self-denial) in reasonable and proper ways. R3659:5 With the consecrated Christian self-denial is not the incident of a day, but the course of a life. R3659:6 Fasting, prayer and an earnest desire to know and to do God's will are more efficacious for good than large donations of money. R4911:5

To seek of him

- The very experience of realizing danger is a blessing if it will but lead us nearer to the Lord. R3659:5 In vain would any attempt to serve the Lord and yet neglect to humble himself before him, requesting guidance and blessing. R4911:3,5

22

Ezra 8:22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

I was ashamed

- Ezra felt that now to ask the king for protection would have implied at least their doubt of the favor of God or of his ability to protect them. R3659:4

Spoken unto the king

- Relying on the Lord's promises of temporal blessings to Israel, he had almost boasted of this to the king. R3659:4

Hand of our God

- We, as Spiritual Israelites, are not guaranteed earthly blessings or earthly protection, but we have a still higher guarantee, that whatever shall befall us, the Lord will overrule it for good. R3659:5

23

Ezra 8:23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us.

Fasted and besought our God

- Could be applied in full measure to the spiritual Israelites for protection and help along the narrow way. R3659:6

Intreated of us

- The Lord assures us in advance that all such petitions are granted. R3659:6

25

Ezra 8:25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellers, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered:

Weighed unto them

- Thus our Lord, for our journey to the heavenly kingdom, gives to everyone of his followers pounds and talents for which they must ultimately give account. R3660:1 Estimated at between two and three million dollars. R3659:3

Silver, and the gold

- The king furnished the money and gave the necessary authority. R3659:1

29

Ezra 8:29 Watch ye, and keep them , until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

And keep them

- An illustration of our need to watch over and keep the spiritual gifts and treasures committed to us. R3660:2

Ezra 9

Ezra 9:1 Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

Have not separated

- Similarly amongst Protestants, some, after having come out of Babylon's Roman Catholicism, become involved in worldly alliances, sects and parties properly termed Babylonish-Churchianity, contrary to the divine injunction. R3660:5

From the people

- The spiritual Israelite is directed to be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers in marriage, and to have as little as possible to do with the world in general. R3660:4

Ezra 10

Ezra 10:3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

Make a covenant

- Ezra magnified the Law, showing the people that their calamities were the result of a failure to keep the Law, and the proper course was to go back to the Law and seek to keep it inviolate. R3660:3

Put away all the wives

- Conformity to the divine Law would mean the breaking of family ties—the hard penalty for breaking the Law (for natural Israelites under the Law covenant only). R4912:1 This spirit has persisted amongst the Jews ever since, keeping that nation and people comparatively separate and distinct from all others. R3660:4 The spiritual Israelite is enjoined that if the unbelieving husband or wife remain, they should, if possible, live together in unity; but if the unbelieving one depart, let him depart (1 Cor. 7:13, 15). R3660:4

Ezra 10:8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

Should be forfeited

- Ezra used more aggressive legal prosecutions while Nehemiah, in contrast, sought to awaken consciousness to God's Law so that each might act for himself, heartily unto the Lord. R2531:1

Ezra 10:9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.

For the great rain

- In contrast with Nehemiah, who chose pleasant seasons and accustomed occasions for gathering the people. R2531:1

Nehemiah

General

- An historical book, supervised by divine providence and intended for the instruction and edification of God's people. This book is sometimes recognized as the second book of Ezra, because its narrative is the sequel to the book of Ezra. Undoubtedly, however, Nehemiah was the writer of the major portion of it. Portions of the book are apparently copied from the state archives and written in the third person, while Nehemiah evidently was the writer of the portion presented in the first person. R2524:3
- Though strictly historical, the book of Nehemiah admirably tells the story of the soul's renewal. Chapter 1 represents conviction and confession of sin; 2, determination to rebuild with God's grace; 3, actual rebuilding the soul's defense in sanctification; 4, attacks upon the soul from without; 5, assaults from within; 6, temptations of the Adversary, disguised; 7, successful accomplishment of spiritual work in the soul; 8, study of the Word; 9, confession of weaknesses; 10, covenant relationship emphasized; 11, systematizing the efforts of the godly life; 12, acknowledgment of God in everything; 13, a sad exhibition of the Christian's fall and renewed influence of the Spirit. R2524:3*
- Nehemiah was an Israelite of the tribe of Judah. He was of one of those families which had not returned to Palestine under Cyrus' decree of about ninety years previous. R1495:3 Nehemiah occupied a confidential position with Artaxerxes, the Persian king, somewhat similar to the office held by Mordecai under King Xerxes (Ahasuerus) the father of Artaxerxes. His official title does not give the proper conception of the dignity of his position. In those days, kings needed to be continually guarded against poisons, which could be easily mingled without detection with their liquid refreshments. Consequently, the cupbearer was one whose loyalty was esteemed irreproachable. They became confidants of royalty and court advisors, really occupying the position of Minister of State. R3662:2

- Thirteen years after Ezra's company returned to Jerusalem, Nehemiah went thither. The Jews, now considerable in number, were despised by their neighbors, who wished to drive them out of the land. R4912:3 The seventy years had not been years of prosperity, but of adversity to the Israelites, both in Jerusalem and in Babylon. Their enemies, taking advantage of the weaknesses of Ahasuerus, who reigned during the interim, had attacked the partially rebuilt walls and gates of the city of Jerusalem and had wrecked the former and burned the latter . . . and at Babylon, as we learn from the book of Esther, a plot for the complete extermination of the Israelites had almost succeeded but had been prevented by divine interposition. R1496:1
- The year 1391 AD corresponds with the year 454 BC, when Nehemiah received his commission to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem. It was in 1391 that John Huss might be said to have received his commission to rebuild the walls of spiritual Jerusalem, for it was in that year that he became acquainted with the works of Wycliffe. R3575:6*

Nehemiah 1:1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

Words of Nehemiah

- A young man of the tribe of Judah; of one of the prominent families of the Babylonian captivity. R1495:3, R3662:2 Sometimes recognized as the second book of Ezra because its narrative is the sequel to the book of Ezra. R2524:3

Shushan the palace

- Josephus says that Nehemiah, wealthy and favored of the king of Persia, resided in the king's palace at Shushan. R4912:6

2

Nehemiah 1:2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

Hanani

- Nehemiah's brother, who had been amongst those who went up to Jerusalem with Ezra. Having returned, Nehemiah gained information respecting the deplorable condition of affairs at Jerusalem. R3662:3, R2525:1, R4913:1

Nehemiah 1:3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

In great affliction

- God used this trouble to raise up wealthy and friendly brethren yet in Babylon to come to their relief. R2525:4 Just so with spiritual Israelites. Trials and difficulties are often the very means God employs to bring needed relief. R2525:4

Is broken down

- In spiteful retaliation by Israel's enemies for the sending back to their homes of all foreign wives under Ezra. R3662:3

Nehemiah 1:4 And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

Sat down and wept

- The news made him heartsick. He had an intensity of love for the land of promise. R3662:6 All Christians who are spiritual Israelites should have the same spirit of love and sympathy for their brethren, and look for the prosperity of spiritual Zion and her ultimate deliverance. R2525:3

Mourned certain days

- Not that the Lord needed urging on the subject, but because the subject was growing on Nehemiah's mind and heart. R1496:4

Fasted, and prayed

- For the Lord's blessing, that the promises respecting the holy city and land might be fulfilled. This prayer is a general outline of the sentiments he expressed for four months without ceasing. R3662:6, R4912:1 Self-denial, fasting and prayer should be associated. It is the fervent, earnest prayer that is effectual and that prayer is not to be entered into with a view to changing the divine will, but rather to bringing our hearts and minds and conduct into conformity to the divine will. R3664:6, R1496:1

Nehemiah 1:5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

O LORD God of heaven

- Acknowledgment of the divine greatness and the relative littleness of the petitioner. R2525:5

The great

- Reminding one of the Lord's prayer, "Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name." (Matt. 6:9) R2525:5

That keepeth covenant

- Acknowledged that the Lord's ways and dealings with Israel had been just and true, having before the mind the testimonies of God's Word. R3663:3 God's dealings were in exact fulfilment of his covenant (Lev. 26:33, etc.; Deut. 4:25, etc.; Deut. 28:64). R1496:4

For them that love him

- He expressed confidence that the Lord would keep his covenant and have mercy upon his people. R3663:3

Nehemiah 1:6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

Day and night

- He prayed after this manner for four months before he began to have an answer. R3662:6 Of course, during all this time he attended to his duties. But this prayer was always in his heart. R3662:6 "Men ought always to pray and not to faint" (Luke 18:1). The things which lie close to our hearts should become our continual prayer ... making sure they are the right things. R3662:6, R4913:1

We have sinned

- No proper prayer can be offered to the great Creator which does not in some manner acknowledge the comer's imperfections. Our boldness is not that of self-confidence. R3663:3

Against thee

- Nehemiah was very open in his confession, which is proper for all who approach the Lord; but sins and weaknesses may be reasonably screened from the eyes of others while we are doing our best to walk after the Spirit. R3663:4

Nehemiah 1:7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

We have dealt

- He confesses the justice of the Lord's chastisement and properly includes himself with the others of his nation. R1496:4, R2525:5

Nehemiah 1:9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

If ye turn unto me

- This turning to the Lord's promises for forgiveness and mercy and reconciliation is proper for all—Jew or Gentile. R3663:5 To all Israelites indeed who are in trouble for past unfaithfulness the Lord says, "Draw nigh unto me and I will draw nigh unto you." (Jas. 4:8) R2525:6

Will I gather them

- Claiming the promises of returned favor (Deut 30:4, Deut. 9:29; Isa. 11:12). R1496:4 Nehemiah's prayer has not yet been fully answered, but we do see that the Lord is ready to do this as soon as he shall have gathered the spiritual seed to heavenly conditions. R2526:1, R3663:6 The gathering of natural Israel will not include all Jews, but such as maintain their Abrahamic faith in the divine promises. R2526:1

10

Nehemiah 1:10 Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

Whom thou hast redeemed

- Israelites indeed who transgress can plead the Lord's promise to be merciful based upon the great redemption sacrifice. R3663:5

11

Nehemiah 1:11 O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.

I beseech thee

- All who would engage in divine service require not only zeal, but wisdom; and only those who seek it prayerfully can be helpful as reformers amongst their brethren. R2530:3

Thine ear be attentive

- The Lord did respond to Nehemiah's prayer by granting privileges possible at the time; but it was not God's due time for fulfilling all the gracious promises that he had made to that nation. His prayer will be much more than fulfilled in accordance with the Lord's plan in due time. R3663:5, R3664:1

The prayer of thy servant

- All true Israelites. R3664:2

Prosper, I pray thee

- He resolved that he would not only pray to the Lord, but would consecrate himself, his wealth and his favored relationship with the king to the answering of his own prayers. R2525:2 Gradually he was made earnest and strong enough to take an important part in the answering of his own prayer.

R1496:1

Sight of this man

- Artaxerxes, an absolute monarch, whose ill will might be easily aroused by imagined disloyalty, the result being Nehemiah's execution. R3664:3 Nehemiah's prayer to the Lord to grant mercy in the sight of Artaxerxes shows he had faith in the divine power. R3664:3 The Lord's people have similar privileges in prayer at the present time and should remember that, as in the case of Nehemiah, God has full power to open ways and means and to shape all our earthly affairs for us. R3664:3

The king's cupbearer

- Minister of State, confidential advisor. R3662:3, R1495:6, R2524:6 In presenting wine to the king it was the custom for this officer to pour out a sample for himself. From this probably originated the title, Cup-bearer. R2524:6 That it was not impossible for Hebrews to occupy confidential and high positions in the Persian empire is shown by such other cases as Daniel, Esther and Mordecai. R2525:1 The Lord chooses as noble, great and learned as he can find who have the right condition of heart. R3676:5

Nehemiah 2:1 And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

The month Nisan

- A delay of four months (Neh. 1:1) waiting for a favorable opportunity to approach the king. R2525:2 The four-month delay was doubtless used by the Lord to prepare the king to cooperate with Nehemiah's request; and so, while we pray, the Lord not only prepares us but also the circumstances and conditions to bring us the opportunities in the best form. R3664:6

In the twentieth year

- 454 BC, troublous times. R3574:6*, R3578:2* The beginning of the 70 weeks of Daniel (Dan. 9:24-27); dated by Rollins as 454 BC. R3575:4* A parallel date to 1391 AD when Huss carried Wycliffe's teachings into effect. R3578:5*

Artaxerxes

- An arbitrary, self-willed, passionate king who, a few years before, had issued an edict against Jerusalem and put a stop to the building of its walls (Ezra 4:8-24). R2526:2*

2

Nehemiah 2:2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

Very sore afraid

- And with good reason, because his life was in danger. Monarchs demand smiling countenances on all occasions. R2526:2*

5

Nehemiah 2:5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

Thou wouldest send

- Prayers not accompanied by earnest efforts brand themselves as insincere. R4913:1

Nehemiah 2:8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

Wall of the city

- "From the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto Messiah shall be 69 weeks" (Dan. 9:25). Sixty-nine symbolic weeks would be 483 symbolic days, or 483 literal years. B67

And the king

- In the year 454 BC, according to Dr. Hale and also according to Dr. Priestlie. B67 1845 years (the length of the Jewish "double") prior to 1391 AD when Huss, the reformer, became acquainted with the works of Wycliffe and continued the Reformation. R3575:6*

Nehemiah 2:9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

King had sent captains

- Nehemiah did not permit any spirit of bravado to hinder his acceptance of the escort. Similarly, spiritual Israelites are in no case to refuse reasonable safeguards, when under the Lord's providence they are furnished. R2526:3

Horsemen with me

- It was perfectly proper for Nehemiah to make use of this protection, just as today a Christian, while fully trusting in God, may properly carry fire insurance. R3674:3

11

Nehemiah 2:11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

So I came

- The preparations for the journey occupied nearly a month, the journey itself about three months, bringing Nehemiah to Jerusalem about July. R2526:2

Three days

- Nehemiah was a man of action. He had come to Jerusalem for a purpose and wasted no time. R3675:2

12

Nehemiah 2:12 And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

Some few men

- Some of his trusted servants. R3675:2

Neither told I any man

- Had he told of his plan, enemies would have taken steps to interfere. R3674:6 Many of the Lord's people need to learn this lesson of secretiveness: to be wise as serpents while harmless as doves, swift to hear and slow to speak. R3675:1 An evil mind can put an evil construction upon the noblest words and deeds. R3675:1

13

Nehemiah 2:13 And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

Went out by night

- He wasted no time, but made a thorough inspection of the walls and then promulgated his plan for speedy work. R3675:2 Inspection properly precedes intelligent and profitable reformation of any kind; no less the walls of spiritual Zion. We should first take a full survey of our weaknesses and deficiencies in order to build up ourselves. R2526:5

17

Nehemiah 2:17 Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

Then said I unto them

- He did not begin his work by chiding or boasting. R2526:5 Coworkers with God should work guided by the spirit of love which is not unkind, slighting or boastful. R2526:6

See the distress

- Distress is from the Hebrew word "ra" also rendered "evil" and "calamity." R1351:2* Calamities or evils sent as chastisements. A125

Build up the wall

- For the security of the people, to arouse their national spirit, to revive their hopes in the promised kingdom of God, to afford a practical demonstration of God's favor, thus leading to trust in other promises. R3676:2 Illustrating both the walls of spiritual Zion, the Church of the living God, and the walls of our characters. R2526:5

18

Nehemiah 2:18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work .

The hand of my God

- The proper course is to begin work afresh with confidence, not in ourselves, but in him who called us. R2526:6

Let us rise up and build

- The entire wall was reared in 52 days. R3675:2 Their hearts were in the work. R3675:2

20

Nehemiah 2:20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

We his servants

- They were all to be associates and partners in whatever blessing and honor might accrue from this service. R2527:1

Arise and build

- Nehemiah not only prayed and labored, but he planned that each should undertake the building of the wall nearest his own residence. We, too, should begin our reform work of character building at home —within ourselves. R3675:2, R2527:1

1

Nehemiah 3:1 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananeel.

With his brethren

- Each person of prominence and capability should have a certain share in the work and responsibility. R2527:1

28

Nehemiah 3:28 From above the horse gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.

Against his house

- So he would not only get credit for rapid and good workmanship, but because he would be anxious that the wall would be strong in the vicinity of his own house. R2527:1 So the Lord gave "to every man his work" (Mark 13:34) represented by his talents. R2627:1 A practical illustration of such distribution of labor is the varied work of colporteurs, pilgrims, tract distribution in the general co-laboring with the Lord. R3675:3

Nehemiah 4:1 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

When

- The Christian finds the gates and fortresses of his nature weak and broken down. The moment he starts to repair and build he finds enemies within and without to hinder. R1498:5

Sanballat

- The Christian's opposition today is chiefly from the Sanballat followers of nominal Christianity—the "mixed peoples" who have a form of godliness without its power. R3675:4

Was wroth

- For four reasons: (1) the exclusiveness of the Jews; (2) racial and religious differences; (3) Israelites, under divine favor, prospered beyond themselves; and (4) the wall would interfere with their plundering of the Jews. R2527:2

Mocked the Jews

- Opposition first took the form of sarcasm and ridicule. Those who today are building upon the wall of Zion must be prepared for similar sarcasm. R3675:4

Nehemiah 4:2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

Revive the stones

- Precious truths. R2527:4 Gold, silver and precious stones for the erection of Zion. R2527:3

Heaps of the rubbish

- Sectarianism. R2527:4 Human tradition. R2527:3

3

Nehemiah 4:3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

If a fox go up

- Sarcasm is one of the most successful of our Adversary's weapons. R2527:4 Ridicule, saying that the wall was not scientifically done and would not stand the test of "Higher Criticism." R3675:4

Nehemiah 4:6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

So built we the wall

- It would be well for all the Lord's people charged with the building of the wall of righteousness to encourage and stimulate one another in the work all have at heart. R3675:2 The harvest work is the rebuilding of the walls of Zion, the replacing of the doctrines of righteousness and truth overthrown by the Adversary during the Dark Ages. R3675:4

Had a mind to work

- The people entered into the matter spiritedly. So, in this harvest of the Gospel age, there is an abundance of labor for all who have a mind to work. R3675:2

Nehemiah 4:7 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

Sanballat

- Governor of the Samaritans, a people of mixed Jewish and heathen blood. R3675:3

Tobiah

- Governor of the Ammonites, across Jordan. R3675:3

Arabians and the Ammonites

- Illustrating how the lust of the flesh and the eye and the pride of life conspire against the New Creature once he begins building the wall of righteousness in his life. R2527:3

Ashdodites

- Ashdod was a Philistine city in the South. R3675:3

Were made up

- It is only from the time that it begins to build that Zion is opposed by the forces of Babylon. R2527:3

They were very wroth

- Being opposed because the fortification meant an increase of Jewish power and because the success of the Jews in Jerusalem meant the triumph of the God of the Jews. R3675:3 They feared that scattered Jews would become amalgamated with those in Jerusalem if the capital were again a stronghold. R3675:4 As these enemies were wroth, so those who are engaged in the harvest work find opposition, not only from the world, the flesh and the devil, but also from the followers of nominal Christianity. R3675:4

Nehemiah 4:8 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

Conspired

- Conspiracies of the great deceiver and his hosts are not because injury has been done to them, but because the progress of the truth is of itself a rebuke to all who are not of the truth. R2527:3 Opposing influences are ready to combine to hinder the re-establishment of the truths and principles which properly separate the Lord's consecrated people from all others. R3675:4

To fight against

- The city would be rebuilt under unfavorable circumstances, in troublous times (Dan. 9:25). B65 When sarcasm availed nothing, they secretly took counsel to make an attack. R3675:5

To hinder it

- So it is with individuals who resolve to build themselves up. They immediately find themselves beset with enemies bent on hindering their work. R2527:2

Nehemiah 4:9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

Prayer... watch

- Each of us must do as this band did—put on the armor and watch and pray and build. R1498:5, R2527:6

10

Nehemiah 4:10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

Judah

- Apparently the less zealous of the Israelites residing in favorable localities nearer the Samaritans. R2527:3

Much rubbish

- Illustrating the present rubbish pile of human tradition and falsity. R2527:3

Not able to build

- Fighting without and foes within tended to hinder and discourage the workers. R3676:1 How many spiritual Israelites who began with great courage and zeal have become disheartened by suggestions respecting the difficulties and impossibilities of the work they are undertaking. R3676:2, R2527:4

14

Nehemiah 4:14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

Fight for your brethren

- "We ought also to lay down our lives for the brethren." (1 John 3:16) R2528:1

15

Nehemiah 4:15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

When our enemies

- The preparation for the conflict itself hindered it; so those of the Lord's people who most carefully prepare themselves with the armor of God are much less frequently attacked than are those who neglect it. R2528:1

16

Nehemiah 4:16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

Half of my servants

- The special guard, divided into two parts, relieved each other at labor and at military service. R3675:5

17

Nehemiah 4:17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

Held a weapon

- The hod-carriers were armed. Those who did the mason work had swords at their sides. Similarly, all who labor in the harvest work need to be armed; not, however, with carnal weapons. "The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds." (2 Cor. 10:4) R3675:5

18

Nehemiah 4:18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

For the builders

- Typifying the reformers of the great Reformation. R1484:4

Had his sword

- Typifying the Word of God. R1484:4 All those laboring today upon the walls of Zion need to be equipped with the helmet of salvation, the breastplate of righteousness, the sandals of patient endurance, the shield of faith and the sword of the spirit. R3675:5 So must Christians maintain their armor and keep watch against the Adversary while building themselves up in the most holy faith. R2528:4

20

Nehemiah 4:20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.

Sound of the trumpet

- The sound of the trumpet was used to summon the workers. The same is true today. The seventh trumpet sounding is gathering together his saints unto him. R3676:5

21

Nehemiah 4:21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

So we laboured

- The work progressed under serious difficulties which demonstrated that zeal and love were behind the movement. R3675:5 So must the Christian maintain his defensive armor while seeking to build up himself and others. R2528:4

Nehemiah 5

1

Nehemiah 5:1 And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.

A great cry

- The poor Jews had been giving all their time to the repairing of the walls and had thus cut off their income from other sources, and they went into debt. R4921:2 Some of those who labored on the wall were made to suffer for their faithfulness by wealthy Jews who took advantage of their destitution. R3676:2

Nehemiah 5:3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

We have mortgaged

- Their richer brethren had made hard contracts with them, taking away their possessions when they were unable to pay because engaged in the Lord's service. R3676:4

Nehemiah 5:6 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

I was very angry

- Nehemiah was righteously indignant with this condition. R3676:4

7

Nehemiah 5:7 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

I rebuked the nobles

- Shaking out the flowing folds of his outer garment he declared that thus the Lord would shake out any who had such a selfish spirit. R3676:4 Amongst the Lord's people we find not only a general tendency to avoid asking the poor brethren to contribute, but a willingness to assist the needy ones. R3676:4

11

Nehemiah 5:11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

Restore, I pray you

- The Law required brotherly obligations "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." (Lev. 19:18) R4921:3

13

Nehemiah 5:13 Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

Said, Amen

- In contrast with Ezra, Nehemiah kindly and moderately remonstrated against the wrong course and was successful in correcting it without antagonizing the wrongdoers. R2531:1

17

Nehemiah 5:17 Moreover there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

At my table

- It may be inferred from these verses that Nehemiah inherited great wealth. R2525:1

19

Nehemiah 5:19 Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

For this people

- Examples of justice are powerful in opposition to wrong. Christians should not only take the proper stand, but let it be known to others as reproofs of unrighteousness. R4921:3 Pray, pleading our righteousness. R5381:2*

Nehemiah 6:2 That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief.

Let us meet together

- Finding that the Jews could not be taken unawares, their enemies invited Nehemiah away to a conference relative to his authority. R3675:6, R4921:3 Doubtless our opponents now would like to divert our attention from the work we have to do. R3675:6, R4921:3

In the plain of Ono

- Twenty miles from Jerusalem on neutral ground. R4921:6

Nehemiah 6:3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

I cannot come down

- Nehemiah refused four times to confer with them, sending them word that his work was great and urgent. R3675:6 Similarly we have the Lord's work to do and no time to discuss social reform, etc. R3675:6 We should always have time to discuss God's Word and his love with the brethren and to give the reason for the hope that is in us, but we have no time for discussing outside questions. R4921:5

Nehemiah 6:7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

Prophets to preach

- To publicly expound the Law of the Lord. A55

Let us take counsel

- Nehemiah perceived that during his absence they might overpower the garrison of Israel and destroy the work accomplished or do him violence at the conference. R4921:6

8

Nehemiah 6:8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

Thou feignest them

- A false rumor to alarm the Jews to thus discourage the completion of their work. How cruel are the multitudinous methods of slander. R4922:1

12

Nehemiah 6:12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

God had not sent him

- The next step of the Adversary was to threaten Nehemiah, but he could not be frightened. May it be so with us. May our confidence in the Lord be such that the fear of man will not be a snare to us. R3675:6

By genealogy

- He reorganized the people socially according to the heads of their families, especially the priests and Levites. R2531:1

Nehemiah 7

65

Nehemiah 7:65 And the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

The Tirshatha

- Nehemiah was the Tirshatha (Persian for provincial governor). R2531:1

70

Nehemiah 7:70 And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.

Gave unto the work

- Total about $400,000—one-third contributed by those who remained in Babylonia; one-third by the few wealthy of the returned Israelites; one-third by the mass of the people—about $3 each. R2511.2

The Tirshatha gave

- Nehemiah himself setting an example of liberality with his large gifts. R2531:2

73

Nehemiah 7:73 So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

All Israel

- The breach between the two tribes and the ten tribes was already healed. R2084:6

Nehemiah 8

1

Nehemiah 8:1 And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

Into the street

- The Plaza. R2531:2

2

Nehemiah 8:2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month.

First day

- The "Feast of Trumpets" on the first day was a time for general gathering, the beginning of their civil year, announced by trumpet blowing. R2531:2 Nehemiah not only chose a pleasant season, but an accustomed occasion, for gathering the people. R2531:1 Arrangements are already made for the antitypical "Feast of Trumpets" and the beginning of a new civil year, or Millennial era for mankind. R2531:4

Nehemiah 8:3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

He read therein

- The public reading of the Scriptures was the only means of keeping them before the people. R1145:4

Morning

- Daybreak. The service began early in the morning. R2531:3

The people were attentive

- Gave close attention, to hear and to understand every word. R2531:3 It was not only necessary that they should desire to know and they should be in the attitude of heart to implore divine blessing and assistance, but it was also necessary that they should be attentive. R2531:3

Nehemiah 8:4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

Ezra the scribe

- In recognizing Ezra to be more suitable than himself for this work, Nehemiah manifested his humility. R3676:6 While God has all power, he nevertheless uses human instrumentalities. R2532:1

Stood upon a pulpit

- Raised above the people, on a higher plane of being, will be Christ, the great Priest, and his associates, spiritual Israel, to declare the law of righteousness. R2531:4 On the plaza of the Temple. R3676:6

Beside him stood

- On Ezra's right were seven prominent men and on his left six more, and the reading of the Law was done by course, probably by all fourteen. R3676:6

Mattithiah, and Shema and

- Chiefs of the people, representing the various tribes. R2531:2

5

Nehemiah 8:5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up:

Ezra opened the book

- Ezra's chief place of importance was the ceremony of reading the Law and introducing it to the attention of the people. R3676:6

Stood up

- Out of respect, while the Law was being read; then sat on the ground while it was being discussed. R4922:3, R3678:6, R2531:4

6

Nehemiah 8:6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

Ezra blessed the LORD

- Apparently the convention was opened with prayer. No one can be taught and blessed by the Lord's Word unless he be in the attitude of heart which appreciates the greatness of God and the unworthiness of self. R2531:2

Nehemiah 8:7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

Jeshua

- Shortened form of Jehoshua or Joshua. Jehoshua signifies "Jehovah's salvation." R5335:3

The Levites

- Is it not time to strive as Levites and spiritual Israelites to turn afresh to the Bible and instruct the people respecting its teachings? R4923:4

To understand

- Having been scattered so long, they needed these teachers for two reasons: (1) to explain the classical

Hebrew which they probably didn't understand, and (2) to give a particular explanation of the sentiment or meaning. R3677:1 Teachers expounded the Law, explaining the meaning of words, how the Law applied to daily life, and what it signified. R2531:3

Nehemiah 8:8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

So they read

- God chose human instrumentalities to make his will known to the people. R2532:1 Evidently this was the first presentation of the Law since their return from captivity. Ezra had given his attention to the rearranging of the Law and the instruction of the priests and Levites, but had not as yet caused it to be promulgated amongst the people. R3677:3 As the returned Israelites were blessed by the reading and understanding of Moses' Law, much more those returning to the Lord, out of bondage to "Babylon the Great," are being blessed by an appreciation of the divine law, love, granted to the house of sons. R1498:3 It will not do to attempt to tell the Lord's plan but ignore the Lord's Word. R3677:3

Book In the law

- Nehemiah's method was to make general a knowledge of the divine Law, appealing to the awakened consciences of the people to act for themselves heartily, unto the Lord. R2531:1

Distinctly

- Typifying the time when the declaration of the Gospel message will come to the people and they will get the "sense" and "understanding" of it. R2531:5 In the Millennium it will no longer be a din, a Babylon of confused noises. R2531:5

Gave the sense

- The real essence of preaching, "Preach the word." (2 Tim. 4:2) R3677:1

Caused them to understand

- It was not sufficient that the priests and the Levites be learned in the Law, but that the people themselves should be made to understand the divine message. The same is true today. R3677:3, R4923:1

Nehemiah 8:9 And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

And Nehemiah

- The man of opportunity. R3676:6 Representing the Lord Jesus at his second advent. Our great and wise governor is instructing the Royal Priesthood and thus preparing for the great work of the future. R2531:5

The Tirshatha

- Provincial Governor. R2531:2

And Ezra

- Nehemiah recognized Ezra as more suitable than himself to take a prominent part in educating the people, thus manifesting his humility. R3676:6

Levites that taught

- The unconsecrated cannot be recognized as religious teachers in any sense. R2531:4

This day is holy

- In the Lord's providence the work was accomplished in time to celebrate the civil new year, which symbolized to them a fresh start in the ways of the Lord. R3676:3, R3677:5

Mourn not, nor weep

- With repentance and the forgiveness of sins, the time for mourning is past. R3677.3 Because the great sacrifice for sins has already been offered. In consequence, the Millennial day is not a day of mourning, but of rejoicing. R2531:5 For through Christ there is a full propitiation, not only for the sins that are past, but also for the inherited weaknesses of the present and future. R2531:6

All the people wept

- When the Law was read and expounded they saw that they had been under chastisement because they had neglected divine institutions. R3677:3, R4922:6 The first hearing of the divine law brings remorse and tears as we realize our shortcomings. R2531:6

10

Nehemiah 8:10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

And drink the sweet

- The exceeding great and precious promises given to us, and to drink of the sweets of his favor, and to send portions of this blessing to others who have not yet seen and heard and tasted of the riches of divine grace. R2532:1

And send portions

- Representing the sending forth of the knowledge of the Lord to fill the whole earth. R2531:5

For this day

- Typifying the Millennial day. R2531:5

Joy of the LORD

- The joy of realizing that the Lord is our fortress, that no ill can betide us without his knowledge, that all things work together for good. R3677:5

Is your strength

- So that all the trials and difficulties of the way would seem as nothing. R3677:5

11

Nehemiah 8:11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

Stilled all the people

- The message that the leaders set forth was repeated to the people by the Levites and the tears were dry. R3677:5

12

Nehemiah 8:12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

Make great mirth

- They rejoiced in the opening of a new year, which symbolized to them a fresh start in the way of the Lord and in his favor. R3677:5

13

Nehemiah 8:13 And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law.

The chief of the fathers

- The reading of the Law on the second day was to heads of families, emphasizing their responsibilities amongst the Lord's people. R3677:5

14

Nehemiah 8:14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month:

They found written

- During this reading they discovered that the "Feast of Tabernacles" feature of the Law had been overlooked. R3677:6

Dwell In booths

- For a week, to remind them how once they had been a people without a home from Egypt to Canaan; a special festival of thanksgiving. R3677:6
- Our present sojourn is toward the kingdom and everything of the present should be considered as a temporal or tabernacle condition. R3678:1

15

Nehemiah 8:15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

Olive branches

- Symbols of peace. D651

17

Nehemiah 8:17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness.

Sat under the booths

- The Jews rejoiced and had a feast of good fellowship. The whole people for a time were on a common level studying the Word. R3678:1 This corresponds well with our conventions, in temporal tabernacles away from our usual home. R3678:2

Jeshua

- Shortened form of Jehoshua or Joshua. Jehoshua signifies "Jehovah's salvation." R5335:3

18

Nehemiah 8:18 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

Read in the book

- It was a time for Bible study. R3678:1

Feast seven days

- Our conventions are after this Feast of Tabernacles pattern, only on a higher spiritual plane. We exhort all to have in mind the spending of one week in each year separate and apart from ordinary business and work. R3677:6

Nehemiah 9

Nehemiah 9:2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

Seed of Israel

- There was then no division in Israel (between the ten tribes and the two). R2124:5

Separated themselves

- Israel was thus separated because God's covenant was with them and not with others. R4963:6

Nehemiah 9:9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea;

In Egypt

- Type of the kingdom of darkness. F458

By the Red sea

- Representing Second Death. F459

10

Nehemiah 9:10 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

Upon Pharoah

- Representing Satan. F458

13

Nehemiah 9:13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

And gavest them

- The Ten Commandments were given only to Israel after the flesh. R971:5, R1726:5

14

Nehemiah 9:14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

The holy sabbath

- Type of the Millennial age. B40

16

Nehemiah 9:16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

Hardened their necks

- A figure drawn from the stiffness of neck of an unruly yoke of bullocks. R3464:1

17

Nehemiah 9:17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

A God

- A God who appeals to our hearts. How much Christians and the world have lost through misconceptions of God's character. R5299:4

Ready to pardon

- To such as renounce sin and desire to return to the Lord, God proffers mercy, forgiveness, through the merit of Christ's sacrifice. R4811:6 God has not yet forgiven the world's sins. He has only made proper provision for their cancellation, in due time, through the death of his Son. R5299:5

Of great kindness

- Abundant in loving-kindness; not intent upon torturing his creatures. R5299:4

20

Nehemiah 9:20 Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

Thy manna

- It represented the living bread supplied to the world by God through Christ. T122

23

Nehemiah 9:23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it .

Thou hadst promised

- Pray, trusting God's faithfulness. R5380:4*

27

Nehemiah 9:27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

When they cried

- Such a cry to the Lord implies that the sins and weaknesses of the flesh are contrary to the transgressor's will. R5646:3

Thou heardest them

- When the spiritual Israelite cries for deliverance from his own weaknesses, his prayer is heard and deliverance provided with the assurance that the Lord's grace is sufficient. R5646:3

Gavest them saviours

- With spiritual Israel, God also raises up, from time to time, special counselors, deliverers, ministers. R5645:3

28

Nehemiah 9:28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;

They did evil again

- The book of Judges gives a discouraging picture; but was in many respects a favorable time. R5645:6

29

Nehemiah 9:29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

Again unto thy law

- The Lord's corrections in righteousness are evidences of special protection, care and relationship. R5646:2

Nehemiah 11

Nehemiah 11:1 And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

One of ten

- Regardless of the original tribe to which they belonged. B206

20

Nehemiah 11:20 And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

Residue of Israel

- Of all the tribes who had respect to the promises. B206 No more a divided nation; but as at first, one people, known by the original name, Israel. B206

Nehemiah 12

47

Nehemiah 12:47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites; and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

All Israel

- The twelve tribes, not just Judah. R2084:6

Nehemiah 13:2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

But hired Balaam

- Illustrating those forsaking righteousness for earthly gain. F166

4

Nehemiah 13:4 And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:

Eliashib

- The High Priest. R2534:1

Allied unto Tobiah

- An Ammonite; became related to the High Priest by marriage. R2534:1

Nehemiah 13:6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king:

Came I unto the king

- Nehemiah remained with his people for 12 years, when he was recalled to the palace by Artaxerxes. R2534:1

Obtained I leave

- He returned to Jerusalem by the king's permission, probably five years afterward. R2534:1

7

Nehemiah 13:7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

The evil

- In Nehemiah's absence the Israelites had prospered in temporal matters, but suffered morally and religiously through desire to be on friendly terms with the Gentiles. R2534:1 See comments on Nehemiah 13:16.

Nehemiah 13:9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

Cleansed the chambers

- Nehemiah at once ordered the cleansing of the Temple with the restoration of its service. R2534:3

15

Nehemiah 13:15 In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

On the sabbath

- The conciliation of foreigners and relaxing of interest in the Lord and his commandments resulted in the disregarding of sabbath observance. R2534:2 The spiritual Israelite, although not under the Law, has his sabbath day—a grander and more perfect rest—resting in faith in Christ. R2534:4 The antitype is not a rest of one day out of seven, but a continual rest every day. The fact that it was the seventh day is further typical that the fulness of the antitype will not be realized until 6000 years of evil end and the seventh or Millennial day begins. R1499:4 "Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest (sabbath,) lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief (of fleshly Israel)." (Heb. 4:11) R2534:5 Although not a substitute for the Jewish sabbath, Sunday is a great blessing to the spiritual Israelite, giving opportunity to glorify the Lord, bless the brethren and do good unto all men. R2535:1 The general observance of the first day of the week gives spiritual Israel opportunities to assemble for the study of the Word, for praise, for prayer, for spiritual fellowship—building one another up. R2535:2 Sunday should be carefully observed by Truth people as a God-given privilege: lest it fall into disuse or disrespect: lest it lead others to a violation of a less enlightened conscience: and to maintain a proper religious influence with neighbors. R2535:4

16

Nehemiah 13:16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

Dwelt men of Tyre

- As heathen people surrounding Israel exercised a continual pressure upon them, so worldly influences surrounding spiritual Israelites continually press them with the spirit of worldliness which must be repelled. Let us be on guard against the influences of the world, the flesh and the devil. R2534:2

17

Nehemiah 13:17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

Contended with the nobles

- Remonstrated against such a violation of the divine command, the fourth in Israel's Decalogue. R2534:3

18

Nehemiah 13:18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

Did not your fathers

- He reminded them that sabbath desecration had much to do with their Babylonish captivity. R2534:3

Profaning the sabbath

- Doubtless had Israel properly observed their sabbath days they would also have properly observed their sabbath years and jubilees. R2534:3

19

Nehemiah 13:19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

Gates should be shut

- We must all commend Nehemiah's devotion to the divine Law. R2534:4

20

Nehemiah 13:20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

Lodged without Jerusalem

- Foreign tradesmen were disappointed and obliged to camp outside the city. R2534:4

Once or twice

- In expectation that the reformation would be short-lived, they came in like manner the next sabbath. R2534:4

21

Nehemiah 13:21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

Testified against them

- Nehemiah warned them that to come again for sabbath trade would subject them to arrest as disturbers of the Law and peace of the city. R2534:4

22

Nehemiah 13:22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

Remember me, O my God

- Nehemiah asks the Lord's blessing upon himself in view of the work which he has done in the name of the Lord. R2535:4

Spare me

- He was fighting valiantly for God's cause, making many enemies; hence it was very proper that he should think of the Lord's faithfulness toward all faithful to him. R2535:5

23

Nehemiah 13:23 In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

Married wives of

- A lesson for spiritual Israel who are commanded to be separate from the world, to seek fellowship with their own people, and not be unequally yoked in marriage, or even business partnership. R2534:2

28

Nehemiah 13:28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me.

One of the sons of Jolada

- The High Priest's grandson, Manasseh, married the daughter of Sanballat, once a prominent enemy of the Jews. R2534:1

31

Nehemiah 13:31 And for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

Remember me, O my God

- See comments under Nehemiah 13:22.

For good

- To be amongst the Worthies of the past, mentioned in Hebrews 11—those who wrought righteousness and were valiant on the side of God and his Law. R2535:5, R2526:4

Esther

General

- While the more faithful of the Jews had gone back to Palestine to repair its wastes and were rebuilding the Temple, the Lord was not negligent of the remainder of the people who had not been sufficiently zealous to return to "the land of promise" under the decree of Cyrus granting them the privilege. Hundreds of thousands of Jews resided in all parts of the Persian empire, which then included Babylonia and Persia and nearly all Asia, including India. While special lessons and peculiar trials were given to those rebuilding the Temple, the Lord's favor was upon the remainder of the chosen people to the extent that he permitted to come upon them a great trial, severe testing, which undoubtedly taught them a valuable lesson in their far-off homes. A record of this great testing is furnished us in the book of Esther. R3656:3, R1502:1

Esther 1:1 Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

Days of Ahasuerus

- Xerxes, king of Persia. This occurred about 40 years after the completion of the Temple. R3656:3; PD52/62 The Xerxes of secular history. R3656:3, R3659:1 Possibly typifying Christ. The name means "King.". R4018:5*

9

Esther 1:9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

Vashiti

- She was neither a Christian nor a Jewess, therefore without divine instruction or guidance. R4900:5

10

Esther 1:10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king,

Merry with wine

- This was probably Vashti's reason for ignoring the king's request. R4900:3

12

Esther 1:12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

Queen Vashti

- She was unwise when she met command with refusal. R4900:3

Refused

- She should have relied upon her charm, tact, purity and her husband's love and care to rebuke any immodesty. R4900:3

17

Esther 1:17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

Despise their husbands

- In the opposite course of the two queens we find a lesson bearing on the suffragette question of today. R4900:3

5

Esther 2:5 Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;

Mordecai

- Possibly typifying the Ancient Worthies. The word means "Dedicated to Mars." Mars is comparatively close to the earth. There is a suggestion in this that the Ancient Worthies may, after the close of the Millennial age, attain heavenly honors and stations. R4018:5*

Esther 2:7 And he brought up Hadassah, that is , Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

Esther

- Possibly typifying the Bride of Christ. The word means "The planet Venus." Venus is the most glorious of all the planets. R4900:2, R4018:5*

16

Esther 2:16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

Esther was taken

- Accepting her accession as of divine providence. R4900:6

17

Esther 2:17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

She obtained grace

- Noted for her beauty, she clothed herself with humility and with the most becoming of her fine apparel, making herself as agreeable as possible to the king. At this time she was 15. R4900:2,6

1

Esther 3:1 After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

Haman . . . the Agagite

- The last Amalekite mentioned in the Scriptures; possibly typifying the class that may try to take the power out of the hands of the Ancient Worthies in the end of the Millennial age. R4018:5*

6

Esther 3:6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

All the Jews

- Hundreds of thousands, in all parts of the Persian empire, including Asia and India. R3656:3

8

Esther 3:8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

All the provinces

- The Jews were scattered all over the Persian provinces and were living in a measure of temporal prosperity. R1502:1

Esther 3:9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

10,000 talents

- Their destruction and the confiscation of their property would be a large acquisition to the king's treasury, since so much was willingly appropriated. R1502:1

10

Esther 3:10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.

Ring

- The emblem of authority, investing Haman with all the power and authority of the king. R360:4*

1

Esther 4:1 When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

Sackcloth with ashes

- Such an experience would do more to draw the hearts of the Jews to the Lord than would anything else that could have occurred. R3657:1

11

Esther 4:11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

Unto the king

- Xerxes was a notoriously cruel, bloodthirsty monarch. R3657:3

These thirty days

- Queen Esther delayed using her influence to help rescind the order against the Jews because the king had shown a coldness toward her. R4900:6

14

Esther 4:14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

Holdest. thy peace

- Mordecai assured her that she was about to lose a great privilege of service for her people. R4901:1

Deliverance

- This marked providential care is specially noteworthy, for these were the descendants of those Jews who failed to go to restore Jerusalem under Cyrus' permission. R1502:4, R3656:3

For such a time

- Similarly, at the proper time, a Jew was premier of England. R351:2,4* Whatever we have of influence is so much of a stewardship granted to us by the Lord, for which we must give account to him. R3657:2

16

Esther 4:16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

Fast ye for me

- Including petitions to God for the deliverance of his people and for wisdom to guide Esther in her endeavor. R4901:1

Eat nor drink

- Not complete abstention, but short allowance and avoiding luxuries. R3657:4

Night or day

- With Esther 5:1, a proof that the term "three days and nights" is idiomatic for "till the third day." R3574:5*

And my maidens

- Not all the Jews who had faith in the Lord had returned to Palestine. R3657:4

If I perish, I perish

- We must be faithful even at the risk of losing our lives in the interests of the Lord's people and cause. R3657:2

Esther 5

Esther 5:1 Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel , and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

That Esther

- Her plans were well thought out, although she was only about 15 at the time. R3657:5 By appearing as attractive as possible she sought to cooperate with her prayers. Some of the Lord's people trust the Lord, but do nothing to forward the cause they wish to serve. R3657:4

Her royal apparel

- To make as good an impression as possible. R3657:4

And stood

- She thus risked her station, her life and everything for her race. R4901:1

2

Esther 5:2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

Obtained favor

- She charmed the king. R4901:1

Esther 5:3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

What is thy request?

- Wisely she refrained making it at that time. R4901:4

Half of the kingdom

- Probably a mere formality indicating great interest. R3657:5

8

Esther 5:8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

Will do to morrow

- Esther's course is a good example of propriety. We should both watch and pray, labor and wait, be wise as serpents and harmless as doves. Meantime the Lord worked upon the king from another standpoint. R3657:5

Esther 6

2

Esther 6:2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

Was found written

- The king was guided in this matter by the Lord's providence. R3657:6

Esther 7

10

Esther 7:10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

Gallows that he had prepared

- "The wise are taken in their own craftiness." (Job 5:13; 1 Cor. 3:19) HG363:6

Esther 8

1

Esther 8:1 On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.

What he was

- Esther was cousin to Mordecai. She was also his adopted daughter (Esther 2:7). R4900:6

2

Esther 8:2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

Ring

- The emblem of authority, delegated to one by him who owned it. R360:4*

Mordecai

- Now the king's chief counsellor or, as we would say today, "Secretary of State." R3658:2

8

Esther 8:8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.

Also for the Jews

- Since he could not rescind the first decree, he issued another which would in some measure at least, offset it. R3658:2, R4901:4

16

Esther 8:16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

Joy, and honor

- Such shall be the Church's joy in the morning of her great deliverance. R303:4*

Esther 9

5

Esther 9:5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

All their enemies

- But spiritual Israelites are instructed to love their enemies and to do good to those who hate, despitefully use and persecute them (Matt. 5:44). R3658:3 The heart of this lesson is respecting divine providence. When we note the providential care over God's typical people it increases our faith and trust that God is both able and willing to do as much and more for spiritual Israel. R3658:4,5

28

Esther 9:28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

Memorial

- The Hebrew word means "scent," a pleasant remembrance. R2125:3

Job

General

- The book of Job is credited with being the finest piece of literature in the Hebrew language. It is a poem: and all scholars admit that no translation yet given does it justice. Whoever was used of God as the penman, his name is not given. Some have assumed that the book of Job is merely a parable, and that Job himself is merely an imaginary character. In Ezekiel 14:14 and James 5:11, Job is classed with other holy men, which would not be the case were this narrative merely a parable. The fact that Job lived a hundred and forty years after his adversities, or probably over two hundred years in all, together with the fact that neither he nor his friends make any allusion to Israel or Moses or the Law, nor to Abraham and God's Covenant made with him, seem to indicate beyond doubt that he belonged to the Patriarchal age. Possibly he lived about the same time as Abraham and Melchisedek. His home was evidently in Arabia, probably not far from Palestine. R1505:2, R5401:3; PD26/37
- God made him a great type of the human family, of the troubles of their fallen condition and of their final restoration to all that was lost in Adam, with the blessings of added experiences to make them wise. R194:2, R413:1, R584:2, R5803:4
- What patriarchs like Job did in the matter of sacrifices was evidently a token on their part of appreciation of God and of the fact that a sacrifice for sins was necessary ... but none of these sacrifices was accepted in the same sense that the sacrifices were accepted under the Law. R4667:1; Q553:1
- God would teach us that we are not to attribute our calamities to him ... that they are merely permitted to come upon us for our testing and ultimately for the good of all whose faithfulness and integrity toward him are proved thereby. The lesson furnished shows that, in the case of God's people at least, Satan's power is limited. He cannot destroy them at his will; he cannot touch them with adversity except as their God permits. R1779:5

Job 1:1 There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

There was a man

- There is no cause to doubt that such a man did live and pass through the experiences related. R1505:3 The exact time in which Job lived we do not know, but we think we are justified in supposing that he did not live during the Law dispensation. Q552:6 Possibly a contemporary of Abraham and Melchizedek. PD26/37, R1505:6, R5401:6

Land of Uz

- Evidently in Arabia, possibly not far from Palestine. R1505:6, R5401:6

Whose name was Job

- Classed with other holy men in Ezekiel 14:14 and James 5:11, which would not be the case if this narrative were merely a parable. R1505:3; Q793:2 His experiences are typical of the fall and rise again of humanity. PD26/37; R584:1, R5403:6, R5803:4; Q793:2

Was perfect

- So was man at first in the divine likeness and favor, with all things subject to him (Psa. 8:4-8). R5403:6 He walked before God with a perfect heart. R4667:1

Upright

- Appreciated justice. R5401:6

Feared God

- Reverenced God. R5401:6

Great household

- Numerous servants. R5401:6

This man

- A merchant prince of great wealth who carried on a very prosperous traffic. R5401:6

Sons of God

- Angels. R315:3, R1005:1, R2843:5

And Satan

- Whose very existence is now denied by many. F609 Unlike the flesh or the world, Satan is the only wilful, intelligent plotter in opposing righteousness and truth in humanity. F612

Job 1:7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

Said unto Satan

- Job knew nothing about this, else he would have known that Satan was afflicting him. R452:1*

Satan answered

- This account of Satan's conversation with God concerning Job should be considered as allegorical—like "Pilgrim's Progress." R5401:3, R1507:4, R1779:5

10

Job 1:10 Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

- "The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him." (Psa. 34:7) R4227:6

11

Job 1:11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

Put forth thine hand

- Permitted for the purpose of displaying to the world the integrity and faithfulness of Job. R452:1* As the Lord gave the Adversary permission against Job, so Satan will gain liberty in the impending hour of temptation. R4227:6

12

Job 1:12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

In thy power

- In his dealings with mankind the Lord has allowed Satan to be the willing medium through whom the penalty of sin should be meted out. R452:4* Satan cannot afflict God's children beyond the penalty for sin without God's permission, and that only where it will result in greater good to the subject and greater glory to God. R452:4* Satan has "the power of death." (Heb. 2:14) R452:4* Satan's power, like that of a hangman, is a delegated power. E449

Put not forth

- Satan must have permission from God to execute the death penalty. R265:6

13

Job 1:13 And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

- A cyclone or tornado, raised up by Satan. R1800:1, R3324:5, R2189:4 In a sense Satan is prince of the air power—literally. R1684:4, R1800:1

20

Job 1:20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,

Shall I return

- Death, corruption, touches everything earthly under present conditions, no matter how careful or thoughtful the provision. R4567:1

- He realized that all he had possessed belonged to God. R5418:1 Similarly, we can take, in perfect submission, whatever experiences God permits. R5418:5 Job had no claim on everlasting life, though he had a hope of it. R5418:1 Even though those who are being "sifted" have been very dear to us, it is for us to humble ourselves under the mighty hand of God. R4483:5

Blessed be

- There was no spirit of rebellion in a heart out of whom came such loving words of submission, and that without a clear vision of the divine wisdom in permitting them. R1937:4 God has provided for a future life beyond the tomb, a resurrection. R4567:1

Job 2:7 So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

With sore boils

- Satan has considerable of the "power of death," including disease. R760:4 If disease and death are to a considerable extent under Satan's control, why might he not reverse the method and do some healing of disease. R1644:3

Job 2:9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.

Thine integrity

- Suggesting that it had been without divine appreciation that he had sought to do justice and mercy all his life. R5401:6, R1505:6

Job 10:9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

Hast made me

- The "wind" cannot fashion a created organism, but God's invisible creative power can. R4520:1*

19

Job 10:19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

I had not been

- Death, destruction. R1039:6, R1878:6 The wicked (all who, after coming to a clear knowledge of the truth, still wilfully disobey it) shall be cut off in the Second Death. E387

To the grave

- Qebar, tomb, the grave. E348

21

Job 10:21 Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;

Land of darkness

- Instead of a place of blazing fire it is described as a state of "darkness." R2599:2; CR209*; HG335:2

Job 11

8

Job 11:8 It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?

It

- God's wisdom. R2599:4

Deeper than hell

- Than any pit, sheol, oblivion. R2599:4; E359

What canst thou know?

- As there is no knowledge in sheol, there can be no knowledge of the divine wisdom and plan. E359

Job 12

10

Job 12:10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.

In whose hand

- In the divine power. E314

And the breath

- Ruach, life-power, spirit of life. E174, E314

Job 13

1

Job 13:1 Lo, mine eye hath seen all this , mine ear hath heard and understood it.

Lo

- Commencing Job's masterly reply. R5402:1

Hath heard

- The false reasonings of his friends (which many improperly quote as inspired). R5402:1

4

Job 13:4 But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all physicians of no value.

Of no value

- His friends told him that he must have been a great sinner and a hypocrite. R5401:6

Though he slay me

- Though much cast down, he maintained his integrity and his faith in the Lord. R5803:4 He sought in vain for an explanation. R5401:6 Many of God's people since have been similarly confused as to why God permits evil to come upon his faithful servants. R5402:1

Yet will I trust

- Job's expression of confidence in God and in his ultimate deliverance. R5402:1 I shall yet receive his favor and learn what he means by these afflictions coming upon me. R5333:4 His trust was not misplaced. After his testings, God gave him back children, houses, lands and friends which foreshadowed the coming blessings of restitution. R5333:4

Mine own ways

- Conscious of his own heart-honesty toward God, Job defends himself, but goes to too great an extreme in declaring his own innocence. R5401:6

Job 14

Job 14:1 Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.

Man

- Mankind. R5402:1

Full of trouble

- Job's prophetic wisdom. Life under present conditions is full of trial and sorrow, from the cradle to the tomb. R5402:3 The world is full of troubled hearts. Each of us has not only his own burdens, but our weaknesses are augmented by the idiosyncracies of others. SM262

Job 14:2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

Continueth not

- No wonder Lazarus and others were silent about their experiences in hades. R822:5*

Job 14:4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

Who can bring

- Comparatively few parents seem to realize that when children are less than graceful in feature and character a responsibility for the defects rests upon them. R5251:1 All existence comes from the father and not the mother, the mother receiving and nourishing the germ until it is able to maintain an independent existence. R776:3 In harmony with this principle God was the "Father," or life-giver, while the earth was the mother of Adam. R776:5

A clean thing

- Perfect, free from sin, in the full sense of the word. R5402:3, R1506:3 Jesus' perfect life "proceeded forth and came from God" (John 8:42) and was merely developed and nourished in Mary. E105 Jehovah has begotten sons of the divine nature as well as other natures—angelic (Job 2:1; Job 38:7; Heb. 2:9), human (Luke 3:38) and the "new creatures" who shall be of the divine nature (2 Pet. 1:4). R777:4, R354:5 Similarly, father Adam was born into being perfect because he was born of God, though his mother (the earth) was still imperfect except for the specially prepared Garden of Eden. E106 If the father is perfect, the child will be so. R776:6 In the case of Jesus, a perfect life-germ transferred by divine power from a pre-existent condition to the embryo condition was born "holy" and "perfect", though of an imperfect mother. R777:2

Out of an unclean

- Out of Adam, the contaminated fountain. E103; R5402:3, R777:1 Applying to the man and not to the woman. R777:1 It would not be possible that any imperfect human pair could bring forth absolutely perfect children. R5251:1; CR428; R1780:6 Though life or being comes from the father, form and nature come from the mother. R777:2 The female furnishes organism as well as sustenance—in fact, furnishes all except the life-seed or sperm, which comes from the father or life-giver. E103 Illustrated by the offspring of the union between the "daughters of men" and those angels which kept not their first estate—their progeny had the vitality of the fathers but the nature of their mothers. R777.2 In the typical dispensation a child inherited blessings and privileges from its father according to the favor and standing of its mother (Gen. 21:10; Exod. 21:4; Gal. 4:30). R777:5

Not one

- No man would have such power. But this is the very power which God possesses and exercised in the birth of Jesus. OV151 Not answered by the doctrine of "Immaculate Conception"; for, if Mary had been free from Adamic sin she must have received it from her mother, and so on all the way back to Eve, "the mother of all living." (Gen. 3:20) R776:2 When Adam fell the whole human creation was made subject to the inherent taint of sin and its condemnation to death. R1780:6

Job 14:5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

Determined

- In the Lord's hands. R5402:3

Job 14:6 Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day.

That he may rest

- Let all men live out their short time in peace. Job did not see the ministry of trouble. R5402:3, R1506:3

Hireling

- Why afflict those who already have a heavy, burdensome task. R5402:3

Job 14:7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

That it will sprout

- But man cannot sprout, he cannot raise himself, he must await the great Deliverer. R194:2

Job 14:9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

The scent of water

- Favorable conditions. R5402:3

10

Job 14:10 But man dieth, and wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

Man dieth

- Utter hopelessness of man in death, so far as any powers of his own are concerned. R5402:3

Wasteth away

- There is no root left, no spark of life remains. R5402:3

Giveth up the ghost

- Life. R142:3, R279:1; A210 "Gasps out, expires", Young. R754:5*

Where is he?

- As the diamond loses its beauty when light is withdrawn. R142:3, R279:1

12

Job 14:12 So man lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

Riseth not

- Loses all power to raise himself. R1506:3, R5402:4, R194:2

Till the heavens

- The present powers of spiritual control. R1506:3, R194:2 The present order of things, or dominion of earth, is symbolically termed "the heavens." These must give place to the Kingdom of Christ, the "new heavens," when the dead shall be awakened. R1018:4* A blessed provision, they shall not be awakened until surrounding circumstances shall be more favorable for their trial. R846:2

Be no more

- Till the new dispensation has been ushered in. HG194:6

Out of their sleep

- Unconscious, peaceful rest. R2172:3 Of death; by anyone, until God's due time. R5402:4

13

Job 14:13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

Hide me

- A human being, not a new creature. R5109:1

In the grave

- Sheol, oblivion, the state of death. SM524; E359, E410; R5402:4, R2598:5, R2600:1 Because of his experience he wished for death, that he might have no further experience with sin. PD26/37; R5402:4 Sheol not here translated "hell" because it would have been absurd for Job to have prayed to God to hide him in a hell of torments. R2598:5

Keep me secret

- Hidden in the grave. R1506:4, R5402:4

Thy wrath be past

- This time of wrath which has now lasted for 6,000 years is to be brought to a close by the great Day of Vengeance. E410, E346, E359; R1378:1, R2805:4, R1881:2 The "wrath" here mentioned is elsewhere called the "curse." SM524 Until the reign of sin and death should be ended and the Sun of Righteousness shine with healing in his beams. R1506:4, R2805:4; HG194:6, R332:4 The saints are to be raised before the day of wrath, but the class Job speaks of do not arise until the time of trouble is over. R194:3 After the seven last plagues are fulfilled. HG91:3 Until the dawn of the great Lord's day. R1017:2*, R5109:1; SM525

A set time

- God's due time, when evil shall have no more dominion. R5402:4 The resurrection time. HG194:6

And remember me

- By calling me from oblivion into being again, a resurrection. E360; R2600:1, R5109:4, R5402:4; PD26/37

14

Job 14:14 If a man die, shall he live again ? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come.

Shall he live again?

- There is a longing hope within man that death does not end all existence. E383

Will I wait

- Death is a condition of rest, of quiet, of peaceful unconsciousness. R5059:6, R5605:4, R4794:2 Until God's due time. R5402:4

Till my change come

- The hope of a resurrection. R1017:6*

15

Job 14:15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

Thou shalt call

- The time of wrath is to be brought to a close by the great Day of Vengeance. E410 In the resurrection morning. R5402:4; SM525 "The dead shall hear the voice of the Son." (John 5:25) E346 "Thou shalt seek me in the morning." (Job 7:21) E359 If man is not in existence, yet comes forth when called, the calling forth is a re-creation. R846:4 Like Lazarus, at the call of Jesus, earth's dead millions shall again spring into existence. R604:3*, R678:3

And I will answer

- A re-creation. R846:4, R1017:6*, R604:3 Will spring into being again, at thy Word. R678:3, R1378:1, R5402:5 All will answer the resurrection call. E359

Work of thine hands

- His people are his workmanship (Eph. 2:10). R5402:5

19

Job 14:19 The waters wear the stones: thou washest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

The hope of man

- In himself. E348

21

Job 14:21 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

He knoweth it not

- A direct contradiction to the claims of spirit mediums that they hold communication with the dead. R265:5 The Israelites were distinctly told that the "dead know not anything." (Eccl. 9:5) SM99; OV215, OV362; Q204:3 Contrary to the teachings of Spiritualism. R2170:2 Total unconsciousness. "There is no ... knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave whither thou goest" (Eccl 9:10)—no knowledge of anything until the resurrection. R4794:1, R4551:6, R5303:1; E348; A210 Thus Dorcas (Acts 9:32-43), though a good woman and a child of the Lord, when awakened to life, had no wonderful experiences or mysterious visions to relate. R1450:6 During the Jewish age God guarded his typical people against delusions of lying spirits, that the dead are alive. R1642:6

22

Job 14:22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

Soul within him

- Signifying that man would suffer and mourn from his inmost being. Q836:T

Job 16

21

Job 16:21 O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbour!

One might plead

- He seems to realize his need of someone to represent his cause before the Lord—a mediator. R5401:6, R1506:1

Job 17

13

Job 17:13 If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

The grave

- Sheol, oblivion, death, not torment. E360, R2600:1

In the darkness

- Not a place of blazing fire. R2599:2

14

Job 17:14 I have said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister.

To corruption

- To which my body turns; while my soul, my being, sleeps, inanimate, awaiting the resurrection. E360

16

Job 17:16 They shall go down to the bars of the pit, when our rest together is in the dust.

The bars of the pit

- Sheol, oblivion, death. F360; R2600:1

Our rest together

- Whether they have hope for an awakening or not, all find rest in the dust. E360

Skin of my teeth

- Teeth—membrane or skin. R5994:4

Job 19

25

Job 19:25 For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

That my redeemer

- Gaal, the one who sets free by payment. E438

He shall stand

- Job prophetically recorded his hope of a coming Redeemer. SM524.2

26

Job 19:26 And though after my skin worms destroy this body , yet in my flesh shall I see God:

Shall I see God

- I shall yet praise the Lord in the flesh and in health. R3040:2 I shall yet receive his favor and learn what he means by these experiences, these afflictions. R5333:4 See his hand. See his works. "All flesh shall see the salvation of God." (Luke 3:6) R3040:2

Job 21

13

Job 21:13 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

In wealth

- Describing the prosperous course of some who are not the Lord's people in contrast with the tribulations of some who are the Lord's people. E360

Down to the grave

- Sheol, oblivion, death, not torment. E360; R2600:1

30

Job 21:30 That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

Day of destruction

- Day of judgment, the Millennial day. R1882:4; HG334:5

Job 24

19

Hell is naked

- Every secret thing of sheol, oblivion, is known. E361; R2599:4

7

Job 26:7 He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

The north

- Throughout the scriptures the north seems to be closely associated with Jehovah's government of earth. R5710:3

Over the empty place

- There seem to be fewer stars in the north than in any other part of the heavens. R5710:5

Hangeth

- Prof. Young says, "To hang up"—used 13 times in referring to the hanging of men upon gallows. R1814:3

Earth upon nothing

- Confirms the fact that the earth is a globe hanging in space, contrary to the "flat earth" theory. R1813:4, R1814:3 The history of astronomy dates back to very ancient time. R1814:3 Launched it out in the abyss of space, subject to fixed laws. R1815:2

Job 27

9

Will God hear

- "God heareth not (the prayers of) sinners." (John 9:31) R2024:1

The fear of the Lord

- The reverence of the Lord. R1518:2, R5952:5 Some are disposed to speak jestingly of the Lord and the scriptures. This is a dangerous practice. R5952:5

The widow

- Job, a man of great generosity, considered the widow. R5401:6

Job 31

17

Job 31:17 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

Fatherless

30

Job 31:30 Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.

Mouth to sin

- Job in the midst of all his afflictions, was very careful not to sin with his lips. R1937:3 How necessary this is to the stability of Christian character. R1937:3

39

Job 31:39 If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:

The owners

- Margin: the soul of owners. It is not the body, but the being, called in the scripture, "soul," that dies. R205:4, R277:1

Job 32

2

Job 32:2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God.

Elihu

- Whose name signifies "God himself." R1506:5, R5402:5

Son of Barachel

- Such genealogical details not common to parables. R1505:3

Wrath kindled

- Because Job had been reasoning in part from a wrong premise. Job must not expect fully to comprehend all the ways of God, but must trust him. R5402:5

Than God

- God's wisdom and justice cannot be impugned. R5402:6

Job 32:6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion.

Answered and said

- Elihu's words were probably wiser than those of the other comforters, but they were merely human wisdom as far as we can discern. R5402:6

Job 33

4

Job 33:4 The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

Spirit of God

- Invisible influence. R4519:6*

14

Job 33:14 For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

Once, yea twice

- Thinking men observe the persistency with which questions of right and wrong, justice and injustice, are forced upon their consideration, demanding an expression of their individual principles. B152

16

Job 33:16 Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction,

Then he openeth

- With the thunder tones of the day of trouble. B153

From his purpose

- From his own purpose. B153

Then he

Deliver

- Release him. R5402:6

Down to the pit

- Of death, or the grave. R5402:6; E462

Found a ransom

Pray unto God

- Communion with God. R5402:6

Favourable

- They shall find acceptance with God. R5402:6

27

Job 33:27 He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

I have sinned

- An acknowledgment that God is just and that the restitution was unmerited will be required. R5402:6

28

Deliver

See the light

- May be brought to the light. R5402:6

29

Job 33:29 Lo, all these things worketh God oftentimes with man,

Oftentimes

- Margin: twice and thrice. Based on this and on Amos 2:4, the Jewish rabbis limited the granting of forgiveness to a repentant wrong-doer to three times; but our Lord taught forgiveness times without number. R2665:3

Job 34

Job 34:1 Furthermore Elihu answered and said,

Elihu

- The youngest of four friends of Job who called upon him in his adversity to comfort him. R5878:2

Job 34:2 Hear my words, O ye wise men ; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

My words

- As wise, or wiser, than any spoken by Job's comforters, but they were merely human wisdom. R5402:6, R5878:2

Job 34:3 For the ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat.

Ear trieth words

- The ear is the mouth of the mind by which it receives the word. R2949:2*

Mouth tasteth meat

- Meat that goes no further than the mouth cannot nourish. R2949:2*

12

Job 34:12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

Not do wickedly

- God is responsible for evil (calamity, trouble) in the sense of permission and arrangements as the penalty for violating his laws; but not in the sense of being the author of it. R871:6

Pervert judgment

- The punishment must have some relation to the enormity of the offense—a principle out of harmony with the eternal torment theory. R523:4*

29

Job 34:29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

When he

- Jehovah; the "God of all comfort." (2 Cor. 1:3) R2058:2*, R5403:1 Although these words (of Elihu) are not inspired, they are very wise. R5403:1

Giveth quietness

- The children of God take these words in a very different sense from that suggested to Job by Elihu. We have quietness and rest of heart even in severe trouble. R5879:1 The Lord's people have a peace and rest of mind through the knowledge of God's plan and his justice, mercy and love. R5403:2 Precious balm of Gilead for wounded spirits on the battlefield of life; the gentle whisper of hope and love and courage when heart and flesh are almost failing. R5803:1 Knowing that when our hearts are loyal and true, our God does not mark against us the unavoidable blemishes of our earthen vessel. R5802:5 There is a cry which never fails to bring this quietness. It is the prayer for sweet, trustful, loving acquiescence to the will of God. R2058:3* When God purposes to give peace, the whole universe will be in obedience to his laws and none can make trouble. R5403:1

Can make trouble

- Job's calamity was not accidental. R5878:3, R5403:1 God permitted trial to come to test his servant, just as he permits trouble to come upon his Church. R5878:6 While the world is troubled, God's children have a peace that the world knows not of and can neither give nor take away. R5403:3 Trouble is not necessarily a sign of the disfavor of God. "Many are the afflictions of the righteous." (Psa. 34:19) R5879:4 God did not always give our Lord Jesus quietness, but allowed trouble, like a great flood, to sweep over his soul. Some of the Lord's followers may have similar experiences. R5403:4 He will not suffer us to be tempted above what we are able to bear (1 Cor. 10:13). R5878:6 To the world it might appear that the trials, testings, scoffs, to which faithfulness to the Lord exposes, would rob life of all its pleasures. But not so. R4103:1 The spirit which once tossed restlessly in chafing winds of lesser trials sinks in sweet submission under heavier griefs. R2058:6*

Against a man

- Satan could not have sent all those calamities unless God had permitted it. Similarly we are under special divine care. R5403:1

Job 35

10

Job 35:10 But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the night;

Songs In the night

- Even in this night-time the Lord's people do not need to sorrow as others who have no hope. "He hath put a new song into our mouths." (Psa. 40:3) R3123:3

14

Job 36:14 They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.

They

- Margin: Their soul. It is not the body, but the being, called in scripture "soul", that dies. R205:4, R277:1

17

Job 36:17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee .

Take hold on thee

- "Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne." (Psa. 89:14) T124

Job 37

16

Job 37:16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

Is perfect

- God is of purer eyes than to recognize iniquity and cannot look upon sin with allowance. "His work is perfect." (Deut. 32:4) R1225:2

18

R5771:3 God's providence has often interfered in the past, but now we have apparently reached the time when the Lord is saying, "Let loose the winds of strife." R5825:4 God can harness even every opposing element, animate or inanimate, and make them all work together for the accomplishment of his grand designs. R1560:2 That which would work no good, serve no purpose or teach no lesson, he restrains. All the evil

- Job recognized his adversities as God-permitted (Job 2:10), because Satan could do no more than God would permit him to do. R1800:1 God is not the author of sin (evil). R1799:3, R1800:2

12

Job 42:12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

Psalms

General

- It is safe to say that no other collection of poems has accomplished as much good as the book of Psalms. Its sentiments seem to touch the soul at every turn—in joy, in sorrow. R5653:3
- David's thought in writing the Psalms may have been merely to their use in song; but the Lord's object was to give prophecy to assist his people of a later period. R2345:4 Many of David's prophetic words relate more particularly to The Christ than to himself and many were written from this standpoint, as speaking for Messiah. R3609:1

- The book does not claim to be a book of David's psalms, but a book of psalms. While a majority of the psalms particularly claim that David was their author, some do not name their authors. The Jews recognized the book of Psalms as a whole—as sacred Scripture—as a holy or inspired writing. And our Lord and the apostles quoted directly or by allusion from sixty-one of the psalms, some of them repeatedly. Our Lord himself quoted from nineteen of them. These quotations embrace, not only some of those definitely ascribed to David, but equally those whose authorship is not stated. And in one case (John 10:34, 35) our Lord, quoting from Psalm 82:6, distinctly terms it a part of the "Scriptures" which "cannot be broken." R1418:3

- The Lord Jesus and those who walk in his footsteps, the pure in heart. R1383:2

That walketh not

Let all of our special friends or companions, in business or pleasure, be the Lord's friends, who honor him. R2366:1 It is not our mission to follow others into outer darkness in conversation and reading, but to remain with the Lord and seek others to take their places and crowns. R1860:6 We should fellowship with the saints of the Most High, who are meek and lowly of heart and whom he shall lead in his ways. R4484:4 Lot did not pursue this course and hence failed of a blessing. R2853:2

- That there is a way of salvation for man other than that provided in God's plan. R2698:2

Of the ungodly

- The worldly. C89 The wicked and slothful servants in the Church who, having been made partakers of the holy Spirit, commit wilful sin. R2697:6 Those who neglect this counsel need not be surprised if they fall into temptation, sin and disfellowship with the things which are pure. R4076:2

Standeth

- Entering into their plans and schemes, thus likely becoming partakers of their spirit, careless of consecration vows and overcharged with earthly cares. R2698:4 Stand with God even if that should imply standing alone. R1383:3

- The assemblies of the wicked. C89 Sinners against their covenant of consecration, being overcharged with the things of this life. R2698:3, R4079:5*

Of the scornful

- Some, not of the Church, unteachable; those possessing more or less knowledge of holy things and rejecting them, speaking of them lightly and scornfully. R2698:4 The heart that is contentious and that sitteth in the seat of the scornful is not in a condition to receive the blessings of the Lord. R4475:3 Illustrated by one church which invited Dr. R. G. Ingersoll, the agnostic, to preach to them. R1968:4

Psalms 1:2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

But his delight

- The sentiment of our heart should be the desire to get the divine mind as nearly as possible on every subject. R5518:6 One thus isolated from the ungodly will have a delightful experience. "I delight to do Thy will, O my God." (Psa. 40:8) R1383:3

R4835:4, R1296:5 "All things shall work together for good to them that love God, to the called according to his purpose." (Rom. 8:28) R1646:4

Shall prosper

- Not because of our own wisdom in the management of our affairs, but because our infallible Lord is supervising our interests and outworking them for good to him. R2699:4 Since God's plan shall prosper, their plan shall prosper; for his plan is their plan. R1383:5 What matter if instead of earthly prosperity is brought financial loss, if it work our spiritual gain? R2699:1

- Misapplied by the Pope to himself in compelling kings and emperors to kiss his great toe. OV272; B300; R54:4, R305:4; HG269:4 Make friends with the Son. A272 Yield cheerful, willing submission to the Lord. B300; A272 The Greek word translated "worship" in the New Testament is proskuneo which signifies "to kiss the hand," as a dog licks the hand of his master. The significance is reverence. E72 God's last warning to Christendom. D52 Now or never (as nations) they may recognize their new king by abandoning oppression and establishing justice. Now is the time to concede to all men their natural rights. R713:4

Lest he be angry

- Lest he bring the threatened Day of Vengeance. D52 Scriptures intimate that all nations will be found in violent opposition to the heavenly Kingdom and hence will be crushed as the vessels of a potter. CR51

But a little

- For his wrath may soon be kindled. A272

Are all they

- Primarily the consecrated Church as the time of trouble draws near. R1385:5

1

Psalms 4:1 {To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm of David.} Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

Hear me

- It is supposed that the fourth Psalm and part of the third were written regarding David's experience as an exile from his capital. R4277:3

Psalms 5

3

Psalms 5:3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

In the morning

- In the Millennial age. A9; E359

4

Psalms 5:4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.

Pleasure in wickedness

- The destruction of the incorrigible after the final test will be a demonstration of God's unceasing hatred of sin. R1782:1 Therefore God is not pleased to accept men without testing and proving them as to whether, after full knowledge, ability and choice, they will sincerely love the right and hate the wrong. R1273:5 The very character of God demands that we become holy. R5901:6*

Neither shall evil

- Nothing short of perfection can find favor in God's eyes. R5902:1*, R1610:2 God permits evil for a time because he sees a way to make it a valuable and lasting lesson to his creatures. A118; HG393:1 God could not excuse the sin, for he cannot look upon the least sin with any degree of allowance. R386:6

Dwell with thee

- Every good cometh from God as the good fountain. Evil, on the contrary, comes from sources in opposition to God and his goodness. R870:6 We must in this life become Christlike, or perfect in character; else we cannot eternally dwell with God. R5902:1* This does not signify a perfection of the flesh, which is an impossibility; but a perfection of heart, of intention, of will, of endeavor. R5902:1

Psalms 5:7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

Thy holy temple

- The Christ. T70

11

Psalms 5:11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

Ever shout for joy

- If suffering, are we rejoicing? R4248:3* We ought to rejoice, remembering that the Lord's dealings were designed to work out a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. R4248:2*

Thou defendest them

- It is profitable in many ways to love the Lord. He has provided a place of safety during the day of wrath for every trusting, loving child of his. R32:5*

That love thy name

- Those who love the name, the character of God, are endeavoring by his grace to develop it. R4248:2*

Psalms 6

4

Psalms 6:4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake.

Deliver my soul

- It is the soul, the being, which is destroyed. E361

5

Psalms 6:5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

Is no remembrance

- There is no consciousness in hell. E361; R4781:2, R552:6, R802:2*, R4363:4*; SM525; HG511:1 "The dead know not anything." (Eccl. 9:5) R754:4* Death is the "land of forgetfulness." (Psa. 88:11) CR209; HG335:1 Therefore they can neither assent to, nor oppose, their awakening. R1509:5 Man's probation or trial must occur, not in death, but before the state of death has begun or after it has ended—in the resurrection. R909:3*, R915:6 Even from the human standpoint it would be a short time for each individual who would only have the few remaining years of life before the Kingdom. R3180:6 Thus, when our Lord was dead he could not preach and the dead of mankind could not hear. R4176:6

In the grave

- Sheol, oblivion, death, not torment. E361; R828:6; HG216:2

Give thee thanks

- The text manifestly refers to the pious. E361 Therefore the departed saints have not been praising the Lord after their death all during the past ages. R1881:5

Psalms 7

11

Psalms 7:11 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

God is angry

- Righteous indignation against sin. R5603:1 Anger in itself is not sin. R5417:5 Inability to be angry under proper cause would imply imperfection. R3928:2 It would be improper for our Creator to refrain from righteous indignation where there is a just cause; just as it would be improper for him to be angry without a cause. R787:4 God is not so overbalanced in love that he cannot permit justice thoroughly to scourge the race of condemned sinners. R880:6 He tells us to be like him in our loves and hates—to hate sin and love righteousness. R1251:1 The force of character which permits of anger is the very same force which, otherwise directed, signifies intensity of love. R3928:2 If we feel that anger is proper for us we should use a great deal of discretion. "Be ye angry and sin not." (Eph. 4:26) R5417:5 If any walk after the flesh and not after the spirit such will proportionately lose the love of God. R3034:1

15

Psalms 7:15 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

Fallen into the ditch

- Those who dig pits for others are likely to fall therein themselves. R2503:4

Which he made

- As illustrated by Haman and by those who caused Daniel to be cast into the lion's den. R2503:1

Psalms 8

2

Psalms 8:2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

The mouth of babes

- Foreshadowing the multitude's shouting Jesus' praise as the Messiah, the Son of David. R4670:4

3

Psalms 8:3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

Consider thy heavens

- When we realize that the countless stars are each one a solar system we are amazed and feel our own littleness. CR188; R4972:2 Gaining thereby a high conception of the divine character. R3313:4 Our solar system is a small fraction of God's creation. Astronomers count 125 million suns and estimate that there are millions of others further distant. SM467 How much more profitable is the consideration of the still higher things revealed to the Gospel Church through the holy Spirit since Pentecost. R3313:4

Psalms 8:4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

What is man

- Man is of the earth, earthy, an earthly copy of his heavenly Maker. "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness." (Gen. 1:26) R1266:1; OV288 How little is man, how small a speck in the universe. CR188 Orthodoxy falsely teaches that he is of two indestructible, indistinguishable parts, soul and spirit, enclosed in a prison-house of flesh. E302 Science says he is merely an animal of the highest type known, and has evolution hopes. E304 The Bible says that he is a Nephesh, soul, sentient being, composed of a body animated by Ruach, life-power, sometimes called the spirit or breath of life, because sustained by breathing. E308 Adam was the man preeminently in that he was the head of the race of men, and in him resided the title to earth and its dominion. E152

Art mindful of him

- In his present deplorable, fallen, sinful condition. HG670:3 Not having forsaken the original plan.

A175 God has provided a Savior, a way of restoration to divine favor. CR317, CR189; R5140:3

And the son of man

- The posterity of Adam, the fallen human race. E426

Thou visitest him

- Carest for him. R5291:4 Eventually, in the Times of Restitution. E426

Psalms 8:5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

Thou hast made him

- Claimed by Popists to refer to the Pope. B309

A little lower

- In intelligence and capacity. R3922:2 Only a little lower. CR189, R4972:3, R453:5 Not a little while, as if a matter of time; but clearly and distinctly a little lower in degree. A175; R329:1; HG670:4 Not lower in the sense of being less than perfect, but a totally different kind of being. R329:1 Consequently mortal. E390; R1879:4 On the earthly plane instead of the heavenly. R5837:3 God designed an order of beings adapted to the earth by nature. R363:3, R470:3 Therefore the Redeemer must be on the same plane. R5025:5 Because Adam was not a spirit being he could not die a spiritual death. CR131 As there is a vast difference between the conditions of existence of a fish and a bird, so we may reasonably suppose that there is just as wide a difference between the human and the angelic conditions. Q769:5 Restored perfect men will still be a "little lower" than the angels, while the glorified Church will be "so much better than the angels." (Heb. 1:4) R637:5, R2317:5, R4176:1, R616:2*, R852:4 Jesus was made alive from the dead in the divine nature, far higher than the angels, while manhood is a little lower than the angelic nature. R1228:2, R486:1; Q838:4

Than the angels

- Elohim, a name frequently applied to Jehovah. E67, SM497 Like them, mortal; where death is a possibility. E390; R4972:3 The highest of earthly creatures, and but a little removed in intelligence from the angelic hosts. R2836:4 Fallen man cannot cope with the cunning of fallen angels. R2172:5 Angels are the lowest in rank on the spirit plane and man is the highest of all earthly beings. But man, even when perfect, was a little lower than the angels because he was an earthly and not a spiritual being. OV137; Q502:6; SM53; R4774:3, R5837:3, R456:6, R506:6 Orders of spirit beings (all perfect) were made before men. R5057:6, R4972:3; OV15 Man is lower than the angels as far as nature is concerned, but this Psalm speaks of man as superior in that he has a dominion. R4972:5 Man was not an angel, so he could not fall from the condition of angels or fall from heaven; therefore he will not be restored to being as an angel. CR279, CR269 Neither was Jesus a combination of the two natures, human and spiritual. A179

Crowned him

- An earthly crown. SM153 As the king of all creatures on the animal plane. SM469 Originally in God's likeness and, as his representative, Adam was the king of the earth. R1510:4

Glory and honour

- Of perfect manhood. E427; R1794:1, R5417:3 As a son and heir of God, beloved and owned of God. R1266:3, R5223:3 The moral likeness of his Creator. R2394:5 "Glory"—Adam was made in the image of his glorious Creator. R5229:1; CRI73, CR279 Man was so grandly formed as to be able to receive and retain life by the use of the means which God supplied, and never grow dim. A208 Lost in sin and degradation, through disobedience. Restitution to "honor" and life in God's favor was redeemed for all by our Lord's sacrifice. R1761:3 Possessed by Jesus at his consecration, originally by Adam before sin and death, and ultimately by the restored race at the close of Jesus' glorious reign. R573:5 Men must discern God by his works, the noblest of which is perfect man, made in his moral image on the earthly plane. R4966:5 Glorious and honorable indeed will be the estate of men when lifted up to perfection in Paradise restored. A191

Psalms 8:6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

Thou madest him

- Mankind, in the person of Adam. A247, R453:3 Both man, the sovereign of the earth, and woman, his joint-heir and queen. R1552:2 It was purposed from the first—the Heavenly Father made man the king of the earth. R5377:1 As a result of Adam's covenant with God. E27; CR326

To have dominion

- As an earthly representative of the Creator. CR425; F722 "And thou, O Tower of the flock (Christ) ... unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion." (Micah 4:8) E152 "Fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion." (Gen. 1:28) B94 The Heavenly Father made man king of the earth. R5377:1, R5403:6; CRI89 Adam had dominion over the earth, but none of the angels were ever set over anything. R5290:3, R4972:5; CR189 Jesus took the place of father Adam with all his rights and authorities. OV251, E152; R4452:1; Q224:T The "likeness" of God (Gen. 1:26) in which man was created. R2836:3 A likeness of the divine honor and rulership of the earth. R871:3 Man stands related to the lower creatures as God does to the entire universe. R4972:3, R3922:2; A174 Representing man as the crowning masterpiece of mundane creation. R5140:3 Qualities of justice and judgment fitted him to be a ruler; qualities of mercy and love prepared him to be a reasonable, kind and wise ruler. R163:2, R417:1 The specialization in the case of man's creation is shown in his vast superiority over the lower animals. PD7/13 Though Adam was privileged to be a great king, he himself failed to be fully loyal to the Creator. CR425 The divine plan ultimately is to have mankind perfect, as the lord of earth, controlling earth and its creatures in harmony with the laws of the divine Creator. E426; HG669:1 With the restitution of perfect mental and moral balance to man, the original king of the earth, will also come a blessing to his subjects, the beasts of the field; and the ordering of the earth itself is likewise promised. HG299:6 Peter, Jesus and all the prophets declare that the human race is to be restored to human perfection and is again to have dominion over earth as Adam had. R612:6, R2606:6, R3572:3, R860:5 In "the fulness of times" there will be on the earthly plane perfect fish, perfect birds, perfect beasts; and over and above them all, their ruler, perfect man. R828:1, R4535:4 Typified by Job with his estate. R1507:4, R5403:6 The father of lies seduced Adam and robbed mankind of the dominion, thus becoming the "prince (ruler) of this world." R453:3

Works of thy hands

- The winds and waves, the light and heat, the electric currents, the minerals and gases and liquids, and vegetation in all its varied forms will freely minister to his comfort and blessing. R1267:4

Hast put all things

- Divine power will put all things under Messiah. (1 Cor 15:28) HG671:6

Under his feet

- The feet in this passage are figurative. B157 All life on earth was subject to Adam. CR173, CR326

7

Psalms 8:7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

All sheep and oxen

- The dominion is not to be over each other, for when love controls there will be no necessity for dominion over one another. R655:2

Beasts of the field

- To become docile and obedient to mankind, as originally as a blessing of Christ's Millennial reign. R1352:3 Naturally and without compulsion the beasts, cattle, fish, and fowl will be man's willing servants. R1267:4

8

Psalms 8:8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

Fish of the sea

- Claimed by the Pope to refer to those who are in hell, agitated by its waves of affliction. B312

Psalms 9

Psalms 9:8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

And he shall

- In the Millennial age. F396

Dwelleth In Zion

- The spiritual Church of God. A297; D23; T33

15

Psalms 9:15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

That they made

- Those who dig pits for others are likely to fall therein themselves. R2503:4

17

Psalms 9:17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

The wicked

- Those who forget God after clear knowledge. E361; R2610:1; HG498:5 This text applies to the time when the highway of holiness is set up. R2610:2, R553:2 Saints and sinners all go into Sheol now. R553:5

Turned into hell

- Shub, returned, into Sheol, oblivion, Second Death. E361; R2610:4; OV174; Q329:3 Into the condition of death. R553:2 Showing that some go into hell once, come out of hell, learn of God, forget him and are returned to hell. HG734:3* Since they are returned to hell, it must be to the Second Death. R769:5, R1298:3*, R3084:1

Nations

- Goi, heathen, Gentiles, people. All who, under that full knowledge, do not become Israelites indeed. R2610:3

That forget God

- That do not become God's covenant people. R2610:3 They must first have known him. Q329:2; R2610:1

Psalms 10

4

Psalms 10:4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God : God is not in all his thoughts.

Not In all his thoughts

- Their minds are distracted, turned to unworthy and ignoble subjects that have a more and more degrading influence upon them. R3893:2 God's Word is neglected by scientists; hence the proper foundation for reasoning and judgment along geological lines, for example, is lacking. R4825:5 Just as Israel failed to think of the Lord's will in their affairs. R4277:1 Although the nations of Europe style themselves Christian nations, not one of them manifests any faith in God. R5754:3

Psalms 10:6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

In adversity

- Rendered "evil" in "I create evil." (Isa. 45:7) A125

Psalms 11

1

Psalms 11:1 {To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.} In the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

Put I my trust

- Like David against Goliath, we must battle in full reliance upon the Lord, using the sling and pebble of truth. If we cannot conquer along these lines we cannot conquer at all. R4216:6

Psalms 11:4 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD'S throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

In his holy temple

- The Christ. T70

6

Upon the wicked

- In the Day of Vengeance, the time of trouble. D541 And in the testing season at the end of the Millennium. A303

Fire and brimstone

- Trouble and destruction. D541

Psalms 12

5

Psalms 12:5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

Oppression of the poor

- The whole present order of things shall be reversed, for the Lord shall espouse the cause of the poor and needy. R1896:5

3

Psalms 13:3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

The sleep of death

- A condition of peaceful unconsciousness. HG726:4 Dr. Trench says of this word sleep, "The reality of death is not denied, but only the fact implicitly assumed that death will be followed by a resurrection, as sleep is followed by an awakening." R2617:5 Heaven is not a sleeping place, but a place of joyful activity and life. Neither could we imagine mankind as sleeping in a Catholic purgatory or a Protestant hell. R5060:1

Psalms 14:1 {To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.} The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

The fool

- One who ignores, or lacks, reason. HG528:1 The person who, after intelligent thought, concludes that there is no God; that everything came to be what it is by chance. SM467; R5210:3, R2834:2 Those who do not recognize the great First Cause, God, have their intellects so perverted that they are fools. R2834:2 The study of creation is the key to knowledge. PD1/7 Blinded with pride and liberty of earthly wisdom, science falsely so called. R525:4 So undeniable is the basis of fact in nature's testimony, and so logical the reasoning from cause to effect, that the Bible declares the man a fool who does not accept the conclusion that there is an intelligent Creator. R1158:2

Said in his heart

- Even the "fool" says it to himself. It is not a conclusion of reason, but an expression of a wish. He is anxious to get rid of God in order that he may freely exploit his folly. R3421:1

There is no God

- That each cranium makes its own god, according to its own development of the qualities of wisdom, justice, love and power. OV61 It is a self-evident truth that effects must be produced by competent causes. HG528:1 Nature alone teaches that there is a God. R932:4, R2162:2; HG528:1 Only 35% of the students in a large class at Columbia University expressed their belief in a personal God. R3792:1

None that doeth good

- All have shared in Adam's sin and its death sentence. All come short of the glory of God as represented in the first perfect man. HG193:5

Psalms 14:3 They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

None that doeth good

- None up to the standard of perfection required by the Law; hence none approved by it. R812:2* None perfect, sound in either mind or body. R1080:2, R1413:1

Out of Zion

- The spiritual Church of God. A297; D23; T33; R4474:2

Psalms 15

1

Psalms 15:1 {A Psalm of David.} LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

Who shall abide

- It is not enough to consecrate ourselves, for the consecration will avail nothing if we prove unfaithful to it, except to rise in judgment against us. R2154:5 The one ultimate standard of admission to blessedness in the future is character. R800:5* It is one thing to get in; another to stay in. R4240:5*

In thy tabernacle

- Wherever there are one or more loyal, consecrated hearts, there is a dwelling place of God. R2080:3* Especially the glorious temple of God, which shall be the dwelling place of the saints throughout eternity. R2080:5*

In thy holy hill

- The Kingdom of God. D628

2

Psalms 15:2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

Walketh uprightly

- Implies the strictest integrity in our dealings, both with God and with our fellowmen. R4808:5 The measure of our acceptableness is only to the extent that we earnestly strive to attain actually to the standard of perfection. R1295:6

Psalms 15:3 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

Taketh up a reproach

- A violation of the law of love. We will not be against our brother unless he acknowledges the wrong. Love will cover a multitude of sins. R4240:5*

4

Psalms 15:4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

Sweareth

- Makes a solemn covenant to present himself a living sacrifice to God. R2080:6*

And changeth not

- Carries out his part of the agreement faithfully even though the covenant be unfavorable to him. R3108:2, R4808:5 One cannot, by subsequently changing his mind, be released from the obligations of consecration vows. R2080:6* Having made a covenant, do not ignore its solemn obligations. R2080:6*

5

Psalms 15:5 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

To usury

- Taking unjust advantage of the necessities of others. R2155:1, R4808:5, R1994:6 The word "usury" is now always used to indicate oppressive interest. Formerly its meaning was, simply, interest. R1995:1 We do not understand the taking of reasonable interest to be usury. R1994:5 If the party using the money is making something out of it, it is not usury. R1994:6

Never be moved

- Such a one is a virtuous man, a man of fortified or strong character. R2155:1, R4808:6

Psalms 16

Psalms 16:5 The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

Lord is the portion

- Your life consisteth not in the abundance of the things you possess. You are not dependent upon these earthly things. R2130:6*

6

Psalms 16:6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places ; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

Unto me

- The Lord does not keep any who do not make the proper effort to know the will of God. R5501:4

In pleasant places

- What a flood of glory now shines upon the path of the saints. R5501:2

7

Psalms 16:7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

Given me counsel

- Thus Jesus, the Great Teacher, would be himself taught of Jehovah. E51

8

Psalms 16:8 I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

At my right hand

- Signifies the chief place, next to the chief ruler. A92; R2089:5

10

Psalms 16:10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

Not leave my soul

- Fulfilled in Jesus' being raised from the dead. R5832:1; Q668:1; SM526 We are particularly told that it was the soul of Jesus that was raised from the dead. R5017:2, R5612:4; SM25; CR290; HG245:6; R3854:5 "He, seeing this before, (prophetically) spake of the resurrection of Christ." (Acts 2:31) R2600:6 Cannot refer to David personally, for his soul was left in hades and his body did see corruption. R2600:6, R5832:1; HG121:3 Our Lord's soul was not left in Sheol, but God did not give him back the body he died with. HG204:6 The act of baptism represented, in the one act of going into the water and rising from it, his going down into death and his trust in the Father's promise that he should not be left in death. R444:6

In hell

- Sheol, oblivion, death; not torment. R5154:3; SM30, SM526; Q668:1; E348, E362 "He hath poured out his soul unto death." (Isa.53:12) E362 The Lord Jesus was in hell during the three days following his crucifixion. Q784:2 Compared with Acts 2:27-31, a proof that the word hades in the New Testament is the exact equivalent of the word Sheol in the Old Testament. SM526; HG511:2

Holy One

8

Psalms 32:8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

With mine eye

- The eye is the symbol of wisdom. R4858:6 We should look to the Lord for leading in all of life's affairs. R4859:1, R4858:3, R3062:1 As a horse, driven without reins or bridle, simply directed by the eye and watching for the master's will, the animal being without restraint. R4273:2 The Lord's eye will watch over us, that he may give us the necessary proper counsel. R4273:1 Those who can be guided only by continual scourgings are not of the overcoming class. R1670:3 With general directions he sends us forth: not like machines, but as intelligent beings, to use our brains as well as our hands and feet. 7

Psalms 34:7 The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

Angel of the LORD

- There is some power by which God seems to encircle his holy people. CR314 May stand for any agency or power, whether animate or inanimate, that God would be pleased to use. R5633:3, R3798:1 The angels are "ministering spirits" (Heb. 1:4) and always have access to the Father's face on behalf of his Little Flock. F76 God's dealings with his people in earlier times was through angels. R5634:1 In this text the word angel probably refers to spirit beings. R5634:1 Doubtless the angels of the Lord are as present with his people now as ever. R5606:1, R5635:1; Q437:4; F76 Perhaps one guardian angel to each saint; perhaps more than one. R4769:3 Protect them, not always from the threatening disaster, but from any injurious or evil effects therefrom. R3641:3 The angel of the Lord was as truly with James, who was killed, as with Peter, who was delivered. The deliverance is such as cannot always be appreciated by the natural senses; sometimes granting sustaining strength to endure even when not delivered. R2140:5 In James' case the "escape" was final and decisive; in Peter's case it was only temporary. R3004:5 But it is the interest, the good, of the New Creature that is being considered and not the interests of the flesh. R5606:1

R2139:5* If any violation of the golden rule brings pain and regret it is a sure sign that it was not wilful, but stumbled into by the flesh contrary to the desires of the spirit. F375

19

For evil doers

- All who, after coming to a clear knowledge of the truth, still wilfully disobey it. E388 Unless they attain the spirit of love, they will not be fit for the Kingdom, for God is love. SM230 From the mention of the character of this class it is manifest that the Second Death into which they are cast is not a death to sin, as Universalists claim. R1443:5

Shall be cut off

- During the Millennial age. A67; R492:6, R443:1; HG538:2 "From among the people" (Acts 3:23) in the Second Death. E473; R2763:5, R1878:6, R1272:5 Because God has no pleasure in them that love evil. R1781:3 This rule, however, does not apply to the Gospel age. R2061:1

R1561:2 Therefore, the Christian should never view any experience as being lucky or unlucky. R4628:6 God does not arbitrarily interfere in the affairs of his people, set aside their free agency, and force them to move as mere machines. CR84 "They shall be mine, saith the Lord, in that day when I make up my jewels." (Mal. 3:17) C139; R3849:5 This class as a whole is the Messiah, the spiritual seed of Abraham. OV156

A covenant

- The Sarah covenant, the Grace covenant. R5909:2, R5690:4 The Church is developed under the same covenant-mother as was Christ. R5246:1, R5644:4 To be fully submissive to the headship of the Savior. R5308:5, R4548:1, R5644:4, R5758:1; Eiii Under which Christ and the Church are called, sanctified, and developed. R5928:1, R5909:2, R5071:2; CR100; Q181:4, Q196:2 A new covenant, in the sense that it is different from the Jewish covenant of Mt. Sinai, but it is not THE New covenant. Fii Not the Law covenant or the New covenant. R5542:6, R5947:1, R5021:6 Not without law, but under law in Christ. The law in Christ is the law of their covenant, the law of love. R5072:3 The only way to gain justification in God's sight. OV280 This covenant has been made individually with the entire Church of Christ. R5071:3 Offering life. A141 Offering the divine nature. SM154 To be carried out day by day. SM683 A covenant of consecration. R1383:6 Covenant-keeping sacrificers. R1170:4 A fellowship covenant. R4490:1* Many people are not Christians because they have not entered into a covenant with God. R5055:3 None can enter into this covenant without a definite knowledge of its terms and conditions. R5775:6 When this company shall have completed their covenant by sacrifice the present age will end. R5928:1

By sacrifice

- Not by a promise to sacrifice. R3647:3, R4494:4, R5654:1, R5775:6; CR98 Self-sacrifice; a full surrender to the divine will in thought, word and deed. OV156, OV422, OV344; R5006:6, R5301:4; Ev We make the covenant to sacrifice. It is for the Lord to give us the opportunity to do so. R5168:6 We sacrifice earthly things. The reward is heavenly things. R4902:2, R4869:6 Of the earthly nature. R4681:1, R5226:6, R5163:5 Represented by the goats (of Lev. 16) being tied at the door of the Tabernacle. But it has not yet been offered. R4864:3 A daily work of the crucifixion of the flesh. R5855:4 More than merely obedience to the divine law. Justice, the divine law, could not demand sacrifice. R5006:6, R5128:4 A sacrificial arrangement, based upon our Lord's merit, imputed to us. R5089:6, R5877:6 That I might attain unto the heavenly inheritance in joint-heirship with my Redeemer. R5165:3 As Jesus laid down his life in doing good and proclaiming the truth, so do his followers in the same manner, whether for three-and-a-half years, or twenty, or whatever it may be. R5671:6 The Church attains her relationship with God, not through the work of a mediator, but by sacrifice. CR98 The privilege of joining in this sacrificial work is limited to those who have certain characteristics—character-likeness to the Great High Priest. OV107 Not a portion of time and substance. Cain came with such a sacrifice and it was not received. If we present ourselves we must surely present all we have also. R328:6* None are saints who make no sacrifice. R156:3*, R5134:2, R3871:5, R4450:1* Proving a most drastic test, demonstrating to the Lord those whom he desires to be the spiritual seed of Abraham. R5301:5 Those accepting this call to enter into sacrifice are received of the Father; then they are begotten of the holy Spirit. Thenceforth they are New Creatures. R5439:1 "Bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar." (Psa. 118:27) R4244:4*

Is mine

- "The silver is mine and the gold is mine." (Hag. 2:8) R3844:2

And the cattle

- The Almighty is not poor that he should need our gifts. It is a privilege to give to the Lord and his cause. R5781:3 Yet, while so rich, he has deposited a little here and there with us, giving us the control of it that we might have the privilege of ministering to the saints, being thus co-workers with God. R547:3,5, R3844:2; Q615:T

20

Psalms 50:20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

Would not tell thee

- I do not need your wisdom nor your works. R3647:6 We should not wait for the Lord or his cause to be hindered and embarrassed for money before giving it. R855:4

But unto the wicked

- Covenant-breakers who still claim to be God's people. R3648:1 The unrepentant, who walk after the flesh, not after the spirit. R3483:3 Who have a form of godliness, but deny the power thereof. R3330:5 Who know what is right but refuse to practice what they preach. R1922:1 The messages of peace which the Bible extends are not for the world. SM334 All who are not in the attitude of full consecration to the Lord are in opposition to some extent, and to the extent that they are in opposition they are wrong, or wicked. R2925:5 The difference between the Church and the world should be distinctly discerned. R5692:4

Declare my statutes

- Decrees, doctrines, plans. R3648:1,2 Why should any undertake to give out the message of God who has not been anointed by his spirit? R5537:3 The privilege of testifying for God, or being ambassadors for truth, is a favor reserved for the Lord's own people. R3309:4 No man should be regarded as a minister of the gospel who cannot claim his commission by virtue of his anointing as a consecrated child of God. R1715:3, R1922:2, R2057:3 The Lord does not desire the testimony of the devils or unregenerate respecting himself or his plan. R3727:6 Better to waste or destroy the money than to contribute to those who fetter others with error and dishonor God. R1173:5

Take my covenant

- "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain" (Exod. 20:7)—falsely, or to no purpose. R1527:3 "Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity." (2 Tim. 2:19) R1527:6

In thy mouth

- The Lord's people should resent the services of any who do not give evidence of heart union with the Lord. R3309:4 Seeing with what aversion the Lord regards anything short of simple candor and honesty of heart, with what carefulness we should take upon us his worthy name. Psalms 51:1 {To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.} Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Hatest instruction

- The true saints, the wheat class. D75

5

Psalms 51:5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

And I kept silence

- Up to the present time. R3648:4

Thou thoughtest

- Because I kept silence, that I was consenting to your evil ways. R3648:4

But

- Now that the Harvest time has come. R3648:5

I will reprove thee

- Hence the exposures and growing unrest in the various sects of Christendom. R3648:5

6

Psalms 51:6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

Chief musician

- Indicating that David had this confession chanted in the Tabernacle with the other Psalms. R3254:2

When Nathan

- In this Psalm, David makes public confession of his sin and asks God's mercy in forgiveness. In Psalm 32, he gratefully records the blessedness of the man whose transgression is forgiven. R2017:5

Have mercy

- Pray, trusting in God's love and mercy. R5380:5* God showed mercy to David, as to all Jews under the Law covenant, in that he made allowance for their fallen condition and punished with trouble, not everlasting death. R1397:2

Blot out

- David's sins were not blotted out nor forgiven, for the Lord punished him severely for his sin; yet he did not exact the full penalty, everlasting death. R1397:2

Psalms 51:9 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

Mine iniquity

- These words of honesty assure us that the king was overtaken in some kind of mental fog. R5681:5

10

Psalms 51:10 Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

I acknowledge

- Commendable that he did not attempt to justify his course or deny the wrong. R1396:6

11

Psalms 51:11 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

Thee only

- God is the Great Judge. R3254:5 David's confession here was to God, for the wronged Uriah was dead. R1397:5 While the wrong to fellow-creatures was recognized by the king, he recognized a still higher responsibility to God. R3254:5

Be clear

- He confessed his sin that others might know, when the chastisements should come, that the king's troubles were just punishments and not violations of God's covenant promises. R1397:5

12

Psalms 51:12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.

Shapen in iniquity

- By heredity. E484; R4752:6, R5032:3, R5093:1, R5768:4; OV329; HG351:4, HG574:2 Mis-shapen. CR451 None was ever born perfect except one, Jesus. CR427 These conditions of the fallen race may be accentuated or diminished to a considerable degree by the mental condition of the parents. R5615:3 We cannot assent to the doctrine of total depravity. CR113 We cannot do perfectly because we are imperfect. We are imperfect because we are born in sin. Q798:T Therefore we cannot be perfectly holy in every action, word and thought. CR451 But God has graciously arranged that the merit of Christ's sacrifice shall compensate for the weaknesses and blemishes of the followers of Jesus. R4558:2 "We cannot do the things that we would." (Rom. 7:14-25) OV366 Poor material out of which to form likenesses of God's dear Son. R4837:1 Selfishness seems right to man in his depraved condition because he was born with it. SM162 If the perfect man by disobedience forfeited his standing, we who are imperfect could have no hopes of justifying ourselves before God. F101 "Condemned already" as children of Adam. HG434:3 Therefore our need for the robe of Christ's righteousness. HG409:5 Not that God made us sinners. We received our life from our parents, all the way back to Adam. These first parents sinned and came under the death sentence. HG650:2 Imperfection of mind, morals and body is passed from mother to child. HG693:4; R4982:2 Nevertheless, we cannot accept the doctrine of total depravity—that there is nothing good in any man, nor in all men. SM501; HG650:1 Confident that the Lord would give him the benefit of every mitigating circumstance. R3254:5 If no fall, then no death, no ransom. R1616:1 The very essence of Jewish belief, upon and into which were fitted the various typical sacrifices for sins, atonements and washings from uncleanness. R1794:1 Therefore our minds, at first conformed to earthly things, generally take the earthly view of matters, the selfish view. R4628:1 The shape of the brain of the child is largely influenced by heredity—particularly by the mother. R4752:6 The realization of this helps to make us more sympathetic with the depraved and degraded, not approving their wrong, but intelligently assisting to better mental views. R4866:5, R5102:1, R4991:4; HG650:3 Few parents realize how much they have to do with the moral and physical status of their children—in the qualities which are given them at the time of their begetting and during the period of gestation. R5360:3; F551; HG650:4-6

And in sin

- Under the death curse. E409; R5093:1, R5360:3; SM436; CR496; HG193:5 The dying process of 6000 years has affected the race mentally, morally and physically. R5063:6, R4443:4, R4612:3, R5149:3; CR428 But all are not born in the same degree of degradation. Some parents produce types higher than themselves. R2902:2, R5201:1 The only exception to this rule of being born condemned is in the case of children, one or both of whose parents are believers. (1 Cor. 7:14) R2719:1, R3773:6 The statement that in Christ there was life (John 1:4) implies that he did not receive his life from an earthly father. R4154:3 The rationale for infant baptism. HG252:6 The better we understand the origin of sin and the methods of its operation in ourselves and others, the more successful we will be in combating it. R650:1

My mother conceive

- Accounts for the fact that the infant shares in the dying process and the pain as well as those who live longer and participate personally in transgression. F333

13

Psalms 51:13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Thou desirest truth

- Candor, honesty, truthfulness. Any who have not this quality in the heart cannot be pleasing to God. R5453:5, R2943:6 "Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity." (2 Tim. 2:19) R1527:3

The inward parts

- In the heart. R1527:3 Although mankind is fallen in the flesh, and unable to do perfectly, God demands purity of heart, purity of motive or intention, and this David realized he had not manifested. R1397:5 We are to be loyal to the very core or God will reject us. SM346 Outward crime and a crime allowed in the mind are alike heinous in God's sight. R3254:5 Although David had not directly taken the life of Uriah, but merely connived at his death in battle, he was a murderer. R3254:5

14

Psalms 51:14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

Purge me

- The pardoned sinner in the Millennial age. T112

With hyssop

- With the application of the instructions that will be given by the Ancient Worthies. T112; R1872:5 Used in the sprinkling of the unclean under the Law. David desired the antitypical cleansing of his heart. R3254:6

Wash me

- With the truth. T112

I shall be whiter

- The Hebrew root word from which we get the word "frankincense." R84:5* Made so in the great fountain of redeeming love, the Redeemer's merit. C209

15

Psalms 51:15 O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Hear joy and gladness

- Implying that during the preceding year even the music of singers and joyous songs of nature were sore to his heart. R3254:6

May rejoice

- As freely as God forgave, so must all his people; and therefore we rejoice to recognize David as one of the Ancient Worthies. R2017:6

16

Psalms 51:16 For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it : thou delightest not in burnt offering.

In me a clean heart

- The lesson here is that we shall keep close accounts with God. R5681:6 The world's need is thus foreshown. D450

Renew a right spirit

- Disposition. R2322:4 If we would realize the influence of our minds over our own bodies what a great thought-reform movement would speedily begin in us. R2322:1

Sinners . . . converted

- Prophetic. R3600:5 In the present time, sinners are reclaimed through good example. In the future, we hope that they will be turned to the Lord under the more favorable Millennial conditions. R3600:5

17

Psalms 51:17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Then

- After we have experienced the joys of his salvation and forgiveness. R3255:2

Will I teach

- Those who would be thus used of the Lord, in this age or the next, must be fully consecrated to God —clean, pure in heart. R1397:5, R3600:5

18

Psalms 51:18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Of thy righteousness

19

Psalms 51:19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

Open thou my lips

- None can tell the glad tidings of great joy unless first the Lord shall have opened his lips with his mercy and truth. R3255:2

1

Psalms 52:1 {To the chief Musician, Maschil, A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.} Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

Desirest not sacrifice

- Typical sacrifices. R3255:4

In burnt offering

- Only the Day of Atonement sacrifices were sin offerings. The burnt offerings and peace offerings of the remainder of the year represented consecration to the Lord. R3255:4

Psalms 52:2 Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp rasor, working deceitfully.

Sacrifices of God

- The thing which is most difficult for us to sacrifice is self. R3845:3

A broken spirit

- Nothing we can give the Lord, even after our acceptance in Christ, has any value in his sight until we first give him ourselves—our hearts and our wills. R3255:4

A contrite heart

- Of humble mind. R5596:3 Those who have broken and contrite hearts may know that they have not committed the "sin unto death," for it is impossible to renew such "again unto repentance." (Heb. 6:6) R3255:5 It is the crushed olive that yields the oil, the pressed grape that gives forth the wine; and it was the smitten rock that gave water in the wilderness. So it is the broken, contrite heart that is most rich in holiness and most fragrant in grace. R1775:5

Wilt not despise

- All who are mourning and sorrowful, drawing nigh to God through Christ, will be comforted. Q782:T

3

Psalms 52:3 Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

Quick into hell

- Sheol, oblivion, death, not torment. R2599:3; E364 The gradual change of language has attached a totally different meaning than the word "hell" originally had—the grave. PD29/41

22

Psalms 55:22 Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

Cast thy burden

Psalms 56

12

Psalms 56:12 Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee.

R5436:1, R5441:1,3 The more a reality to us, the more we lay down our lives in his service. R5441:1,4,5 Not merely favor as respects future prospects and hopes, but it extends down to the present life. R2852:2, R5441:4 But God does not love the wilful sinner. R5440:3

Is better than life

- In view of God's provisions for the future, we count what remains of the present life as a trifling thing and are glad to lay down our human lives in doing the things that are pleasing to God. CR481; R5436:1, R2852:1 "I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord." (Phil. 3:8) R2851:6 None but those who walk and talk with God can say this. R5441:3, R2850:3 Jesus, in appreciation of God's lovingkindness, laid down his life. It is the same with those who walk in his footsteps. CR481, CR489 More esteemed by us than all of earthly life and its good things. R2853:4 David would rather die than live without divine favor. The same is true, prophetically, of The Christ. R5436:4, R5476:4 Not only as a witness to the world. The witnessing also has a good effect on us. R5436:4, R5476:1

(Heb. 12:7, 8) R5239:2 The 6000 years of sin and death have been one continuous storm with occasional brief lulls. R5239:5 This trouble and the glory to follow are the theme of all the holy prophets. made of when his priesthood began, nor was any provision made for a successor. In these respects he typified Messiah. (Heb. 7:1-4) PD25/36

After the order

- Or, manner. R714:1, R4877:2 Our Lord is the Head of this priesthood, and the gospel Church are his members, his under priesthood. R5424:1

He is waiting at the Father's right hand for his foes to be subjected to him; for the Church to be completed. CR361 The New Creature (the priest) is not of the Aaronic order. It does not trace its lineage to any human source. This was strikingly typified in the priesthood of Melchizedek. R713:3, R5226:6, R4877:2, R3951:6 Our Lord is now the great Prophet, Priest and King after the order of Melchizedek. OV402; CR112 Not one jot or tittle of the Law failed. The priesthood did not cease, but was merely transferred from the order of Aaron to the order of Melchizedek. OV105 As we have no right to intrude into the typical Holy or Most Holy, so they of the house of Aaron have no right to come into the antitypical Holy, which we enter. Q692:7 Under this priesthood, men will gradually rise up out of sin and death during a period similar in time to the 930 years in which Adam experienced the dying process. SM503

10

Psalms 111:10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments : his praise endureth for ever.

R4462:5 The filial fear of failure to fully manifest love and thankfulness. R1122:5 The fear to do aught that would be displeasing to him or that would separate from his love and favor. R2986:6 When he speaks, therefore, our ears should be attentive to his voice and every power alert to do his bidding. R2002:3 One of the peculiarities of our day is lack of reverence. R2053:3 Looking away from our narrow thoughts, plans and schemes and allowing our minds to dwell upon the grandeur of God's benevolent, loving and glorious character. R1518:3 Under proper limitations, fear is a healthy condition. R4996:3 Scripture text cards in every room are a constant reminder that the Lord's will is the only standard recognized. F554 Perfect love casts out slavish, but not reverential, fear. R2986:6 Reverence; not the fear of eternal torment. OV261; R5952:5 A proper reverence acts as a restraint upon sin. OV180 Our coming to the Lord was inspired by reverence for him. R4462:5 It is a dangerous practice to speak jestingly of the Lord and the Scriptures. R5952:5

Beginning of wisdom

- Only when it leads to greater carefulness of living and to a desire for the Heavenly Father's approval. OV180 We must have reverence to begin with, and all the time. CR40 An appreciation of the infinite power of the Creator and our own littleness should make us teachable. PD1/7

R4740:5, R5209:6, R5340:2, R5694:2; SM87 Torment is unjust and unmerciful, but taking away life from those who do not conform to New covenant regulations is reasonable, just and merciful. R3083:5 God can both create a human soul and destroy one. OV34 He who gives us our existence has the power to deprive us of it. R363:1 This is a righteous, just, penalty for those who refuse God's favor and his righteous, reasonable, loving terms. Q219:T Neither sin nor sinners can go beyond the Millennial age. R765:4 There is no reason why those who will not make progress should be allowed to live on indefinitely. R5167:5 He will not feed them and continue their lives everlastingly. R1176:1 But the delay in execution until the little season will delude some into thinking that it will not be enforced, as Eve was deluded in Eden. R1234:5 Not in the present life where they, more often than the righteous, flourish and prosper. R1383:5 Whoever will not have God's gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord cannot have life at all. R2398:6 God will ultimately have a clean universe, free from the blight of sin and sinners. R2607:3 It is right to destroy beasts, and it is right for God to destroy those who will ultimately be like brute beasts in that they would be injurious to others. Q225:T Contrary to the teachings of Mormonism. HG731:4 But none will die the Second Death because of Adam's transgression. SM589 "Fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body." (Matt. 10:28) CR498 There will be no forced obedience. The only force wilful sinners will receive, after having full opportunity to know God's will, is the force of destruction. R891:4

Psalms 149:5 Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds.

Joyful in glory

- The time may come when part of the saints will be in glory beyond the veil, and when those on this side will enter very fully into the joys and work of their Lord. R5451:1 It need not be on the other side, but on this side, of the veil. Q387:1 Though we shall rule the world, it will be when we are in glory. R233:5,* R35:6, R152:6

Upon their beds

- In the state of perfect rest. R82:3* ; Q99:1 Representing creeds, or the sum total of one's religious belief. R5804:2 Representing mental attitude and heart condition. R5804:4 This seems to imply that there is a special work to be done while the saints still have "beds" on this side of the veil. R5631:6, R5451:1; Q88:2 Signifying a rest of faith, applicable to this side of the veil, beyond is not a rest of faith, but an absolute entering into rest. R5451:2 We shall, of course, be at ease on the other side, but this evidently means an ease of faith on this side of the veil. Q387:1

Psalms 149:6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a twoedged sword in their hand;

Psalms 149:7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;

Execute vengeance

- This would seem to imply that there would be something for the saints on this side of the veil to do in connection with the execution of the judgments upon the nations. R5632:1 Implying that these saints will be in authority. This Psalm describes the time when they are to do a judging work in respect to the world in general, as well as in respect to Israel, God's people. R5451:2

To execute

- Should any commission be given to the Lord's people to execute judgment this side of the veil, it would be so explicit as to leave no room for doubt. R5451:4 Possibly some of the Lord's people on this side of the veil might jointly engage in some work of judgment with others on the other side. Q99:1

The judgment written

- All this belongs to this side of the veil. These are the saints who are to execute the judgments written. Q387:1 The river Jordan means a judgment, and the smiting of this Jordan may mean to put the truth in such a way as to do the judging. The Elijah will handle this sword. Q387:2

Proverbs

General

- The book of Proverbs was probably the latest production of Solomon, when not only the promised wisdom from above but also an experience gained under very peculiar and varied circumstances found expression in numerous concise and pithy sayings for the guidance and instruction of all who would live godly. R1517:5 The book of Proverbs is a poem, the first nine chapters of which are a discourse on wisdom, which is personified. The major part of the book consists of the proverbs of Solomon, some of which chapters 25-29—were collected and added later by King Hezekiah. Chapters 30 and 31, however, do not claim Solomon for their author. R1518:2
- However well or illy Solomon followed his own teachings, it is conceded by all that those teachings were sound wisdom—as true today as when uttered. While Solomon's writings may not be ranked exactly with the inspired prophecies of the Scriptures, the fact that we are told that the Lord heard his prayer for wisdom, and granted the request, together with the fact that his writings were accepted as a part of the sacred canon in our Lord's day, and not objected to by New Testament writers, but on the contrary quoted from, is sufficient guarantee to us that the wisdom of these Proverbs is of a kind that cometh from above. R2388:1, R2053:2

Proverbs 1:1 The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

Proverbs of Solomon

- Based on the promised wisdom from above and on experiences gained under peculiar and varied circumstances. R1517:5 Although he spoke 3000 Proverbs (1 Kings 4:32), they were not all deemed of the Lord worthy of preservation as a portion of the sacred Scriptures. R2053:4 Those who reverence the Lord he recognizes as sons. To such the counsels of these Proverbs are addressed, while warnings are given to others. R1518:5 Solomon was granted a supernatural wisdom that he might prefigure Jesus, the "greater than Solomon." (Matt. 12:42) R2053:2

Proverbs 1:2 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

F554 Other fears are discountenanced among the Lord's people; the fear of the Lord should be their only one. CR9

Proverbs 2:4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

If thou seekest her

- Webster says that "in Scripture theology, wisdom is true religion," religion signifying "any system of faith and worship." R179:1* Those who are so anxious for truth as to be willing to sacrifice other things to get it are the ones for whom God prepared it. R367:1 Some would rather be always unsettled than go to the necessary labor of "proving" by diligent study of the Scriptures what is good and what is erroneous. Such indifference will expose them to error. R651:6 Some, even amongst the Lord's friends, rebuke others for their earnestness in seeking truth, instead of encouraging it. R2730:4

As silver

- Why is the Bible not more plain? Why is gold hid deep in the earth? It is a question of character. Desire, will, energy, determination and faithfulness will be rewarded. R24:4* When found, silver has to be separated from materials, useful in themselves, but detracting from the value of the silver. So the child of God needs to "rightly divide the word of truth." (2 Tim. 2:15) R179:5* What was necessary for our fathers to know of truth is not enough for us to know, any more than the supply of silver at the discovery of America was sufficient for the world at the present time. R179:4*

As for hid treasures

- Why hidden? That it may not be found until needed. R179:2* God has provided truth only for those who hunger and thirst after it. Many are too indifferent or too engrossed with money-getting and pleasure-seeking to dig for the truth. R179:5* If you would find it you must be ever on the lookout. If you would see its beauty you must brush aside the weeds of error and the brambles of bigotry. If you would possess it you must stoop to get it. R9:1

About thy neck

- As jewels and ornaments of character, manifest to all. R2060:3, R5309:2 It does not say to bind justice about our neck. Because there is none righteous, our course in respect to justice cannot be the same as that of our Heavenly Father. R5309:1

Write them

- Re-write them. R5309:5 The work of re—writing the divine character in the heart is already begun in the Church, and will progress in the world during the Millennium. R5309:5, R2060:3

- Before becoming entangled in multiplied cares, and thus hampered by the outcome of our own misguided course. R1554:2 Exemplified by Joseph's distinctly telling the king that the interpretations of the dreams came not from himself, but from God. R5216:6 We are not only to note divine providences, but also to give credit for them. R2894:1 Especially appropriate in the study of the divine Word and any attempt to give an interpretation thereof. R3978:6 It is in vain that any would attempt to serve the Lord and yet neglect to make request for his blessing and guidance. R4911:3, R3806 :1 Cultivate such a sense of his presence that you learn to speak to him, as well as of him, most freely and without embarrassment. R590:2*

- More and more clearly lit by the lamp, God's Word. R2389:6, R5569:1; PD41/52; Q554:4 It is our responsibility to step out from all the creeds and not support hypocrisy and error. R5851:6, R1312:2, R780:2 We are still in the dark place and shall be until the darkness gives way and the day is here. We have need of the Word of prophecy "until the day dawn." (2 Pet. 1:19) R5339:2 With the coming of many inventions, we also find fresh light shining upon the Bible. CR250 The difficulty with many is that they sit down and do not follow on in the path of light. A25 The Bible was not written for one man, nor for one age; but for all men and all ages, adapted to the circumstances as "meat in due season." (Matt. 24:45) R24:5* If our presentations (specifically, on the covenants) are read in their proper connections, they will be found to be harmoniously progressive. R4334:5 The Reformation movement and the close of the 2300 days (Dan. 8:14) found us free from certain falsities; but this did not mean that all the precious truths were properly located. R4334:6 Followers of the reformers have accepted creeds formulated in that period and consider it unorthodox to make any further progress. D60, D61

SM555; R1646:6 The dawning light of a new age shows us God's character of love and illuminates the Bible, making its teachings more reasonable. PD41/52 Since we have not yet reached the perfect day we cannot know how much more brightly our lamp may shine in the future. R2389:6; A21

Proverbs 4:19 The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

(1 Pet. 2:8) R2390:1 The present social order of Christendom is to stumble and be wrecked in the time of anarchy. R2390:1 They stumble at the light, the very thing that should be a blessing to them. R4361:2*

Keep thy heart

- Mind, affections. R2249:4, R4904:5, R5746:6 Our will, our intention, our desire, our effort. R5747:3, R4827:2, R5246:2, R5247:1; CR109; R1703:3 As the natural heart is the center of life, it is used as a symbol of the center of our affections, including the will. R4345:2, R4639:5, R5747:1 The Christian's new heart is to be kept loyal to God, to the principles of righteousness, to his covenant. R5747:4 Though but few take the step of entire consecration to God's will, fewer live it out practically, keeping their hearts constantly submissive to the Lord's will. R1563:4 By communion with God in prayer, and through the Word of truth, our hearts are kept in the love and service of God. R1502:2 Also means activities in love and helpfulness, and the cultivation of thoughts in accord with the divine. R4345:3 The difficulty with many is that they look for some great battle, instead of averting the great battles by keeping their minds cleansed from secret faults. R4904:6 If the Divine Plan of the Ages does not satisfy our heart's longings there is something wrong with our hearts. CR54 See comments on Proverbs 23:7.

With all diligence

- You cannot be too diligent about it. CRI09 If we do not keep our hearts, some ambitious desire will creep in. CR56; R4462:2 We are not competent to keep our heads, but we are competent and responsible for keeping our hearts. R4345:2 If our hearts are loyal, God is able to keep our poor heads. R4535:6 Margin, "Above all keeping, keep thy heart." R4249:1* If we are to be victors, it must be by constant vigilance, which the Lord will bless. CR56 We must not only acknowledge sin and strive against it, but also root out of our hearts every longing for everything not thoroughly approved by the Lord. R4904:4 Injustice sometimes becomes entrenched in human minds so that an attempt to establish righteousness is considered treason and rebellion. R4777:5 The "Vow" has assisted many in exercising diligence in keeping their hearts in the love of God. R4299:2

Out of it

- If your heart is your garden, what you plant is what you will grow there, if you keep the weeds away. CR56 If the heart is right, the actions will regulate themselves accordingly. R1502:2 If the principles of truth and righteousness be fixed in the heart, then out of the good treasures of the heart the mouth will speak words of truth, soberness, wisdom and grace. R1937:2

Issues of life

- Results of life. R5747:5 The testings are along the line of fitness for life eternal or death eternal. R4462:2, R4345:3, R4639:4, R4904:2, R5747:5, R4293:6; CR109, CR55 If Mother Eve had kept her heart she would have had the right to the tree of life; but failing, she came under the sentence of death. CR55 It is highly important that all our conduct in life be under the direction of a pure heart. R5747:2, R5246:3 If the heart is kept strictly under control in harmony with the Lord and his Word, all opposition of the world, flesh and devil shall not be able to overcome us. R2280:5 Pure thoughts have an invigorating influence upon the physical system, while unholy thoughts tend toward the germination of the seeds of disease already in the human race. R2014:6

R4270:1 A child, reasonably well-born and raised under the influences of a Christian home, would very generally, at the age of 12, be ready to make a consecration of himself to the Lord. R3711:5, R4270:4 Every home should have its Sunday School class and every Sunday its quiet, sacred hour of fellowship, communion and praise—for parents and children. From everlasting

- As one of the divine attributes, wisdom existed even before our Lord Jesus; though it is not strange that some infer that wisdom here personifies Christ. R1518:2

Ever the earth was

- Was formed. E93 This passage, to verse 25, may be viewed as a prophecy of what our Lord understood of his previous condition. R5065:3

24

Proverbs 8:24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

Were no depths

- No seas. E93

Brought up with him

- For centuries before coming to earth the Son had seen the Father's mighty works, marked his wondrous wisdom and experienced his tender love, having the plan revealed to him step by step. R3160:3 While he joyfully worked out the great plan of creation, Jesus probably knew nothing of

8

Proverbs 9:8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

Lest he hate thee

- "Cast not your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under feet and turn again and rend you." (Matt. 7:6) R2589:2

10

Proverbs 9:10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

Fear of the LORD

- A proper respect for the Lord and his divine appointments. R4290:3 First, an appreciation of his greatness and our own insignificance; then, respect and love for his graciousness. This kind of fear casts out dread. R4796:3 We must look away from our own narrow thoughts and plans, and allow our mind to dwell on the grandeur of God's character. Thus the divine likeness is traced on our hearts as we study the divine revelation. R1518:3 Reverence of Jehovah. D639; R4796:3, R4841:1 "If any man (Christian) lack wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth liberally." (Jas. 1:5) R5714:6 This must continue in us. and increase as the years go by. R4486:3; CR40 It is a dangerous practice to speak jestingly of the Lord and the Scriptures. R4486:3

Beginning of wisdom

- Thus, King Solomon began his reign with a reverent heart, as evidenced by his offering sacrifices at Gibeon. (1 Kings 3:3,4) R4290:6 We, too, have turned aside from service for a time to offer sacrifices to the Lord—our justified self, our will, our time, our influence, our talents. R4292:1 Manifesting itself in the peaceable fruits of righteousness. R1518:3 This fear of the Lord increases as the child of God comes to know his Maker, but it is a gradual process. R4841:2 The educational reforms and instructions of the future will begin with the hearts of men, starting with this lesson so lacking in present-day education, which leads to pride, arrogance and discontent. D639

(Col. 2:3) R2762:5 Jesus tenders to us, first, earthly rights and blessings, on the condition that we agree to sacrifice them, thus being accounted worthy to share with him in heavenly glory. R4463:6 In the Gospel age God does not promise earthly blessings, nor immunity from sickness, pain and persecution. R2761:1 Greater happiness accompanies a devoted life, though spent in poverty, than does any other course, surrounded by every luxury. R4091:3 Few who possess earthly riches in advance of hearing of the truth, are likely to attain the high calling. R2761:2

It maketh rich

- Not with the counterfeit riches of Laodicea—material prosperity and numbers of wealthy people. R2763:1 Regardless of the amount of the world's goods which one possesses. R5171:1 "He was rich, yet for our sakes became poor that we through his poverty might be made rich." (2 Cor. 8:9) R2761:4 We may have even now a foretaste of the riches of his grace and the treasures of wisdom and knowledge; also the riches of the holy Spirit. R2762:4 In noble sentiments, faith, love, good works, and God's blessing and providential care. R2762:6, R5171:4 Spiritual privileges and hopes in the present life, and spiritual glory and immortality in the life to come. R5170:3, R5171:1, R2762:6,

R4463:1; CR57 The blessing of the Lord has not made rich the world, but will do so in God's due time. R4463:1, R5171:4; CR57

Addeth no sorrow

- Though those who live godly will suffer persecution (2 Tim. 3:12), these are not of the Lord, though permitted by him. R4463:2 Sorrows are not of the Lord's providing or adding, but come as a result of sin and imperfection. R4463:2; CR57 Earthly riches of money and fame are subject to change and decay, and the heart which is too centered in these may be plunged into an abyss of sorrow and disappointment. R5862:1, R1820:2

21

Proverbs 11:21 Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

Hand join in hand

- The tendency to unity is an artificial one and efforts in that direction are made for policy's sake. R1548:4 If the world's multitudes say, Come, join our fraternity and band together with us to fight for our rights, the upright will say No! R1875:5 Saying, "in union there is strength." R1548:4

Not be unpunished

- But the wrath of God is always just and tempered with mercy. R2613:2

24

Proverbs 11:24 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

That scattereth

- By hospitality and liberality. R2856:6 Christlikeness implies not only a desire to be helpful to the groaning creation, but the effort to assist them, even at the cost of earthly comforts. R2857:1 There will always be opportunities to spend this world's goods for spiritual food for the famishing ones fleeing out of Babylon. R1593:5 Though bringing forth fruit only in good hearts, we are yet preaching the good tidings to all willing to hear. R1023:6 One-day and general conventions are not a waste of money that could have been used otherwise. R3877:6, R3856:2

And yet increaseth

- As we give out to others our own store of blessing is increased. R5720:5 Sometimes in natural things; always in spiritual. F344

R2485:6, R2486:5 In the case of the house of sons, not merely one tenth, but everything is consecrated, and all is to be used as opportunity indicates. F345

More than is meet

- The degree of our prosperity should be the measure of our charity. R5927:4, R2857:1 If one has kept anything back he did not make a full consecration, and may be sure he has not been fully accepted by the Lord. F345 Those who have not the love that leads them to respond with gratitude have not the condition of heart which the Lord loves. - Sometimes to financial; always to spiritual. F344 Poverty of soul as well as poverty of purse. R3877:5 It is not always those who fight most strenuously for their rights who fare the best, even in this world. R3738:4 Cases of absolute privation may mean that one, when possessed of means, failed to use a portion in charity, in the Lord's service. R5927:3

25

Proverbs 11:25 The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

Liberal soul

- Generous—not merely in earthly matters, but especially in their hearts, minds and thoughts—benevolent and kindly. R3939:3 Like Christ, desirous of sharing temporal or spiritual favors with others, particularly with the "household of faith." R2212:5 The congregations of Macedonia did not stop with money, but gave themselves in service to God's cause, thus receiving great spiritual blessings. R1594:1 In practicing liberality we are developing Godlikeness. R2857:1, R5927:2

Spending for the spiritual welfare of themselves and others. R3856:2

Made fat

- Spiritually. R1594:4 We learn from the "widow's mite" that the Lord measures not the amount but the spirit prompting the gift, granting spiritual "fatness" accordingly. R5927:3 "He that soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully." (2Cor. 9:6) R2212:1

He that watereth

- In telling the message of his grace we shall grow spiritually ourselves. R4244:2, R5720:3, R5978:4 Those most active in serving the truth to others are amongst the most blessed. R4244:2 To the extent we exercise a spirit of benevolence in giving, like our Heavenly Father, we are likely to have a special blessing. R5409:4, R3377:6 Great blessing results from liberality in the Lord's cause. R5927:2

In the earth

Lying lips

- Hypocrisy is deceit in action and to deceive another is lying in one of its most unworthy forms. R4318:6

That deal truly

- The principle of truth is honesty—in our words, conduct and thoughts. R4318:5 If we must charge Jacob in securing the birthright with lying lips we can at least credit him with honesty of heart. - Neglects to use it when necessary to enforce the rules of love. F524 The homes of the New Creatures should be ruled by love, not the rod. When used, the rod should be wielded by the hand of love, never by the hand of anger. F524 The rod of discipline may be in the form of the denial of a kiss, or the withholding of supper or some other comfort or luxury. F525 "Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." (Psa. 23:4) Q54:4

There is a way

- "The broad way that leadeth to destruction." (Matt. 7:13, 14) CR496 The way of selfishness, the way of the world. SM162, SM156 Human judgment would be unreliable even if supported by absolute knowledge. R3241:1 The way of selfishness, which has prevailed for 6,000 years; the natural way, approved by the standards of the world for centuries. SM162 Trusting to an outward form of godliness, being religious as a mark of respectability, attending the house of God because it is fashionable. R5849:5* The gospel of Satan, tacitly acknowledging the great doctrines of Christianity, but with erroneous interpretation and application. R5849:1* The Jews, although they thought they had found way to life in the Law, found it to be a way to death. CR500

CR500 The ways of the world are those which they think right. CR496, CR500 The world has been trying, and trying hard, to see what they can do in the way of bringing in a good government. 34

Proverbs 14:34 Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.

Exalteth a nation

- Even though the kingdoms of this world are not the kingdom of the Lord, this principle prevails. R3399:5 Mankind will learn this when the Prince of Life has put in force the laws of righteousness and equity with an iron rule. A303; R726:1 History confirms that even now in proportion as a nation conforms to principles of righteousness and justice, it is exalted. R3399:5 We may well be astonished to see to what extent the influence of the righteous exercises a preservative influence upon the nations. R3399:5 Nevertheless, it is still true that prosperity is injurious in proportion as it separates the people from the divine arrangements. R4729:6

But sin is a reproach

- Every evil course seems to be the misdirection of a good quality, as the war spirit of combativeness and destructiveness. R2641:3 Sin is constitutional derangement requiring continual effort to not slide backward. Thus, some heathen, not helped by the Lord, reached the lower depths of degradation. R3598:6 God will eventually bring home to each member of our race valuable lessons along this line. R5233:5

In every place

- The nearest suggestion of God's omnipresence contained in the Scriptures. R5209:3 Every man has a present responsibility according to the measure of light enjoyed, whether it be light of nature or of revelation. A145 So we should let our children feel that our eye and God's is ever upon them, just as we feel that God's eye is upon us. R1097:5*

Beholding

- Supervising all things. R1778:6

Evil and the good

(Eccl. 12:14) R722:2, R1653:3, R2612:6; A145 God's knowledge of all conditions is not out of harmony with the fact that he permits things which he disapproves. R5209:6 Since the Lord's beholding of evil and good is unquestioned; since his ability to interfere is undoubtedly true; and that he has not yet interfered is manifest; then it is proper to say that God is permitting sin. R1778:6, R1270:3

8

Proverbs 15:8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

11

Proverbs 15:11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?

Proud in heart

- Pride is an inordinate and excessive amount of self-esteem and self-conceit. R5704:1, R5001:1 Those who feel haughty toward others and are not sympathetic; who despise others. R5000:6 Pride is very deceitful and frequently cloaks itself with humility. R5000:2 No kind of pride would be more detestable in God's sight than pride of the truth. It is not our Plan. R5001:1 Worldly pride challenges faith in God and obedience to him. R4898:5 Certain conduct which sometimes seems to be pride is not pride; as those, lacking self-esteem, who have much approbativeness. R5000:3 Sometimes manifest by elders in attempts to override the liberties of the congregation and hold power in their own hands. R5001:4 Applies also to the angels. R5000:6

An abomination

- Not a creature in the universe has anything to be proud of, has nothing of his own creation, has only been a recipient of favor, blessing. R4898:2, R5704:1

11

Proverbs 16:11 A just weight and balance are the LORD'S: all the weights of the bag are his work.

R5723:4 Alas for the power of pride; the proud cannot see their difficulties. R5068:3 Humility is important because the other graces of the holy Spirit cannot be cultivated without it. R4787:1 If you find a humble one with ability, encourage him in its exercise; but if he be not humble-minded, encourage him not, even though he have the ability, for the higher you push him the greater will be his fall. R1629:3 Illustrated by King Uzziah. He forgot that he was merely the Lord's representative and that his first duty was to obey the divine commands. (2 Chron. 26:8-21) R4786:2

Before destruction

- Contrary to the Universalist theory. R3083:2 The greater the blessing, the more serious would be the loss by destruction. R3385:6

An haughty spirit

- Society's real danger is not from anarchists, but from friends of law and order who, in putting down enemies of the law, will tend toward haughty austerity. R991:3 Ruach, mind, will, disposition. E318 A domineering, self-satisfied disposition tends to undermine the character. R3385:6

Before a fall

- "Thou wilt save the humble people, but wilt bring down high looks." (Psa. 18:27) R3337:2 We have a standing never previously granted to any, and the higher the standing the more serious the fall. R3385:6, R1629:3 The time of trouble toward which Christendom is hastening. R2459:6

R3629:5, 3, R1860:1, R4904:6, R5056:3, R5488:4 We must be taught to rule ourselves, that we may know how to rule others. R12:6* The little and more numerous battles, keeping the mind cleansed from the secret faults, are principally the ones in which we gain the victories. R4904:6 The greatest power in the universe is the power of the will. OV195 God wants all Christians to practice self-denial in respect to sins and everything which would hinder his cause in any degree. F552 Our dealings with ourselves are our chief concern, our chief battle. R3985:6 He that continues to rule his own spirit has not only routed the enemy, sin; but continues to keep him at bay. R3629:3 To rule one's own spirit cannot be done singlehandedly. The wise general will invoke a stronger power, the almighty arm of God. R3629:5 Illustrated by John the Baptist, all of whose aspirations and human ambitions were made subservient to his one mission of introducing Jesus. Proverbs 18:24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

A friend

- True friendship is a rare flower on our sin-cursed earth. R1907:3 "One there is above all others, well deserves the name of friend"—our Lord Jesus. R3233:1

Closer than a brother

- There are two planes of friendship: a natural plane on which men of two like natural qualities would be drawn together; and a spiritual plane drawing still more closely those alike in spiritual hopes. R3233:4 True and lasting friendship can exist only between unselfish souls whose wills are fully submitted to the will of God. R1908:4

Proverbs 19:2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

Proverbs 20:1 Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

Wine is a mocker

- Wine personifies alcohol. R3270:2 Intemperance is one of the most dreadful curses afflicting humanity. R2873:1 The cost of intemperance is not merely of the liquor, but of the crimes and diseases attendant. R3859:6 There is also an intoxication of pleasure, of fashion, of pride and fond desire, which seeks to stupify the new mind. R2873:5 The intemperate use of spiritous liquors is an apt illustration of the course and effect of sin in general. R1631:2 A clear knowledge of the divine plan should lead us more diligently to bring every power and talent of mind and body into full subjection to the divine will. R2873:5 The "royal priests" are in more danger from symbolic wine than from natural. R4031:5 If others are drunk with wine, let us be filled with a different kind of wine —the holy Spirit. R5038:6 We desire to express our full sympathy with the temperance cause. R3859:6 While the wise man does not say that a moderate use of alcohol brings woe and sorrow, most who tarry long at wine reached that condition through habit after beginning with the intention of being only moderate drinkers. R3271:2

Drink is raging

- A warning against a foe so subtle and destructive to peace and righteousness. R1444:4 The amount spent in the United States for liquor is nearly four times that spent to conduct the government. (1894) R1631:5 Statistics of 1899 show that 72% of all criminals were made so by strong drink. R3055:1 The devil is for the saloon, God is against it; vice is for it, virtue is against it; the brothel is for it, the home is against it; the anarchist is for it, the statesman is against it; poverty is for it, plenty is against it; misery is for it, happiness is against it; disease is for it, health is against it; death is for it, life is against it. R4007:3*

Not wise

- Though the advocacy of total abstinence is radical and unscriptural, whoever trifles with this mocker is in danger of being deceived by it. R2533:2 Who permit themselves to be deceived by sin in any of its forms, for the pleasures of sin are brief and unsatisfying. R1631:5 Circumstances and climate here, as well as the purity of the liquors, differ much from those of Jesus and the apostles. R509:5

Proverbs 20:9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

Made my heart clean

- "In my flesh dwelleth no good thing" (Rom. 7:18)—no perfection, and all imperfection is un-right, and all unrighteousness is sin. R2721:3

I am pure

- "If we say (speaking of our flesh and ignoring the justification provided in Christ to cover its blemishes) that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us." (1 John 1:8) R2721:3

25

Proverbs 20:25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make inquiry.

It is a snare

- Leeser translates this verse: "It is a snare to a man to sanctify things hastily and to make inquiry only after having made vows." R2081:1

To make inquiry

- In the sense of reconsidering the cost and, in view of the cost, whether or not we shall keep it. R2081:1 But it is a blessing to make thorough inquiry, and register afresh, our consecration vow. R4265:6 If, after vowing, inquiry finds it greater and more comprehensive than first supposed, let one not break it, but, as in Psa. 50:14, "I will pay my vows unto the Most High." R4265:6 "When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it. Better it is that thou shouldest not vow than that thou shouldest vow and not pay." (Eccl. 5:4, 5) R4265:6, R2154:5

Proverbs 21:3 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

To do justice

- To do that which is right, just, equitable R5430:3 The foundation of all Christian character. Only those who have this foundation well laid can make proper progress. R5430:6 Justice comes first; mercy and benevolence afterwards. R5431:5 Building thereupon all the various qualities of love. R5431:6

And judgment

- The essence and substance of the Golden Rule—love for our neighbor as for ourselves. R5430:3 The Law demanded full allegiance to God. R5430:2 To render righteous decisions in the mind; to decide justly. R5430:3 The decisions of our minds, as well as our actions, should be in harmony with the principles of righteousness. R5430:3 We are not to judge motives of others; we may judge outward actions as wrong, but not the heart. R5430:3 We are not to judge another without indubitable proof. R5430:3

Is more acceptable

- Even though we sacrifice some of our time for the Lord's work, we shall not be pleasing to God if we do not keep his requirements of justice towards others. R5631:4

Than sacrifice

- Some in Israel seemed to feel that they could be unjust, and then offer a sacrifice and make it all right. R5430:2 Some grasp the thought that there is a privilege of sacrifice in the present time, but fail to note that the Lord has given some commands that must first be considered. R5431:4 One must exhibit the true spirit of obedience, the earnest endeavor to be in harmony with the law of God; before consecration to sacrifice is in order. R5431:4

15

Proverbs 21:15 It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

But destruction

- Contrary to the Universalist theory. R3083:3

16

Proverbs 21:16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

- After he has been once enlightened. Q593:2; R3725:4*

Congregation of the dead

- Some few of the consecrated, who leave the "way of understanding," who draw back and wilfully reject the Lord, will remain in death—the Second Death. Q593:2

18

Proverbs 21:18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

A ransom

- Kopher, a covering, a protection. The laws made for the people in general are a covering for the Lord's saints. R5972:1

23

Proverbs 21:23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.

Keepeth his mouth

- Victory will not be for us except as our hearts are allowed to dominate our tongues. R4381:6 The heart and the mouth are under special scrutiny. The former represents the individual character and the latter, an index of the character. R1937:1

And his tongue

- While each should be on guard against communications that would be injurious, he should also be on guard against allowing sparks to ignite in his own heart. R4381:4

Soul from troubles

- In the Church the power of the tongue may set on fire the course of the new nature, a fire which may burn into the Second Death, and may spread to others with similar effect. R4381:4

Proverbs 22:3 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

Prudent man

- Two classes may expect divine protection in the coming trouble: (1) children of the consecrated under the age of discretion; and (2) some consecrating themselves to God during the trouble. R2020:6 We are not to expect miraculous help except where necessary. We are to watch and pray, look ahead and use our best judgment, trusting in and looking for the Lord's providential guidance. R2021:2

Foreseeth the evil

- The great time of trouble. R5571:3, R2021:2, R2019:3* Profit by the experience of others, either through instruction or observation. R2073:3 The time of trouble is of two kinds: (1) troubles and siftings upon the Church which none of God's sons will escape; and (2) the wrecking of present institutions which true children of God "may be accounted worthy to escape." (Luke 21:36) R2020:5 Character preparation is the best heritage a parent can leave a child: (1) the Golden Rule of justice; (2) mercy, the spirit of helpfulness; (3) meekness, gentleness, etc.; (4) economy in everything. R5571:3 We recommend that none be urged (in order to escape the great time of trouble) unduly to make a full consecration to the Lord, lest such profession be mere hypocrisy. R5571:6

And hideth himself

- By surrounding himself and his family with the best conditions for development in the Christian graces, for rendering service to the Lord, his people and his truth. R2021:4 Instead of seeking a place of safety, seek the condition of safety described in Zeph. 2:3 under divine providence. R2021:1 In time of trouble keep a good stock of fuel on hand and a little reserve of staple food. R5854:5 Do not be afraid of having too much commodities. Think of them as provision for any in need who may come to you. Do not sound a trumpet about such provisions. At most, suggest that your friends do likewise. R5572:4

Punished

- Severe experiences, punishment for lack of observing the natural laws of cause and effect. R2073:3

6

Proverbs 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

Train up a child

- Chiefly by the establishment of right principles in the heart. F528 In the reverence and admonition of the Lord. OV217 Discipline and obedience should be insisted upon with firmness and kindness from the day of birth. R3711:5 "The that seek me early shall find me." (Prov. 8:17) R3711:5 It will have more influence than most people seem to realize. Q544:2 The mind of the mother, during the period of gestation, is stamping and impressing, favorably or unfavorably, the character of her child. R5700:6, R2902:2; F520 Rule yourself before attempting to rule your child. R1098:2*, R1097:1* Good men and loyal to the Lord may be poor fathers, careless of their responsibilities to their children. Alas that it is so to this day. R3598:2 The care and instruction of children is a paramount obligation resting upon every parent. R4522:3, R5700:5 The science of child-raising in a nutshell: (1) When you consent, consent fully; (2) When you refuse, refuse fully (3) Often comment; (4) Never scold; (5; Beware of making an issue with your child, but when the issue is forced, carry it out. R1098:2* Since ours is a difficult day in which to raise children it should lead one more earnestly to seek wisdom from on high properly to discharge his duty toward his child. R3711:6 We urge the daily use of the Heavenly Manna, beginning every day with praise and prayer; and the children should be Scripturally instructed every Sunday. R4522:4 See comments under Prov. 8:7.

In the way

- It is a mistake to suppose that children cannot appreciate religious principles. R2903:2

He should go

- Conscientious, just, loyal to God and the principles of righteousness. R5700:5

When he is old

- Consider children a little garden spot. Plant the seeds of the fruits of the spirit and reap a rich reward in the graces of character—especially if the children have been consecrated from infancy or before birth. R2903:2

He will not depart

- The impression of the principles of righteousness cannot be wholly effaced even though the child might temporarily try forbidden paths. R3598:2 The principal reason so many do depart is that they are not properly trained in the way they should go. Q54:4

Proverbs 22:8 He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: and the rod of his anger shall fail.

R5124:4, R5247:1 The mind has something to do with our physical condition. One-half of the people in the world are sick because they think they are so. The mistake of Christian Science is that they carry this principle too far. R5247:6 We should seek to cultivate helpful thoughts and thus exercise a helpful influence upon ourselves or others. R5248:1 A man's thoughts shape themselves according to the structure of his brain. OV137; R4774:4 See comments on Prov. 4:23.

So is he

- A man is not always what on the surface he seems to be. His real character is deep down—the purpose of his life. R5246:5 If he thinks justly, he will speak and act justly; if his thoughts are selfish and ignoble, his words will be deceitful and his conduct dishonest. R2890:3, R4821:2 Heart-thinking, guided by certain principles, has to do with the real man God is considering—not the old creature, but the new. These constitute transformation of character. R5246:6 The body and mind are both strengthened by thinking about things noble, good and pure. SM338 The instructions of the Word, received into good and honest hearts, lead to obedience and the development of the fruits of the spirit. R5908:5 This same principle is applicable to the whole world, though not on a scale so far-reaching. R5247:4

In the way

- Describing a youth starting upon life's journey where two roads meet—one upward, an honorable course of morality; one downward, gratification of depraved tastes. R2073:6 This way of morality and temperance is not the same as the "narrow way" of self-denial in which the Christian is to walk. R2074:5

20

Proverbs 23:20 Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

Not among winebibbers

R4337:2, R4338:4, R4156:3,6 It would be perfectly right for us to express our sentiment on the liquor question at the polls. R4156:2

21

R4601:1 Total abstinence may be much more necessary today than it was centuries ago because the race is gradually becoming weakened. R4156:5

Ecclesiastes

General

- The book of Ecclesiastes seems to have been written in later life, when the heart had grown sick with excess of sensuous pleasures and the lack of real happiness which comes from a close and perfect walk with God, when Solomon turned from all his riches and honors with the sad refrain, "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity." From his own experience he proves the truth of his theme, and counsels to others a different course from that which he himself had pursued. R1517:5
- The heavenly wisdom of the books of Ecclesiastes, Proverbs and Solomon's Song we accept as of divine direction, as were the words of the prophets, who frequently wrote things they did not comprehend. R2053:4
- Summary of the chapters of the book. R1532

Ecclesiastes 1:1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

Words of the Preacher

- Written in later life, when Solomon's heart had grown sick with excess of sensuous pleasures. R1517:5, R1532:2

2

Ecclesiastes 1:2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.

Vanity of vanities

- Proving his theme from his own experience, Solomon counsels to others a different course. R1517:5

3

Ecclesiastes 1:3 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

What profit

- An important question, especially for the young; but all would do well to carefully consider it. R1532:2

Ecclesiastes 1:4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth for ever.

But the earth

- The physical earth. A69 "God created it to be inhabited." (Isa. 45:18) R1116:6*; SM313

Abideth for ever

- Therefore not to be destroyed by the great tribulations, earthquakes, etc., predicted in the Scriptures. HG398:3, HG417:5 Despite the conclusions of science that the solar system is gradually running down and that eventually the earth will become cold and lifeless. Q771:1 The elements that are for man's supplies will never be exhausted; but will be re-utilized in new forms in a circle that will last into eternity. Q772:2 Therefore "the time of the end" (Dan. 12:4) refers to the end of the age or dispensation, and not to the end of the world. Dxv; OV26; Q848:4; HG314:3 In spite of all the creeds of Christendom to the contrary. R2971:2 Ages may end and be succeeded by other ages, but the same physical earth remains. PD18/26; R1615:4 We anticipate that some change will take place in the near future, making the earth more fit than at present for the Millennial kingdom. R3154:6 There is no reason why it should be destroyed; it is not to be burned up with literal fire. SM318, SM791;

R5364:4, R3074:6

Ecclesiastes 1:7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again.

They return again

- So shall it be with the Word of the Lord, it shall not return unto him void, without fruit. R3598:4

13

Ecclesiastes 1:13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith.

Sore travail

- The present experience under the dominion of sin. R1533:5 Thus testifies one of the most successful men, from the world's standpoint, that ever lived. R1532:3

Exercised therewith

- So that when the Millennial kingdom comes they may be ready for the duty of submission to God. R1533:5

Ecclesiastes 3

8

Ecclesiastes 3:8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Hate

Sons of men

- None of Adam's children are called "Sons of God" until Jesus gave himself a ransom. R1005:2

Beasts

- Those who, by wilful sin, forfeit and lose the likeness of God are to be treated as "natural brute beasts made to be destroyed." (2 Pet. 2:12) R1005:2 The distinction is not in the kind of breath of life, but in that man has a higher organism than other animals. R1880:4

19

Ecclesiastes 3:19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

For that which

- Death. E315

Even one thing

- Even the same thing. E315 The destruction of the tissues goes on, so everything that had life in the body perishes—a process common to both man and beast. R5166:1

So dieth the other

- Your senses can discern no difference between them. R4792:5 Death is not sleep; it is destruction. R5166:1 Such as die the Second Death are not sons; they will be treated as brute beasts, destroyed. R1006:6 But though there is no hope for the future life for the brute, God's Word stands pledged for a future life for humanity. HG646:2

Have all one breath

- Life is not a created element at all, but a principle or force transmuted into different organisms. R822:1* One kind of ruach, spirit of life; an invisible power or influence. E174, E389; R1880:4 All life is the same whether in fish, fowl, beast, man or angel. R822:2* But with different bodies and organic quality. E327

No preeminence

- Mankind is not possessed of any power of life beyond that of a beast, except by God's provision; nevertheless, our Creator has made provision for everlasting life for man. R4792:5

20

Ecclesiastes 3:20 All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

Unto one place

- But for God's mercy the infidel view would be true—no beyond, no future for man after death. SM29

21

Ecclesiastes 3:21 Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

Who knoweth

- Who can prove the popular theory? E315 The wise man challenges any proof, any knowledge to such effect. R1880:4

Spirit of man that

- That the ruach, spirit of life, of man. E315

Goeth upward

- Controverting the heathen theory that man had some inherent quality which would prevent his death, even when he seemed to die. R1880:4; HG331:2

Spirit of the beast that

- That the ruach, spirit of life, of the beast. E315

Goeth downward

- The distinction between man and beast is not in the kind of breath or life, but in man's likeness to God and the provision for his resurrection. R1880:5 Such as die the Second Death will be treated as "brute beasts," destroyed. (2 Pet. 2:12) R1006:6

Ecclesiastes 4:9 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

Two

- Two, as elders together, would be able to accomplish manifold more. R5142:6*

Ecclesiastes 5:1 Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

Keep thy foot

- Take heed to your standing, your walk, your conduct. R3990:1 Not literal feet, but being circumspect in one's daily life. R5186:3 Do not go to the house of God as to the market place, or to some place of amusement. R5186:3 Decorum, reverence, is necessary in every place where God is worshipped. R5187:1

House of God

- Whether we meet in a parlor, church, or opera house, the fact that God's people are there makes that building a holy place. R5187:1

Ready to hear

- Listen; not full of mirth. All conversation should be of a kind that would edify, build up, along spiritual lines. R5187:1 We do not know any lesson the Lord's people need to learn more than that of reverence. R5187:2

Sacrifice of fools

- Laughter, levity, foolish talk, jesting. R5186:6

Consider not

- Many parents become so accustomed to the ways of their children that they do not realize that others are being annoyed. R5187:4 To come into the meeting late is out of harmony with the principles of both justice and love. R5187:4 He who is indifferent to the rights of others manifests that he is lacking in the spirit of love. R5187:4

Ecclesiastes 5:2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

For God

Is in heaven

- Upon the throne. R1938:1

Thou upon earth

- Under trial before the bar of God. R1938:1

4

Ecclesiastes 5:4 When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

Vowest a vow

- Makest a covenant or promise. R2081:1* Our "consecration" or "baptismal" vow, if a proper one, was all comprehensive—involving the sacrifice of all that we possessed or ever would acquire. R4238:1

Defer not to pay it

- The Lord expects faithfulness in each one who has taken his covenant upon him. R5855:5 One who consecrates cannot, by subsequently changing his mind, be released from the obligations thus incurred. R2080:6*

Pay that...vowed

- Its observance tends to strengthen the entire life. R5613:6 "It is a snare for a man to devour that which is holy, and after vows to make inquiry." (Prov. 20:25) R4265:5

Ecclesiastes 5:5 Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.

Better is it

- Our Lord emphasized the same lesson. (Luke 14:28-33) R4238:2

And not pay

- Its violation serves to weaken the conscience. R5613:6 It is not enough that we have consecrated. It will avail nothing if we prove unfaithful to it, except to rise up in judgment against us. R2154:5 If death is not voluntary the Lord will destroy our flesh. If we resist this it will mean the hopeless death of our being. R5855:5

8

Ecclesiastes 5:8 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

Marvel not

- Take comfort that God's judgments will some day be manifest and prevail. R1532:5

That is higher

- God is above all the judges of the earth. R1532:5

11

Ecclesiastes 5:11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

What good is there

Ecclesiastes 6

9

Ecclesiastes 6:9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

Vexation of spirit

- Ruach, mind. E318

12

Ecclesiastes 6:12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

His vain life

- How vain and unsatisfactory is every earthly good when there is no hope beyond the present life. R1532:5

Ecclesiastes 7

Ecclesiastes 7:1 A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

A good name

- On the contrary, the truly consecrated prefer to suffer for righteousness' sake rather than win a good name among men by compromising. R1532:6 A wise worldly policy. Such as seek merely present ease should be careful to maintain a good name. R1532:6

Ecclesiastes 7:2 It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

House of mourning

- Be sympathetic with those in sorrow. R1532:6

8

Ecclesiastes 7:8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

In spirit

- Ruach, mind, disposition. E318

9

Ecclesiastes 7:9 Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

Hasty In thy spirit

- Not to be hasty tempered. R1532:6

14

Ecclesiastes 7:14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

Day of adversity

- Rendered "evil" in "I create evil." (Isa. 45:7) A125

16

Ecclesiastes 7:16 Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise: why shouldest thou destroy thyself?

Righteous over much

- Since righteousness is not rewarded in the present time, keep your finger on the popular pulse and follow popular ideas. This is not the proper course for the children of God. R1532:6

Over wise

- Solomon counseled an easy course of moderation. Paul advises all who are running for the prize (not open to Solomon) to be "fervent in spirit." (Rom. 12:11) R1533:4 The ease and pleasure seeker will find this to his present advantage. R1532:6

Destroy thyself

- The truly consecrated prefer to suffer for righteousness' sake than to win a good name among men by a compromising policy. R1532:6

25

Ecclesiastes 7:25 I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things , and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

Reason

- Same word as translated "account" in verse 27 and "device" in Eccl. 9:10. R4093:5* Closely related to, and the result of, understanding. (Ex. 30:23; Isa. 11:2) R4093:5,2* 29

Ecclesiastes 7:29 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

Made man upright

- The earthly likeness of his Creator. "In the image of God created he him." (Gen. 1:27) R1510:4, R2394:5; A171; R1794:1, R1266:1, R1091:5, R465:1

But they have

- God is not guilty. R1091:4

Many inventions

- Sinful, contrary devices. R866:1, R1718:3 And defiled and degraded himself. R1718:3, R2394:6, R3256:5; E406 Each different creed shows a slightly different image of God, but they are all horrible. SM443

Ecclesiastes 8

8

Ecclesiastes 8:8 There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

The spirit

- Ruach, spirit of life, spark of life. E317

17

Ecclesiastes 8:17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it ; yea further; though a wise man think to know it , yet shall he not be able to find it .

Not be able to find

- A knowledge of God's plan was not then due. R1532:6

Ecclesiastes 9

Ecclesiastes 9:1 For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

No man knoweth

- He could not tell certainly from the book of nature whether God loved or hated them. R1532:6

5

Ecclesiastes 9:5 For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

For the living

- Even the least intelligent. E347

But the dead

- When man dies his personality, the result of his heredity and pre-natal influences combined with his experiences, perishes; for it cannot exist without a body. R5166:2 Death is an actual extinction of being but not the annihilation of matter, which is indestructible. R1377:6

Know not any thing

- Thus neither Dorcas, nor Lazarus, nor the widow of Nain, nor Jairus' daughter had any wonderful experiences or mysterious visions to relate. R1450:5 Thus Jesus could do no preaching while dead, nor the antediluvians any listening. R1679:1, R4176:6; HG727:5 Whoever knows this is fortified against all the deceptions of the evil spirits. SM197 All, good and bad, go down to the tomb, to sheol, hades, called in our Bibles, hell. They are experiencing neither joy nor sorrow, pleasure nor suffering awaiting the resurrection. OV362; R4551:5, R5131:3,6; SM115, SM197, CR21 The resurrection of the dead is an absolute necessity to any future life or hope or blessing. R5579:2, R5673:6,3; SM99 Contrary to the teachings of Spiritism. R2170:2, R3741:3, R3387:2, R4521:2, R5378:2 The various manifestations of Spiritism come not from dead men. R4521:2 Only the Bible teaches that the dead are dead—all other religions teach that death is a deception. R4410:3 During the Jewish age God guarded his typical people against delusions and lying spirits of devils. R1642:6

Is Forgotten

- Is very generally forgotten. E347

6

Ecclesiastes 9:6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

- "In that very day his thoughts perish." (Psa. 146:4) R5166:2 A condition of peaceful unconsciousness. R2172:3

Any more a portion

- An interest. E347

Forever

- Olam, for a long, indefinite period. E347

10

Ecclesiastes 9:10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

With thy might

- We should be actively engaged in doing some good according to our talents and opportunities because we are all hastening to sheol, to the tomb. SM28 Solomon shows in this verse that the absence of natural wisdom, knowledge, understanding, counsel and might, brings physical death; the same is true applied spiritually. See comments on Ex. 30:23, 24. R4093:5* Act quickly therefore; the time is short. R5127:5

There is no work

- Good or bad, praising or cursing. E368 "The dead praise not the Lord, neither any that go down into silence." (Psa. 115:17) R2599:2 The condition of the dead is one of total unconsciousness. R4794:1, 4, R4792:1, R4551:5, R5303:1 The world in general, including infants, will be raised just as they went down, excepting infirmity and disease. R631:5 Therefore the dead will not be required to aid or co-operate in their awakening from the graves, for the can neither assent to nor oppose their awakening. R1509:5 Opportunities now afforded should be exercised to the fullest, for to each one will come a night time when these will pass, as one passes into death. R4149:3 In the literal grave.

This does not apply to those merely reckoned dead, but alive as New Creatures in Christ. Q760:1

Nor device

- Planning good, or thinking ill. E368 These four—wisdom, knowledge, device (understanding) and works (results of workmanship) relate to the same four elements in Exo. 31:3 and Isa. 11:2, and to the four ingredients of the holy anointing oil. R4093:5,2*

Nor knowledge

- Holy knowledge or unholy knowledge. E368 "His sons come to honor and he knoweth it not." (Job 14:21) A210 The suggestion that the moment of death is the moment of greater life is of the Adversary. OV215 As mankind goes into death, so shall they come out of it; for in it they shall have learned nothing. R721:6, R5167:2

In the grave

- Sheol, oblivion, death, not torment. E348, E368, R4551:6, R4162:5, R2599:2; SM115, SM525 Since God will "have all men to come to the knowledge of the truth" (I Tim. 2:4); and since mankind have died in ignorance, God has prepared for the awakening of the dead. A106 Since the state of death is an entire suspension of being, man's probation or trial must occur, not in death, but before death or after it has ended—in the resurrection. R902:3*, R2612:2

Whither thou

- The soul, the sentient being. E348

Goest

- Whether wicked or righteous before death. E368; OV362 God has prepared for the awakening of the dead in order to knowledge, faith and salvation. OV177, OV226, A106

11

Ecclesiastes 9:11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

Not to the...strong

- The Lord may grant his blessing with the feebly spoken word if the life be in harmony with the message given out. R4968:5

Ecclesiastes 10

Ecclesiastes 10:1 Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

Ecclesiastes 11:3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

Empty themselves

- Inanimate things act under nature's law—there is nothing to indicate that this text refers to mankind at all. R2048:5

Tree falleth

- When an individual dies. Q767:T If any lesson or comparison to man were intended, it would be that so man falls helpless in death. R2048:5

There it shall be

- As a tree is powerless to change its position, the world will be raised with the same kind of intelligence with which it went down into death. R2048:5, R4985:6, R4668:4; Q767:T, A105 There is no change in the grave, either for good or for evil. Q588:T "There is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave." (Eccl. 9:10) A106 As one awakening from a sleep finds himself in practically the same condition in which he lay down, plus a slight invigoration, and is able to identify himself and speedily recall the events and circumstances which preceded his sleep. F714 There would he be forever were it not for the divine arrangement for his awakening. HG647:1 The earliest opportunity after death to gain knowledge and form character will be when "all that are in the graves shall come forth." (John 5:28, 29) R2050:5 No change of character takes place in the grave. R2050:5, R1965:4, R545:1 If one were raised perfect he would not know himself—his identity would be gone. R4985:6 They will come forth from the tomb in practically the condition in which they entered it—mentally, morally and physically. R5167:1, R4985:6

Ecclesiastes 11:6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

Sow thy seed

- God's message is so grand that whoever receives it in a good and honest heart must desire to live it and tell it to others. R4001:2

Withhold not

- "Sow beside all waters." (Isa. 32:20) If the sowing has been to gather the Lord's Little Flock from every nation, so we must expect the harvest work to be similarly broad. R4000:2 Continue to serve, even when apparently the most favorable opportunities are withheld. R3197:4

Thou knowest not

- By tracting, etc., the truth reaches more people than we might realize. R5915:4*

Ecclesiastes 12

Ecclesiastes 12:1 Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

Remember

- And reverence the Creator, learning also of one's own imperfections and how they were incurred. R3608:4 Pursue a different course in life than I (Solomon) have done. R1533:1, R1517:5

Days of thy youth

- These have the blessed advantage of a long acquaintance with God and of the instruction of his Word. R1671:6 It is a great mistake to presume that young men must first run in the race of pride and ambition with the world, and then be converted to God. R1672:4 Some young people are among the most faithful of those who have consecrated their lives to the Lord. R1672:4 We have many notable examples in the Scriptures of early consecration to the Lord. R1671:3 Before one shall have learned so much of evil that the remainder of life would not suffice to eradicate it. R4838:5 Some parents make a mistake in assuming that their children must have an experience in "sowing wild oats" before they will be prepared to appreciate righteousness. R4837:6

Evil days

- The bitter harvest that always comes from sowing "wild oats." R1671:6, R3608:4, R1554:2, R4837:6 Of physical decline and infirmity. R1533:2

Come not

- Evil days of disappointment and despair never will come to those who in youth commit their ways unto the Lord. R1671:6

No pleasure

- Unless the mind has found its satisfaction in God there is indeed no pleasure in old age. R1533:2

2

Ecclesiastes 12:2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

Be not darkened

- By dimness of vision, mental and physical. R1533:2

Nor the clouds

- Of trouble, of one kind or another. R1533:2

And those

Ecclesiastes 12:4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low;

Doors shall be shut

- Because old age has little in common with the rising generation and, therefore, less communication. R1533:2

Grinding is low

- When the work of life is done. R1533:2

Voice of the bird

- Rise up early, being unable to sleep well. R1533:2

Be brought low

- The failing powers cease to catch the strains of earthly enchantments, but the ear of faith catches the sweeter strains of heaven's melodies. R1533:2

Ecclesiastes 12:5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets:

A burden

- The great burden, labor and sorrow of extreme old age. R1533:2

His long home

- The grave, there to await the morning of resurrection. R1533:5

6

Ecclesiastes 12:6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

The silver cord

- Of life. R1533:5

The golden bowl

Then shall the dust

- Of which the dying body was composed. R1533:5 Human bodies have crumbled to dust for centuries. R5108:1

As it was

- Mere inanimate dust. R1533:5

And the spirit

- Ruach, spirit of life, privilege of living, right to life, power or permission of living. E315; CR397; Q206:4, R803:3, R837:4; R5108:2 Since the fall, all mankind have lived without a right to life. R5108:2

Shall return

- God has a right to countermand the right to live. CR397

Unto God

- Revert to him, not as a person or as a thing, but as a right or privilege; just as any forfeited privilege reverts to its giver. E315, E317, Q668:T, HG510:5 In the sense that it is no longer amenable to human control, as in procreation, and can never be recovered except by divine power. E344; R1533:5, R5108:2, R1880:5; Q207:T

Who gave it

- Thus reducing man's condition to exactly what it was before he was created. E316

8

Ecclesiastes 12:8 Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity.

All is vanity

- The poor world's dying refrain, after a wasted life. R1533:5

13

Ecclesiastes 12:13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

The conclusion

- By the experiences of a wasted life, Solomon finally proved the vanity of every course save that of God's appointment and direction. R1533:1

Keep his commandments

- That they may eventually prove this conclusion is God's object in letting them have the present experience under the dominion of sin. R1533:5 By his experience of a wasted life, Solomon concluded this to be the proper course. The world will have reached a similar conclusion after their experience with sin. R1533:1

Whole duty of man

- Will be enforced in the coming Millennial age of the world's probation. R1533:5

14

Ecclesiastes 12:14 For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

Into judgment

- The course which Solomon chose and followed surely did not entitle him to a place among the Ancient Worthies. R1533:1 A time of reckoning is coming. R722:2, R2612:6 This is the significance of the present overturning civil and religious. R1538:4, R4902:4 During Messiah's thousand-year reign of righteousness the world will be brought to its judgment. R4902:4, R1653:3

Every secret thing

- We seem to be approaching a time of manifestation. R1954:3 Some shall thus awake to shame and age-lasting contempt. (Dan. 12:2) R2613:4, R722:6 Quite probably the restored man of the Millennial period will have considerable power of mind-reading and intuitive discernment over the imperfect, as our Lord could read the thoughts of the Pharisees. R1954:3

Whether it be good

- The honorable, even though not Christians or saints, will have a better standing in the future time of trial. R4902:5

Whether it be evil

- The dishonorable will need more stripes to rise up out of sin. R4902:5 "The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good." (Prov. 15:3) A145

R303:2* Only a few will be able to say this. This union with the Beloved (Christ) implies that the step of justification through repentance and faith in the precious blood has first taken place. R4783:5 A positive compact or contract with Christ is implied. R4783:5 There is no possibility for any to get into this elect class without knowing it. R4783:5

vehement flame.

As a seal

- Or signet, the emblem of power and authority; symbol of that which was most highly esteemed. R360:4*

Jealousy

- Jealousy of another is always an evil quality, a most vicious kind of cruelty, unreasoning and insatiable. Signifies either apprehension of being displaced in the affections of another or of being outdone by a rival. It is closely allied to hatred, malice, envy, strife. R4789:1 To the extent that its presence has defiled the heart a cleansing should be invoked. R4789:2 When the Lord announces himself as a "jealous God" it is not to be considered selfishness, rather he wants all of our affections, confidence and entire trust, for our own good. R4789:2 Jealousy in the Lord's cause is different from jealousy in our own interest. R4789:5 We must be sure that it is not jealousy of another, but jealousy for another. R4789:5

Cruel as the grave

- Sheol, oblivion, which engulfs all mankind. E368; R828:5, R2600:2, R4789:1 The Bible plainly states that death is an enemy. SM116 It is not only a cruel monster of itself, but its poisonous fangs are almost certain to inflict pain and trouble upon others. R4789:2

Isaiah

General

- Isaiah was one of the grandest of the Lord's prophets. Not only is his message couched in kindly, sympathetic terms, but it is most comprehensive, including, with the rebukes and exhortations appropriate to his own day and nation, sublime glimpses of the glorious future which the Lord in his own due time will bring to pass for the blessing not only of Israel, but of all the families of the earth. The prophecy of Isaiah and what he saw and foresaw, was prepared during a period of about forty years. R3451:3
- There were three distinct climaxes to the complete fulfillment of Isaiah's message: (1) It was about 170 years from the time of his vision and the last year of King Uzziah, before Judah was carried captive to Babylon, from which only a remnant returned 70 years later. (2) The vision and the message were about 800 years before the final rejection of Israel by Messiah at his first advent, when only a remnant was accepted into the Gospel age. (3) Isaiah's vision and message were about 2,650 years before the rejection or nominal spiritual Israel, preparatory to gathering out of the "Israelites indeed," which shall rule and bless all the families of the earth. In harmony with the above suggestions, it will be found that Isaiah's prophecies repeatedly mingle and commingle the events of his day with the events of our day. R2372:3
- Isaiah typified the sanctified, who have throughout this age said, "Lord, here am I, send me." The message of this Isaiah class has been unpopular, to this day. R4787:6
- Some claim that not more than the first 28 chapters of Isaiah are really the writings of that prophet; that the remainder of the book bearing his name has distinctive peculiarities indicating that they were written by two or three other parties. We reply to this "Higher Criticism" that it is altogether too high-that it takes the standpoint of unbelief and therefore not the standpoint proper for the child of God. The truly higher criticism would reason that as the olden-time prophets generally used scribes, to whom they dictated, so probably had Isaiah; and that as Isaiah's prophecy covered a number of years, he probably had several scribes, and while each scribe may have had his own peculiarities, the same God who was able and willing to give a revelation of his will through his prophet, Isaiah, was willing and able to overrule the scribes provided, so that the revelation should reach his people as he designed to give it. R1418:2

Isaiah 1:1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Vision of Isaiah

- Probably dictated to several scribes, over a number of years. R1418:2 Some fulfilled within 250 years of his vision, some apply to our day. R2372:5 Including rebukes and exhortations of his own day, and sublime glimpses of the glorious future. R3451.3 Isaiah, like Ezekiel and John the Revelator, seems to represent the living saints, who see "visions of God." R530:4*

Son of Amoz

- Isaiah was related to the royal family. R2379:2

Hezekiah

- It is supposed that Isaiah was his tutor. R2379:2

Kings of Judah

Hear, O heavens

- Powers of spiritual control. A318

Give ear, O earth

- Society. A318

Brought up

- Lifted high in greatness. R3451:6 From an obscure beginning the Lord brought Israel forward to the most prominent place in world history. R3451:6

Children

- In natural Israel, likewise in nominal spiritual Israel. R3452:1

Rebelled

- Israel's course was wrong, ungrateful and sinful; but no worse than the other nations. R3451:6 It is not surprising that the Lord will not permit such to return to his table. R1900:4

Isaiah 1:3 The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

The ox knoweth

- We ought to be able to know our God and recognize his supervision in our affairs in this Harvest time, and see the dawning Millennium. R4044:1 The brute recognizes an obligation to the one who cares for him. R3452:2

His master's crib

- The ox and ass know enough to return again and again to the place where they have been fed, thus owing more discretion than those who forsake the Lord's table to prove the dishes offered on unclean tables. R1900:2, R4044:2

Doth not know

- Their Creator and Redeemer—in the sense of being fully acquainted with his character. R3312:6 The masses of Christendom are too busy with their own plans and schemes. R3452:2 Some know not the Lord as their owner, but still "belong to" various sects, parties and denominations. R4044:1 Illustrated by an elder instructing (or cautioning) his Ecclesia to avoid use of the six volumes of Scripture Studies and other Present Truth literature. R4044:4 Whoever manifests such a spirit should be firmly, kindly dealt with, to the intent that the flock might be preserved from such a pernicious spirit, and that the leader himself might be recovered from the snare of the Adversary. R4044:5

Doth not consider

- Reflect, think, study, ponder. R3312:3 Many whom the Lord has favored, both in natural and spiritual Israel, do not exhibit the wisdom of even the brute beast. R4044:1 Israel heeded not the light, nor the warning, as here foretold. R2036:2 Readily forget where they got their previous food. R3786:4 Increased activity in the professed Christian church has taken more of a business than a pious turn, emphasizing more the forms of godliness than cultivating vital power, more to worldly than spiritual prosperity. R2146:1* The Bible is a religion of faith, but faith based on reasonable evidences. R3312:3

Isaiah 1:5 Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

Stricken any more?

- What would be the use of any more stripes or chastisements? What hope would there be of effecting a reformation? R3452:2

Is sick

- As a result of all tables being filled with vomit, rejected doctrines. R3963:1

6

Isaiah 1:6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

Foot even unto the head

- Probably referred to the people as a whole and to their land, desolated from the north and south. R3452:2

Is no soundness

8

Isaiah 1:8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

Daughter of Zion

- The nation of Israel, typical of nominal spiritual Zion. R1648:3; D23

As a cottage

- A temporary structure; unsafe, unsatisfactory-picturing the condition of the Jewish nation, and foretelling the deplorable condition of Christendom. R3452:3; D558

9

Isaiah 1:9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

Had left unto us

- During Israel's double of disfavor. OV75

Small remnant

- The majority stumbling because of pride and hardness of heart. B215 The rest of Israel will have missed the honor, offered to them first, of constituting the spiritual Bride of Christ. OV96 Similarly, also at the second advent of Christ, only a remnant will be found of Israelites indeed, while the majority will be rejected. R3452:5

Have been as Sodom

- Implied hopelessness as respected the kingdom opportunities of Jewish and Gospel ages, but not as respects the future. R3452:5

13

Isaiah 1:13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

Vain ablations

- In the churches there is a great deal of formalism-fine church edifices, grand organs, trained choirs, gymnasia, "smokers," culinary departments, etc. R5696:4

14

Isaiah 1:14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them .

Appointed feasts

- The Lord will not recognize and accept such service. R5696:4

15

Isaiah 1:15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

I will not hear

- "God heareth not sinners." (John 9:31) R2024:1

16

Isaiah 1:16 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil;

Wash you

- Does not mean a washing away of literal sin which they could not effect, which was only figuratively done on the Day of Atonement, and will only be actually accomplished by the Lord Jesus' work. R3452:6

Make you clean

- An exhortation to reform, like the words of John the Baptist and Jesus in the Jewish Harvest. R3452:6 Spiritual Israel has real cleansing in the better sacrifice of Christ. R3453:1

Cease to do evil

- We shall not be able to effect this transformation in ourselves except so far as we have a right will and a pure heart, an honest endeavor for righteousness. R4840:4 Although our wills are in opposition to sin of every kind, having imperfect bodies, we cannot hope to be absolutely free from sin. R3453:1

17

Isaiah 1:17 Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

Learn to do well

- The Lord desires that we realize our wrong condition and turn therefrom to the best of our ability. R4840:4 Perfection must be our aim, and in our hearts it must be continually the criterion-but we cannot live up fully to this grand standard. R3453:1

Seek judgment

- Always be on the side of right and justice, desiring to do justice to all with whom you have dealings. R3453:2

Relieve the oppressed

- Be of generous spirit, willing and anxious to lift some of the burdens from the groaning creation to the extent of your ability. R3453:2

Judge the fatherless

18

Isaiah 1:18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

Let us reason

- Reason is the noblest faculty of the human mind, the prominent mark of the divine likeness in humanity, making man capable of communion with God. R1565:3 Man is invited to use his reasoning faculties in the study of God's Word. A20 God thus recognizes his image, even in fallen man. A174 Verses 18 to 20 apply especially to natural Israel, though an application is also possible to spiritual Israel. R3453:5 Inviting the faithful to consider, to search, to prove. R3312:3 Appealing neither to prejudices nor to passions. A58 Indicating that God's Word is reasonable. Q747:4 So that our faith in his plan might be a reasonable faith and that we might be able to give to our fellowmen a reason for the hope that is in us. (1 Pet. 3:15) R1565:3 A faith without reason honors not God, nor is it worthy of an intelligent being. Faith without reason is merely groveling superstition. R883:3* The two extremes of underrating and overrating human reason are both fraught with evil consequences. R1566:6 The Lord is pleased to have those who are in harmony with him know the equity, the justice, of all his dealings. R3947:1 We can reason together with God when we take the voice of his Son and reject the voices of the "Dark Ages." R3795:3 As originally created, man was in his Creator's mental likeness: Justice, Mercy, Love in man were the same in kind as in God; so much so that they could and did, ever since the fall, reason together on these subjects. R525:3 Nominal

Christians, avoiding thought on religious subjects, have not their "senses exercised by reason of use" and are, at best, only babes in Christ. (Heb. 5:13, 14) R2890:5 Heathen religions, and to some extent nominal Christendom, seek to restrain the intellect and appeal chiefly to the passions, prejudices and fears. R2890:5 I will make it clear and plain to you, God says. R689:6

Together

- We are not to reason without him and his Word. SM24; CR334 The Lord never reasons with any except those who have faith in him and trust in his promises. R3947:1

Sins be as scarlet

- The Lord used crimson and scarlet as indicative of the most flagrant sins. CR414 A fact recognized by some Jews on the great Day of Atonement. C255*

As white as snow

- The merit of the great Atonement sacrifices covers all blemishes and makes absolutely clean. R3453:6 If a scarlet, or crimson, object is viewed through a red glass in the light it appears white; so when we come where God will view our sins through the blood of Christ they are accounted as white. R13:4 Evidencing the full and complete forgiveness of all who are truly repentant and who desire to draw nigh to God through Christ. Q832:4 The word "white" is from the same root as the word "frankincense." R84:5*

20

Isaiah 1:20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it .

Ye shall be devoured

- If spiritual Israelites refuse to walk in harmony with the Lord's direction and rebel against him, they will bring upon themselves the Second Death. R3454:1

25

Isaiah 1:25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

Purge away thy dross

- A refining process, applicable to spiritual as well as fleshly Israel. R1944:3

26

Isaiah 1:26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellers as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

Restore thy judges

- The Ancient Worthies, in full authority as prophets or teachers, under the supervision of Immanuel's heavenly Kingdom. R4201:4, R4320:5; A294; CR141; OV321, OV88

As at the first

- Implies that this was, in many respects, a favorable time for the Israelites. R3102:5, R5645:6 The rule of the judges was superior to that of the kings. R4201:4 Eventually the whole world will be under heavenly rule, with incorruptible earthly judges enforcing the divine law. R3216:5, R5646:5 The Millennial blessings will begin with Israel. OV88

And thy counsellors

- The lawgivers, as at the first, will be the greater than Moses-The Christ, Head and Body. R4201:4

City of righteousness

- The Christ complete constitutes the New Jerusalem. R238:2*

28

Isaiah 1:28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

Of the sinners

- The wilful sinners. R3083:3

Isaiah 2:1 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

Judah and Jerusalem

- Natural Israel. By the time this prophecy will have begun to be fulfilled, spiritual Israel will be beyond the veil. SM736 Isaiah's prophecies repeatedly mingle and commingle the events of his day with the events of our day; intruding the Messianic Millennial Kingdom into the prophecies which specially relate to natural Israel. R2372:5

Isaiah 2:2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD'S house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

R172:1 Not only true of the spiritual Kingdom, but including also an earthly Kingdom of "Israelites indeed" headed by the resurrected Ancient Worthies. R2371:6

Understand not

- The message of this Isaiah class would be unpopular, resented, not favorably received. R2372:1, R4787:6 "That seeing they may see and not perceive; and hearing they may hear and not understand." (Mark 4:12) R1742:1 For delivering this message, tradition says Isaiah was sawn asunder. R2371:6
